HONORING STAFF WHO WORKED ON HEALTH CARE LEGISLATION

(Mr. WAXMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a minute to thank the staff that worked so hard on the health bill.

We could not have brought this legislation before the House today without the hard work and the professional standards of the House Legislative Counsel and the Congressional Budget Office. The staffs of these two offices spent many evenings and weekends under relentless deadline pressure helping us to solve the many technical challenges we faced in putting this bill together.

I particularly want to thank the outstanding staff of House Legislative Counsel who worked under the tireless direction of Deputy Legislative Counsel Ed Grossman; Jessica Shapiro, Megan Renfrew, Warren Burke, Henry Christrup, Larry Johnson, and Wade Ballou.

I also want to thank the talented staff of the Congressional Budget Office: Bob Sunshine, Pete Fontaine, Holly Harvey, Phil Ellis, Tom Bradley, and Kate Massey.

Finally, I want to thank the staffs of three committees that worked on this bill: Energy and Commerce, Ways and Means, and Education and Labor. Their expertise was remarkable, and their efforts—on both the Democratic and Republican side—Herculean.

In particular, I want to commend my committee Health staff, who worked under the direction of the incomparable Karen Nelson: Alvin Banks, Steve Cha, Bobby Clark, Brian Cohen, Alli Corr, Sarah Despres, Jack Ebeler, Tim Gronniger, Ruth Katz, Purvee Kempf, Anne Morris, Andy Schneider, Camille Sealy, Naomi Seiler, and Tim Westmoreland.

I yield at this time to the distinguished chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Mr. RANGEL. Thank you, Mr. WAXMAN, and also Chairman MILLER.

As most of you know, the legislation from the three committees was blended, but so were our great staffs blended. We are here to thank them all for the great work that they put in, the countless hours that they put in to make this legislation a reality.

On the staff of the Committee on Ways and Means in the office of the Health Subcommittee, I would like to thank Chairman PETE STARK, who worked on this legislation, Janice Mays, John Buckley, Cybele Bjorklund, Debbie Curtis, Chiquita Brooks-LaSure, Jennifer Friedman, Geoff Gerhardt, Tiffany Swygert, Drew Crouch, Marci Harris, Tom Tsang, Drew Dawson, Ruth Brown, John Barkett, Matthew Beck, Lauren Bloomberg, Brian Cook, and Cameron Branchley.

Because this legislation was the product of the three committees, I would like to thank the Health staffs of the Committee of Energy and Commerce as well as Education and Labor.

We are indebted to our staffs for the work that they have done. We want to thank the capable analysts at the CBO and the Joint Committee on Taxation. We may not always agree with all of the work that we have done, but we have put in a lot of long hours. They've worked day and night for all of us, for the Congress, and for our great country.

Mr. WAXMAN. Reclaiming my time, I also want to single out Virgil Miller and Katie Campbell, who worked on Mr. DINGELL's staff and worked very closely with all of us.
