

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent to the Federal Register for publication the enclosed notice stating that the national emergency, declared in Executive Order 13466 of June 26, 2008, is to continue in effect beyond June 26, 2009.

The current existence and risk of the proliferation of weapons-usable fissile material on the Korean Peninsula constitute a continuing unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to continue the national emergency and maintain certain restrictions with respect to North Korea and North Korean nationals that would otherwise have been lifted in Proclamation 8271 of June 26, 2008.

BARACK OBAMA.
THE WHITE HOUSE, June 24, 2009.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE CHAIR

The CHAIR (during the vote). There is 1 minute remaining in this vote.

□ 2145

So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

This Act may be cited as the “Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act, 2010”.

The CHAIR. There being no further amendments, under the rule, the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mrs. TAUSCHER) having assumed the chair, Ms. DEGETTE, Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2892) making appropriations for the Department of Homeland Security for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 573, she reported the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted by the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Pursuant to House Resolution 573, the question on adoption of the amendments will be put en gros.

The question is on the amendments.

The amendments were agreed to.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I move that the vote on the amendments be divided.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will respond by reading from House Resolution 573.

The Chair is reading from page 3, line 11:

In case of sundry amendments reported from the Committee, the question of their adoption shall be put to the House en gros and without intervening demand for division of the question.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I move that the amendments be divided.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has just read the rule saying that the amendments en gros may not be divided.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, isn't it true that rules routinely provide for a separate vote to be allowed when the Committee rises on amendments being offered in the Committee of the Whole?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will not compare this rule to other rules.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Further parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, if a Member voted "no" on one amendment and "yes" on another amendment and wanted the opportunity to have a separate vote on those two amendments, my understanding is that the ruling of the Chair and the rule prohibits a separate vote on those two amendments; is that correct?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair does not respond to hypothetical questions.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, further parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. If I desired a vote on two separate amendments, is there a way under the rule for that to be accomplished?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will read the rule again. Page 3, line 11:

In case of sundry amendments reported from the Committee, the question of their adoption shall be put to the House en gros and without intervening demand for division of the question.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Further inquiry, Madam Speaker.

It is my understanding that this type of rule has never been utilized before. Is the Speaker aware of that?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will not serve as historian.

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. I thank the Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Madam Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. In its present form, I am.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Rogers of Kentucky moves to recommit the bill H.R. 2892 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 18, after the dollar amount insert "(reduced by $50,000,000)".

On page 52, line 19, after the first dollar amount insert "(increased by $50,000,000)".

On page 52, line 21, after the dollar amount insert "(increased by $50,000,000)".

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Kentucky is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Madam Speaker, since the majority has shut out nearly all the minority from offering legitimate and well-reasoned amendments, I offer this motion to recommit.

The motion is straightforward. It would simply add $50 million to the E-Verify program. This program allows an employer to call and verify that an applicant for a job is not an illegal immigrant. For months the administration and this majority have delayed, diminished and ultimately dismissed the government-run employee verification system under the guise that the system is inaccurate, costly, and susceptible to error and identity theft. However, E-Verify is accurate 99-plus percent of the time. In my book, 99 percent accuracy, especially when we're talking about jobs and security, is a pretty good statistic.

Having said that, this motion would ensure beyond a shadow of a doubt complete and total accuracy of E-Verify. No longer can opponents of E-Verify hide behind concerns about incorrect readings or system errors. This motion simply directs $50 million in this bill to improve on a system that the current Secretary of Homeland Security had the good sense to adopt in her home State when she was governor 2 years ago.

E-Verify ensures that a legitimate worker has a legitimate shot at a job. If we can't help our citizenry in this, what are we doing here? Second, it's a tool to prevent illegitimate workers from working in secure areas; airport runways, military bases, Federal buildings, train yards and so forth. Continued opposition to this creates a security vulnerability we simply can't afford. We have record-level unemployment in this country, and we have Americans who want to work, yet we continue to drag our feet and delay both an economic tool and a homeland security tool.

So let's get past the rhetoric. Let's add sufficient funds to ensure even greater accuracy, capacity and oversight to prevent the risk of identity theft. Madam Speaker, $50 million is just one-third of the raise the departmental headquarters gives itself under this bill. So let's give Americans at least a fighting chance at a job and ensure that our government and U.S. businesses are employing legitimate American workers.

I yield to my colleague from California.

Mr. CALVERT. Madam Speaker, as the original author of E-Verify, I would like to report tonight we have over 135,000 employers throughout the United States that are using E-Verify every day successfully. Millions of employees have gone through that system to make sure that the workforce that they're employing is a legal workforce. As a former employer in the restaurant business, I can tell you, I wish I had that system available to me. Adding this $50 million will make sure E-Verify is accurate. It's already 99 percent accurate. That's pretty good for government work. We can make it even more accurate. We need to make sure that jobs in this country go to people who are here legally. This is an opportunity for the House to vote for this motion to recommit that will make sure that Americans who are looking for jobs will have the opportunity to find one.

So I would ask all my colleagues, vote "yes" on this motion to recommit.

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. I thank the gentleman for those remarks. Give Americans a job.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. PRICE of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. PRICE of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, let me say at the outset that I understand Members will make their own decision about this amendment, and I'm not going to presume to recommend a "yes" or "no" vote. But I am going to say a few things which need to be said and give a few facts about the impact of this motion and about this program, which I hope will help Members make this decision.

It is ironic, given the amount of discussion we've heard tonight about how harmful the deficit is, to suddenly be told that a program that's already growing at 12 percent a year, well above inflation, needs to be increased.

Let me just remind Members of what the figures look like. This E-Verify program was funded in the '08 fiscal year at $60 million. It's funded this year at $100 million. It will be funded next year, according to our bill, at $112 million. Yet as of the end of April, the program had not obligated 70 percent of its 2009 budget, even though the fiscal year was more than half over. A third of the funds from the last year of the Bush administration also remain unobligated. So this doesn't look like a situation where throwing money at the program will solve its problems since the program obviously cannot spend the funds it currently has bankrolled.

Now it is true that the E-Verify system has problems, particularly with falsely telling an unacceptable number of U.S. citizens that they cannot work. We provide ample money in this bill to work on those problems. However, the 2010 budget funds the entire $112 million request for the E-Verify system. It also, by the way, extends the program's authorization by 2 years. The additional funding already provided in the bill will allow the DHS managers of E-Verify to improve oversight and auditing of the program to address technical difficulties that hamper its success. There is absolutely no indication that taking this $112 million budget figure to $162 million would accomplish anything except decimating the top ranks of DHS by way of this costly offset.

With the amendments that have been adopted here today, including this one, we would have cut $120 million below the administration's request for the Office of the Undersecretary for Management. A cut like this would fall hardest on important initiatives, which this House has backed in a bipartisan fashion: to improve departmental security, to train workers to meet the department's acquisition needs, to tighten oversight of DHS's major procurements, and to ensure classified programs aren't wasting taxpayer dollars or accidentally leaking classified information through the procurement process. It is a massive and devastating cut, not a free ride, not in the least. Members can make their own decision.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Madam Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 and clause 9 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on the motion to recommit will be followed by 5-minute votes on passage of H.R. 2892; ordering the previous question on H. Res. 572; adopting H. Res. 572, if ordered; and approving the Journal, if ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 234, noes 193, not voting 6, as follows:
