IN RECOGNITION OF THE CON-TRIBUTIONS OF THE KOREAN-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 20, 2009

Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the many contributions of the Korean-American Association of Northern Virginia.

The 11th Congressional District of Virginia is blessed by the significant racial, ethnic and religious diversity of its residents. The entire community is enriched by this diversity and benefits greatly from the sharing of cultural customs and traditions. The Korean-American community is a vibrant part of this tapestry and an integral part of the community.

A large percentage of the businesses in the 11th District of Virginia are owned and operated by Korean-Americans and provide jobs, goods and services to the local residents. The work ethic displayed is consistent with so many immigrant groups who have come before and who have contributed to building the United States of America into a great country. Quite often, members of the Korean immigrant community will work multiple jobs in order to succeed and provide homes for their families. Education is highly prized and sought. Honesty, integrity and dignity are values that are instilled at a young age and continue to develop throughout life.

However, transitioning into a new life in a new country can often be overwhelming. Language, customs, educational systems, even the way a person shops for food, can be confusing and frightening. A guiding hand can help address these difficulties.

The Korean-American Association of Northern Virginia, KAANV, provides assistance to ease this transition. This organization works with members of the Korean community to teach the skills that are necessary to function and thrive. The KAANV provides numerous services, one being the KAANV Vocational School which offers classes in English and Spanish, in vocational trades such as electrical licensing, plumbing and pharmaceutical technician, and in job seeking skills such as resume writing and employment examination preparation. The Vocational School educates roughly 700 people each year and gives them the tools that they need in order to become productive members of society.

In addition to the Vocational School, the KAANV sponsors an Annual Job Fair which brings employers, job seekers and employment counselors together under one roof. This year, the Sixth Annual KAANV Job Fair will include employers from both the private and public sectors and is expected to attract the participation of nearly 2,000 area residents.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the Korean-American Association of Northern Virginia for the invaluable services that it provides to the community and for the life changing impacts that its services have on the lives of so many of our family members, neighbors and friends. LETTER FROM THE SUSTAINABLE ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT CO-ALITION RE: ENERGY AND WATER APPROPS OF 2010

HON. RUSS CARNAHAN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 20, 2009

Mr. CARNAHAN. Madam Speaker, I submit the following letter:

Congress of the United States, Washington, DC, July 15, 2009.

Hon. DAVID R. OBEY,

Chairman, Committee on Appropriations, Rayburn House Office Building, U.S. Capitol, Washington, DC.

Hon. ED PASTOR,

Acting Chairman, Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, Rayburn House Office Building, U.S. Capitol, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN OBEY AND ACTING CHAIR-MAN PASTOR: As members of the Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition (SEEC), we thank and commend you for your continuing leadership in making the investments in clean energy and energy efficiency technologies that are essential for a transition to a cleaner, more prosperous and independent American energy future.

As a Coalition we believe firmly in the advancement of the technologies that will provide cleaner, more economically and environmentally sustainable energy to every segment of our economy. Further, as members of SEEC we have fought continuously for investments in research and development of renewable energy and energy efficiency technologies that will spawn a new American clean energy economy that will create jobs, reduce our dependence on foreign oil, and arrest the progression of global climate change.

In a meeting on June 16th, 2009, Secretary of Energy Steven Chu expressed to our members his desire for a new American energy future. As a part of his visionary plan to bring this future to reality, the Secretary called for the creation of eight "Energy Innovation Hubs" for the advanced research and development of the energy technologies that will allow America to lead the world in a twentyfirst century energy economy.

Under the Energy and Water Appropriations, Fiscal Year 2010 legislation, funding has been allocated for the Department of Energy to establish one Energy Innovation Hub. According to the Department of Energy, this Hub would be chartered for the research and development of "Fuels from Sunlight" technologies. While we stand with the Secretary of Energy in supporting the research and development of game-changing, twenty-first century fuel technologies, we would like to express support for the establishment of a second Energy Innovation Hub—using existing funding appropriated to the Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy-for the research and development of "Energy Efficient Building Systems".

The creation of an Energy Innovation Hub to research and develop advancements in increasing the energy efficiency of buildings is a high priority for the Secretary and the Department of Energy. As a nation, our built environment accounts for 40 percent of our carbon dioxide emissions, and consumes 70 percent of the electricity from our electric grid. A lack of energy efficiency contributes to higher energy prices and greater greenhouse gas emissions for homes and for businesses in every state. Greater and more widespread energy efficiency in buildings would result in lower energy prices, less greenhouse gas emissions, and less wasted use of our energy resources. Therefore, we would like to work with the Committee on Appropriations, the Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, and the Department of Energy to realize the creation of an Energy Innovation Hub to research and develop Energy Efficient Building Systems.

