

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO DR. RODNEY WILLIAM BORGER

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. BACA. Madam Speaker, I stand here today to honor a respected citizen, and dedicated practitioner of the art of medicine, Dr. Rodney William Borger.

Today, I rise to congratulate Dr. Borger for his loyalty, service and commitment to the Community of San Bernardino. I congratulate him on a job well done as the outgoing president of the San Bernardino County Medical Society.

Dr. Borger is a devoted servant-leader in our community. For this reason, I join today with my district to express our gratitude to Dr. Borger for his exemplary commitment to Hippocratic values, and their application to society.

Dr. Borger received his medical degree from Loma Linda University, completing his internship and residency in emergency medicine at Loma Linda University Medical Center. Today, he is Chair of the Department of Emergency Medicine at Arrowhead Regional Medical Center in Colton.

Dr. Borger is actively involved with the San Bernardino County Medical Society and California Medical Association. He sits on the San Bernardino County Medical Society Board of Directors, while chairing the Emergency Medical Service Funds Committee and the Finance Committee, and serving on the Executive, Nominating and Legislative Committees.

Dr. Borger is Commander of the San Bernardino County Sheriff Medical Reserve Corps, a community based group of volunteers who donate their time and expertise to respond to emergencies, by supplementing existing emergency response and public health resources.

A tireless champion, Dr. Borger is also Medical Director of the San Bernardino County Jail's Medical Care System and serves on the State of California's Public Health Advisory Committee.

He is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians and volunteers for the Speakers Bureau of physician volunteers, addressing community organizations on health issues.

This past March, Dr. Borger, medical student leaders and physician leaders traveled to the American Medical Association National Advocacy Conference to personally meet with members of Congress to advocate on the behalf of seniors, veterans, Medicare and Medicaid reform.

Thanks in part to these efforts, Congress has informed the California Medical Association that it is passing a temporary measure to allow the possibility of passing a more permanent solution to Sustainable Growth Rate cuts.

Revered for extensive awards, honors, certifications, biomedical research, affiliations, teaching experience, and charitable service, Dr. Borger has volunteered at a hospital in Botswana, Africa, and with Social Action Corps, UC Irvine Medical Center Family Practice Clinic and the Looking Good Program.

Madam Speaker, all of this philanthropy makes Dr. Borger "look good." Not only is he a generous human being but he is a renowned and compassionate physician.

Madam Speaker, Dr. Borger will be completing his term as the 117th president of the San Bernardino County Medical Society on Wednesday, June 23, 2010. It is fitting, on such an occasion, that we stand here today to honor Dr. Borger, for exceptional service and leadership in a profession respected by all people and in all times.

TRIBUTE TO MS. KAY FRANCIS LANCE (DYSON) MURRAY

HON. BOBBY L. RUSH

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. RUSH. Madam Speaker, it is often difficult to find words to express the depth of one's feelings with the passing of a friend and constituent, nevertheless, I rise today to pay tribute to a public administrator, community leader, entrepreneur, humanitarian and family woman, the late Kay Francis Lance (Dyson) Murray, who made her heavenly transition on Tuesday, May 11, 2010.

Kay dedicated her life towards making a difference in the lives of other people. She was a shining example of how God can use even the ordinary to accomplish the extraordinary. Indeed, many who have had the privilege of knowing and associating with her have come to recognize that they are much better the person as a result.

The first woman Assistant Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of the Chicago Department of Streets and Sanitation, Kay also served as Chief of Staff in the Illinois Department of Professional Regulation and Executive Assistant in the Cook County Circuit Court Clerk's Office. Kay received a Bachelor's of Science degree from Roosevelt University, Master's of Education degree from Northwestern Illinois University, a graduate certificate from Cortez Peters Business School, a Management Development Program Certificate from Harvard University and a State of Illinois Real Estate License. Kay also co-partnered two designer clothing ventures and co-owned a limousine service in Chicago's Hyde Park community.

