Messrs. CARNEY, McCLINTOCK, Ms. KILPATRICK of Michigan, Mr. BRIGHT, Mrs. NAPOLITANO, Mr. BERRY, Ms. CLARKE, Messrs. COHEN and DICKS changed their vote from "yea" to "nay."
 So the motion to adjourn was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

AGRICULTURE, RURAL DEVELOPMENT, FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2010

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 609 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 2997.

□ 1054

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2997) making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010, and for other purposes, with Mr. SNYDER in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIR. When the Committee of the Whole rose on Wednesday, July 8, 2009, a request for a recorded vote on amendment No. 7 printed in part B of House Report 111-191 by the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. KINGSTON) had been postponed and the bill had been read through page 74, line 22.

Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, proceedings will now resume on those amendments printed in House Report 111-191 on which further proceedings were postponed, in the following order:

Amendment No. 1 printed in part A by Ms. DELAURO of Connecticut.

Amendment No. 2 printed in part B by Mr. BRADY of Texas.

Amendment No. 4 printed in part B by Mrs. CAPITO of West Virginia.

Amendment No. 3 printed in part B by Mr. BROUN of Georgia.

Amendment No. 1 printed in part B by Mrs. BLACKBURN of Tennessee.

Amendment No. 6 printed in part E by Mr. HENSARLING of Texas.

Amendment No. 2 printed in part C by Mr. CAMPBELL of California.

Amendment No. 9 printed in part D by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

Amendment No. 4 printed in part D by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

Amendment No. 12 printed in part D by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

Amendment No. 7 printed in part B by Mr. KINGSTON of Georgia.

The Chair will reduce to 2 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first vote in this series.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. MICA. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. MICA.

The CHAIR. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. MICA. Mr. Chair, it is my understanding that the first amendment that will be considered is the DeLauro amendment, which is a manager's amendment that incorporates a number of provisions that do, in fact, legislate on an appropriations measure.

Is it not correct, Mr. Chair, that within the rule, H. Res. 609, providing for consideration of this measure before the House, all points of order were waived against any objection to legislating on an appropriations measure?

So, in fact, Mr. Chair, is it not correct that we are legislating on an appropriations measure with some of the provisions contained in this first amendment to be voted on by the House and, in fact, that a provision of the rule does waive any point of order against that action?

The CHAIR. The Chair does not interpret the content of the amendment.

Mr. MICA. Does it not, in fact, contain measures that are new?

The CHAIR. The gentleman is not stating a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. MICA. Point of order. This does legislate on an appropriations measure which I was denied the opportunity to do but in fact they're doing in this first amendment?

The CHAIR. The gentleman has not made a point of order.

Mr. MICA. I appeal the decision of the Chair.

The CHAIR. The Chair has not conferred recognition at this point to make a point of order. That decision is not subject to appeal.

Mr. MICA. I thank the Chair.

PART A AMENDMENT NO. 1 OFFERED BY MS. DELAURO

The CHAIR. The unfinished business is the demand for a recorded vote on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from Connecticut (Ms. DeLAURO) on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the ayes prevailed by voice vote.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE CHAIR

The CHAIR (during the vote). One minute is remaining on the vote.

□ 1150

Mr. BRIGHT changed his vote from "aye" to "no."

So the amendment was rejected.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

This Act may be cited as the "Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2010".

The CHAIR. Under the rule, the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. ROSS) having assumed the chair, Mr. SNYDER, Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R.

2997) making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 609, he reported the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted by the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WESTMORELAND. Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WESTMORELAND. Mr. Speaker, is it true that under this rule, we cannot get separate votes in the House on each amendment that was adopted in the Committee of the Whole?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the Chair will put the question on the amendments en gros.

Mr. WESTMORELAND. So is it true that we will not be able to get a separate vote on the amendments that were passed in the Committee of the Whole?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will put the question on the amendments en gros pursuant to the rule.

Mr. WESTMORELAND. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm assuming that is a "no" answer.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 609, the question on adoption of the amendments will be put en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. KINGSTON. I am, in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Kingston moves to recommit the bill back to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end of the bill, insert the following new section:

SEC. . REGULAR ORDER ON APPROPRIATIONS BILLS.

(a) FINDINGS.—

(1) On October 6, 2000, the gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey, made the following statement regarding the appropriations process: "We have gotten so far from the regular order that I fear that if this continues, the House will not have the capacity to return to the precedents and procedures of the House that have given true meaning to the term 'representative democracy'. The reason that we have stuck to regular order as long as we have in this institution is to protect the rights of every Member to participate. And when we lose those rights, we lose the right to be called the greatest deliberative body left in the world."

