IN HONOR OF THE POLISH AMERICAN CONGRESS AND POLISH CONSTITUTION DAY

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of the Polish American Congress, Ohio Division, as they join together on May 3 to celebrate Polish Constitution Day—a day when the Americans of Polish heritage reflect on the struggles for freedom and celebrate the victories, customs and history of their beloved Polish homeland and share their cultural gifts with the entire Greater Cleveland Community.

The first written European constitution, the Governmental Statute of Poland, was instated on May 3, 1791. Poland's Constitution was the result of nearly five centuries of struggle and perseverance by the people of Poland to diminish the power of the King and to create facets and institutions of government vital to the foundation of a constitutional government. An important document in the world history of democracy, the Polish Constitution established the separation and balance of powers, freedom of religion, and social justice by abolishing key elements of serfdom.

Formed in 1949, the Polish American Congress is a national umbrella organization representing over ten million Americans of Polish descent and origin, and serves as a unifying force for both Polish Americans and Polish citizens living in America. The Polish American community in Cleveland is deeply rooted in their commitment to the values of family, faith, democracy, hard work and fulfillment of the American dream.

Since its founding, the Polish American Congress has created programs to successfully integrate people of Polish decent in the U.S., including the Displaced Persons Program, which allowed almost 150,000 Polish immigrants to enter the U.S. after World War II. The Polish American Congress has a legacy within our Cleveland community and across the nation of offering services of support to veterans, families and individuals. As in years' past, the Greater Cleveland Community will join in celebration of Poland's rich history and culture by joining Cleveland's Polish community in attending events such as the Polonia Ball, the Grand Parade and the Photographic Exhibition.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and celebration of the leaders and members of the Polish American Congress, as they celebrate Polish Constitution Day. Their collective and individual efforts in sharing, preserving and promoting their heritage, history and culture with Greater Cleveland serves to strengthen and illuminate the textured and diverse fabric of our community.

HONORING THE VOLUNTEER SERVICE OF DARRIEN GISH

HON. WALT MINNICK

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. MINNICK. Madam Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young student from my district who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in his community. Darrien Gish of Nampa has just been named one of the top honorees in Idaho by the 2009 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each State and the District of Columbia.

Mr. Gish is being recognized for his work with the Canine Companions for Independence. He is devoting fourteen months of his own time to train and care for the puppy Delphia. He also earned his own money to fund Delphia's health care. Mr. Gish spends time every day working with Delphi on basic skills so that eventually she can assist people with disabilities perform everyday tasks like turning on lights and opening doors.

In light of numerous statistics indicating that Americans today are less involved in their communities, it's vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contributions this young citizen has made. People of all ages need to think more about how we, as individual citizens, can work together at the local level to ensure the health and vitality of our towns and neighborhoods. Young volunteers like Mr. Gish are inspiring examples to all of us and are among our brightest hopes for tomorrow.

Mr. Gish should be extremely proud to have been singled out from the thousands of dedicated volunteers who participated in this year's program. I heartily applaud him for his initiative in seeking to make his community a better place to live, and for the positive impact he has had on the lives of others. He has demonstrated a level of commitment and accomplishment that is truly extraordinary in today's world, and deserves our sincere admiration and respect. His actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities and that America's community spirit continue to hold tremendous promise for the future.

HONORING THE INDUCTION OF ENCARNACION "CARNY" GUERRA INTO THE 2009 CLASS OF THE LAREDO BUSINESS HALL OF FAME

HON. HENRY CUELLAR

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. CUELLAR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the induction of Encarnacion "Carny" Guerra into the Laredo Business Hall of Fame. Carny Guerra has always been hard working, ambitious, a knowledgeable businessman, and it has shown through his work in Laredo, Texas.

Carny Guerra's business know-how first emerged while attending a dance in Laredo, Texas. While waiting in line and watching a great number of people pay their entrance fee he got the idea that he should enter the ballroom business. Soon after he purchased a building and with the help of his five daughters Cynthia, Sylvia, Judith, Belinda, and Elaine the Casa Blanca Ballroom was born.

As every new business encounters initial problems Carny had trouble booking bands and he decided that the best way to solve this would be to use local South Texas bands. As he found new bands he began to record their music and promote them to local radio stations. These local bands soon became celebrities in the area, thus selling out the Casa Blanca Ballroom performance after performance. Working with bands and radio stations on a daily basis Carny saw his next step to be the purchase of a radio station which furthered the popularity of both his ballroom and the bands.

Now some years later Carny Guerra's business has flourished and become Guerra Communications, which now owns a Tejano, hip-hop, and country radio station. In Addition, Carny is credited with giving many of today's popular bands their start.

Carny, after many years of hard work, is now enjoying his retirement and the company of his 5 daughters, 17 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to have had this opportunity to recognize the accomplishments and honor the inductee to the Laredo Business Hall of Fame Encarnacion "Carny" Guerra.

