

passionate public servant, a devoted family man, and my friend. In February of 2005, John Ed was appointed State Highway Commissioner by Governor Mike Huckabee, where he has continued to be an important force in Arkansas.

Outside of his work as Commissioner, John Ed has made a point to be an active voice in the public discourse for improving the State of Arkansas. He has served on numerous commissions and boards such as the Arkansas Economic Development Commission. He is also a member of the St. Francis Levee Board and is a commissioner for the District 17 Drainage District.

Whenever and wherever he found a place he could help others, John Ed put his energy wholeheartedly and humbly into the job. He found a home as the Chairman of the Mississippi County Hospital System Board and as a member of the Arkansas Northeast College Foundation. Among all these accomplishments he also found the time to serve as a member of the board of the First National Bank of Blytheville.

John Ed is one of the smartest minds Arkansas has ever seen, and without people like him guiding the way, the State would be a much different place. His career is a reflection of his compassion, intellect, and commitment to improving Arkansas. I ask all my fellow colleagues to rise and honor with me the great work of John Ed Regenold.

IN HONOR OF THE RETIREMENT OF HEINZ K. SIMON FROM THE LAS COLINAS ASSOCIATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

HON. KENNY MARCHANT

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Mr. MARCHANT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Heinz K. Simon, the retiring Vice Chairman and former President and Chairman of the Las Colinas Association Board of Directors. Heinz is a valued member of the Irving, Texas community and has dedicated decades of service, economic planning, and community improvements to the association and its surrounding communities. Since 1973, Heinz and his wife, Allison, have resided in Las Colinas, and in 1996 Heinz moved the corporate office of Industrial Properties Corporation to Las Colinas. As the former CEO and Chairman of Industrial, Heinz understood the dynamic business environment Las Colinas possesses. Heinz also raised his two children in this community.

Since moving to Las Colinas, Heinz's contributions to the community have been tremendous. In addition to being on the Association Board for over 10 years, he has served as the Chairman for Irving's Tax Increment Finance District. This position allowed him to push for a development project within the Tax Increment Finance District boundaries in Las Colinas. Furthermore, Heinz was the primary force behind The Las Colinas Park Foundation, a 501-(c)(3) organization that works to beautify parks and open spaces across Irving. In addition to other projects, the Foundation has replanted numerous trees and put both a statue and a sculpture in two parks within the community.

It was at Heinz's urging that the Urban Center Task Force Committee was organized in April 2006 to encourage the city of Irving to look at the needs of Las Colinas. As Chairman since its inception, Heinz has gotten involvement on the Committee from the mayor of Irving; two city managers and their staffs; and numerous city organizations. The group has encouraged the burying of overhead utilities, the construction of the Lake Carolyn promenade, and kept the interests of Las Colinas at the forefront of discussions among city leaders.

Though he retires from the Las Colinas Association Board of Directors with many accomplishments, Heinz is not done improving his community. He currently serves as the director/trustee of the Stemmons Foundation, a charitable trust established in 1963 to benefit Dallas-area cultural, educational, and scientific communities. It is for this continuous dedication to the Las Colinas area and its surrounding communities that I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Heinz K. Simon's retirement from the Las Colinas Board of Directors.

HONORING THE RETIREMENT OF
MR. DAVID NEWBY

HON. TAMMY BALDWIN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Ms. BALDWIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the career and achievements of Mr. David Newby, President of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO, as he retires from his esteemed position.

David served as president for sixteen years, but his roots in fighting for social equality run much deeper. He began his dedicated fight against injustice during his time as a teacher at the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama. From 1965 to 1968, he faced off with racial discrimination in the South, organizing and participating in protests and sit-ins to counter the actions of the local chapter of the Ku Klux Klan. In 1968, David began work on a Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He quickly became involved in the union movement. As Steward of the Teaching Assistants Association, David was able to gain recognition from the administration through union strikes and other actions.

In 1982, David first stepped into a labor leadership role when he was elected President of the Madison Labor Council. He possessed the ability to motivate local members to come together on issues and express their views as one voice to the national AFL-CIO. A supremely principled man, David had no qualms about speaking out against union-backed candidates or policies. In 1986, he won a tough election for Secretary-Treasurer. He continued to ruffle feathers as he expressed his distaste for America's military actions abroad, never backed down from striking against plant closings, and continually pushed to attract new and more committed union members. Finally, in 1994, David easily won the presidency of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO.

Over the past sixteen years as president, David has only increased his effort to fight for what he believes is right. As the representative of the Midwest on the national AFL-CIO

Executive Council, he helped lead the federation's opposition to the Iraq War. He continued to work tirelessly to build stronger connections between local labor leaders, community leaders, workers, and organizations to support students' rights, civil rights, women's rights, and countless other causes. In a time when so many are suffering because of the economy, David has fought to keep jobs from going abroad and to ensure competitive wages and benefits for union workers.

In a piece reflecting on the election of President Obama, David wrote, "But no gains are freely given. We have to seize the moment, focus our energies, and assure that the victory will indeed be ours." These bold words embody the essence of the American spirit, and it is clear that over the past fifty years, David has come to epitomize this spirit. Although colleagues may disagree with his beliefs or fiery spirit, they always come away with nothing but the utmost respect for David.

May his stalwart dedication, vision, and lifelong commitment to the highest ethical standards continue to serve as an inspiration for us. I join the greater Madison community, the entire state of Wisconsin, and those who continue to fight for their beliefs throughout our great nation in honoring Mr. David Newby's achievements and thanking him for his lifetime of service.

MEDIA USE "CONSERVATIVE"
LABEL MORE OFTEN THAN "LIBERAL"

HON. LAMAR SMITH

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Madam Speaker, the national media label political candidates and organizations "conservative" far more often than "liberal."