Sincerely,

THE MEMBERS OF THE SUSTAINABLE

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT COALITION,

HON. JEAN SCHMIDT

OF OHIO

Monday, July 20, 2009

Mrs. SCHMIDT. Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of the ongoing negotiations between Greek Cypriot leader Demetris Christofias and Turkish Cypriot leader Mehmet Ali Talat. I commend their efforts to advance a peaceful resolution to the decades-old conflict in Cyprus, and I encourage the Obama administration, and others in the international community, to continue to support and facilitate these efforts.

After decades of failed attempts to unite Cyprus, leaders Christofias and Talat reopened direct negotiations in September of 2008. They have made notable progress. Most recently, the two communities agreed to the opening of the Limnitis/Yesilirmak Gate. U.S. Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Matthew Bryza, described this event as a "concrete contribution to accelerating the efforts of the parties to find a solution."

Confidence building measures such as the opening of the Limnitis/Yesilirmak Gate are very important steps in the negotiating process. As physical barriers to reunification are removed, so to are the psychological divisions between the Cypriot communities.

Deputy Assistant Secretary Bryza stated that "We've never been at a point like this where the Cypriot people themselves, their leadership, have designed the ideas that are on the table, without any outside assistance." He expressed his confidence that a solution by the end of 2009 is possible. The international community must stand ready to assist both parties as this process moves forward.

I am encouraged by the application of these confidence building measures taken by the Cypriot leaders as a means towards a permanent solution. I urge the Obama administration and the international community to do all it can to unify the island.

RECOGNIZING THE 35TH ANNIVER-SARY OF TURKEY'S ILLEGAL IN-VASION OF CYPRUS

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Monday, July 20, 2009

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, tonight I join my colleagues on the House floor to commemorate the somber 35th anniversary of Turkev's illegal occupation of Cyprus.

On July 20, 1974, Turkey began its brutal invasion of Cyprus, which forced nearly 200,000 Greek Cypriots to flee their homes making one-third of the Cypriot population refugees in their own country. Today, Turkey occupies the northern third of Today, Turkey occupies the northern third of the island. It is one of the most militarized areas in the world, with more than 43,000 Turkish soldiers trying to maintain the status guo of the illegal occupation.

The U.S. must do our part to nurture steps towards a united Cyprus. As a member of the Hellenic Caucus, I have joined many of my colleagues in calling on the Administration and the Department of State to urge Turkey to demonstrate that it has the political will necessary for constructive negotiations. A successful settlement effort must take on ground realities into consideration: the two Cypriot communities have a history of living peacefully together. A solution will be a reunified Cyprus that is a bi-zonal and bi-communal federation.

A solution must flow out of the interests of the Cypriots themselves. It is the Turkish Government that needs to show a genuine interest in resolving the dispute. It is in Ankara that leadership must be taken to signal to Turkish Cypriots that they can be free to negotiate a solution. Removal of thousands of Turkish troops from Cyprus is essential to that solution.

When Cypriots were forced to flee their homes 35 years ago, a large number of their properties were unlawfully distributed to tens of thousands of illegal settlers from Turkey. Today, 35 years later, Greek Cypriots, who continue to own these properties, are prevented by Turkey from returning and enjoying their homes and properties.

This past April, the European Court of Justice, ECJ, ruled that the judgment of a court in the Republic of Cyprus must be recognized and enforced by all other EU-member states even if it concerns land situated in the Turkish-occupied areas of Cyprus.

The ECJ landmark ruling reaffirms the territorial integrity of the Republic of Cyprus and once again upholds the undeniable right of all Greek-Cypriots: That they remain the sole owners of properties that were illegally stripped from them.

It is an outrage that approximately 5,000 Cypriot-Americans who own property in the occupied area, but who have no legal recourse. Since Cypriot-Americans cannot return to their illegally-seized property, I believe they should be allowed to seek financial remedies with either the current inhabitants of their land or the Turkish Government itself.

Last Congress, I introduced the bipartisan American Owned Property in Occupied Cyprus Claims Act. Through this legislation, Americans who are being denied access to their property and even their ancestral homes will finally be able to seek restitution. I will once again introduce a similar bill. While there are many difficulties, hopeful signs of progress do exist. There is ongoing integration that takes place between Greek-Cypriots and Turkish-Cypriots as a result of the nearly 13 million crossings along the cease-fire line that have occurred over the last five years.

