ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Two minutes remain in this vote.

1511
So (two-thirds not being in the affirmative) the motion was rejected.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. POSEY. Mr. Speaker, I wish to make a parliamentary inquiry, please.
The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his inquiry.
Mr. POSEY. Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that the bill we are about to vote on allows CBO scores to be posted on the Clerk's Web site. Would it be in order to amend the bill to also include the Nation's debt clock on the Clerk's Web site?
The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is not stating a parliamentary inquiry, nor a point of order.
Mr. POSEY. Mr. Speaker, I think that is a legitimate question for a point of order.
The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's parliamentary inquiry is not properly stated, it is a matter for debate.

DIRECTING CLERK OF THE HOUSE TO ENSURE THAT CBO COST ESTIMATES ARE PUBLICLY AVAILABLE
The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and agree to the resolution (H. Res. 1178) directing the Clerk of the House of Representatives to compile the cost estimates prepared by the Congressional Budget Office which are included in reports filed by committees of the House on approved legislation and post such estimates on the official public Internet site of the Office of the Clerk, as amended, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Brady) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, as amended.

Without objection, this will be a 5 minute vote.

There was no objection.
The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were-yeas 390 , nays 22 , not voting 19, as follows:
