RECOGNIZING HOUSE RESOLUTIONS IN SUPPORT OF HAITI

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. RANGEL. Madam Speaker, I stand before you to express my support for the three House Resolutions on today's legislative calendar honoring the Americans who responded courageously and humanely after the devastating earthquake in Haiti on January 12th.

We all remember the startling and sobering televised images of the aftermath of the earthquake. The men and women being honored today, in the military and amongst our first responders, ran to the epicenter of this tragedy to help save lives. I am proud to join my colleagues in recognizing these individuals with House Resolutions H. Res. 1066, H. Res. 1059, and H. Res. 1048. I would especially like to recognize New York Task Force One, the FEMA-sponsored urban search and rescue team, made up of 80 members of the New York Police Department and the Fire Department of New York, who were successful in freeing six individuals from the rubble.

The immediate response from our citizens to the tragedy in Haiti has been heartwarming, demonstrating the decency and compassion we all have for our fellow mankind during difficult times. Even those who have not been formally recognized in the resolutions noted above are partners in this shared effort to overcome such a disaster. Within 24 hours following the quake, we saw Americans from a cross section of society—from elected officials in Washington to everyday residents all over New York City—reach out and offer assistance. Even today, the statistics are hard to believe, almost 50 percent of Americans have donated to the Haitian relief efforts and there are still thousands waiting in line for their turn to assist on the grounds.

As a nation, it has warmed my heart to see us dedicate our efforts, and commit ourselves to supporting, the long-suffering Haitian people, now and into the future.

Madam Speaker, I join my colleagues in recognizing those who offered their time and effort to assist those in Haiti and challenge them to stay the course until Haiti is made whole again.

HONORING THE CITY OF ZEPHYRHILLS, FLORIDA

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Madam Speaker, 100 years ago Zephyrhills, FL was founded as a colony paradise by Howard B. Jeffries for his fellow Union civil war veterans. Originally named Abbot after the owner of the town's first drug store, Zephyrhills is now home to 11,000 proud residents.

Tradition holds that the town of Abbot's name was changed to Zephyrhills because of the cool, gentle, zephyr breezes from neighboring Greer and LeHeup Hill. The name officially changed to "Zephyrhills" on March 10, 1911; with it, the town of Abbott officially moved from an A to Z in the alphabet.

Zephyrhills residents are proud of the many accomplished men and women who have brought notoriety to their hometown. Zephyrhills High School coach John Clements has the distinguished record of being one of only five coaches in the United States with over 400 recorded wins; "The Bulldogs" baseball team now plays on the John F. Clements field in his honor. Having played professional baseball prior to coaching for ZHS, John, along with Yankees pitching coach Dave Eiland, Green Bay Packers defensive tackle Ryan Pickett, and NASCAR driver David Reutemann, is among the list of athletes that call Zephyrhills their hometown.

Zephyrhills is also proud of its local beauties. Begun in 1956, the Lions' Club's "Miss Zephyrhills" pageant is a favorite feature during the annual Founders Days. It has become a launching ground for the statewide "Miss Florida" competition. Many former "Miss Zs" love their hometown as much as any other resident, 1978's winner, Diana Kennedy, summed up her experience saying, "I was very proud to represent Zephyrhills and I know the experience made me feel like Miss America. I remember being involved in the community; throwing out the first baseball and attending parades. Of all the titles I held, representing my hometown was the most rewarding."

One hundred years ago Howard B. Jeffries founded a town. Zephyrhills has become a community based around family, neighborhoods, small businesses and longstanding traditions. I congratulate Zephyrhills on this momentous occasion and wish them continued prosperity and lasting memories throughout the next one hundred years.

A TRIBUTE TO WAYNE C. DELL

HON. JOE WILSON

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, "Semper Fi," always faithful.

Like the strong foundation upon which this great Capitol has been erected, so to is America's foundation created by outstanding American citizens who quietly and humbly go about their daily life, devoting themselves to their God, Nation, family, friends and life's calling.

One such individual was Wayne Clair Dell. Born in Duncansville, Pennsylvania, to Helen and Charles Dell on June 29, 1946, Wayne worked with his father during middle school and high school in the construction industry.

