

sister station in Raleigh, North Carolina. Her heart remained in Columbia, and Kara married Banks Meador, a native of Chester, in 2002, which led to her return to WIS. Back in Columbia, she anchored the weekend news and served as a weekday reporter. Later she rejoined the Sunrise program, where her journey at WIS began.

Kara has been recognized for her journalism talent by the Associated Press and the South Carolina Broadcasters Association. She has also earned the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Award of Excellence.

She has been very active in the Midlands community. Kara has generously donated her time and her talents to the National Alliance of the Mentally Ill, Special Olympics South Carolina, Project Pet, Sistercare, Camp Kemo, the Children's Miracle Network and Palmetto Health Children's Hospital. She is also an active supporter of Winston's Wish, a foundation of autistic children, and the national Safety Council's "Alive at 25" program, which promotes safe driving habits among drivers under 25.

Kara takes great pride in her contribution to Faces of Freedom, a book that profiles fallen heroes who lost their lives in Iraq and Afghanistan. The proceeds of the book go to charities that benefit military families.

As a former competitive swimmer and scholarship athlete, Kara is dedicated to promoting physical fitness. She helped create and build Limitless Sports, an organization that helps wheelchair-bound children and adults participate in athletics.

Kara and her husband will remain in Columbia, where she will focus on raising their three young sons—Dalton, Evan and Cooper.

Madam Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me on congratulating Kara Gormley for her contributions to the field of broadcast journalism and to her dedication to making her community a better place to live. She has enriched the lives of so many during her years at WIS-TV, and I wish her all the best as she pursues other endeavors.

This debt and its interest payments we are passing to our children and all future Americans.

HONORING REPRESENTATIVE PATRICIA B. SUTHERLAND

HON. MICHAEL H. MICHAUD

OF MAINE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. MICHAUD. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of Representative Patricia B. Sutherland and congratulate her on her pending retirement from the Maine Legislature.

Currently serving her second term in the Maine Legislature, Representative Sutherland has shown a continued dedication to serving the people of Maine and has been a tireless advocate for education and economic development in the state.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in English from Saint Joseph's College, Pat began her career teaching high school English, and a little over twenty years ago, Northern Maine Community College in Presque Isle, then Northern Maine Technical College, was fortunate enough to bring her on as their director of development and community relations. While Pat's retirement from that role was cause for some sadness, it provided an occasion to show her dedication to increasing Maine students' opportunities for higher learning. As the House Chair of the Maine Education and Cultural Affairs Committee, Pat has worked hard to improve education for all Maine students.

Pat is also a champion of economic development in Maine. Her commitment to economic development is exemplified by her contributions to Aroostook County's economic development initiatives, including the critical Aroostook County Empowerment Zone. Pat also chairs the Northern Maine Empowerment Council and is a board member of the Northern Maine Development Commission and the Leaders Encouraging Aroostook Development program. In addition, she is a member of the Presque Isle Kiwanis Club and is on the Town of Chapman's board of selectmen.

Patricia Sutherland continues to leave lasting marks on Maine. I am confident that she will continue to find ways to express her passion for educational and economic development during this new and exciting chapter in her life. On behalf of the people of Maine, it is with pride that I congratulate Representative Sutherland for her excellent work.

Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring Representative Patricia B. Sutherland for her continued dedication to serving the people of Maine.

TRIBUTE TO MONSIGNOR LOUIS ANTONELLI

HON. GREGORIO KILI CAMACHO SABLÁN

OF THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. SABLÁN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a man truly blessed by his Creator: a man who is religious, honest, faithful, devoted, and obedient to his calling. The man to whom I refer is the Reverend Monsignor Louis Antonelli, the pastor of San Isidro Church on the island of Rota.

Monsignor Antonelli was born on September 23, 1918, in Sheppron, Pennsylvania. He began his studies for the priesthood at the Stigmatine Minor Seminary in Waltham, Massachusetts in 1931, at the tender age of 13 years. He continued his studies at the Stigmatine Major Seminary in Wellesley, Massachusetts until he was ordained a priest on June 11, 1949, and immediately became an assistant pastor at the Sacred Heart Church, in Milford, Massachusetts.

Four years later in 1953, he was assigned to the U.S. territory of Guam, where he taught at Father Duenas Memorial School, a Catholic high school, until being reassigned to the mainland United States in 1959.

