

our Nation hold dear. We are always mindful that our actions and undertakings should, at all times, reflect this fact. Our all-volunteer military is comprised of your neighbors, friends, and relatives, who have answered America's call to service during a time of war.

I would like to tell you the story of one such American that answered America's call to service during war:

Rick Rescorla was not born of this country. He came to this country from his native England in 1963, and entered the United States Army shortly thereafter. His natural leadership abilities were identified early on. Having graduated from Basic Training, Rick was selected to attend Officer Candidate School and Airborne training at Fort Benning, Georgia. Upon graduation Rick was assigned to 2d Battalion, 7th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division. It was here that he would learn lasting lessons in service and sacrifice.

In November 1965 a young 2LT Rick Rescorla found himself leading his men during America's first major battle of the Vietnam War, the Battle of Ia Drang. The battle was a vicious, guttural affair, and was vividly described by the commanding officer of the battle, LTC Hal Moore, and war correspondent Joe Galloway in their book, We Were Soldiers Once . . . and Young.

In the book, Moore described Rescorla as "the best platoon leader I ever saw." Rescorla's men nicknamed him "Hard Core" for his bravery in battle, and revered him for his good humor and compassion towards his men.

Shortly after the Battle of Ia Drang commenced, Rescorla was ordered to move out to seize the high ground surrounding the landing zone. He immediately led his platoon forward through the brush towards an enemy that they knew was lying in wait. As he did this, his image was captured by a combat cameraman—this iconic photograph adorns the cover of Moore and Galloway's book. In the picture, his face muscles are taut and eyes wide under the brow of his helmet. His eyes look almost white because they are open so wide . . . intense anxiety is plainly evident in LT Rescorla's face. He is very clearly afraid . . . afraid that his life may be snuffed out at any moment, yet he moves with his M-16 at the ready, clenched firmly in his hands, its bayonet fixed—a Soldier dutifully doing what is asked of him despite the danger.

The picture—captured in a moment of desperation and sheer terror—is a powerful image of a Soldier doing his duty in combat. It's quite probable that LT Rescorla didn't really know why it was necessary to move his platoon forward and take the high ground, but he felt a compelling responsibility both to his fellow Soldiers and unit to do his duty. Rescorla did his duty that day earning a Silver Star for his valor. Yet, this was not the last time that his nation would require his service and his ultimate sacrifice.

The final chapter of the Rick Rescorla story is even more moving. On September 11, 2001, Rick was serving as Vice President of Security for Morgan Stanley Dean Witter in its headquarters in the South Tower of the World Trade Center in New York City. After the building was struck on that fateful morning, Rescorla calmly and expertly directed over 2700 employees to safety down the fire escape stair wells of the South Tower. Rescorla also oversaw the evacuation of another 1000 employees from the World Trade Building #5. When an old Army buddy, Dan Hill, reached him on the phone that day, Rescorla could be heard barking orders calmly and collectedly through a bullhorn. He exhorted his fellow employees to "be proud to be Americans . . . everyone will be talking about you tomorrow."

After the last of the employees had evacuated the South Tower, he took his security team back into the building to make a final sweep to ensure everyone had escaped safely. When one of his colleagues urged him to evacuate as well, Rescorla replied, "As soon as I make sure everyone else is out." He was last seen alive on the tenth floor, moving towards danger much in the same way he had done 36 years prior at the Battle of Ia Drang. Rick Rescorla certainly knew the mortal danger he faced, yet did his duty for his fellow man.

Rick Rescorla was not the last hero to die in our Nation's Global War on Terror. His actions along with hundreds of others that momentous day sparked a renewed era of sacrifice and service in our country.

Many in this country do not yet fully realize the incredible value and impact that this 9/11 generation is having, and will continue to have, on our society—for they are a humble, resilient and selfless generation. They all remember exactly where they were 9 years ago when the planes went into the World Trade Center, and into the field in PA, and into the Pentagon. They are volunteers all of them, and our Country has placed the security of our Nation on their backs, again, and again, and again. And yet despite the repeated sacrifices, they have answered the call to duty each time, and stood in the gap between the evil that is out there and our way of life. They have never wavered or questioned. They quietly stand among the generations of Americans that have gone before, standing in the gap between the evil that is out there, and the values of our Nation and our way of life.