Madam Speaker, as we commemorate the 35th anniversary of Turkey's illegal invasion and occupation of Cyprus, I remain hopeful a united Cyprus can become a reality.

RECALLING THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE TURKISH INVASION OF CYPRUS

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 20, 2009

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recall the tragic anniversary of the Turkish invasion of Cyprus that occurred on July 20, 1974.

Thirty-five years ago, Turkey attacked the Republic of Cyprus. Tragically, the legacy of that brutal act—43,000 Turkish occupation troops on Cypriot soil—continues to this day. Turkish troops, in blatant disregard for the Rule of Law and the basic rights of the Cypriot people, continue to illegally divide the island into two areas. As a result, the Republic of Cyprus is one of the most militarized areas in the world.

I strongly urge both sides to fully comply with the guiding principles of the July 8, 2006 agreement. This agreement sought to establish working groups to operate together to reunify Cyprus into one bizonal, bicommunal federation. Since September 3, 2008, the leaders of the two communities have held more than 35 rounds of direct talks and those talks are continuing regularly. The July 8 agreement is an important achievement that has given both parties the framework to work toward a permanently unified and free Cyprus.

I commend the opening of Ledra Street in Nicosia that occurred on April 3, 2008 and the recent agreement between the Turkish and Cypriot leaders to open the Limnitis crossing point to Kokkina. These are positive steps toward realizing the goals of the July 8 agreement and toward liberating the Cypriot people.

While the international community may certainly support the Cypriot and Turkish leaders as they work toward a solution, the solution to the illegal occupation of Cyprus must be solved by the Cypriots themselves and any solution must serve the interests of the people of Cyprus. A solution cannot be imposed by outside parties or subject to arbitrary timelines.

Madam Speaker, I remain committed to the goal of a united and free Cyprus. After thirtyfive years of illegal occupation, the Cypriot people deserve to be free from division and oppression at last.

REGARDING FURTHER SENATE PROCEEDINGS IN THE SAMUEL KENT IMPEACHMENT MATTER

HON. BOB GOODLATTE

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 20, 2009

Mr. GOODLATTE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to support this resolution urging the Senate to end further proceedings to remove Samuel Kent from his judicial office.

On June 18, 2009, the House of Representatives overwhelmingly voted to impeach Judge Samuel Kent by adopting four, separate articles of impeachment without a single "no" vote.

This House vote was the result of (1) a thorough investigation into Judge Kent's misconduct by the House Judiciary Committee's Task Force on Judicial Impeachment, (2) an investigatory hearing on the matter; (3) a Task Force meeting at which it made a formal recommendation to the full Judiciary Committee that Judge Kent should be impeached, and (4) a full Committee markup of the articles of impeachment.

Indeed, the evidence clearly showed that Judge Kent's misconduct merited the serious step of impeachment. Judge Kent lied to the FBI and DOJ about the nature of his sexual misconduct with court employees. In addition, he pled guilty to felony obstruction of justice and to committing repeated acts of nonconsensual sexual contact with court employees. He was sentenced to 33 months in prison for committing felony obstruction of justice, and on Monday, June 15th, he reported to prison and began his prison term.

However, because the Constitution provides that federal judges are appointed for life, Samuel Kent, despite the fact that he was sitting in prison, continued to collect his taxpayerfunded salary of approximately $174,000 per year, continued to collect his taxpayer-funded health insurance benefits, and continued to accrue his taxpayer-funded pension.

Citizens of the U.S. have a right to a fair and impartial judiciary. The House vote to impeach Judge Samuel Kent sent the strong message to all federal judges that the House of Representatives will carry out its Constitutional duty to root out abuses of power in the federal judiciary.

After the June 18th vote, the Senate began preparations for trial to convict Kent and remove him from office. On June 30, 2009, facing a public trial in the Senate, Judge Kent finally resigned from office. As a result of the swift action by the House and Senate, Samuel Kent is no longer a federal judge and he will no longer collect his taxpayer-funded salary or benefits while sitting in federal prison, nor will he do so after his release.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Adam Schiff, the chairman of the Task Force on Judicial Impeachment, for his leadership in this effort, along with all the Members of the Task Force on both sides of the aisle. As Ranking Member of the Impeachment Task Force, I appreciate the fact that this effort has been undertaken in an extremely bipartisan fashion. I would also like to thank Chairman CONYERS and Ranking Member SMITH for their comprehensive, yet expeditious and bipartisan consideration of the articles of impeachment in the full Judiciary Committee.
