

budget resolution, permits the chairman of the Senate Budget Committee to adjust the section 401(b) discretionary spending limits, allocations pursuant to section 302(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, and aggregates for legislation making appropriations for fiscal years 2009 and 2010 for overseas deployments and other activities by the amounts provided in such legislation for those purposes and so designated pursuant to section 401(c)(4). The adjustment is limited to the total amount of budget authority specified in section 104(21) of S. Con. Res. 13. For 2009, that limitation is $90.745 billion, and for 2010, it is $130 billion.

On June 18, 2009, the Senate Appropriations Committee reported S. 1298, the Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Bill, 2010. The reported bill contains $242 million in funding that has been designated for overseas deployments and other activities pursuant to section 401(c)(4). The Congressional Budget Office estimates that the $242 million in designated funding will result in $194 million in new outlays in 2010. As a result, I am revising both the discretionary spending limits and the allocation to the Senate Committee on Appropriations for discretionary budget authority and outlays by those amounts in 2010.

In addition, I am also revising part of the adjustment I made last week to the budgetary aggregates pursuant to section 401(c)(4) of S. Con. Res. 13 for the conference report to H.R. 2346, a bill making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009. Specifically, I am reducing the amount of the adjustment in budget authority and outlays by $11 million each in 2010.

I ask unanimous consent that the following revisions to S. Con. Res. 13 be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

VOTE EXPLANATION

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. President, due to unexpected travel delays, I missed a recorded vote on the Senate floor on Monday, June 22, 2009. Had I been present, I would have voted yea on rollcall vote No. 211.

(At the request of Mr. REID, the following statement was ordered to be printed in the RECORD.)

PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION REPORT

• Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I commend the members of the National Prison Rape Elimination Commission for its excellent report and recommendations. Sadly, rape and sexual abuse have often been regarded as inevitable facts of life in prisons across the country. Until now, the Federal Government had never conducted a reliable study of the issue—even though more than 2 million men and women are now behind bars nationwide. The shocking reality is that 1 in 10 of those 2 million will be victims of rape.

At greatest risk are the 100,000 juvenile inmates, the 200,000 men and women held in immigration detention centers, and the many inmates suffering from mental illness. Juvenile facilities in particular are regularly the site of shocking physical and mental abuse, and juveniles incarcerated in adult facilities are five times more likely to report being victims of sexual assault than those in juvenile facilities.

The recommendations contained in this new report identify the steps and standards needed to achieve safer conditions in our prison system. The members of the Commission deserve our gratitude for their skill and dedication in examining all aspects of this complex and serious problem, and so do all those who contributed their knowledge and expertise to the Commission's work. Their leadership is a major step toward resolving this festering crisis.

I look forward to the important work ahead by the Congress, the Attorney General, and the many dedicated professionals, advocates, and experts to implement the Commission's recommendations.●

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

THE NINE LOTHSPETCH BROTHERS

• Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, there is no State in the Union that is prouder of its military heritage than North Dakota. When I began the North Dakota Veterans History Project a few years ago to record the stories of our veterans for future generations, the outpouring of interest around the State resulted in more than 1,500 interviews.

In the past, I have spoken in this Chamber about the nine North Dakota soldiers who earned Medals of Honor during a single campaign in the 1899 Philippine Insurrection, about the famed 164th Infantry Regiment of the North Dakota National Guard, about the "Happy Hooligans" of the North Dakota Air National Guard's 119th Fighter Wing, and about Woody Keeble who won the Medal of Honor for his heroism in Korea.

Today, I would like to tell you about some more North Dakota military heroes. On July 4 of this year, the city of Park River, ND, is going to devote part of its 125th anniversary celebration to recognizing the military service of a truly remarkable North Dakota "band of brothers."

In 1920, Edward Lothspeich of Langdon, ND, married Rose Dirkes of Sauk Centre, MN. They settled in Wales, ND, where Ed managed a lumber yard. In time, Ed and Rose Lothspeich became the proud parents of nine sons and one daughter.

The nine Lothspeich brothers hold a unique record in the history of the State of North Dakota. Each one of them served in U.S. Armed Forces. That is most from any single family in our State.

Let me tell you a bit about each of them.

Eugene Lothspeich, the eldest son, served in the Army from 1942 to 1945. He was a machine gunner with the 337th Infantry Regiment through three campaigns in Italy. He received the Purple Heart for wounds received in the Apennines.

Harold served in the Army from 1943 to 1946. He served in the Pacific theater and saw combat on the islands of Leyte and Luzon.

Edward served in the Navy from 1943 to 1946. He was a machinist's mate and repaired damaged ships while stationed in Hawaii and San Diego, CA.

Donald was inducted in the Army in 1950 and served for 2 years in Germany.

Gerald was drafted into the Army in 1950 and was stationed at Fort Lewis, WA, for 2 years, except for a short period when he was sent to Nevada to support nuclear weapons testing.

Lyle was inducted in the Army in 1951. He served in Hawaii, Iceland, and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he was a rifle instructor.

Marlin served in the Air Force from 1951 to 1955. He served in Japan in the Air Force Medical Service Corps.

Franklin entered the Army in 1955. He served in Germany as a tank gunner.

Leon, the youngest of the nine Lothspeich brothers, served in the Army from 1954 to 1957. He was stationed in Germany where he worked with guided missiles.

From World War II, through the Korean conflict and into the early years of the Cold War, Leon, Eugene, Harold, Edward, Donald, Gerald, Lyle, Marlin, and Franklin Lothspeich served with honor and bravery. These nine men, a "band of brothers," made many sacrifices for the safety and freedom of our country and the world.

Today I want to particularly honor three of the brothers who are still with us: Lyle, Marlin, and Franklin.

Our Nation is what it is today because of the soldiers, sailors, and airmen like the Lothspeich brothers who were willing to leave their homes so many years ago and travel around the world to protect our freedom. They did it without complaint and without question. They loved their country.

There is a verse that goes, "When the night is full of knives, and the lightning is seen, and the drums are heard, the patriots are always there, ready to fight and ready to die, if necessary, for freedom." These brothers I have just described are true patriots.

The story of the nine Lothspeich brothers is a remarkable one. It illustrates the strength of character and hardy determination that has served America so well for so many years. The Lothspeich brothers loved their country and answered the call of duty. They stood up for America, and I am honored to salute their service today in the Senate.●
