HONORING MICHAEL JACKSON, KING OF POP

(Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I know some people in this esteemed Chamber would consider all of the hoopla surrounding the death of Michael Jackson to be unnecessary. I know that some people consider this to not be important. But that's to them.

There are a lot of people out here whom Michael Jackson brought together. Despite any kinds of allegations, which I consider to be false in terms of child molestation and that kind of thing, despite all of that, we have to look at the good things that Michael did.

I know there are some generations that preceded mine that have no idea about the music of Michael Jackson because they never listened, and they don't know the international aspects of what he did. They don't know that he was a fundraiser for worthy causes.

The only thing they know about him is “child molester,” and nothing could be further from the truth. The man was never found guilty of child molestation. He paid a settlement, but that had nothing to do with guilt or innocence. So I just want us to be very Christian.

MEDIA SHOULD REPORT HEALTH CARE FACTS

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Madam Speaker, recently 12 separate articles in The New York Times, The Washington Post, and The Los Angeles Times have reported that 46 million people don't have health insurance in America. And the administration is trying to justify a government takeover of health care because of this figure.

But not one of the articles explained that this number is a hoax. Fourteen million people are eligible for existing government programs like Medicare
