

For 15 years, AVER has fought against this detrimental policy that requires gay and lesbian service members to deny who they are and to lie about their lives. Our democratic allies—from the United Kingdom to Israel—allow gay and lesbian soldiers to serve openly without any adverse effects on military preparedness or morale. This is the basic fairness and justice that AVER seeks for gay and lesbian American soldiers.

Madam Speaker, I also want to recognize Jim Darby, the founder of the Chicago Chapter of AVER and a Korean War veteran. Jim served in the Navy as a Russian-language specialist. Along with all the other AVER members, Jim has fought tirelessly to educate the general public and the Congress about the plight of LGBT veterans and active service members. What AVER seeks is what we should all seek: respect and honor for all those who have served and who are serving the United States of America through our Armed Forces.

STATEMENT ON H. RES. 1044 COMMEMORATING THE 65TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LIBERATION OF AUSCHWITZ, A NAZI CONCENTRATION AND EXTERMINATION CAMP, HONORING THE VICTIMS OF THE HOLOCAUST, AND EXPRESSING COMMITMENT TO STRENGTHEN THE FIGHT AGAINST BIGOTRY AND INTOLERANCE

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 22, 2010

Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas. Madam Speaker, I stand before you today in support of H. Res. 1044 "Commemorating the 65th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz, a Nazi concentration and extermination camp, honoring the victims of the Holocaust, and expressing commitment to strengthen the fight against bigotry and intolerance."

I would like to begin by thanking my colleague Representative ILEANA ROS-LEHTINEN for introducing this resolution in the House, as it is important that we never forget the horrible atrocities of the Holocaust and that we continue to fight against acts of genocide around the world as well as fight against bigotry and intolerance here at home in the U.S.

The Auschwitz concentration camp in present-day Poland was one of the most horrific Nazi extermination camps during World War II. The camp was initially established by the Nazis in 1940 as an army barracks but soon took on a new role as the Nazis began targeting specific groups of people including Jews, ethnic Poles, Romani, Soviet civilians, Soviet prisoners of war, people with disabilities, homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, and other political and religious groups.

Between 1940 and 1945 Auschwitz grew into the largest of the Nazi concentration camps in Europe, and consisted of three main camps in addition to 45 other satellite camps around the area.

During the Holocaust, more than 6 million Jews and other targeted groups were exterminated by the Nazis, and over 1 million of those killed in the Holocaust were murdered at Auschwitz.

As prisoners were taken into Auschwitz, they would pass through an infamous gate that read "Arbeit macht frei" or "Work makes free." This statement could not have been further from the truth however. The victims of Auschwitz were systematically exterminated in gas chambers while others were starved to death, tortured, and subjected to forced labor and horrific medical experiments.

On January 27, 1945, Soviet troops entered the Auschwitz concentration camp and liberated over 7,000 prisoners from the Nazis. Prior to the arrival of the allied Soviet troops however, many of the Nazis who were responsible for the horrible acts at Auschwitz escaped back into Germany, killing as many prisoners as they could in their escape.

Today we honor the victims of the Holocaust who were oppressed and killed by the Nazis at Auschwitz as well as those who were killed at the hands of the Nazis during World War II. Today we also stand with the other victims of genocide across the world and condemn the violent dictators and regimes that carry out these horrible and despicable actions.

I would also like to express my appreciation for the soldiers, sailors and airmen who fought against the Nazi tyranny during the Second World War and helped to liberate millions of prisoners from concentration camps across Europe. Because of the actions of these brave men and women, Europe is now a free and democratic society and the world is a much better place.

It is important that we never forget the horrible actions that took place during the Holocaust. Furthermore, I would also like to urge countries and leaders across the world to reassess their efforts in fighting racism, intolerance and anti-Semitism.

Through providing education and instruction to adults and children alike, we can help to ensure that what happened in Auschwitz and other Nazi concentration and extermination camps is never allowed to happen again.

I ask my colleagues for their support of this legislation as well as their support for victims of genocide across the world. I strongly urge you to support this resolution.

HONORING THE GLEN CARBON CENTENNIAL LIBRARY

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 22, 2010

Mr. SHIMKUS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Glen Carbon Centennial Library in Glen Carbon, Illinois, as it is recognized as the "Best Small Library in America."

The library's motto, "More than you expect," is more than just a saying for the 15 librarians serving the community of Glen Carbon. For them, it is a commitment to stop at nothing to ensure that library patrons get the service they need. As a testament to the community's appreciation of the Centennial Library staff's dedication, the number of visitors to the library has increased 33 percent since 2007.

Because of this dedication to service, Library Journal named Glen Carbon Centennial Library its "Best Small Library in America." The library staff has taken innovative approaches to addressing the needs of their patrons. One example is the "No to Yes log," where the staff logs requests to which they had to say "No." Then, at staff meetings they determine how to turn a "No" into a "Yes" so that they can better serve the community. In the words of one of the "Best Small Library in America" judges, "Glen Carbon seems to be doing everything right."