CREDIT CARDHOLDERS' BILL OF RIGHTS ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 29, 2009

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 627) to amend the Truth in Lending Act to establish fair and transparent practices relating to the extension of credit under an open end consumer credit plan, and for other purposes:

Mr. BACA. Mr. Chairman, I rise in support of H.R. 627, the Creditcard Holders' Bill of Rights Act of 2009.

Now more than ever, working families need strong, fair lending and credit laws.

H.R. 627 curbs some of the most abusive and unfair credit card lending practices that trap consumers in an unending, costly debt.

The credit card companies' tricks and traps that are addressed by H.R. 627 have always been unfair, but in this time of growing economic uncertainty for the average family, the financial hardship can be overwhelming.

Companies should not be allowed to randomly hike the interest rate on a consumer's existing balance if they make their payments on time just because of an "anytime—any reason" clause in the contract. This practice is un-fair and un-American.

Equal access to credit is a vital step in helping racial and ethnic minority families move out of poverty, into the middle class and be given a real shot at the American dream.

Much like the targeting and discrimination that occurs with home loans, our minority communities are steered toward credit cards with the highest fees and interest rates and most complicated payment terms.

According to the National Council of La Raza, one report showed that 15 percent of African-American and 13 percent of Latino card users have cards with interest rates over 20 percent, compared to only 7 percent of White card users.

More than one-third of Latinos use their credit cards to make ends meet.

As low-income Latinos use credit cards for safet-net purposes, they are more likely to get behind in their bills and become buried in unmanageable debt.

Instead of providing relief or a financial bridge, credit cards with abusive features and practices often create vicious cycles of debt.

The passage of this bill would be a historic victory for consumers of all backgrounds and ethnicities across the country.

I urge my colleagues to support this bill and the long over due consumer protections that it provides.

A TRIBUTE TO MATTHEW POLITE*HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Matthew Polite, a leader in his community and an inspiration to all of New York.

Matthew Polite was born in 1905 on the Island of St. Helena, off the coast of South Carolina. The only son of a former slave, Matthew understands well how freedom is a cherished gift to be used in the service of your fellow man.

Matthew Polite and his wife, Netha, were wed in 1926. They moved to Savannah, Georgia, where he worked as a baker in Whole-some Bakery. After some years, they moved again to Miami, Florida where he continued as a baker. Matthew and his family moved to New York City in 1954. There he became the Deacon for the Orange Baptist Church in the Bronx, forging a lifelong relationship with the congregation. He served the church community with honor and distinction for many years until his retirement in 1969, when he returned to his hometown in Stavenhagen, South Carolina.

Matthew Polite has since returned to New York City, surrounded by his friends and family, including his four children, nine grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren, fourteen great-great grandchildren, and two great-great-great grandchildren.

Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize Matthew Polite, a shining example of dedication to community service for all of New York.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Matthew Polite.

HONORING RANDY SIEFKIN*HON. DENNIS A. CARDOZA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. CARDOZA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Randy Siefkin, a long time political icon of Modesto, California. Randy has spent a majority of his days as a Professor of Political Science at Modesto Junior College, but behind the scenes he has proven effective in getting countless candidates elected to local office.

Randy Siefkin's first hint at political interest may have been in 1952, when at age 10 he helped arrange an ice cream hour for Dwight D. Eisenhower. He furthered his hunger for politics by working on campaigns for Nixon and Rockefeller—and eventually made a career by steadfastly serving as Professor of Political Science at Modesto junior College from 1970 to 2001. From that day in 1952 right up to this very hour, Randy is actively collecting political buttons from every corner of the earth.

Thirty one years of educating students left little time for much else, but somehow Randy managed to devote himself to a number of community groups and civic organizations. Ranging from serving on the Board for the Muir Trail Girl Scouts to directing the Modesto Film Society to participating with North Modesto Rotary, Randy has shown a genuine devotion to his community.

Politics and civic duties have not only been a passion for Randy, but his family is equally devoted to giving back as well. Randy Siefkin is married to Stanislaus County Superior Court Judge Susan J. Siefkin and they have two children—Nelson, a Cultural Resources Specialist for the National Park Service, and Kristen, a Public Relations professional.

Madam Speaker, it is an absolute honor to share a little bit about Randy Siefkin and to thank him for his selfless devotion to his family, his community, and his country.

I extend my deepest congratulations once again to Joey Meyer for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication he has shown in his academic career to his future accomplishments.

MEDIA EXAGGERATE PRESIDENT'S APPROVAL NUMBERS*HON. LAMAR SMITH

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Madam Speaker, in their stories assessing President Obama's first 100 days in office, the national media have been quick to tout the President's supposedly high approval rating.

But the facts are otherwise.