(2) On that same day, the gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey went on to say, "I believe that this incredible centralization of decision-making in the hands of staff in the House leadership offices means that for most Members representing their districts in this body is diminishing every day in terms of their ability to have a say in what goes on around here."

(3) On July 8, 2009, the House adopted a rule governing consideration of this bill making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010 that deviated from the regular order by making in order no more than 13 amendments and by specifically preventing 39 Members from offering amendments that they had publicly indicated a desire to have debated.

(4) The following Members were specifically denied the right to participate in the deliberations on this bill by having one or more of their amendments denied the right to be debated:

The gentlewoman from Illinois, Ms. Bean;
The gentlewoman from Tennessee, Ms. Blackburn;
The gentleman from Texas, Mr. Brady;
The gentleman from Georgia, Mr. Broun;
The gentleman from North Carolina, Mr. Butterfield;
The gentleman from California, Mr. Campbell;
The gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. Carney;
The gentleman from Louisiana, Mr. Cassidy;
The gentleman from Utah, Mr. Chaffetz;
The gentleman from Texas, Mr. Conaway;
The gentleman from Connecticut, Mr. Courtney;
The gentleman from Oregon, Mr. DeFazio;
The gentleman from Arizona, Mr. Flake;
The gentleman from Georgia, Mr. Gingrey;
The gentleman from New York, Mr. Hall;
The gentleman from Texas, Mr. Hensarling;
The gentleman from New York, Mr. Higgins;
The gentleman from New Hampshire, Mr. Hodes;
The gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Jordan;
The gentleman from Georgia, Mr. Kingston;
The gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Kucinich;
The gentleman from New York, Mr. Lee;
The gentleman from Oklahoma, Mr. Lucas;
The gentlewoman from Wyoming, Ms. Lummis;
The gentleman from Florida, Mr. Mack;
The gentleman from Texas, Mr. McCaul;
The gentlewoman from Washington, Ms. McMorris Rodgers;
The gentleman from Florida, Mr. Mica;
The gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. Murphy;
The gentleman from Georgia, Mr. Price;
The gentleman from Florida, Mr. Putnam;
The gentlewoman from New Hampshire, Ms. Shea-Porter;
The gentleman from Florida, Mr. Stearns;
The gentleman from Michigan, Mr. Stupak;
The gentleman from Kansas, Mr. Tiahrt;
The gentleman from New York, Mr. Tonko;
The gentleman from New York, Mr. Weiner;
The gentleman from Vermont, Mr. Welch;
and,
The gentleman from Virginia, Mr. Wittman.

(5) As each of these Members represents approximately 650,000 Americans, approximately 25,350,000 Americans were denied their right to be represented because the restrictive rule supported by the gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey, failed to follow the precedents and procedures of the House;

(6) The gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey, was correct that a true representative democracy is impossible when 25,350,000 Americans have their representative to Congress shut-out of the legislative process;

(7) As a result of the restrictive rule implemented by the Democratic majority, the House was not allowed to vote or even debate pertinent issues such as:

An amendment that would reduce spending by 1 percent saving taxpayers $229,000,000;

An amendment to prohibit ineligible individual from receiving food stamps;

An amendment that would reduce the cost of construction projects in rural areas;

An amendment to end taxpayer subsidies for mohair producers;

An amendment to prevent Federal employees from being paid to do union activities during their official work hours;

An amendment to permit Federal agencies to purchase alternative fuels;

An amendment to terminate taxpayer funded marketing programs for private companies;

An amendment to reduce this bill and the deficit by $4,800,000,000;

An amendment to ensure that Federal contractors only hire legal workers;

An amendment to prohibit the provision of taxpayer funded rental housing to illegal aliens;

An amendment to support our dairy farmers in the northeast;

An amendment to assist farmers in Florida hit by a natural disaster;

An amendment to prohibit funds in the bill from being spent on projects named after sitting Members of Congress;

An amendment to ensure that the Federal government works with state agencies on food safety issues;

An amendment to protect whistleblower employees from retaliation for providing Congress or the public with information; and,

An amendment to terminate taxpayer subsidies for wool producers.

(8) The gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey, was correct that the House loses the right to be called the "greatest deliberative body left in the world" if it refuses to even debate, let alone vote, on these issues.

(b) POLICY.—It is the policy of the U.S. House of Representatives that this bill should be reopened for amendment under the regular order procedures advocated by the gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Obey, on October 6, 2000.

Ms. DELAURO (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I reserve a point of order on the gentleman's motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. A point of order is reserved.

□ 1200

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. DELAURO. I make a point of order against the motion to recommit because it is in violation of clause 2, rule XXI, legislating.

I ask for a ruling of the Chair.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does any Member wish to be heard on the point of order?

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to be heard on the point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Georgia is recognized.

