

COMMENDING THE OUTSTANDING
WOMEN OF SOMERSET COUNTY

HON. LEONARD LANCE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. LANCE. Madam Speaker, I rise in honor of National Women's History Month, and I would like to congratulate a number of outstanding women who will be recognized at the Somerset County's Commission on the Status of Women awards in New Jersey's Seventh Congressional District.

The Commission presents awards annually in celebration of National Women's History Month in March. This year there are 17 women being honored, including entrepreneurs, educators and hometown heroes whose community service is considered extraordinary.

This year's Distinguished Honoree is Raritan Borough Mayor Jo-Ann Liptak, who is being honored for her decades as a teacher, volunteer work at Somerset Medical Center in Somerville, and her service on the Somerset County Planning Board. She also created the borough's annual John Basilone Memorial parade. Jo-Ann is the third generation in her family to hold office in Raritan Borough, became the municipality's first female mayor in 2007. I am pleased to congratulate Raritan Borough Mayor Jo-Ann Liptak for her outstanding efforts and share her good work with my colleagues in the United States Congress and the American people.

INTRODUCTION OF "HEALTHCARE
ENHANCEMENT FOR LOCAL PUBLIC
SERVANTS ACT OF 2009"

HON. JOSEPH CROWLEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. CROWLEY. Madam Speaker, along with my New York colleague, JOHN MCHUGH, I am pleased to introduce the "Healthcare Enhancement for Local Public Servants Act of 2009" or HELPS II legislation to provide a pretax deduction of up to $3,000 to retired public servants for health or Long Term Care (LTC) insurance premiums.

This legislation builds off the successful language added to the Pension Protection Act (P.L. 109-280), which included a provision permitting retired public safety officers to take up to $3,000 in pre-tax income and use it for health care costs or long term care expenses.

Today, we expand this successful measure to all retired public employee.

This concept was born several years ago during the 108th Congress in the Portman-Cardin pension bill (H.R. 1776) which included language to provide the ability of all retirees to use pre-tax dollars to pay for health plan premiums. Unfortunately, this provision and H.R. 1776 did not become law, and so today we introduce this as a free standing bill.

This language will benefit our nation's hard working public sector retirees.

The average monthly pension benefit of a retired public servant is $1,725 and many do not have Social Security benefits. A significant portion of a retired public servants' monthly pension check is going towards health or Long Term Care insurance premiums. In many cases, the retired public servant is using the entire pension benefit to pay for health insurance premiums.

Additionally, HELPS II would streamline the administrative requirements of the program so that it will run more smoothly for those who already enjoy this tax benefit our nation's retired public safety officers.

Therefore, we are pleased to introduce this legislation and will work for its enactment to ensure that all of our nation's retired public safety officers and all of our nation's retired public servants have a streamlined ability to pay for health and long term care costs in their golden years.

INTRODUCTION OF THE HEALTHCARE ENHANCEMENT FOR LOCAL PUBLIC SERVANTS
ACT OF 2009

HON. JOHN M. MCHUGH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. MCHUGH. Madam Speaker, I rise today as a proud cosponsor of the Healthcare Enhancement for Local Public Servants Act of 2009, or HELPS II, Act. I appreciate the work my friend, Mr. CROWLEY, has done to develop this important legislation, which would make health care and Long Term Care (LTC) premiums more affordable for retired public servants.

Currently, active American workers who participate in a cafeteria plan option known as "premium conversion" may elect to reduce their taxable wages by having their share of health insurance premiums paid on a pretax basis. Such an arrangement reduces both income and employment taxes. Since October 2000, this option has been available to federal employees who participate in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP). This option is also available to private sector and state or local government employees with their employers' permission.

Generally, premium conversion is not available to retirees. This is so because of an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) determination that distributions from qualified retirement plans are always subject to taxes, aside from several minor exceptions. Consequently, retirees are precluded from recasting pension payments as pretax income and thus denied this tax benefit.

