

have seen now is a shrinking of the middle class. We have seen more unemployment in what used to be the middle class. Day after day, even as people are losing their jobs in this country, we still see companies shipping American jobs overseas and getting a tax break for doing it.

We have a lot of things on our plate to do to try to fix what is wrong. I am convinced we can. I have an effervescent spirit of hope that we can do these things, but we have to start now. Of those this morning who read in the paper that the unemployment rate is 10.2 percent, those who have lost their jobs fully understand what that number means. I hope all of us in this Chamber do as well. It requires from us an urgent priority to get to work and fix this problem.

I yield the floor.

NATIONAL FAMILY CAREGIVERS MONTH

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I rise today to call the attention of the Senate to National Family Caregivers Month, sponsored by the National Family Caregivers Association. Every day more and more American families are put in the tough situation of taking care of their elderly loved ones. Caregivers are our friends, family, and neighbors who have become an instrumental part of providing the necessary care that their families need and deserve. Eighty percent of all homecare services today are provided by family caregivers, and I am proud to support them this month during National Caregivers Month. I have always been a strong supporter of family caregivers and have worked hard to make sure they get the resources and funding that they deserve.

It has been my privilege to do all I can here on the federal level to help in this endeavor. Recently, the Washoe County Senior Services Respite Care Program needed resources to provide nonmedical respite care for those suffering from dementia, Alzheimer's, and a host of other terrible diseases. I secured the necessary funding in the Commerce, Justice, Science and Related Agencies Appropriations Act of 2010. When this act passes, it will allot $95,000 to aid our seniors who are afflicted. And I am pleased that I was able to get bipartisan support for the passage of the Lifespan Respite Care Act. This act authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services to award matching grants to eligible state agencies that are in desperate need for funding to help families.

As our fight for quality and affordable health care continues, I will make sure that our family caregivers get the support and resources that they need to continue this difficult task. We will do all we can during National Family Caregivers Month to give these dedicated family members the recognition they deserve.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity." I firmly believe that the National Family Caregivers Association characterizes this ideal. I wish this organization all the best as it works to raise awareness during National Family Caregivers Month.