Mr. KINGSTON. I thank my colleague from Connecticut for the opportunity to speak on this. And I want to talk to the Members of the House on why this motion to recommit is important to all of us.

We are on the verge of voting on a $123.8 billion bill which represents a 14 percent increase over last year's spending level in the backdrop of a nation that has an $11 trillion national debt.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the point of order.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, this administration has spent nearly $2 trillion in deficit spending. Now, what this motion to recommit does is says that we were not allowed to vote on 90 different amendments offered by Democrats and Republicans, representing nearly 650,000 people each. These amendments, had we had the opportunity to vote on them, would have improved the bill. One of them, for example, was a 1 percent savings—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the point of order.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, the motion does not change existing law; therefore, the gentlewoman's point of order is invalid.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is prepared to rule.

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to speak to the point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized on the point of order.

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, in order to properly address the point of order, I think it is important that we look at House Resolution 609, which was adopted by the Rules Committee to set the order and the consideration of the legislation that's before the House today. It also excluded a large number of amendments that were crafted, Mr. Speaker, to the objection—the same objection that's being raised here—that in fact those amendments were legislating on an appropriations bill, which in fact is out of order because of the way this was crafted.

Now, the gentleman from Georgia has in fact offered a motion that does contain some provisions that would change the law, but only the appropriations which this part of the bill deals with. And this point has been raised against the motion to recommit.

So, in fact, what I was denied was the opportunity, Mr. Speaker, to offer one of the amendments. And I believe the reading clerk—I couldn't hear, but I believe the reading clerk mentioned my name among the names of those who were denied an amendment that would legislate on appropriations.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the point of order.

The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. MICA. Again, I think the point of order is that the Rules Committee crafted a rule, and we adopted previous amendments—one by the gentlelady who is now objecting—that did in fact legislate on an appropriation matter, no different from what the gentleman from Georgia is now attempting to do. The precedence of the House—Mr. YOUNG, I talked to him earlier, he said he's been here 39 years and he has never seen appropriations handled in this unfair manner.

So, again, I think the point is that the gentleman from Georgia is proceeding in good faith, in fact, in the order that has been presented by the Rules Committee on the order to proceed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will only hear argument on whether the proposed amendment violates clause 2 of Rule XXI. The Chair is prepared to rule.

The motion to recommit offered by the gentleman from Georgia proposes an amendment addressing a policy regarding special orders of business for consideration of appropriation bills. That is not a matter of appropriation or limitation thereof; rather, it is wholly legislative in character. As such, it violates clause 2 of rule XXI.

The point of order is sustained. The motion is not in order.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I appeal the ruling of the Chair.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?

MOTION TO TABLE

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I move to lay the appeal on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to table.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 246, noes 179, not voting 7, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1225

Messrs. BILIRAKIS, ISSA, and KRATOVIĆ changed their vote from “aye” to “no.”

Mr. HOLDEN and Ms. SLAUGHTER changed their vote from “no” to “aye.” So the motion to table was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. KINGSTON. I am in its present form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Kingston moves to recommit the bill H.R. 2997 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 3, line 19, after the dollar amount insert “(reduced by $30,000,000)”.

Page 5, line 4, after the dollar amount insert “(reduced by $50,000,000)”.

Page 5, line 5, after the dollar amount insert “(reduced by $50,000,000)”.

Page 5, line 11, after the dollar amount insert “(reduced by $50,000,000)”.

Page 40, line 9, after the dollar amount insert “(increased by $20,000,000)”.

Page 46, line 18, after the dollar amount insert “(increased by $20,000,000)”.

Page 55, line 15, after the dollar amount insert “(reduced by $20,000,000)”.

Page 68, line 21, strike “$1,180,000,000” and insert “$1,240,000,000”.

Mr. KINGSTON (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Clerk dispense with the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

Ms. DELAURO. I object.

Mr. SPEAKER pro tempore. Objection is heard.

The Clerk will continue to read.

The Clerk continued to read.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Georgia is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. NUNES. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, article I, section 8 of the United States Constitution says that the Congress shall have the power to provide for the general welfare of the United States.

Congress has the basic responsibility to provide water to its citizens, Mr. Speaker. To say it bluntly, this Congress has failed in its constitutional duty to provide water to its citizens.

It's been 651 days since I warned this government of the imposed drought in California, the government-imposed drought. Since then, the Democrat leadership in this country has sat back and watched the vibrant economy of the San Joaquin Valley deteriorate to a level similar to a third world country. Unemployment in the San Joaquin Valley of California is nearing 20 percent, with some communities at 40 percent. Despite this economic catastrophe, the Democrat leadership in this country has remained silent.