Kay was a faithful member of the Apostolic Church of God and served with distinction as Secretary/Treasurer of the North Washington Park Community Organization; President of Jackson Park Hospital Women's Board; Member of the Jackson Park Hospital Board of Directors; Member of Jackson Park Hospital Foundation and President of the Genesis House Board of Directors. In addition to helping me in my congressional re-election efforts, Kay worked at the grass roots and community level for numerous public officials including the late Chicago Alderman Claude Holman, former Alderman and current Cook County Chief Judge Timothy Evans, the late Mayor Harold Washington and Clerk of the Circuit Court Dorothy Brown.

Madam Speaker, I want to encourage her devoted son Gary, her siblings, the entire family and the many friends of Ms. Kay Francis Lance (Dyson) Murray to always remember to look to the hills from which come all of their help, trusting that their help will surely come from the Lord. I am truly blessed to have known and worked with her. I am honored to pay tribute to this outstanding public servant and privileged to enter these words into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of the United States House of Representatives.

CHRISTIAN G. FOLSOM

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Christian G. Folsom. Christian is a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America in both Troops 9 and 271, and earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Christian has been very active with his troops, participating in many scout activities. Over the many years Christian has been involved with scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community. Most notably, Christian has contributed to his community through his Eagle Scout project. Christian planned and built five parking bollards with handicap signs to protect children playing in the First United Methodist Church of North Kansas City's playground.

Madam Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Christian G. Folsom for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

RECOGNIZING THE WORK OF CHAD BOUTON

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. TIBERI. Madam Speaker, with great pleasure I rise to recognize the distinguished work and accomplishments of Chad Bouton.

The economic prosperity of our nation has always derived from the vitality of the American innovator. Through firm resolve and unparalleled imagination, these men and women help discover the ideas, practices or products that fuel our country's progress. During these challenging economic times, it is all the more important to recognize their influence in affirming the limitless potential of our great country; therefore, I am happy to recognize one such individual: Mr. Chad Bouton, who was recently honored by Central Ohio's own Battelle Memorial Institute as the Battelle Inventor of the Year.

Since 1997, Chad Bouton has marked himself as a stand-out talent at Battelle. He worked as the primary innovator, inventor and principal investigator for dozens of medical device projects, from enabling paraplegics to control wheelchairs with their thoughts to providing surgeons with tools to enable minimally invasive surgical procedures. His passion for his work has led Chad to be honored with two R&D Magazine "Top 100" awards, several Battelle Outstanding Technical Achievement Awards, as well as, having nine of his works published in numerous scholarly journals.

Through the ingenuity of his thinking and tenacity of his work, Chad stands as an example to many across our country. Therefore, I am very pleased to thank him for all he has done for our country, and on behalf of Ohio's 12th Congressional District, congratulate him on his most recent award.

CONGRATULATING EDDIE REYES,
WINNER OF THE 2010 MINORITY
SMALL BUSINESS CHAMPION OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, today I rise to congratulate Eddie Reyes, who has been named the 2010 Minority Small Business Champion of the Year by the United States Small Business Administration.

Reyes, coordinator of the Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) program at the University of North Texas (UNT) in Denton, Texas, will be honored at the Small Business Administration's National Small Business Week celebration in Washington, DC, May 23–25, 2010. Joining award winners from across the country, Reyes will be recognized for his personal successes as a small business owner, the contributions he has made to small businesses and the economic well-being of the country, and the special impact made by outstanding entrepreneurs and small business owners.

Reyes works with UNT and state programs to reveal opportunities to bid on goods or services and helps small business owners navigate the procurement process. He also informs them on how to obtain certification as a HUB vendor. Reyes deserves many thanks for his outstanding achievements and continuing dedication to UNT and to small business.

Reyes has received many notable honors, including being the first-ever International Business Achievement Award Recipient by the Greater Dallas Chamber, the Texas Association of Mexican-American Chambers of Commerce's H.U.B. Coordinator of the Year Award, the Pillar of the Community Award from the D/FW Association of Hispanic Contractors, and Small Business Advocate of the Year by Alliance Texas, among others.

Reyes was born and raised in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and continues to live in the area with his wife. He hosts "Diversity in Action with Eddie Reyes," a business radio program that offers information about being a successful minority or woman-owned business.