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 (P.L. 109-280) allows certain retired public safety officers to pay up to $3,000 of qualified health insurance and/or Long Term Care (LTC) insurance premiums from their pensions on a pretax basis. This tax advantage, which makes health care more affordable, has become increasingly important as health insurance premiums have increased in recent years.

While I support making premium conversion available to all Americans, a good first step would be to make it available to retired state and local public employees through the enactment of the Healthcare Enhancement for Local Public Servants Act of 2009. Accordingly, I look forward to working with the Gentleman from New York to enact this measure.

ALLISON HARMON, DISTINGUISHED
FINALIST, 2009 PRUDENTIAL
SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY AWARDS

HON. ROSCOE G. BARTLETT

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. BARTLETT. Madam Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young student from my district who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in her community. Allison Harmon of Hampstead has been named a distinguished finalist by the 2009 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each state and the District of Columbia.

Ms. Harmon has been an active community volunteer, going back to the sixth grade. She has coordinated drives to collect school supplies, clothing, food and toys for the needy; tutored and mentored young students; volunteered at hospitals; and participated in many other service activities.

I believe it is vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contribution that Allison has made. People of all ages need to think more about how we, as individual citizens, can work together at the local level to ensure the health and vitality of our towns and neighborhoods.

I heartily applaud Ms. Harmon for her initiative in seeking to make her community a better place to live, and for the positive impact she has had on the lives of others. Her actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities, and that America's community spirit continues to hold tremendous promise for the future.

Young volunteers like Allison are inspiring examples to all of us, and are among our brightest hopes for a better tomorrow.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

HON. PATRICK J. KENNEDY

OF RHODE ISLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. KENNEDY. Madam Speaker, every March, we celebrate women's history and we remember their struggle for justice and equality. It's an occasion on which we honor the brave women who fought to improve and redefine America.

My home state of Rhode Island has known its share of extraordinary women. From Anne Hutchinson, a religious and social activist who challenged male hegemony, to Isabelle Ahearn O'Neill, who became Rhode Island's first woman legislator, women have fought with courage and perseverance for the freedom and equality that are rightfully theirs.

In the last two years alone, we have witnessed the first female Speaker of the House of Representatives and the first major female candidate for the Presidency of the United States. In January, the first action taken by Congress and the President, was to make the Lily Ledbetter Fair Pay Act law. This legislation brings us one step closer to making sure that our female students someday enter our workforce at a wage equal to their male counterparts. At a time when we celebrate women's achievements, we must not, however, lose sight of the work that still lies ahead. In the effort to empower women, we must continue their fight for pay equity, eliminating health disparities, and strengthening domestic violence laws.

As we look towards the challenges we face, we must not forget those that got us to where we are today, and continue to encourage and seek progress.

HONORING HOSCHTON, GEORGIA FOR SETTING THE RECORD FOR
"THE MOST SCARECROWS IN ONE LOCATION"

HON. PAUL C. BROWN

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. BROWN of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to share with my colleagues a great accomplishment that occurred in my district in the town of Hoschton, Georgia.

Hoschton, Georgia is a classic American town in Jackson County that cherishes a model American history. In 1865, the Hosch brothers founded this town on entrepreneurship and the American dream when they built the town's first store. This small town grew on these American ideals and, among other things, built two banks, a cotton gin, a cotton oil mill, and a train depot. In May 2008, the town decided to strive for yet another milestone—to set the world record for "the Most Scarecrows in One Location."

Mayor Bill Copenhaver and life-long resident Robbie Bettis co-chaired the Hoschton Fall Festival Committee that conceived of this challenge. The goal was clear. They needed four thousand scarecrows within the city limits by September 1, 2008. But these great community leaders pulled Hoschton's citizens together and surpassed their goal by 1,441 scarecrows. In less than four months, more than five thousand scarecrows were placed within the city limits. That's more than forty per day.

The Hoschton Fall Festival was then held last year on September 26 and 27 and drew more than 25,000 people who traveled far and wide to view a new World Record. It must also be noted that the other outstanding members of the Hoschton Fall Festival Committee were: Chuck Cope, Chris Hoffman, Theresa Kenerly, Leah Nelson, Nancy Rhodes, John Schulte, Richard Shepherd, Kristen Smith, Lisa Stovall, Ray Vaughn, Tom Walden, and Mark Williams. Furthermore, this great feat received state, national, and international media attention.