Thankfully, around midnight on Tuesday, Mr. Speaker, my friend from California (Mr. CALVERT) offered an amendment, during the Energy and Water Appropriations markup, which would have restored the flow of water to communities. A 30-minute debate followed this, which included absolutely outrageous and outright threatful statements.

□ 1230

One of my colleagues on the committee opined that California's water is critical to salmon and other endangered species, like the killer whale.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues, killer whales, these orcas live up here north of Washington. Mr. Speaker, what do killer whales have to do with landlocked farmers way down here? How is this possible?

Then my colleague went on to say, “The culprit is not the Endangered Species Act but climate change.” Mr. Speaker, what does climate change have to do with 40,000 people without jobs? I find it ironic that my colleague in 2003 didn't have the same concern when he supported the energy and water bill which overturned the Endangered Species Act on the silvery minnow. In fact, 31 of my Democrat colleagues on the Appropriations Committee supported the exact same bill in 2003 to protect the silvery minnow. What has changed for my Democrat colleagues? The silvery minnow and the delta smelt are both 3-inch bait fish.

Another member of the committee declared that the Calvert amendment was a “wish amendment.” Wish is certainly the right word to use. My constituents wish that the Democrats in this body would do their job. The same Member went on to threaten members of the committee that if they supported the Calvert amendment, they would lose their earmarks. It's amazing what happens around this place when the clock strikes midnight and they think no one is watching what people say. My message to you is, we are watching. I put the entire hearing up on YouTube for everyone in the world to see the pathetic excuses that were made in that committee that night.

My colleagues have complained that California farmers are putting fishermen out of work. But the truth is, the Federal Government put the salmon fishermen out of work. In fact, the Federal Government paid $100 million to the salmon fishermen not to fish. It doesn't take $100 million to solve the crisis in California, Mr. Speaker. It doesn't even take a penny. Just turn on the pumps, and restore the flow of water, is all we're asking.

It's unfortunate that the Democrat majority has made it quite clear they are going to ignore their constitutional duty to provide for the general welfare of its citizens. The other night my good friend from Idaho (Mr. SIMPSON) said during the debate, “The Endangered Species Act wasn't written by God. It was written by man. If we can't make exceptions to it when necessary, what kind of Representatives are we?” The gentleman from Idaho is correct. My constituents don't want your welfare. They want the Democrat leadership in this body to do their job.

Mr. KINGSTON. The gentleman from California is correct. The people from California want water, not welfare.

I withdraw the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the motion is withdrawn.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the bill.

Under clause 10 of rule XX, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 266, nays 160, not voting 6, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Members have 2 minutes to vote.

□ 1250

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Ms. MARKEY of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 510 on the Agriculture appropriations bill, had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, reluctantly, but on behalf of my potato farmers who were not addressed by the amendment, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to adjourn.

The motion to adjourn was rejected.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3081, DEPARTMENT OF STATE, FOREIGN OPERATIONS, AND RELATED PROGRAMS APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2010

Mr. CARDOZA. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 617 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 617

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XVIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3081) making appropriations for the Department of State, foreign operations, and related programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived except those arising under clause 9 or 10 of rule XXI. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. Points of order against provisions in the bill for failure to comply with clause 2 of rule XXI are waived. Notwithstanding clause 11 of rule XVIII, except as provided in section 2, no amendment shall be in order except: (1) the amendment printed in part A of the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution; and (2) the amendments printed in part B of the report of the Committee on Rules. Each such amendment may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for 10 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order against such amendments are waived except those arising under clause 9 or 10 of rule XXI and except that an amendment printed in part B of the report of the Committee on Rules may be offered only at the appropriate point in the reading. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. In the case of sundry amendments reported from the Committee, the question of their adoption shall be put to the House en gros and without division of the question. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. After consideration of the bill for amendment, the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations or their designees each may offer one pro forma amendment to the bill for the purpose of debate, which shall be controlled by the proponent.

SEC. 3. The Chair may entertain a motion that the Committee rise only if offered by the chair of the Committee on Appropriations or his designee. The Chair may not entertain a motion to strike out the enacting words of the bill (as described in clause 9 of rule XVIII).

SEC. 4. During consideration of H.R. 3081, the Chair may reduce to two minutes the minimum time for electronic voting under clause 6 of rule XVIII and clauses 8 and 9 of rule XX.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SNYDER). The gentleman from California is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. CARDOZA. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from Florida, my good friend, Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART. All time yielded for consideration of the rule is for debate only.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. CARDOZA. I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on House Resolution 617.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. CARDOZA. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

House Resolution 617 provides for consideration of H.R. 3081, the Department of State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs appropriations bill for the fiscal year 2010, under a structured rule.

The rule provides for 1 hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations.