In 1970 he returned to Guam, this time as Assistant Pastor at the Agana Cathedral and San Vicente Church. He also served as Director of the Permanent Diaconate Program on Guam.

In 1973, he was sent to the Northern Mariana Islands, first for two weeks on Tinian, then to the permanent position of Pastor of San Francisco De Borja Church in Songsong, Rota. There he served until 1991, when he initiated and built the Rota San Isidro Mission at Sinapalu on Rota, becoming its Pastor and serving at the Mission up to the present day.

In his ministry, Monsignor Antonelli presided over countless masses, baptisms, catechism classes, counseling sessions, weddings and funerals. His daily work involves administering communion to hospital patients, prison inmates, the sick and the elderly.

In partnership with the Sisters of Mercy from Guam, he established the Escuelan San Francisco De Borja on Rota in 1985. Today, the school continues to provide grade school education to children on Rota. He is also directly responsible for the beautification and maintenance of the San Pedro Cemetery on Rota, which some have referred to as a mini Arlington National Cemetery because of the care Pale Antonelli has given this ground.

While ministering to his flock, Monsignor Antonelli also has found time to breed and raise cattle and to experiment with a variety of grasses to use as feed. He has a herd of nearly 100 head of cattle on his small Rota ranch. Many would say that the Monsignor has bred the best cattle and maintains the best grazing lands on Rota.

Monsignor Antonelli's service and activities have won wide recognition. Among the honors he has received during his service on Rota is recognition as the "Conservationist of the Year" in 1990 by the Luta Soil and Water Conservation District; and in 1996, Pope John Paul II named him "Prelate of Honor", which gave him the title of Monsignor.

Monsignor Antonelli has been a priest for 61 years, 37 of which he ministered to the spiritual health of the people of Rota, volunteered as a high school teacher and assisted farmers and cattle ranchers. He has declared and affirmed that Rota is his home for the rest of his life and also where he wants to rest in peace.

On behalf of the people of the Northern Mariana Islands, I wish to express my gratitude to Monsignor Antonelli for all his exceptional service and wish him good health and much happiness as he continues his ministry to our people: We look forward to his 92nd birthday in September!

HONORING THE NAACP ON ITS 101ST ANNIVERSARY

SPEECH OF

HON. LAURA RICHARDSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 16, 2010

Ms. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H. Con. Res. 242, which honors and praises the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, NAACP, for its 101st year of service. H. Con. Res. 242 is an important resolution that commends an organization that has worked tirelessly to make our Nation a better place for all Americans.

I would like to thank Chairman CONYERS for his leadership in bringing this bill to the floor. I also thank the sponsor of this legislation, Congressman GREEN, for taking the time to honor the NAACP and its crucial contributions to our Nation's social and moral progress.

Mr. Speaker, the NAACP has played a vital role in empowering our Nation's African-American community and ensuring that all Americans are equal before the law. As the oldest and largest civil rights organization in the United States, the NAACP has always been dedicated to achieving their goals through non-violence. One of the most famous moments in the history of the NAACP occurred in 1955, when an NAACP secretary refused to give up her seat on a bus to a white man. This bold and empowering decision by Rosa Parks started the Montgomery Bus Boycotts and was a pivotal moment in the Civil Rights Movement.

The NAACP was a driving force behind the passage of the Civil Rights Acts of 1957, 1960, and 1964, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, the Voting Rights Act Reauthorization and Amendments Act of 2006, and the Fair Housing Act of 2006. On July 16, 2009, during the NAACP's centennial anniversary celebration in New York, members remembered progress made and reaffirmed their passion in the ongoing fight for equality. The keynote speaker at the anniversary celebration was the first black President of the United States, Barack H. Obama.

Mr. Speaker, it is entirely fitting that we honor and express our national gratitude for the NAACP for 101 years of service, during which time it assisted millions of Americans and helped fight poverty, inequality, and social injustice. It is equally important that we express our full support for and solidarity with the NAACP as it continues in its second century of service and continues to address pressing national issues like political, educational, social, economic, and racial inequality. As one who has long been active in the Long Beach chapter of the NAACP, I can attest to the critical role that this organization continues to play in the communities across our country.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H. Con. Res. 242.

HONORING MERTON WILLIAMS
MIDDLE SCHOOL OF HILTON,
NEW YORK, FOR BEING RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THE TOP MIDDLE SCHOOLS IN THE COUNTRY

HON. CHRISTOPHER JOHN LEE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. LEE of New York. Madam Speaker, I ask that the House join me in recognizing Merton Williams Middle School of Hilton, NY, for being recognized as one of the top middle schools in the country.

