CONGRATULATING THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON ON ITS NCAA BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT SELECTION

(Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor both my alma mater and hometown school, the University of Houston, and its men's basketball team, for being selected for the NCAA tournament for the first time in 18 years. The Cougars secured a bid to the tournament by winning the Conference USA championship game. Houston goes to the tournament with the Nation's leading scorer, Aubrey Coleman, and a solid team surrounding him. The team faces the University of Maryland on Friday in the opening round of the tournament.

While it's been some time since Houston has made an appearance in the NCAA tournament, we have a long history of success in the NCAA tournament, most notably in the early eighties. It was during this time, from 1982 to 1984, that Phi Slama Jama became the nickname of the University of Houston Cougars men's basketball team. The phrase was coined by a local sportswriter, Thomas Bonk, and the nickname was quickly adopted by the players and even appeared on team warm-up suits. Phi Slama Jama was coached by Guy Lewis and featured NBA Hall of Fame players Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. "Texas' Tallest Fraternity" was known for its dunking and explosive, fast-breaking style of play. While the 2009-2010 team has a different style of play, they're exciting to watch, and we'll be rooting for an upset on the number four seed on Friday.

GOVERNMENT DOES TOO MUCH FOR US, AND TOO MUCH TO US

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Madam Speaker, Dr. Adrian Rogers of Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee, gave some sage advice over 20 years ago about the role of government. It is as relevant today it was when he first said