Like most Americans, he comes from a very simple family background and had two loving and devoted sisters and one brother.

He attended Penn State University and served this great Nation during one of its most trying hours as a Nation, as a United States Marine from 1966–69, having been discharged honorably to return home, fall in love, and marry Ouida Cleland Dell in Ridgeland, South Carolina, in June of 1969.

Upon leaving the Marines, Wayne went to work in the construction and architectural industry on Hilton Head Island, long before anyone had ever heard of Hilton Head Island, and began as a draftsman with a firm in Savannah, Georgia, eventually taking that great American plunge into self-investment and small business by opening his own architectural firm out of the Dell homestead: Wayne C. Dell, Architect.

Working from home allowed Wayne to become very involved in his family's life, and he never missed an event in which his children participated. For many years, he served as a little league baseball announcer and was an avid and excellent tennis player, having won many community tournaments—to the great pride of his family, I might add, who loved cheering him on! Likewise, Wayne's hobbies were supporting his children and family in all their endeavors.

In addition to these pursuits, he enjoyed woodworking and carving and took great pride in the handmade high quality gifts he made for his family members, yet another enduring legacy. An active athlete his entire life, Wayne also played for many years in the church volleyball league, enjoyed playing all sports and staying in top condition; a quality that he learned as a Marine.

Incredibly, Wayne, as many of our forefathers, taught himself a profession, architecture, and passed the state licensure exam the last time that you could legally take the exam without having a college degree; an impressive feat, indeed.

Wayne eventually became known as a respected architect and specialized in high-end residential homes in communities in Hilton Head Island and Beaufort County, in addition to commercial architectural work. He prided himself on the art of architecture, which, to this day, stands as monument to his life's work.

Wayne had two natural born children, Eric (age 37) and Melissa (age 39). Possessing a strong desire to spread their love, they adopted their daughter's child Bethany, who is now 13 years old, when her mother was stricken with Huntington's disease, as did Wayne, and as did his mother.

Wayne and his loving wife of 40 years, Ouida, have cared for their daughter, Melissa, who has had to live with them for the past dozen years due to her health, quite literally serving as caregiver to her, and as proxy father to their daughter's daughter for the past 13 years. Wayne represents the perfect American father figure.

A strong man of Christian faith, Wayne attended and was married in St. Pauls United Methodist Church in Ridgeland, SC (1969). He was a certified Lay Minister within the United Methodist Church.

It is a sad calling, as I stand here today, to inform my friends and this Nation, that a dear friend, and father of a most trusted friend, Wayne C. Dell, passed away yesterday morning.

But as all architects know, with each great stone that is laid, another rests atop it to make the building stand stronger, and Wayne can be very proud of the son he raised, my Chief of Staff, Eric Dell of the Second Congressional District. In Eric, Wayne raised a son who many in both political parties have come to know, love and trust—no easy task on Capitol Hill, I know.

Like his father, Eric is a man of his word, a rare commodity today, and a devoted servant of the people whom I represent, as well as this great Nation. As with all great champions, the torch must eventually be passed. I can assure Eric's father, my friend, that his torch shall be strongly, honorably and steadfastly carried forward into the future by Eric and his family.

There is a time in each man's life when the sun must set, and when his Creator calls, once again, Wayne has answered that final call, with great distinction, honor, and love as his foundation.

May God bless you, Wayne Clair Dell, and this great Nation which you have helped create.

Semper Fi.

Always faithful.

IN RECOGNITION OF CONGRESSMAN KILDEE'S 20,000TH VOTE

HON. VERNON J. EHLERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. EHLERS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to offer my thanks to Congressman DALE KILDEE for his honorable service to the State of Michigan over the last 33 years. It has been a privilege to serve with him for half of that time.

Congressman KILDEE'S diligence and commitment to voting is unrivaled, having missed only 27 votes in his entire career.

His consecutive vote streak of 8,141 votes is admirable, not only for its unprecedented nature, but because it shows his commitment to taking a stand on the issues.