It is because of their hard work and dedication, that the Glen Carbon Centennial Library earned this honor. I would like to congratulate director Anne Hughes, the management team, librarians and volunteers who have made the library into the award-winning institution that it is today and wish them continued success in the future.

RECOGNIZING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF OUR DAILY BREAD

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 22, 2010

Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Our Daily Bread, and to congratulate them on their 25 years of service to the community.

Our Daily Bread is a volunteer-based organization dedicated to providing critical services to families and individuals suffering from financial hardship. Through robust community support from local faith-based groups, community organizations, local businesses, schools and universities, Our Daily Bread has grown to provide food, financial literacy education and assistance, school supplies, and holiday cheer to thousands of people in our area.

Our Daily Bread's mission is to identify and address the unmet fundamental needs of Fairfax area residents, and to empower the community to help our neighbors maintain self-sufficiency. This mission of sustainability and self-sufficiency evolved from humble beginnings. Our Daily Bread was founded in 1984 as a temporary homeless shelter that rotated among several area churches. When Fairfax County opened a county-run shelter in the Reston area, Our Daily Bread refocused its energies on feeding the homeless and opened a soup kitchen to serve those most in need. Recognizing the difficulties faced by those patrons unable to benefit from this service, Our Daily Bread again reinvented itself first by delivering sandwiches made by volunteers and later to delivering supplemental groceries directly to homeless families who were living in motels along Route 50 in Fairfax.

Our Daily Bread has a history of being dynamic in the face of changing demographics. Beginning in the 1990's and largely fueled by the high cost of rental housing, a new urgent need emerged. Families who were not homeless, families in which one or both parents were often juggling multiple jobs, were finding themselves unable to meet their basic needs and were just one crisis away from homelessness. Our Daily Bread rose to meet this challenge and began a program offering emergency financial assistance in the form of a modest one-time grant of up to $350.00. More recently, Our Daily Bread expanded their services to provide financial mentoring, a back to school program and holiday meals and gifts. It is a testament to talent and commitment of the volunteers, staff, and supporters who make Our Daily Bread what it is today; an organization with the foresight and readiness to take on new problems, while continuing to deliver on core initiatives.

Today, Our Daily Bread provides critical services to the elderly, the working poor, the disabled and the homeless in the Fairfax area. In 2009, Our Daily Bread provided food assistance to 345 families, a 73% increase from the previous year. In addition, 279 families benefited from financial assistance and over 100 families took part in financial literacy training and mentoring. Nearly 3,800 families were served by the holiday program, and 350 children received supplies for school. Over half of those assisted by our Daily Bread's program were children.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in paying tribute to Our Daily Bread for their commitment to the community. I would also to express my sincere gratitude to the volunteers and staff who contribute their time and energy and also to the Fairfax area business community for the support they provide to this worthwhile cause.

HONORING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF FLORIDA STATE REPRESENTATIVE GERALDINE F. THOMPSON

HON. ALAN GRAYSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 22, 2010

Mr. GRAYSON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the community activism of Florida House Representative Geraldine Thompson. State Representative Thompson grew up in the South Dade town of Perrine, Florida. She attended Miami Dade Community College and received a John F. Kennedy/Martin Luther King, Jr., Scholarship to attend the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida, where she enrolled shortly after that school ended racial segregation. In 1970, she received a bachelor's degree with honors in journalism and business education. She moved with her husband, Emerson, to Tallahassee where he attended law school and she worked in State government and higher education. Her first position in Tallahassee was as executive secretary to Representative Gwendolyn Sawyer Cherry, the first African-American woman to serve in the Florida House of Representatives. After working for several years, she sought a master of science degree in communication from Florida State University, which she received in 1973. She then joined her husband in Orlando and immediately became active in the central Florida community.

She began work in Orlando as a teacher in the Orange County Public School System. After 6 years, she left the classroom to accept a position as director of the Equal Opportunity Office at Valencia Community College where she served for 24 years as assistant to the president. Among her many accomplishments at Valencia Community College, she initiated the establishment of the "College Reach Out Program" which enabled thousands of low income and disadvantaged students to fulfill their dream of going to college. She also served on the boards of the Orange County Community Action Advisory, the Metropolitan Orlando Urban League, WMFE Public Broadcasting Station, the YMCA, the Mayor's Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday Commission, the Holocaust Memorial and Resource Center, and the West Orange Healthcare District. In 1987, she was appointed by Governor Bob Graham to the Florida Commission on Human Relations. She received confirmation from the Florida Senate and remained on the Commission during the terms of Governor Lawton Chiles, where she was elected by her fellow commissioners to serve as chair.

Also considered a local historian, her passion for history led her to conducting research
