

Brooklyn. Church Women United (CWU) is the world's largest ecumenical movement of Christian women. Under Mrs. Perry's leadership, the movement's membership has increased to include over 700 Christian women. It is the largest unit of CWU in the country.

In response to shrewd spiritual insight, Mrs. Perry conceived the idea for an observance centered around the "Seven Last Words of Christ." For the past 25 years ecumenical worship begins at 7:00 A.M. on Good Friday and the attendance continues to grow. These services have been held in various community churches and have continued to draw over 4000 worshippers. Participants travel throughout the metropolitan area and from many other parts of the United States to attend this annual worship celebration. Additionally, she organized the initial Annual Award's Luncheon for the organization and continues to provide her expertise in this worthy cause today.

Under Mrs. Perry's leadership, the Brooklyn Unit of CWU sponsors many other activities to raise funds to make contributions to others in need, including: Holiday sharing, contributions to World Church Services, Rose F. Kennedy Residence for Girls, Project Teen Aid, Herbert G. Birch Services, Antigua/Barbuda Cultural Society, Inc, Fund for Burned Churches, Bedford-Stuyvesant Volunteer Ambulatory Service, Hurricane Floyd Victims in North Carolina and they provide aid to orphaned foreign sisters living in the U.S. She is also affiliated with Berean Missionary Baptist Church, The Women's Civic League of Abyssinian Baptist Church, the Black and Puerto Rican Caucus, the Eastern Baptist Association, Spouses of the Black Congressional Caucus and is a member of the National Council of Negro Women of Brooklyn.

She has won numerous awards for her work including: Women of the Year Award—The National Conference of Christians and Jews, Salute to Brooklyn Women Leadership Humanitarian Award—The Brooklyn League, The Woman's History Month Honoree—Brooklyn District Attorney, The Caribbean American Award—Chamber of Commerce, Outstanding Service Award—The Council of Churches, City of N.Y., Woman of Influence Award—Brooklyn YWCA, Thomas R. Fortune Community Service Award—Unity Democratic Club, Valiant Woman Award—Church Women United, Sandy F. Ray Award—Religious and Humanitarian Award—Cornerstone Baptist Church, Religious Award—People's Institutional AME Church, Religious Award—New Life Tabernacle Life Changing Ministries, Congressional Record United States House of Representatives, Woman of the Year for Community Service—Bridge Street AME Church, "Brooklyn Women of Essence" Con Edison and, finally, National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women, Global Ministries Humanitarian Award and International Affairs Division.

After working for 18 years for Borough President Howard Golden as Liaison to the Christian Community, Borough President, Marty Markowitz appointed her as Good Will Ambassador for Brooklyn Churches.

A TRIBUTE TO BETTY J. GIBBS

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 19, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Betty J. Gibbs, a nurturing presence who has been working with the children of Brooklyn for 40 years.

Ms. Betty J. Gibbs, lovingly known to her students as Ms. G and "Granny" to her "grandbabies," has been an influential figure in the lives of so many people. Ms. Gibbs began her work with students in January of 1968 as a paraprofessional with the NYC Board of Education. She held this position until 1998. She provided general supervision and instruction to small groups of children from grades one through six in math and reading.

In June of 1979, Ms. Gibbs became Site Supervisor for St. Christopher's Group Home. There, Ms. Gibbs was responsible for overseeing the home and the care of the girls that comprised the home, ensuring all the necessities and personal needs are met. She remained a positive inspiration in their lives until August of 1988.

Ms. Betty Gibbs obtained a position as the After School Program Director for Junior High School 275. There, she managed all aspects of the program. She held that position from March 1987, until June of 1988.

Throughout this time, Ms. Gibbs managed to go to school for herself obtaining an A.A.S. from New York Community College in 1973 and a B.A. of Education from Medgar Evers College in 1988.

In 1981, Ms. Gibbs became the Site Supervisor for the Jackie Robinson Center for Physical Culture. For the following 12 years she directed the ten components that comprised the program, as well as developed a multitude of events to help unify the community surrounding the center.

In June of 2003, Ms. Gibbs began working with the Soul Tigers Marching Band, Inc., as Assistant Band Director. There, she is like a second mother to the children. All the students love her and appreciate her nurturing presence in their lives.

She has won a number of awards in her life including: Unsung Hero (1996), Diamond Award (1993), and awards from The Joint Board of Ushers (1983), the United Community Baptist Church (1982) and Junior Glee Choir St. Marks Church (1976).
