A TRIBUTE TO NICOLE BAYLEY

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 19, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Nicole Bayley, a socially conscious bank manager that enjoys giving back to her community.

Nicole Bayley is an Assistant Vice President/Branch Manager for Carver Federal Savings Bank, one of the largest African and Caribbean American run banks in the nation.

Ms. Bayley is a highly intelligent banker and is responsible for multimillion dollar deposit generation and currently ranks second in the entire branch network for deposits (outside of the corporate headquarters).

Before she took the position at Carver Federal Savings Bank, Nicole spent seven years each at HSBC Bank and Citibank NA respectively. Two of the largest and most recognized global financial leaders, Ms. Bayley used her time in these institutions to learn and eventually gained a wealth of knowledge about the retail banking sector.

Ms. Bayley is an active member of the Fulton-Nostrand United Merchants Association (FNUMA) and holds a number of accolades and distinctions including recognition as a Business Visionary for her business and community leadership.

She uses her role in the FNUMA to recognize individuals, business and organizations that help keep a clean, safe and vibrant Bedford-Stuyvesant Gateway Business District.

A TRIBUTE TO MAXINE HAMILTON-ALEXANDER

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 19, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Maxine Hamilton-Alexander.

Maxine Hamilton-Alexander "Maxx" is a creative mind that knows "don't worry about a thing, because every little thing is going to be alright". This philosophy is helping to fulfill her dream. She operates an Events Planning & Management Company, Blue Mango LLC, along with spearheading Hamptonians New York (HNY) a nonprofit organization. With the drive, passion to excel and energy that buoys all who interact with her, Maxx is applying her skills and heart, determined to wear her glass slippers.

Besides a proverbial "heart" Maxx brings enthusiasm and the attention to detail it takes to execute exciting and seamless events. She possesses highly developed networking and negotiating skills that are helping her solidify relationships. She stresses that her strength and aspirations are encouraged and accentuated by her children. "They keep me informed, thinking, responsible, engaged, mindful and youthfully fashionable". Maxx also says her most beguiling moments are watching the young ones grow, testing, exploring, maturing.

For over fifteen years Mrs. Hamilton-Alexander has dedicated time and expended personal funds working to enrich the lives of young people. In 2002, urged by her colleagues she incorporated HNY and in 2003 "Gifts from My Heart" was established to bring cheer into the lives of children who need to know someone cares. 2005 Brooklyn came alive with more sounds and rhythms of the Caribbean when her and her team launched the Brooklyn Caribbean Youth Fest.

Mrs. Hamilton-Alexander has spent many hours during the last five years enlisting civic-minded people, seeking advice and building a cohesive committee, while growing Brooklyn Caribbean Youth Fest into an impressive example of artistic excellence. Performances at the festival highlight in celebration, the diverse Culture of Caribbean-Americans. The many cultures of the Caribbean region are saluted with folk songs, dances and poetry. This is a no-nonsense event that boasts performers trekking from as far away as Trenton, New Jersey to strut their stuff.

To date, HNY has served over 5,000 NYC youth through programs and events. Additionally, Mrs. Alexander-Hamilton is a volunteer at PS 260, Prospect Park Youth Council and serves on Brooklyn College World AIDS committee. She also makes direct donations that supplement tuition for students at the Hampton School, Jamaica, West Indies, through an annual Merit Award. Maxx diligently beats the bushes and finds resources necessary to implement her programs which help to nurture young minds. Maxx's dedication to youth and her natural bent for perfection continuously reinforces her reputation as a woman who is unarguably committed to serving the youth.

She received her education from Brooklyn College here in the USA as well as the Jamaica School of Arts, Jamaica. She is happily married to her husband Andrew Alexander with whom she has three lovely daughters Ebony, Amber and Ayana.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 19, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Mrs. Ophelia Young Perry pillar of the Brooklyn Community.

Mrs. Ophelia Young Perry is a native of Buckingham County, Virginia. She presently resides with her husband, Mr. William Frank Perry, Jr. in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn, New York. The Perry's have one son, Rev. William Franc Perry, III, Esq.

She has been an active member of the Berean Missionary Baptist Church in Brooklyn for over 56 years. Mrs. Perry is genuinely involved in community and civic affairs. She is the President of Church Women United in Brooklyn. Church Women United (CWU) is the world's largest ecumenical movement of Christian women. Under Mrs. Perry's leadership, the movement's membership has increased to include over 700 Christian women. It is the largest unit of CWU in the country.

In response to shrewd spiritual insight, Mrs. Perry conceived the idea for an observance centered around the "Seven Last Words of Christ." For the past 25 years ecumenical worship begins at 7:00 A.M. on Good Friday and the attendance continues to grow. These services have been held in various community churches and have continued to draw over 4000 worshippers. Participants travel throughout the metropolitan area and from many other parts of the United States to attend this annual worship celebration. Additionally, she organized the initial Annual Award's Luncheon for the organization and continues to provide her expertise in this worthy cause today.

Under Mrs. Perry's leadership, the Brooklyn Unit of CWU sponsors many other activities to raise funds to make contributions to others in need, including: Holiday sharing, contributions to World Church Services, Rose F. Kennedy Residence for Girls, Project Teen Aid, Herbert G. Birch Services, Antigua/Barbuda Cultural Society, Inc, Fund for Burned Churches, Bedford-Stuyvesant Volunteer Ambulatory Service, Hurricane Floyd Victims in North Carolina and they provide aid to orphaned foreign sisters living in the U.S. She is also affiliated with Berean Missionary Baptist Church, The Women's Civic League of Abyssinian Baptist Church, the Black and Puerto Rican Caucus, the Eastern Baptist Association, Spouses of the Black Congressional Caucus and is a member of the National Council of Negro Women of Brooklyn.

She has won numerous awards for her work including: Women of the Year Award—The National Conference of Christians and Jews, Salute to Brooklyn Women Leadership Humanitarian Award—The Brooklyn League, The Woman's History Month Honoree—Brooklyn District Attorney, The Caribbean American Award—Chamber of Commerce, Outstanding Service Award—The Council of Churches, City of N.Y., Woman of Influence Award—Brooklyn YWCA, Thomas R.
