PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:
Lord, our light and our salvation, be with all the Members of the legislative branch of government as they work from discussion to decision, from prayer to action.

May the immediate scene of Haiti prove to be a living parable of Your redeeming love, lifting Your people from slavery to freedom, from death to new life.

When the media has tired of its story, Lord, allow the commitment of liberation and justice to grow, that the good news of Your faithful presence will overcome the shadowy image of death and destruction.

So may Your people rejoice, Lord, in finding the treasure of Your kingdom here, even on Earth, for Your gospel story will last forever and ever.

Amen.
