

of the day, that we would be able to complete the business that will be before us before 1 o'clock tomorrow, perhaps earlier, again, depending upon how many votes we have and what action is taken on the floor. I wanted all the Members to know that.

Mr. BLUNT. If the gentleman would yield.

Mr. HOYER. I yield to the Republican Whip.

Mr. BLUNT. If I heard the gentleman correctly; you said that there would be no more votes tonight. But there will be one more vote tonight.

Mr. HOYER. Exactly.

Mr. BLUNT. We will finish up this bill.

Mr. HOYER. There are two votes apparently left.

Mr. BLUNT. Two more votes tonight. And then we go to debate the Military Construction-Veterans Affairs bill and all the amendments, with no votes anticipated tonight.

Mr. HOYER. That is correct.

Mr. FRANK. Would the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOYER. I yield to my friend from Massachusetts.

Mr. FRANK. I have a minor correction to the leader. There will be no more votes on the floor, but there will be five more votes in the Committee of Financial Services so we can get it done. So please come back.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman, not only for his announcement, but for the hard work of he and his committee.

□ 1944

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. KILPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, due to personal business in the 13th Congressional District of Michigan, I was unable to attend several rollcall votes. Had I been present, on rollcall number 555 I would have voted "no"; on rollcall number 556 I would have voted "aye" and on rollcall number 557 I would have voted "aye."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I wish to let the RECORD reflect my intent when I voted on rollcall vote No. 552. On that vote I meant to vote "yes" and I voted "no." The reason why was because I was out in the hallway speaking with an intern doing an exit interview and we were in the midst of 2-minute votes at that point.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the Senate bill (S. 3370) to resolve pending claims against Libya by United States nationals, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.
