MOMENT OF SILENCE IN MEMORY OF FORMER REPRESENTATIVE PAUL A. FINO OF NEW YORK

(Mr. ENGEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, it is with sadness that I announce the death of my predecessor once removed, Congressman Paul A. Fino of New York.

When I was growing up, you think of certain elected officials as larger than life. Paul Fino was certainly larger than life. He served eight terms here in the House, a State senator, served on the State Supreme Court, was chairman of the Bronx County Republican Party for many years, and one of the people who really represented New York.

He lived the American Dream. His father was a subway car mechanic. He leaves his wife, Esther, of 70 years, and his children, Lucille and Paul.

I remember growing up, he had these big signs that said Social Security at 60 and a national lottery. These were the things that he really believed in.

He lived to be 95, someone that we all respect and really remember and revere.

I yield to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. KING of New York. Mr. Speaker, I join with Congressman ENGEL in mourning the passing of Paul Fino, who among other things, was I believe the last elected Republican congressman from the Bronx. He was an outstanding Congressman. He was a member of the New York State Supreme Court. In his retirement years he moved to Nassau County, and he never lost his love and his interest for Congress. In fact, every year he would call me to remind me to send him a program of the congressional baseball game. He loved this institution; he loved the Congress. He was a great man. And for those of us old enough to remember the 1961 mayor's race, he was the middleman on the most famous, ethnically balanced race in the history of New York of Lefkowitz, Fino, and Gilhooley. They touched all of the ethnic bases at that time. He was unsuccessful in that race, but he was successful in all his others.

With Mr. ENGEL, I mourn his passing.

Mr. ENGEL. I would ask for a moment of silence in honor of Congressman Paul A. Fino.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members will rise for a moment of silence.
