

day highway extension because we haven't done a highway and transportation major rewrite of the TEA-legislation, but it will take us through the end of the year.

That is somewhat good news, but it is also bad news because States cannot plan beyond the end of the year. That means that we can't get people working beyond the end of the year. That means that we can't make commitments for improving our Nation's infrastructure and probably the biggest programs that we could do as far as this Congress in employing people.

So I am disappointed that the administration failed to support Mr. OBERSTAR, my chairman, on a 6-year authorization. At a time we needed to do it, they recommended an 18-month. And what have we got here? We have got until December, and leaving everyone at bay, people without work, States not knowing what to do after the end of this year.

So we have to do this. We have to get the extension as long as we can get it. Right now the other side is saying until December. I am disappointed in that. We have to straighten out the formula. And then we have to extend the FAA bill, and I am so pleased that we are extending my FAA bill, which, wasn't, I must say in closing, a bad piece of work.