For example, during the last year, the New York Times, the Washington Post, and the Los Angeles Times used the word "conservative" almost twice as often as "liberal" in political news stories, according to an internet search.

And the term "extreme right" appeared five times more often than "extreme left."

This disparity shows the media's liberal perspective. To them, "liberal" is actually "mainstream," and therefore not worth mentioning.

But Americans describe themselves as conservative rather than liberal by a margin of 2 to 1.

The national media should give Americans the facts, not use biased language.

ROBIN RAND

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Mr. SKELTON. Madam Speaker, let me take this means to pay tribute to Major General Robin "Baba" Rand, the Director of the

After serving in this capacity for over a year, General Rand has been selected to become the Special Assistant to the Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force. I am honored to commend General Rand for his many years of service to the United States Air Force.

A 1979 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, General Rand distinguished himself early on as an exceptional pilot. First tapped to be an Instructor Pilot and Flight Examiner, he went on to serve as an F-16 Weapons Officer and later served as the Commander of the 36th Fighter Squadron at Osan Air Force Base in the Republic of Korea.

After attending the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, General Rand took an assignment as a policy planner in the Directorate for Strategic Plans and Policy on the Joint Staff at the Pentagon. He then returned to the Republic of Korea, taking command of the 8th Fighter Wing, "The Wolfpack", at Kunsan Air Base with follow-on wing command tours at the 56th Fighter Wing at Luke Air Force Base and the 332nd Air Expeditionary Wing at Balad Air Base in Iraq. Based on his experiences in Iraq, General Rand was chosen to be the Principal Director for Middle East Policy in the Office of the Secretary of Defense at the Pentagon. In his most recent assignment as Director of Legislative Liaison, General Rand has been a steadfast advocate of the mission of the Air Force and of the 689,000 Total Force Airmen and their families.

Madam Speaker, Major General Robin "Baba" Rand has served his country well, and he will no doubt continue to do so. I wish General Rand; his wife, Kim; and their children, Brooke and Bryson; the best of luck in the days to come.

RECOGNIZING THE CAREER OF MR. SAM WOLF

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Mr. COSTELLO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the distinguished career and significant regional contributions of Mr. Sam Wolf.

Sam Wolf, a resident of Granite City, Illinois, served 18 years in the Illinois House of Representatives from 1974 until he retired in 1992. Among his more notable accomplishments during his time in the General Assembly was legislation establishing community college voting sub-districts. This was important to ensure equitable representation of the different geographic areas covered by a community college district.

Sam Wolf has been a strong proponent of Southwestern Illinois College and was a driving force in the establishment of the college's Granite City Campus in 1984. Sam worked to secure funding for the Industrial Technology Center at the Granite City Campus and the development of the Automotive Collision Repair Technology program there. Sam has been a member of the Southwestern Illinois College Board of Trustees since October 1995.

In recognition of Sam's tireless efforts to expand and improve Southwestern Illinois College, the Granite City Campus is named the Sam Wolf Granite City Campus. This is a fitting tribute for a man who has done so much to provide quality educational opportunities for current and future generations.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in an expression of appreciation to Mr. Sam Wolf for his many contributions to the Southwestern Illinois region and to wish him the very best in the future.

TRIBUTE TO CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT STEVEN J. PERRAULT

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Mr. CALVERT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to an individual from the 44th Congressional District of California who has dedicated his life to defending the people of this country and preserving the basic freedoms and liberties that we hold dear. I ask my colleagues to join me in thanking Chief Master Sergeant Steven J. Perrault for his 23-plus years of dedicated service in the United States Air Force.

Chief Perrault enlisted in the Air Force on January 15, 1988, as an Administrative Specialist assigned to Westover Air Force Base, Massachusetts. He served for two years in this role prior to transitioning to Vehicle Operations. After three years, Chief Perrault then moved to his first duty station and worked as a recruiter at Hanscom Air Force Base, Massachusetts.

During his career, Chief Perrault was assigned as a Line Recruiter, which is primarily responsible for new enlistees, and an in-service recruiter which helps Regular Air Force members transfer into the Reserve Component. Due to his knowledge and skills he was selected for a Headquarters assignment helping oversee both the Operations and Training Branches of Recruiting Service at Robins Air Force Base, Georgia in 2000. Chief Perrault took on the tough assignment as a Senior Recruiter and was responsible for a new operating location in Denver, Colorado that managed all in-service recruiters assigned to the Midwest portion of the United States. In August 2005, after laying the ground work for success in Denver, Chief Perrault was assigned to Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio as a Senior Recruiter.

In August 2007, he was chosen as the Superintendent for the Western Recruiting Squadron. Since that time, Chief Perrault has been instrumental in meeting their annual recruiting goals for the ninth straight year. During his career, Chief Perrault has been directly responsible for helping to recruit more than 8,500 airmen into the Air Force Reserve and has contributed to the continued success of the Air Force Reserve Command Recruiting Service.

Most recently, Chief Perrault has served as Superintendent, Western Recruiting Squadron, March Air Reserve Base, California, Air Force Reserve Command. In this role, he has been responsible for coaching and mentoring the 96 enlisted personnel assigned to the squadron as well as ensuring congressionally mandated end-strength manning for reserve units across 17 states, one U.S. territory, and in three countries.

Chief Perrault could not have been such a tremendous leader without the love and unfailing support of his wife Senior Master Sergeant (retired) Cheryl Perrault and their four children: Technical Sergeant Cassandra Casul, Senior Airman Shane Perrault, Kyle Perrault, and Ms. Ashlie Wendt. Helping to build his foundation for success early in life were his father Robert Perrault, his step-mother Carol; his mother Karen Gardiner and his step-father Sergeant Major (retired) Dennis Gardiner.
