Mr. VISCLOSKY. Madam Speaker, Wednesday, November 11, 2009, marks the observance of Veterans Day, a day in which we, as a grateful nation, honor our veterans, who have pledged allegiance to their country through their service in the United States military. This day is set aside to recognize the boldness and bravery of those who have fought to uphold the standards of democracy and to defend the United States of America.

On Veterans Day, in cities and towns across America, proud citizens will pay tribute to our esteemed veterans with ceremonies, presentations, and programs to show their gratitude to those who have sacrificed so much. I would like to take this time to recognize one such event hosted by the Merrillville, Indiana, Rotary Club. On Veterans Day, the Merrillville branch of Rotary International will host an event at the Radisson Hotel at Star Plaza in Merrillville, celebrating the patriotism and pride of all veterans, while paying special tribute to 11 members of their club who served their country in the United States military and continue to serve their community as loyal Rotarians.

At the core of Rotary International is a commitment to "providing humanitarian service, encouraging high ethical standards in all vocations, and helping to build goodwill and peace in the world." The Merrillville Rotary Club, through its commitment to improving educational opportunities for students, as well as the active role its members have taken in creating youth-oriented programs, is a true source of pride in Northwest Indiana, so it is with great pride that I join them in honoring eleven members who have selflessly served their country to preserve our freedom.

Please join me in recognizing: Dean Sangalis—Major General, United States Marine Corps, Robert Andree—Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army, Al Kuchar—Major, United States Army, Tony Fileff—First Lieutenant, United States Marine Corps, Juan Arroyo—Sergeant, United States Air Force, Ray Bryant—Sergeant, United States Army, Jerry Bernstein—Sergeant, United States Army, James Keough—First Lieutenant, United States Army Corps of Engineers, Gary Maxwell—Petty Officer First Class, United States Navy, Ray Snemis—Petty Officer Second Class, United States Navy, and Ed Dernule—Petty Officer Third Class, United States Navy Reserve.

HONORING THE 56TH BRIGADE (STRYKER) AND 2-112TH INFANTRY BATTALION (STRYKER)

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2009

Mr. SHUSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the troops of the Second of the 112th Infantry Battalion (Stryker), 56th Stryker Brigade, 28th Infantry Division, Pennsylvania Army National Guard that was deployed and participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

The 56th Brigade (Stryker) and 2-112th Infantry Battalion (Stryker) is the only reserve component selected to be a Stryker unit. Headquartered out of Lewistown, Pennsylvania, and based at Camp Liberty in Iraq, the brave soldiers of this Stryker unit went into the hostile Abu Ghraib sector of Iraq with approximately 800 soldiers. Company A hails from the Huntingdon-Everett area, Company B is comprised of soldiers from Altoona, and the Tyrone-Bellefonte area makes up Company C. These brave American heroes were a part of the particularly successful Stryker Task Force Paxton that conducted lethal terrorist operations against Al Qaeda and the insurgent forces. The 2-112th Infantry Battalion (Stryker) accomplished the most active and successful time sensitive enemy targeting in the highly contested Baghdad region of Iraq while suppressing the instability.

Not only have these brave men and women put their lives on the line for the peace and prosperity of our nation, but they also contributed to the betterment of another. The 2-112th Infantry Battalion (Stryker) participated in operations which improved the human and physical infrastructure of Iraq to include its economic capacity and schools. Madam

Speaker I would like to extend to these brave soldiers my most sincere personal thanks for their honorable service to our nation. They have helped maintain our security through some of our country's most trying times, as we adapt to unconventional threats. I know that my words reflect the feelings of all citizens of our Nation when I say that these men and women are true American heroes.

NATIONAL FIREFIGHTERS MEMORIAL DAY

SPEECH OF

HON. MIKE QUIGLEY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 28, 2009

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak in support of designating a National Firefighters Memorial Day. The dedicated men and women who have lost their lives in the line of duty will never be forgotten and I express my deepest gratitude for the brave work they did protecting their communities.

Firefighters are the ones running into a burning building when everyone else is running out. The sacrifices they and their families make on a daily basis are as incredible as they are honorable. These men and women embody the spirit, commitment and sacrifice that define America.

The images of firefighters on September 11, 2001 left an indelible mark on all Americans. We saw firefighters entering flaming buildings, putting others' lives ahead of their own, and standing tall when they were needed most. Their courage continues to both haunt and inspire us.

But we must remember that everyday firefighters across the country are still performing heroic acts and saving lives. Since 2006, 313 firefighters have died on the job. And every year, another 40,000 are injured. Firefighters are constantly called on to put themselves in harm's way and those that are no longer with us deserve to be recognized and celebrated.

I want to thank Representative POE for bringing House Resolution 729 to the Floor and urge the rest of my colleagues to join me in designating a National Firefighters Memorial Day to commemorate the lives of our fallen firefighters.

