

have turned a deaf ear towards commonsense, market-based solutions.

And I ask, Madam Speaker, for the American people to stand up and say “no” to socialism and say “yes” to freedom and liberty.

I hope the American people will contact their Congressman and their Senators and say “no” to ObamaCare, “no” to this jobs bill, “no” to more socialism and more government control of their lives, and say “yes” to freedom and liberty.

Mr. BILBRAY. Madam Speaker, I would like to close by thanking my colleague from California. I want to thank him for a lot of reasons, but it was nice that you proposed a 2-page bill, not a 2,000-page bill. It was nice that you gave us over a week to be able to review it rather than a few hours. And it is darn nice to see that we can have a bipartisan effort and get something passed in this Congress that doesn't cost $1 trillion. So thank you very much for taking a leadership role on this thing. Maybe we can get the leadership on both sides to recognize that maybe this is the process we ought to follow more often.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BACA. First of all, I would like to thank the gentleman from San Diego (Mr. BILBRAY) for his support of this. I know that he has always been supportive of Native Americans, not only now but in the past as well; so I appreciate that.

I also appreciate the gentleman from Georgia and his comments. I think he was supporting this legislation somewhere along the line as he was talking about jobs.

I also believe that it's important, and I know that President Obama has that as part of his top priority in creating jobs and dealing with the jobs in this country because he knows very well that the unemployment is now roughly around 10 percent, and he wants to make sure that he gets it up.

We know that unemployment will affect the census. I share in that sense that the gentleman from Georgia was supporting it because it's very important that we do an accurate count and that we count everyone because that will determine the amount of jobs that we have and the kinds of jobs to be created in our areas.

As I stated before, Madam Speaker, I would like to thank Chairman TOWNS, Ranking Member ISSA, and of course I want to thank again Mr. BILBRAY for his hard work and support, as well as the staff and others who have worked on this bill.

As we all know, an accurate count is vital to the importance of the American tribal communities and every other community. In my community, not too long ago we started a census count. We did it at Arrowhead Medical Center. We went there, and we began to try to tell the people in our communities the importance of having an accurate count, the importance of making sure that we count each and every one, and that everyone participates in it; and also clarifying the law, clarifying the law that the information will not be used against any individual, but every individual must be counted within our communities.

What does it mean to our States, our counties, our cities? What does it mean to businesses in the area? It's important that we do an accurate count because that's the only way that we can determine how many dollars are going to come back into our communities. We won't know unless we do an accurate count.

The State of California won't be able to determine their budget if they don't do an accurate count. Based on the amount of dollars in that immediate area, they can then determine how much money is going to be coming back to the State of California, or any other State. Or a county official in an area can determine, when they look at their budget and try to determine what goes on, they can only do it if they have an accurate count. And city officials within the area can only determine what needs to go on in terms of, all right, What is my budget going to look like? What kind of services do I need to provide at the local level? How does it impact transportation? How does it impact education? How does it impact public safety? How does it impact public health?

And then local businesses in the area: we know that you need a strong marketing plan and you need to know where businesses want to relocate. It happens through the census.

So an accurate count is very important. If you're a businessperson and you want to start a business in the area, it's important that you have an accurate count because you know where you want to be located; you know the demographics of the area; you know the income of the area. If it's a doctor, then the doctor will know how many patients he is going to have and how much profit he is going to make. It's not about profit. It's about the service and quality of health care. I only made that statement, but it's important because we'll be able to determine that. So an accurate count in the area becomes very important. It also tells us how to market the area. How do we market the immediate area in terms of what goes on?

In Indian Country, it becomes very important to a lot of us when we look at many of our tribes in our areas and at the undercount that has been there. Many of our tribes and others have not been able to determine the kind of services they need within the reservations. This will determine the transportation, the housing in the area, the health in the area, and the kind of educational facilities. Most of all, it will be respect to an elder because this is about identifying the elders within each of the tribes and allowing them to be counted. It's important that we count each and every one of the individuals and that we allow for the kind of respect that should be there, not only in this census but in others. If we look back at 1990 and 2000, we did an inaccurate count. There were many people who weren't counted.

I believe the census is making every effort in trying to reach out to our communities by marketing, by hiring individuals, by working in the communities, and by identifying those individuals. That kind of partnership and collaboration becomes very important to all of us if we want to make sure that we do an accurate count.

This bill is very important, not only to Native Americans now but in the future, when a child can then look up to future generations and say, It was my elder who was the first one to be counted, the true Americans in this country, and they should be the ones who should be counted first. This gives us an opportunity to approach them and to make sure that they are counted.

Mr. BROUN of Georgia. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BACA. I yield.

Mr. BROUN of Georgia. I just wanted to answer your question.

Yes, I absolutely support this. Counting the census is a constitutional duty. It's extremely important. Our Founding Fathers knew how important it was to know who people were, where they were, et cetera. So I do support the bill very strongly.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BACA. I thank the gentleman from Georgia for his support.

Madam Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.