I have no doubts that history will gloriously record their service and sacrifice, for it has protected the free world from tyranny and evil, and has restored freedom and inspired hope where it was absent. As was the case with our forefathers, they do not seek exclusion and intolerance and violence, but rather they seek moderation, and tolerance, and inclusion. They protect, defend, and advocate for the downtrodden and defenseless. They are indeed a reflection of you—the American people.

In closing, I ask that we all remember those service members who have paid the ultimate sacrifice in defense of our Nation. We are forever indebted to them for their service and sacrifice.

May we also remember those that are, at this very moment, standing watch for us around the globe in the name of freedom and democracy.

God bless the great state of Missouri.

May God bless and protect our Service members in harm's way, as well as their families back home.

And may God continue to bless the United States of America.

Army Strong.

CONGRATULATING SAINT CECELIA INTERPAROCHIAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Saint Cecelia Interparochial Catholic School for receiving the Department of Education's esteemed designation of a 2010 National Blue Ribbon School.

Founded in 1948 with only 60 students meeting in the renovated Saint Cecelia Church rectory, today it is a hallmark of superior education for nearly 500 students. In conjunction with their mission of providing a strong spiritual and academic foundation, the highly educated teaching population at Saint Cecelia Interparochial School inspire students to achieve at a high level as they undertake core instruction in religion, math, language arts, science, and social science with further enrichment offered through courses in the fine arts, language, and technology, as well as clubs, ministries and service projects.

It is no small feat for a school to receive the distinguished honor of the Blue Ribbon Award. In fact, Saint Cecelia Interparochial Catholic School was one of just 50 private schools throughout the nation to receive this distinction. Their effective school leadership and approach to education has led to a culture of excellence and a population of high performing students.

As Saint Cecelia's proudly raises the Blue Ribbon flag on its campus, may those in our community and across the nation be reminded of the good work done there each day to improve the quality of life for every child passing through and look to this school as a model of exemplary educational practices.

HONORING LEWISTON-ALTURA ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

HON. TIMOTHY J. WALZ

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Mr. WALZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of Lewiston-Altura Elementary School in Lewiston, Minnesota.

Last week, Lewiston-Altura Elementary School was named one of two schools from the First District of Minnesota to be designated as a 2010 National Blue Ribbon School.

This award recognizes exemplary schools like Lewiston-Altura Elementary where students have made significant progress and the gaps in achievement, especially among disadvantaged and minority students, have decreased. Schools that receive this award truly exemplify the belief that every child has promise and must receive a high-quality education.

As a teacher on leave from Mankato West, I know that achieving success for all students takes a commitment from the entire school, from the principal to the counselors to the teachers. When students see every adult in their school dedicated to their success and achieving a higher goal, they are motivated to do their best.

This is exactly what Lewiston-Altura Elementary has done for its students. Under the leadership of Principal David Riebel, they have focused on building relationships with every student, identifying struggling students early and setting high standards for achievement.

This award recognizes what the Lewiston-Altura community already knows—Lewiston-Altura Elementary is a place where every student, no matter their background, can fulfill their potential. Lewiston-Altura Elementary is an outstanding model of achievement for schools across Minnesota and the country.

Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring Lewiston-Altura Elementary School for its dedication to the students of Lewiston.

HONORING LANCE CORPORAL
JEFFREY COLE, USMC

HON. TOM PRICE

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, today I ask the House to recognize the service and sacrifice of Lance Corporal Jeffrey Cole, a Marine from Woodstock, Georgia. Although just twenty years old, this young man has already earned a place in the ranks of America's beloved veterans.

Growing up, Jeffrey Cole saw the examples of his family members who had served in the Army and Air Force. So it is no surprise that while attending Woodstock High School in Georgia's Sixth District, he prepared for his own military service as a member of the school's JROTC unit. After graduation in 2009, Cole became the first member of his family to enlist in the United States Marine Corps, where he attained the rank of Lance Corporal.

This past July, duty called. Lance Corporal Cole said goodbye to friends, family, and his young wife Brandi and deployed to Afghanistan. Just a month later, his unit was ambushed while on patrol and came under heavy fire. During this attack, Cole was hit six times—twice in the front, once in the back, once on his side, and twice in his left arm. Although Cole's flak jacket thankfully stopped the rounds to his front and back, severe nerve damage and a severed artery have left him with almost no feeling in his arm.