CELEBRATING NATIONAL BIBLE WEEK NOVEMBER 22ND TO 29TH, 2009

HON. HEATH SHULER

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2009

Mr. SHULER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate National Bible Week and encourage my colleagues to join me in commemorating this important week. I am honored to serve as a Congressional Co-Chair for National Bible Week, taking place from November 22nd to 29th this year. As we gather with family and friends to enjoy the Thanksgiving Holiday, we should also take time to celebrate the Holy Book which guides the lives of so many and has fundamentally shaped our great nation's history. We read in Proverbs 3:6 "think about Him in all your ways and He will guide you on the right paths."

From the earliest American settlers onward, the Bible has played a pivotal role in the shaping of our nation. Throughout our history, many of our great leaders have turned to the Bible for direction and consolation. We are blessed to live in the United States where we may worship as we please, with the freedom to rejoice in the teachings of the Holy Bible without fear of persecution.

The Bible provides important guidance and comfort in our daily lives, and it teaches the moral code that many of us live by. Our nation's ideological foundations of justice, equality, and service reflect the guiding principles of the Bible. The teachings of the Holy Bible continue to guide many of us as we govern.

Madam Speaker, as we celebrate National Bible Week, we remember the importance of our faith, in both our public and private lives. The National Bible Association is to be commended for their work inspiring interest in the teachings of the Holy Bible and God's Word. I encourage everyone to read and seek comfort in the Bible, during this week, and thereafter.

HONORING EDWARD F. NEWMAN

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2009

Mr. FARR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to my friend Edward F. Newman, who recently died at age 85, for an inspiring life that promoted peace and social justice. He was a well-known and much loved Santa Cruzan.

Following high school he attended the School of Engineering at the University of California Berkeley before joining the Navy to serve in World War II. As a young enlisted man, he organized a brave challenge to the status quo, resulting in dismissal of a corrupt procurement officer. This experience taught him, at an early age, that even one person can make a difference in this world. He earned a law degree from U.C. Berkeley in 1951, and used his skills as an accomplished writer, speaker, and advocate, to stand up for justice and common people.

Ed actively promoted the causes of peace and social justice throughout his life. He vigorously opposed the Vietnam war and the invasion of Iraq. He served as president of the Castro Valley Democratic Club, and later founded and served as president of the People's Democratic Club of Santa Cruz County. He campaigned to protect the environment, abolish the death penalty, protect civil rights, women's rights, gay rights, and all human rights. As a veteran, he became active in the Santa Cruz County Chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, leading the chapter to advocate for peace, and to oppose expansion of the military-industrial complex. With intelligence and humor, he exposed political hypocrisy, writing countless letters to the editor, and contributing columns to newspapers.

As an attorney, Ed Newman championed causes of the underdog, handling numerous pro bono matters to protect fundamental rights. He defended ordinary citizens in proceedings by the House Un-American Activities Committee, and took cases for the American Civil Liberties Union. In the 1980s, he took a pro bono case to challenge gender discrimination, resulting in the court decision which transformed the Santa Cruz Boys Club into the Santa Cruz Boys and Girls Club. He was president of the Santa Cruz County Bar Association in 1985. He was also a leader in the Starr King Unitarian Church, and he served as committee chair and president of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Santa Cruz County.

As a civic leader and activist, Ed Newman inspired his community with his eloquence, intelligence, and tireless advocacy for justice. To his family and friends, Ed was known for his kindness, his wisdom, his outstanding cooking, and his wonderful sense of humor. With his wife Carol, he raised five children, all of whom graduated from U.C. Santa Cruz before obtaining advanced degrees in Library Science, Particle Physics, Medicine, Literature, and Law. He is survived by his wife Carol, with whom he recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, as well as his sister, five children, and ten grandchildren.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress, I would like to express the gratitude of the whole House to Edward Newman for his legacy of courage, honesty, and love, inspiring us all to work for a better world. He will be sorely missed.

NATIONAL PRINCIPALS MONTH

HON. BETTY MCCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2009

Ms. MCCOLLUM. Madam Speaker, I rise in strong support of this resolution designating October 2009 as "National Principals Month."

School leadership is important in ensuring that every child has access to a high-quality education. I want to take this time to thank elementary, middle, and secondary school principals for their dedication and hard work in helping to make the schools in Minnesota's Fourth District a wonderful place to learn and grow.

Principals do more than just manage the budget, discipline students, and improve student achievement. They serve as role models and are instrumental in their students' social development and ability to solve family problems. I am reminded of Ann Cassidy, my principal at Central Grade School in South Saint Paul. She was the first woman I encountered in a position of authority. As busy as Principal Cassidy was running a successful school, she always had time for her students. To this day, I remember her kind words and reassuring presence.

Madam Speaker, I missed the vote on this resolution because I was negotiating a solution to address inequities in Medicare reimbursement that negatively impacts Minnesota. If I were still in grade school, Principal Cassidy would have sat me down and told me, "Betty, it is good that you were taking care of your constituents but you must slow down and pay attention to what you are doing." Now this is always good advice whether you are a Member of Congress or an elementary school student.
