Mr. DELAHUNT changed his vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. MCMAHON. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 819, had I been present, I would have voted “yea.”

(By unanimous consent, Mr. SHULER was allowed to speak out of order.)

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS VICTORIOUS OVER CAPITOL HILL POLICE IN ANNUAL CHARITY FOOTBALL GAME

Mr. SHULER. Mr. Speaker, it is a great privilege today to finally announce that after a lot of hard knocks and tries on the gridiron, the Capitol Hill Police versus the Members of Congress, we finally successfully came away with a victory last night.

Along with a lot of help, former members of the NFL certainly helped us along, certainly excluding me, Ken Harvey, John Booty and others played an outstanding game, but our Members of Congress did an outstanding job. I think it just goes to show you that, working together across the aisle, we too can succeed.

The co-captain, Mr. SHUSTER, probably had the most difficult job all night of managing who was in the game. You can only imagine; every Member of Congress thought that they were the best player on the team. So he had the most difficult job all night.

I would yield to my co-captain, Mr. SHUSTER.

Mr. SHUSTER. I thank the gentleman from North Carolina.

I want to rise also to congratulate all the participants in a game well-played last night. We had many Members of Congress. As the gentleman from North Carolina said, we had some former pro football players. It was a hard-fought battle. We won in overtime, 32–26, with a fantastic pass from HEATH SHULER to John Booty. It was fabulous.

As Mr. SHULER said, it has been four tries. This is our first victory, being able to beat the Capitol Police. But the big winner was the Capitol Hill Police Memorial Fund and the Washington Literacy Council. We believe we raised about $50,000 to be split between those two groups.

□ 1330

I would also like to acknowledge our offensive and defensive players in the game.

Offensive, it was easy. It was HEATH SHULER, five touchdown passes. He played a fantastic game. I think the NFL is going to start looking at you again, HEATH. We’d like that. Maybe that seat will come open in North Carolina if you went back to the NFL.

Also, on defense, there were two players that played the game, big surprises for our team: JACK KINGSTON, better known as Brett Favre of the congressional team, had an outstanding game. But the defensive player of the game went to ANTHONY “Mad Dog” WEINER, who had two key interceptions in the game and just played fantastic.

I want to thank Speaker PELOSI and Leader BOEHNER for their help and support in putting this game together. Also Roger Goodell, the Commissioner of the NFL, was there last night to flip the coin. And John Booty and Ken Harvey, two former NFL players, did a fantastic job in setting this up.

And finally, again, just to thank the Capitol Police, who do a great job day in and day out, making sure the Capitol is safe, making sure the people who come here are safe. So thank you to them.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate our team that won so decisively last night. Mr. BOEHNER and I were there to cheer the Democratic/Republican, Republican/Democratic team on.

The good news is that they won; the bad news is they beat the Capitol Police. So I don’t know what that means.

But the fact is that it was great teamwork between the Democrats and the Republicans, which was saluted in the Rotunda earlier today. Senator Edward Brooke, whom we had honored with the Congressional Gold Medal, was pleased to hear about this teamwork between Democrats and Republicans. And, indeed, it got a standing ovation from those folks who didn’t even know about the game until then.

But you should have seen our guys. They were so great.

Mr. SHUSTER, congratulations. Congratulations to HEATH SHULER. The last time I saw them, they were playing baseball. They go from baseball to football, all-round athletes; great teamwork, great leadership. Congratulations to our team.

And I, too, want to join in thanking the Capitol Police. I know they went all-out last night because they always go all-out for us.

Congratulations. We were suited up, but we were not called upon.

Mr. BOEHNER. Congratulations.
