

support the interests of the city of Boston in the face of ever-intensifying and demanding constraints.

Jake has worked closely with my office and me throughout his tenure with Mayor Menino on behalf of the city of Boston. His determination to discover the best possible results for the citizens of Boston and intuitive perception of the complexities of an issue perpetually impresses me.

I am encouraged to report that Jake has remained grounded in his pursuit of public service throughout his professional career. Jake's compassion for his colleagues and dedication to public service is equally, if not more, evident as it was when he was a member of my staff over 12 years ago.

Jake Sullivan has made significant contributions to the city of Boston and State of Massachusetts since he began his public service with the First District. I strongly commend his continued commitment to public service and look forward with anticipation to his future achievements.

RECOGNIZING THE REVEREND DR. THOMAS L. WALKER

HON. G.K. BUTTERFIELD

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. BUTTERFIELD. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the Reverend Dr. Thomas L. Walker, a community leader being honored for his decades of service. On Thursday, November 18, 2010, the community will come together to celebrate as Reverend Walker is inducted into the Twin County Hall of Fame.

Reverend Walker is well deserving of this honor. He is a native of Rocky Mount, N.C., and has devoted his entire life to serving his community.

Since 1970, Reverend Walker has worked to better the community as pastor of the Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church of Rocky Mount, N.C.

He has also served as an Edgecombe County Commissioner, Chairman of the North Carolina Martin Luther King Jr. Commission and as President of the Greater Rocky Mount Ministers' Council.

After being diagnosed with prostate cancer, Reverend Walker sought to help others by channeling his energy into writing a book entitled, "Brother to Brother—You Don't Have To Die of Prostate Cancer." Many urologists around the country use the book to educate patients and help people understand prostate cancer.

Reverend Walker also founded the Edgecombe-Nash Political Caucus, created Project Empowerment and has experienced great success as a gospel artist.

Reverend Walker will be among 10 Twin County Hall of Fame inductees honored at the banquet being held at the Dunn Center at Wesleyan College: Mae Woods Bell, Harold Cooley, Daniel Finch, Richard T. Fountain, Allan Gurganus, George Higgs, James W. Hines, Warren R. Jones, Aldolphus Staton, and Reverend Walker.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues rise to join me in recognizing all of this year's deserving inductees. I also extend my congratulations and best wishes to my good friend, Reverend Walker, his wife Joyce, and their two children, Timothy and Teresa.

A TRIBUTE TO ANNE CAIN

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. GARAMENDI. Madam Speaker, I, along with my colleagues Congressman GEORGE MILLER and Congressman JERRY MCNERNEY, rise to recognize Anne Cain, Contra Costa County Librarian, to congratulate her and wish her well as she approaches her retirement.

Anne has dedicated 35 years of commitment and service to public libraries. Having achieved a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Denver, Colorado, and upon completion of her Master's in Library Service from Simmons College in Boston, Massachusetts, Anne began her career as the Branch Assistant and Social Service Librarian at Newton Free Library in Massachusetts. In 1975, Anne relocated to California and served as the Principal Librarian for Pasadena Public Library, where she provided reference services, service to the business community, children, teens, and adults.

In 1989, Anne moved north to the San Francisco Bay Area and joined the Contra Costa County Library system as Head of the Central Library responsible for service to the public but also for centralized countywide services. She was named Assistant County Librarian just 1 year later, responsible for the day-to-day operations of all Contra Costa County Libraries, services, and programs.

In 1998, Anne was named County Librarian responsible for library service at 25 locations in 18 cities and unincorporated areas across Contra Costa County. Anne worked closely with the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors, city governments, Friends of Libraries and numerous other community groups and concerned citizens to plan, evaluate, and deliver library service tailored to the needs of the communities it serves.

Anne is a leader in the fight to adequately fund public libraries. Nearly two decades ago when the State of California cut Special District Augmentation Funding to counties, Contra Costa County libraries lost nearly a third of their funding. The system was nearly decimated. Anne has worked with cities throughout the county to build trust, local engagement, and support for libraries.

In recent years, Anne has been actively involved in statewide legislative activities and served as Chair of the California Library Association's Legislative Committee. In 2006, she was selected by the California Library Association as its member of the year.

