

I also ask for special consideration and clarification on an important part of this bill. As it currently stands, if one spouse owns the title to a “clunker” and the other spouse holds the registration, that couple is not eligible to participate in the program. I believe that consideration to married couples should be afforded more flexibility and that regardless of the registration/title configuration, those married couples should be able to participate.

Finally, this is a very positive, bipartisan initiative to help our auto industry, to help consumers, to grow our economy, and to do it in an environmentally sound way.

Mr. OBEY. I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3435.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Pursuant to House Resolution 697, this 15-minute vote on the motion to suspend the rules will be followed by 5-minute votes on adoption of the Frank amendment, as modified, to H.R. 3269; adoption of the Garrett amendment to H.R. 3269.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 316, nays 109, answered “present” 2, not voting 6, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1338

Messrs. CONYERS and OBEY changed their vote from “aye” to “no.” So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. SESSIONS. I am.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Sessions moves to recommit the bill, H.R. 3269, to the Committee on Financial Services with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end of section 14(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as added by section 2 of the bill), insert the following:

“(6) DISCLOSURE OF ACTIVITIES TO INFLUENCE VOTE.—Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) or (2)(B), a shareholder's vote shall not be counted under such paragraphs if the shareholder has spent, directly or indirectly, more than a de minimis amount of money (as determined by the Commission) on activities to influence the vote under such paragraphs of other shareholders, unless such shareholder discloses to the Commission, in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission—

“(A) the identity of all persons or entities engaged in activities to influence such a vote;

“(B) the activities engaged in to influence such a vote; and

“(C) the amount of money expended on activities to influence such a vote.”

Mr. SESSIONS (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have the motion considered as read.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Mr. SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to preempt a common protest by the gentleman, my friend from Massachusetts, and let my colleagues know that this motion will not “kill the bill.” In fact, it will not even send it back to committee. We have the authority right here, right now to provide for the appropriate transparency and accountability just by passing this motion.

The legislation that the Democrat majority has brought before the House today forces every publicly held company to bear the cost of administering a toothless, non-binding shareholder vote on pay packages during every proxy vote.

This motion to recommit would improve this interventionist legislation by providing sunshine and transparency for shareholders so that there is full disclosure about who is financing efforts to influence a vote on this new, congressionally mandated, non-binding shareholder resolution.

Let me give an example of a substantially similar disclosure requirement that every Member of this body understands because it's already a current practice: As Federal candidates, we are obligated to disclose to the FEC the name, occupation, and amount given from each of our donors. We require this because public interest is advanced by letting voters know who funds each candidate's campaign.

My motion asks for the same disclosure so that shareholders know what persons or organizations are spending money to influence the new mandatory, non-binding vote.

The purpose of this motion is not to impede the ability of organizations to influence the vote. If they hold shares in stock, they will be able to express their opinion. The point of the motion is to simply provide voters, in this case shareholders, with access to information about who is spending money and what are they attempting to influence with their vote.

My motion tasks the SEC with setting a de minimis level of spending and with collecting important information about anyone or any organization that spends over that amount to influence a vote, including who is spending the money, what they are spending the money on, and how much they are spending to influence the votes of other shareholders.

This motion provides an appropriate level of transparency for shareholder elections. If we believe that voters deserve this information, we should also give to shareholders this same level of transparency.

Once again, I would like to make it clear that this legislation will not “kill the bill,” as its opponents might claim. It will not send the bill back to committee to fix its current lack of transparency because it allows it to be done right here, right now.

I encourage all my colleagues to support this commonsense motion to improve transparency for shareholders about who is trying to influence their votes.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I rise to claim the time in opposition to the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Massachusetts is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, that speech would have been impressive—I might have disagreed with it—if it applied to all shareholder votes. The recommittal motion singles out the say-on-pay. And if you want to influence pay, you have to report everything. If you want to vote on a merger or an acquisition or if you want to vote on anything else, you don't have to do it. It's not a uniform requirement of a disclosure. It burdens the say-on-pay vote and leaves every other vote in the dark. If that's so important, why did we not have a broader version of it?

It also is quite burdensome.

□ 1345

If you want to spend money to oppose large bonuses, to oppose large salaries, to oppose a company paying 72 percent of its revenue, as recently happened, in compensation, if you are a pension fund, if you are a union, if you want to write to your own members and say this is a bad idea, if you hold shares, vote “no.” You have to give the identity of all persons or entities engaged in the activity and the activities engaged.

It is not simply a reporting of the amount of money. It is a very detailed one, and it burdens only those voting on say-on-pay. It clearly comes from a hostility of the notion of say-on-pay. Members who opposed it 2 years ago can't oppose it today, so they now have a new tactic. They are trying to aggravate it.