Of the votes that Congressman KILDEE has cast, many have been in support of important education reforms and our auto and manufacturing industries. I have enjoyed working with him on the Education and Labor Committee and, as a fellow educator, I have always appreciated his approach and commitment to improving our nation's schools.

On a personal note, Congressman KILDEE has been a great friend and a good example to me and every Member of Congress.

The State of Michigan has been well represented by Congressman KILDEE, and I hope he will be able to cast another 20,000 votes!

IN MEMORY OF SGT. JEREMY MCQUEARY

HON. MIKE PENCE

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. PENCE. Madam Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the life of a fallen American hero, Marine Sergeant Jeremy McQueary of Columbus, Indiana.

Sgt. McQueary served multiple tours in Iraq and Afghanistan, and he gave his life in service to a grateful nation on Thursday, February 18th while serving with the 2nd Combat Engineer Battalion, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force in Helmand Province, Afghanistan.

Sgt. McQueary enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in January 2002 after graduating from Columbus East High School. According to his mother, Jeremy always had an interest in becoming a Marine and continuing the proud tradition of service in his family by donning the uniform of our nation.

Though Sgt. McQueary did not speak often of his experiences overseas, his dedication and bravery were quite evident by his actions and decorations. In June of 2008, he survived a roadside bombing attack and volunteered to continue serving in Iraq. His awards include a Combat Action Ribbon and Purple Heart, among others.

Sgt. McQueary was a compassionate man who cared especially for children. A father himself, Sgt. McQueary expressed a desire to work with children in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Our condolences go out to Jeremy's wife Rae and young son Hadley, as well as his mother and stepfather, Deborah and David Kleinschmidt, and sister Rebecca.

We will never be able to pay the debt of honor owed to Sergeant Jeremy McQueary and his family. Heroes like him are our nation's most cherished citizens without whom freedom and democracy would not be possible. His passing is a profound loss for his family, this community and this nation.

OUR UNCONSCIONABLE NATIONAL DEBT

HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. COFFMAN of Colorado. Madam Speaker, today our national debt is $12,403,027,179,655.21.

On January 6th, 2009, the start of the 111th Congress, the national debt was $10,638,425,746,293.80.

This means the national debt has increased by $1,764,601,433,361.41 so far this Congress. The debt has increased $972,344,066.53 since just yesterday.

This debt and its interest payments we are passing to our children and all future Americans.

HONORING DR. JOHN R. GRAY

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. SHUSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Dr. John R. Gray, Deputy Commander of Letterkenny Army Depot, on his commendable career upon his retirement after thirty-two years of distinguished service.

Dr. Gray joined Letterkenny Army Depot in 1985 and founded a branch for the U.S. Army Materiel Command Management Engineering Activity. Since 1988, he has held a number of positions at the depot working his way up to Deputy Commander. After two years of service as the Supervisory Budget Analyst with the Defense Information Systems Agency, the Army Depot appointed Dr. Gray as Deputy Commander at Letterkenny. As the senior civilian at the depot, Dr. Gray managed a $500 million operation and an 18,000 acre installation, that employs many of my constituents in Franklin County.

Deputy Commander Gray began his federal career in 1978 in Rock Island, Illinois, with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. During his time there, he was an instructor with the Army Management Engineering College providing training to students on financial management and productivity measurement. In addition, Dr. Gray performed cost analyses on hydropower, flood control, and water supply projects.

Dr. Gray graduated from The Pennsylvania State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1975 and Master of Business Administration in 1978. Twenty years later, he earned his Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California where he later received his Doctorate in Public Administration. In 1990, Dr. Gray became a graduate of the Secretary of Defense Executive Leadership Development program.

Dr. John Gray's service is a brilliant example of how dedication to personal and professional development in life can lead to success. He has been a leader throughout his entire career and a valuable resource to all whom have had the pleasure of knowing him. He is a man of outstanding character and we will remain grateful for his unwavering dedication and service to our community and our nation. I wish Dr. Gray and his family continued success and my best wishes upon his retirement.

HONORING WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY TEAM ON WINNING: IOME CHALLENGE

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Mr. UPTON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the student team at Western