Madam Speaker, we invite our colleagues to join us in honoring Anne for her tireless and dedicated service to the people of Contra Costa County. We also join her family, colleagues and friends in congratulating Anne on a successful and fulfilling career, and a very well-deserved retirement.

IN HONOR AND REMEMBRANCE OF
TED "TALL TED" HALLAMAN

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Cleveland radio legend, Ted "Tall Ted" Hallaman, devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, mentor and friend to many.

Mr. Hallaman's successful career in radio spanned several decades, beginning in 1949 in Pittsburgh, PA, where he attended college at the University of Duquesne. While at the college radio station there, he got the nickname, "Tall Ted" because he was 6'1".

Throughout the 1950s, he worked in various radio markets. In 1960, he was offered a great opportunity to join the team at WGAR-AM (1120) in Cleveland, where he worked for nearly a decade. His devotion to the art of radio broadcasting, and his commitment to capturing the hearts and minds of listeners, never faded. His dedication was reflected in every broadcast; he researched and presented a treasure trove of interesting facts and anecdotes about the songs he played, and about the musicians who performed them. Above all, it was Mr. Hallaman's kindness, wry sense of humor, generosity and positive attitude that forever touched the lives of his family, friends, colleagues and fans.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Ted "Tall Ted" Hallaman. I extend my deepest condolences to his wife, Patricia; to his sons, George, David and Jason; to his daughter-in-law, Lisa; to his grandchildren, Laura, Jennifer, Christina, Sophia, Nicholas, and Emily; to his brother, Paul; and to his extended family members and many friends. Mr. Hallaman was cherished by family, friends and countless radio fans, and he will be remembered always.

RECOGNIZING BOB AND BOBBY PETRINI

HON. JACKIE SPEIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Ms. SPEIER. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor Bob and Bobby Petrini of San Bruno, California. The father-son-team saved the lives of five senior citizens in the midst of the PG&E natural gasoline explosion on September 9, 2010.

Bob Petrini and his family were enjoying a warm summer evening in their Rollingwood neighborhood home, about a quarter mile north of the Glenview neighborhood. Bob was opening the sliding door of the family room when he heard the explosion. His first thought was an earthquake. Then he saw giant flames leaping into the sky. He and his 25-year-old son Bobby looked at each other without saying a word, grabbed the household fire extinguisher, jumped into their Nissan Maxima and headed to the fire.

When they arrived at Glenview Drive, the entire street was engulfed in flames, so they headed to the next block, Vermont Way. They saw an elderly woman being rolled out into the street in a wheel chair by a very distressed caretaker who was screaming for help. Bob put the elderly woman in the back seat of his car. Then he entered the house, at this point unaware it was an assisted living facility. He ran down a long hallway yelling "Fire, fire, fire, is anybody here?" He entered a room to the right of the hallway and saw a woman in her nineties on oxygen in a recliner, with her back to the window and headphones in her ears. Bob pulled the phones out of her ears, lifted her into a wheel chair, rolled her out into the street and then loaded her into his car. As Bobby saw this, he ran into the building and rescued another elderly woman.

At this point the fire was licking at the homes behind the facility—the heat was intense. Firefighters and police officers were telling the Petrinis to leave, but Bob ran back into the building. In the very back he found a 96-year-old, deaf woman on oxygen, with a catheter, in a hospital bed. Racing against time, he rolled the hospital bed towards the door, only to find that it didn't fit through the frame. He ran outside for help. Bob, his son, a firefighter and a stranger who showed up out of nowhere lifted the woman from the hospital bed into a wheel chair, rolled her out to the street and put her into the car of a caretaker.

With three of the women in his car, Bob raced off to a hospital in South San Francisco while his son Bobby drove the caretaker's car with two of the seniors and the caretaker.

Bob delivered his three patients to the hospital and headed home. He didn't have a phone to tell his wife he was OK, he didn't know where his son was, and for the first time that evening, he was scared. "There was a moment when I thought I was going to lose him," he said referring to his son. But as he pulled into his driveway, he saw his son by the caretaker's car.

The other patients, including the 96-year-old lady, were taken to the hospital.

The San Bruno natural gas explosion was a horrible disaster that claimed 8 lives and destroyed 37 homes, but it was also a tragedy that brought out the best in members of this community.

