

their country. These youth are the children of our national heroes and their perseverance, patriotism and achievements make them heroes in their own right.

Despite all the obstacles they face, military children continue to succeed. I commend Senator BAYH for his leadership in offering this important resolution and urge the Senate to support it.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF IDAHO

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I rise today to mark the 100th anniversary of the Children's Home Society of Idaho.

For the past century this organization has served Idaho's abandoned, abused and neglected children, first as an orphanage, and now as a counseling and foster care support system. Through the efforts of this remarkable organization, tens of thousands of lives have been touched and changed for the better.

Over the past 4 years, I have become acquainted with the society's newest program, "The Bridge." This program is a partnership with the Junior League of Boise, Inc., and the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare. It was created to address the crisis Idaho and the rest of the nation are facing with an abundance of children entering foster care, and a lack of homes providing the care those children so desperately need and deserve.

"The Bridge" is now helping Idaho to meet its obligation to these children by bringing the State into compliance with federal mandates and by leading the way for significant foster care reform.

As an adoptive father who is familiar with the trials and challenges of the foster care system, I commend the Children's Home Society of Idaho for its contribution to America's children and families and am honored today to mark this important milestone.

TRIBUTE TO AMY STOUT

• Mr. ROCKEFELLER. Mr. President, today I honor a courageous and dedicated young West Virginian: Ms. Amy Stout.

Before Amy even graduated high school, she joined the National Guard to help finance her college education. Shortly after Amy started her freshman year at Wesleyan, pursuing a degree in psychology, the events of September 11 took place. Within hours of that terrible event, Amy found herself guarding the wreckage of United Flight 93, near Shanksville, PA.

Amy remained activated with the National Guard for a year, serving Stateside in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania while working to complete her first semester of school.

Then, in the fall of 2002, Amy was once again activated, but this time she was sent to Camp Anaconda, north of Baghdad.

At a time when her fellow Wesleyan students were enjoying college life, Amy was serving her country as a gunner, providing security for 300-mile convoys. After her 12-month deployment, Amy returned to Wesleyan, determined to help people in as direct a way as possible. She changed her major to nursing.

Amy continued to pursue her nursing degree until, once again, the military called and Amy was sent back to Iraq, this time for 18 months. Amy's tour of duty ended on September 10, 2007, and she was back at Wesleyan the very next day, September 11, exactly 6 years after she was first activated by the National Guard.

In May 2008, Amy Stout will graduate with her nursing degree. She is a testament to the incredible bravery of our soldiers who sacrifice so much to protect this country. Her determination is an inspiration to her fellow students and her fellow West Virginians. She has served this nation with great honor and dignity and soon she will be a tremendous asset to the nursing profession.

It is with great pride that I congratulate her on her upcoming graduation and thank her for her service to this Nation. •
