ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

□ 1103

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 416, had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, on July 1, 2010, I was unavoidably unable to cast my vote for rollcall 416 due to an important meeting with a constituent. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

RESULTS OF CONGRESSIONAL WOMEN'S SOFTBALL GAME

(Ms. WASSERMAN SCHULTZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. WASSERMAN SCHULTZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise to share some news with the Members of the House.

Members of the House, we thought it only right to continue our efforts to have the women show up the men. Our bipartisan congressional women's softball team had another amazingly successful softball game to raise money for the Young Survival Coalition. It was our second annual game.

In the last 2 years, we have raised more than $80,000 for the Young Survival Coalition. We think that is not bad for 49 years of a congressional baseball game and 2 years of a congressional women's softball game to do pretty well in that time.

This year we got smart and decided to play women that were maybe a little less athletic and a little older than the team we played last year, and we played the Capitol female press corps. We were doing great until the sixth inning. Then a couple of us got a little tired, and we had a couple of ringers that we were concerned the press brought in. But, in fairness, they did a fantastic job, even though we lost 13-7.

Congratulations to the press team. The press team did a fantastic job. They were devoted and dedicated and worked hard.

I yield to my colleague.

Mrs. EMERSON. We look forward to challenging them again next year. However, I think that we have to make a rule that no interns get to play, because they were quite a bit younger than us, in spite of the fact we thought we would have a level playing field.

Nonetheless, the important thing is, number one, we worked together as a team. We proved that we could totally do something that was nonpolitical and that brought us all together. We bonded, and I think it makes for very important friendships in this place.

Ms. WASSERMAN SCHULTZ. We won for five innings.

Mrs. EMERSON. I will say that next year our practices will begin even earlier.

We want to also thank our coaches here in the House, ED PERLMUTTER, JOE DONNELLY, JOE BACA, KEVIN BRADY and SANDY LEVIN. Thank you all very much for helping. Most importantly, thank you to the Speaker and the Minority Leader and everyone else for being there for us.

Ms. WASSERMAN SCHULTZ. We will see you at the third annual congressional women's softball game next year.

SUPPORTING NATIONAL POLLINATOR WEEK

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question on suspending the rules and agreeing to the resolution (H. Res. 1460) recognizing the important role pollinators play in supporting the ecosystem and supporting the goals and ideals of National Pollinator Week.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. CARDOZA) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution.