Madam Speaker, it is with great honor that I rise today and congratulate Eddie Reyes, winner of the 2010 Minority Small Business Champion of the Year award. It is an honor to represent Reyes and many small businesses across North Texas in the United States Congress.

IN HONOR OF RANCOCAS VALLEY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL'S NJROTC PROGRAM

HON. JOHN H. ADLER

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. ADLER of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today for the purpose of honoring the Rancocas Valley Regional High School's NJROTC program, which has been honored as a distinguished unit by the United States Navy. The program, which was established at the school in 1975, has been recognized for the seventh straight year for its academic, leadership and professional development.

The Rancocas Valley Regional High School's Navy Junior ROTC program, led by Bert DeJong, a retired lieutenant commander from the Coast Guard, and Dave Aupperle, a retired Navy chief petty officer, includes more than 100 students. The cadets learn about various naval topics and participate in such activities as drill competitions, community service and physical fitness training. Throughout their history, the Rancocas Valley unit has won many awards, including a state championship in drills and a first-runner up in the Northeast regional drills competition.

Additionally, the unit performs a great deal of community service, including parades, a walk to benefit children with Down syndrome, a cleanup day in Eastampton, NJ, veterans and senior citizens dinners, recycling efforts, work with the local Elks lodge, and assisting families of military personnel serving abroad.

I am extremely proud of the unit for their continuous example of leadership and community service. Madam Speaker, I hope that you will join me in commending the Rancocas Valley Regional High School's Navy Junior ROTC program.

HONORING THE LIFE OF LENA HORNE

SPEECH OF

HON. DANA ROHRBACHER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 18, 2010

Mr. ROHRBACHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H. Res. 1362, which celebrates the life and achievements of Lena Mary Calhoun Horne, and honors her for her triumphs against racial discrimination and her steadfast commitment to the civil rights of all people.

Lena Horne was a trail-blazing performing artist whose life exemplified her commitment to social justice, peace, and civil rights. During World War II, she paid her own way to travel and entertain the troops at Army camps for the USO, and became an outspoken critic of the treatment of African-American servicemen, many of whom had to sit behind German Prisoners of War during her performances.

Ms. Horne went on to participate in numerous civil rights rallies and demonstrations, and used her poise, grace, and courage to pave the way for generations of women and African-Americans. Our nation is better because of Lena Horne and those like her, and it is right and fitting that we honor her on the House floor today.

HONORING DIETER HEINZ DUBBERKE

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

Mr. RADANOVICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commend and congratulate Dieter Heinz Dubberke upon being awarded with the Americanism Medal from the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. Mr. Dubberke will be recognized and honored by the Merced River Chapter, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution on Saturday, April 24, 2010.

Mr. Dieter Dubberke grew up in Natzlaff, Germany in the late 1930s. As a young child, his mother and brother moved around Germany, attempting to flee from the Russians as they swept through parts of Germany. The three were finally able to reach Reinbek, a city in the Western Sector, where they were reunited with his maternal grandmother. At the age of 13, Mr. Dubberke's mother passed away, leaving him and his brother to care for their elderly grandmother. It was decided that the brothers would travel to the United States, where they would be adopted by their uncle Max Dubberke.

Arriving in the United States, Mr. Dubberke settled in with his uncle and attended high school in Culver City, California. Upon graduating from high school, he joined the United States Army. He served in the Army for 3 years, and then returned to California to marry his high school sweetheart, Diane, and began working for the Safeway Corporation.

Mr. Dubberke eventually moved to Mariposa, California. With his strong entrepreneurial spirit and grocery experience, he opened a small mini-mart. Later, he established Pioneer Market in Mariposa, and Dubberke and Dubberke Investments. Today, he serves as Chief Executive Officer of Dubberke and Dubberke Investments, which has five entities and eighty employees.

Mr. Dubberke is an instrumental part of the Mariposa community. He values and displays hard work, common sense, determination, honor and integrity. He is a champion of small business owners' rights and in his own business he hires local people, especially high school students, and provides generous benefits to his employees. Mr. Dubberke sponsors the annual Grizzly Family Hoedown, an event that has raised more than $20,000 in funds for transportation to non-league athletic events. He also sponsors the annual Mariposa High School Golf Tournament, in support of the