Madam Speaker, Bob and Bobby Petrini risked their own lives to save five strangers. I ask that this body join me in commending them for their extraordinary act of heroism.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF JULE SUGARMAN, FOUNDER OF HEAD START

HON. MAXINE WATERS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Ms. WATERS. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life and work of Jule Sugarman, who passed away earlier this month at the age of 83. I extend my thoughts and prayers to his wife, his children, and his family and friends during this very difficult time.

Some of my colleagues and those listening in the gallery or on television may not recognize the name Jule Sugarman, but they have no doubt heard of or been impacted by the Head Start Program, which he founded and helped design and implement as part of President Lyndon Johnson's War on Poverty.

Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1927, Mr. Sugarman came to Washington to attend American University, and later served in the Army for two years.

He amassed a record of achievement and dedication to public service, the American people, and to children and families specifically: serving as New York City's human resources administrator; Washington State's Department of Social and Health Services; executive director of the Special Olympics International; and deputy director of the Office of Management and Budget under President Jimmy Carter, just to name a few of his accomplishments.

But I would like to thank Mr. Sugarman explicitly and affectionately for his work on getting the Head Start program up and running. I can unequivocally say that Head Start changed my life and turned it in a new direction.

I vividly remember working as a service representative for the Pacific Telephone Company in Los Angeles in the mid 1960s, and getting excited over a newspaper advertisement I saw for the new Head Start program. They were seeking staff for this initiative, which would be run by Sargent Shriver out of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Being a mother of young children, and seeking a career path where I could help people and make a difference—despite not having official teaching credentials—I eagerly applied to be an assistant teacher.

To my surprise and delight, I was hired as a Head Start assistant teacher. In Los Angeles County the Head Start Program worked closely with community nonprofit groups like the International Federation for Settlements and Neighborhood Centers, so I worked with great people who were truly committed to putting children on a solid path to an education, combating poverty, and making our communities a safer, better place to live.

Head Start encouraged me to finish my education; taught me the importance and value of community organizing; made me acutely aware of the many issues facing our young children; and inspired me to get involved in politics to make a difference in the lives of others, particularly the least of these.

Now I am well aware that in 45 years many things have changed—some good, some bad—for our nation's children and schools. But I am convinced that Head Start's original mission to "promote school readiness by enhancing the social and cognitive development of children through the provision of educational, health, nutritional, social and other services to enroll children and families," is as relevant as ever. I look forward to supporting it in each and every way that I can.

Thank you, Mr. Sugarman. Thank you for your wisdom, your foresight, your progressive philosophy, and your dedication to putting all children on an equal playing field.

I, and millions of other Americans, continue to be inspired by your compassion, your humanity, and your life's work, all of which made our country greater.

IN HONOR AND RECOGNITION OF DAN FULLER

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Dan Fuller, upon his retirement from the Cleveland Watercraft Division of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, ODNR. For twenty years he protected swimmers and boaters along the shores of Lake Erie with excellence and integrity.

Mr. Fuller's passion to protect people in harm's way came early in his life. When he was 10 years old, Dan and his sister Dee were playing by a creek. Dee fell in and Dan pulled her out from the eddy, saving her life.

A quarterback for his high school football team and an honors student at Hocking Technical College, Dan went on to start his career with the ODNR as a college intern and then as an entry level watercraft officer in 1980. Mr. Fuller went on to become a watercraft specialist, a self defense instructor and an area supervisor. He diligently worked to improve methods and programs in water safety; he led the effort to implement the first certified self-defense course for the Lake Erie Division of Watercraft Safety. He enforced boating laws, taught boating safety and was instrumental in bringing together law enforcement agencies to work toward the common goal of keeping Lake Erie waterways safe and secure.

Mr. Fuller established the Central Lake Erie Law Enforcement Agency and facilitated regularly scheduled meetings for the past ten years. For the past decade, he served as the Supervisor of the Cleveland Watercraft Office, where he was in charge of staff coordination, educational efforts and waterway law enforcement. Mr. Fuller's work has been recognized with several honors and awards, including the Mothers Against Drunk Drivers Award, National Water Safety Congress Award and Officer of the Year Award.