The National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grades Reform recently recognized Merton Williams Middle School as a School to Watch. Only 90 of the nation's 21,000 public middle schools are honored each year, and only 17 of New York's 1,121 public middle schools are honored this year.

Until the establishment of Merton Williams Middle School in 1964, middle school students in Hilton attended six different area schools. Today, Merton Williams lives up to the motto of the Hilton School District: "Maximizing the Potential of the Individual Learner."

The teachers and staff of Merton Williams are truly to be commended for their hard work and service to their students. Credit is especially due to Principal Carol Stehm and Assistant Principal Suzanne Goff for their exceptional leadership. But most importantly, I would like to congratulate the students of Merton Williams. Through their hard work and devotion to their schoolwork and their community, they stood out as an exceptional group of young adults.

I ask that this House once again join with me in congratulating Merton Williams Middle School for receiving this commendation and serving as an example to middle schools and junior high schools everywhere.

RECOGNIZING THE CENTRAL CATHOLIC SHAMROCKS

HON. THADDEUS G. McCOTTER

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. McCOTTER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to acknowledge the Division 1 State Champion Golf team from my alma mater, Detroit Catholic Central High School. On June 12, 2010 the Catholic Central Shamrocks raised the MHSAA championship trophy after besting defending champion Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central by 14 strokes.

Under the tutelage of Coach Bill Hayes, the Shamrocks tied for second place in the Catholic High School League and seemed to get stronger with every step toward the finals of the state tourney. After securing a place in Division 1 District 7 on May 28, CC moved on to regionals on June 3, finishing behind top ranked Birmingham Brother Rice and Hartland.

The 8th ranked Shamrocks took to the links after round one with a slim 4-shot lead over Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central and summarily set a new state final round record of 281. More impressive yet, CC set a new state tournament record of 569 besting the old record by 13 strokes. Remarkably, all four starters broke par, a feat no veteran golf coach at the course could recall ever seeing in a state final.

This championship marked the 2nd state golf title of the decade for Catholic Central. Indeed a remarkable accomplishment for this close knit group of young men, the hard work and dedication it took epitomizes what it means to be a Shamrock. By the teaching of our Basilian Fathers through goodness, discipline and knowledge the entire Catholic Central family, including this alumnus, shares in this unprecedented 6th Division 1 Championship brought home to Catholic Central during the 2009–2010 school year.

Madam Speaker, the 2010 Catholic Central Shamrocks deserve to be recognized for their dedication, achievement and spirit and I am very proud of their determination and effort. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Shamrocks for obtaining yet another title as well as for their devotion to our community and country. Live and die for CC High!

TRIBUTE TO MAYOR ROBERT D.
COBLE

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. CLYBURN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a dear friend and outstanding public servant, the Honorable Robert D. Coble. Mayor Coble is retiring from public life after 25 years of service, the last two decades as Mayor of Columbia, South Carolina. He has served as a tireless advocate for the city and its residents, and his tremendous leadership will be missed.

Mayor Bob, as he is affectionately known, is a native of Chesterfield, South Carolina, but came to live in the city he now leads as a child. He is a graduate of Dreher High School, and went on to earn a bachelor's degree from the University of South Carolina. At USC's School of Law, Mayor Bob distinguished himself as a member of the Order of the Wig and Robe and graduated with a Juris Doctor cum laude.

Today he is a partner in the law firm of Nexsen Pruet. He has dedicated his legal career to practicing in the areas of economic development, health care, regulatory law and governmental representation. This expertise is a reflection of the issues he is passionate about in his public service.

In 1985, Bob Coble won a seat on Richland County Council where he served for 5 years before being elected Mayor of Columbia in 1990. During his 20 years at the helm of the city, Mayor Bob has focused on revitalizing downtown and the neighborhoods that surround it. Today, the city that Mayor Coble manages is almost unrecognizable from the one he inherited. The once gritty industrial corridor, just blocks from the State Capitol, has been transformed into a vibrant commercial thoroughfare known as the Vista. A riverfront that was once dominated by the state's largest correctional facility is now home to a park, new residential developments and two popular museums. Former barrack-style public housing developments have been razed and replaced with affordable housing that families are proud