Lance Corporal Cole has now undergone several surgeries to repair his arm, although only time will tell if he will ever regain its use. Yet despite these wounds, his main concern is about his fellow soldiers still in harm's way. It cannot be said strongly enough—this young man has earned the thanks, admiration, and respect of every single American.

Choosing to don the uniform of this country is one of the most selfless and honorable decisions an American can make. Jeffrey Cole could have taken many paths in life, but he chose to join our military and give back to the country that he loves. It is because of the service and sacrifices made by him and his fellow service members and veterans that Americans can live free of the oppression and terror experienced by so many around the world today.

Lance Corporal Cole will soon return to his family and friends in Woodstock, where the Legionnaires of American Legion Post 316 will live up to their motto as veterans "Still Serving America" by hosting our whole community in giving Jeffrey the heartfelt welcome and "Thank You" he deserves. He has carried out his duty with courage and commitment, and it is my distinct honor to welcome him back home.

May God Bless Lance Corporal Jeffrey Cole, our troops still on the front lines, and all our veterans for their countless sacrifices in defense of this great nation.

SOUTH ALABAMA HONOR FLIGHT
FOUR ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON, DC

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Mr. BONNER. Madam Speaker, it is with great pride that I recognize Honor Flight South Alabama and the World War II veterans this very special organization is bringing on its fourth flight to Washington, DC on September 22, 2010.

Founded by the South Alabama Veterans Council, Honor Flight South Alabama is an organization whose mission is to fly heroes from southwest Alabama to see their national memorial.

Over six decades have passed since the end of World War II and, regrettably, it took nearly this long to complete work on the memorial that honors the spirit and sacrifice of the 16 million who served in the U.S. Armed Forces and the more than 400,000 who died. Sadly, many veterans did not live long enough to hear their country say "thank you," yet for those veterans still living, Honor Flight provides for many their first—and perhaps only—opportunity to see the National World War II Memorial, which honors their service and sacrifice.

This Honor Flight begins at dawn when the veterans will gather at historic Fort Whiting in Mobile and travel to Mobile Regional Airport to board a chartered flight to Washington. During their time in their Nation's capital, the veterans will visit the World War II Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery, and other memorials.

The veterans will return to Mobile Regional Airport that evening, where some 1,000 people are expected to greet them.

Madam Speaker, the September 22 journey of heroes from South Alabama is an appropriate time for us to pause and thank them—and all of the soldiers who fought in World War II—for they collectively—and literally—saved the world. They personify the very best America has to offer, and I urge my colleagues to take a moment to pay tribute to their selfless devotion to our country and the freedoms we enjoy.

I salute each of the veterans who made the trip to Washington. May we never forget their valiant deeds and tremendous sacrifices: Victor Adams, Edward Adler, William Barnes, James Botts, Shelby Brooks, Ollen Burnette, Jr., Marion Bush, Edward Case, Robert Chapman, William Chavis, John Coulter, Leon Davidson, Gerald Davidson, Henry Day, William Day, John Duncan, James Duncan, Jr., Joseph Duteil, Jr., Julius Eardley, James Early, Robert Engel, Claudie Feagin, Jr., Osburn Flener, Joseph Garner, John Garrard, Jr., Thomas Grace, Samuel Graham, Francis Gregory, Daniel Gunther, Joe Harper, Roy Harris, James Hathcock, Jr., William Heard, Jr., Robert Hensel, James Holloway, Charles Holloway, William Hooper, Vinson Huegele, William Isbell, Henry Jackson, Elystan Jeffreys, Jack Jones, Roy Le Drew, Lawrence Lockhart, John Loper, Reginald Loper, John Luker, Percy Maynard, James McDonough, Jr., T. Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the Fisher House of the Emerald Coast and the courageous men and women of Northwest Florida who have answered the nation's call to defend our freedom and way of life.

Founded in 1990 by Zachary and Elizabeth Fisher, the Fisher House Foundation has helped open the doors at 48 locations, which serve as a home away from home for our nation's hospitalized military personnel, veterans, and their families. The Fisher House of the Emerald Coast joins 20 years of dedicated service to the mission of continually improving the quality of life for our servicemembers.

Our military is the best in the world due to the selfless sacrifice of the men and women of the Armed Forces and their families. So much is asked of them, and the Fisher House seeks to extend a helping hand and grateful heart when needed most. By providing housing for wounded servicemembers and their families at no cost, the Fisher House Foundation enables family members to be close to a loved one during their treatment.