And while we are on the subject of aggravation, I hope to reduce the level here by asking people to vote “no.”

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1409

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. MARKEY of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 686, I inadvertently did not vote, but intended to vote "aye".

Stated against:

Mr. LEE of New York. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 686, had I been present, I would have voted "no."

FURTHER MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A further message from the Senate by Ms. Curtis, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate has passed without amendment a concurrent resolution of the House of the following title:

H. Con. Res. 172. Concurrent resolution providing for a conditional adjournment of the House of Representatives and a conditional recess or adjournment of the Senate.

AUTHORIZING USE OF CAPITOL GROUNDS FOR NATIONAL WEEK-END OF REMEMBRANCE EVENT

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure be discharged from further consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 171) authorizing the use of the Capitol Grounds for an event to honor military personnel who have died in service to the United States and to acknowledge the sacrifice of the families of those individuals as part of the National Weekend of Remembrance, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the concurrent resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. MAFFEI). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Minnesota?

There was no objection.

The text of the concurrent resolution is as follows:

H. CON. RES. 171

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),

SECTION 1. USE OF CAPITOL GROUNDS FOR NATIONAL WEEKEND OF REMEMBRANCE EVENT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The White House Commission on Remembrance (in this resolution referred to as the "sponsor") shall be permitted to sponsor a public event (in this resolution referred to as the "event") on the Capitol Grounds to honor military personnel who have died in service to the United States and to acknowledge the sacrifice of the families of those individuals as part of the National Weekend of Remembrance.

(b) DATE OF EVENT.—The event shall be held on September 26, 2009, or on such other date as the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Rules and Administration of the Senate jointly designate.

SEC. 2. TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Under conditions to be prescribed by the Architect of the Capitol and the Capitol Police Board, the event shall be—

(1) free of admission charge and open to the public; and

(2) arranged not to interfere with the needs of Congress.

(b) EXPENSES AND LIABILITIES.—The sponsor shall assume full responsibility for all expenses and liabilities incident to all activities associated with the event.

SEC. 3. EVENT PREPARATIONS.

Subject to the approval of the Architect of the Capitol, the sponsor is authorized to erect upon the Capitol Grounds such stage, sound amplification devices, and other related structures and equipment, as may be required for the event.

SEC. 4. ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRICTIONS.

The Capitol Police Board shall provide for enforcement of the restrictions contained in section 5104(c) of title 40, United States Code, concerning sales, advertisements, displays, and solicitations on the Capitol Grounds, as well as other restrictions applicable to the Capitol Grounds, in connection with the event.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Concurrent Resolution 171, authorizing the use of the Capitol Grounds for an event to honor military personnel who have died in service to the United States and to acknowledge the sacrifice of the families of those individuals as part of the National Weekend of Remembrance.

This concurrent resolution will permit the use of the Capitol Grounds for a Time of Remembrance tribute for military families who have lost loved ones in Iraq and Afghanistan, including 72 Minnesota families (with 12 families from my Congressional District). This event will be held on September 26, 2009, on the West Front of the Capitol and will be sponsored by the White House Commission on Remembrance and Families United for Our Troops and Their Mission, a non-profit organization.

The White House Commission on Remembrance was established by Congress in 2000, under the National Moment of Remembrance Act (P.L. 106–579). This law directed the Commission to unite the nation in a National Moment of Remembrance, to be held at 3:00 p.m. each Memorial Day. Since 2006, the Commission has also sponsored an annual Time of Remembrance ceremony to "honor all those who have died in service to our country, with a special tribute to America's fallen in Afghanistan and Iraq and the families they left behind."

Passing this resolution will ensure that this year's ceremony, and a picnic to follow, will be allowed to go forward on the Capitol Grounds on September 26, 2009. Activities on the Capitol Grounds conducted under H. Con. Res. 171 will be coordinated with the Architect of the Capitol and the Capitol Police Board, and will be free of charge.

This ceremony is an opportunity to demonstrate to military families that their fellow Americans join them in mourning their loss, and to express our sincere and immeasurable gratitude for the service of their sons, daughters, mothers, fathers, sisters, and brothers to our nation. While we can never adequately thank those who have died for the sacrifice they have made, taking time to remember these brave men and women and celebrating their lives with their families is an appropriate tribute.

I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H. Con. Res. 171.

The concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SIDNEY M. ARONOVITZ UNITED STATES COURTHOUSE

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration in the House of the bill (H.R. 2913) to designate the United States courthouse located at 301 Simonton Street in Key West, Florida, as the "Sidney M. Aronovitz United States Courthouse".

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Minnesota?

There was no objection.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 2913

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