I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring this great American town. Its accomplishments show all of America what can be done when a dedicated community works together to meet, and in this case surpass, a stated goal.

EARMARK DECLARATION

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Madam Speaker, pursuant to the Republican Standards on earmarks, I am submitting the following information regarding an earmark I received as part of the FY2009 Omnibus.

Division I: Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2009

Account: Department of Transportation, Technical Corrections

Legal Name of Entity: County of Morris

Address of Requesting Entity: 30 Schuyler Place, Morristown, New Jersey 07940

Description of Request: $800,000 was authorized under section 1702 of the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users (P.L. 109-59), to divert traffic from the steep grade at Schooley's Mountain Road and add roadway, construct a bridge over the Raritan River, and replace existing culverts. The technical correction will modify the current language of "Construct Long Valley Bypass," with "Planning, design, engineering, environmental analysis, acquisition of rights-of-way, and construction for the Long Valley Bypass." This is a technical correction to an existing authorization and has no budgetary impact.

INTRODUCTION OF H.R. 1400

HON. JOHN M. McHUGH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. McHUGH. Madam Speaker, on March 9, 2009, I introduced H.R. 1400, a bill designed to further combat and reduce underage smoking. Specifically, this measure would make cigarettes and certain other tobacco products nonmailable through the United States Postal Service.

This bill is necessary because the United States Postal Service is being used to facilitate the delivery of cigarettes that were purchased illegally on the Internet by underage minors. Unfortunately, those existing safeguards designed to prevent minors from purchasing cigarettes online have proven ineffective. For example, although 80 percent of cigarette vendor websites allege that transactions with minors will not be completed, there is little in place to enforce this policy. In fact, one study found that only seven percent of online vendors require driver's license information, while more than 50 percent simply require customers to verify their age by selecting an "I am over 18 years old" option. These and other safeguards clearly did not deter the 50,000 minors estimated, based on U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention data, to have purchased cigarettes online in 2003. As Internet commerce expands, the number of persons (including minors) purchasing cigarettes online is expected to increase dramatically.

The problem H.R. 1400 is designed to address is illustrated by the disturbing results from Internet "sting" operations conducted by over 15 states in recent years. In New York State, 24 out of 26 websites sold cigarettes to minors as young as nine years old. Moreover, in 2005, a group of Upstate New York teenagers in my Congressional District conducted a similar experiment in collaboration with law enforcement. Half of their orders were successfully delivered, and, unfortunately, 90 percent were delivered via the United States Postal Service.

In addition to helping curb the usage of tobacco products among minors, H.R. 1400 would end tax evasions that hurt our States and local governments. These revenues are not insignificant. Rather, annual tax revenues estimated at $1.4 billion are being lost; in 2005, New York State alone lost $400 million.

Madam Speaker, Congress has the opportunity to combat underage tobacco use and tax evasion by enacting H.R. 1400. Accordingly, I ask my colleagues to work with me to enact this important measure.

COMMENDING THE OUTSTANDING
WOMEN OF SOMERSET COUNTY

HON. LEONARD LANCE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Mr. LANCE. Madam Speaker, I rise in honor of National Women's History Month, and I would like to congratulate a number of outstanding women who will be recognized at the Somerset County's Commission on the Status of Women awards in New Jersey's Seventh Congressional District.

The Commission presents awards annually in celebration of National Women's History Month in March. This year there are 17 women being honored, including entrepreneurs, educators and hometown heroes whose community service is considered extraordinary.

This year's Entrepreneur Award winner is Lisa Kent of Hillsborough. She is the founder and president of the Luminations Group, a strategy and innovation firm.

The company began as a nonprofit enterprise that helped Hillsborough retailers and businesses develop marketing plans and materials. Today, the company includes eight female principals with more than 100 years of
