XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 4173.

□ 2041

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4173) to provide for financial regulatory reform, to protect consumers and investors, to enhance Federal understanding of insurance issues, to regulate the over-the-counter derivatives markets, and for other purposes, with Mr. TEAGUE in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered read the first time and the amendment printed in House Report 111-365 is adopted.

Pursuant to the rule and the earlier orders of the House, general debate shall not exceed 3 hours, with 2 hours and 20 minutes equally divided and controlled by the Chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Financial Services, 30 minutes equally divided and controlled by the Chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Agriculture, and 10 minutes equally divided and controlled by the Chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. FRANK) and the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. BACHUS) each will control 1 hour and 10 minutes. The gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. PETERSON) and the gentleman from Oklahoma (Mr. LUCAS) each will control 15 minutes. The gentleman from California (Mr. WAXMAN) and the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BARTON) each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California.

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of H.R. 4173, the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2009. I have long advocated for comprehensive and effective financial regulatory reform. Last year, as the chairman of the Oversight Committee, we held many hearings examining the causes of the financial crisis. Those hearings showed government regulators were asleep at the switch while Wall Street banks drove our economy off a cliff. Change is necessary, and I believe this legislation will strengthen the Federal Government's ability to prevent and respond to future crises.

Consumer protection is a central element of the Energy and Commerce Committee's jurisdiction, and I support the reforms in the bill.

□ 2045

The legislation provides four essential improvements to the operations of the Federal Trade Commission. These improvements allow the FTC to seek civil penalties in enforcement actions against violations of the FTC Act, not just violations of rules and orders, as the FTC Act currently allows; enforce against those who provide substantial assistance to entities that commit fraud; promulgate rules using the Standard Administrative Procedures Act, processes used by virtually all other agencies; and litigate its own cases without delay when it seeks civil penalties against fraudulent actors.

Each of these four provisions will strengthen FTC's consumer protection abilities and enable it to be a powerful partner with the Consumer Financial Protection Agency in protecting consumers from financial fraud.

The Energy and Commerce Committee shares jurisdiction over the new Consumer Financial Protection Agency with the Financial Services Committee, and I am pleased Chairman FRANK and I were able to find a compromise in this area. Under the agreement we have reached, the agency will start off with a single director who can take early leadership in establishing the agency and getting it off the ground. After a period of 2 years, the agency will continue operations with the leadership from a bipartisan commission.

I have also been concerned about the provisions of this legislation relating to the regulation of financial instruments associated with the energy sector. I'm pleased to report that the Agriculture Committee and the Energy and Commerce Committee reached an agreement to address potential regulatory conflicts where the jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as enhanced by the proposed bill could overlap with the jurisdiction of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

I want to thank Chairman FRANK and his staff for leading this important legislation through Congress. I also want to thank Commerce, Trade, and Consumer Protection Subcommittee Chairman BOBBY RUSH for taking an early lead in examining the CFPA proposal in his subcommittee, and Chairman Emeritus DINGELL for ensuring that we enhance FTC's role. Ranking Member BARTON worked closely with us on our proposal to create a commission to lead the CFPA. And I finally want to thank Chairman PETERSON for working with us to resolve the energy regulatory issues.

I urge all of my colleagues to support this legislation.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I would yield myself 4 minutes.

(Mr. BARTON of Texas asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BARTON of Texas. First, let me say I rise in strong opposition to this bill. I did support marking it up at the Energy and Commerce Committee to maintain jurisdiction over this agency and other agencies in our committee's jurisdictions, and I did work with

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Two minutes remain in this vote.

□ 2036

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The title was amended so as to read: "A bill to eliminate an unused light-house reservation, provide management consistency by incorporating the rocks and small islands along the coast of Orange County, California, into the California Coastal National Monument managed by the Bureau of Land Management, and meet the original Congressional intent of preserving Orange County's rocks and small islands, and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERMISSION TO REALLOCATE TIME FOR GENERAL DEBATE DURING CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4173

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that during consideration of H.R. 4173 pursuant to H. Res. 956, the Chair of the Committee on Financial Services be permitted to control 10 minutes of the time allocated to the Chair of the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that during consideration of H.R. 4173 pursuant to H. Res. 956, the ranking member of the Committee on Financial Services be permitted to control 10 minutes of the time allocated to the Chair of the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 4173 and to insert extraneous material therein.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

WALL STREET REFORM AND CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 2009

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 956 and rule
