

Thank you, JIM LANGEVIN. Thank all of those who have a disability who made this happen. God bless you.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, our distinguished majority leader referenced that we had a special guest here today. I want to acknowledge the presence of Mr. MINNICK's guest, Corporal Randal Wright. He lost both legs and a hand in Afghanistan.

I think it's important that we have this juxtapositioning. As Mr. PATRICK KENNEDY said today in his remarks, we have many of our brave men and women in uniform who are fighting the fight for our country. They come home, many of them, with physical disabilities. We want them all to think about serving in Congress.

So this, Corporal Randal Wright, is about you and your colleagues as well. Mr. LANGEVIN has led the way. We want to take this opportunity to thank you for your patriotism, your courage, and your sacrifice for our country.

□ 1900

I want to thank Mr. MINNICK and Mr. MARSHALL, the author of the Veterans Disabilities Act, for bringing Corporal Wright here. And STENY tells me that Corporal Wright got married this week as well.

So, my colleagues, once again let us congratulate Mr. LANGEVIN for presiding with such dignity over the House on this historic day. Congratulations and thank you.
