IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 5822) making appropriations for military construction, the Department of Veterans Affairs, and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2011, and for other purposes, with Ms. EDWARDS of Maryland in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The CHAIR. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered read the first time.

The gentleman from Texas (Mr. EDWARDS) and the gentleman from Florida (Mr. CRENSHAW) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Chair, it's a privilege for me to present the fiscal year 2011 Military Construction and Veterans Affairs appropriations bill. I believe this bill and the work we have done since January of 2007 is a work all of us can be very proud of.

In this time of war, we have continued our tradition of a bipartisan Military Construction and Veterans Affairs appropriation bill. It has honored in a meaningful way the service and sacrifice of our servicemen and -women, our veterans and their families.

With passage of this fiscal year 2011 bill, the Congress will have increased veterans health care and benefits funding by 70 percent in the last 3½ years. In addition, we have funded a new 21st century GI education bill that 510,000 servicemen and -women, veterans, and military children have used to further their education. This is an unprecedented increase in Congress' commitment to veterans.

In our book, our veterans have earned every dime of this funding. We have, among other things, increased by 10,200 the number of permanent claims processors in the VA to reduce VA case backlogs, provided an additional 145 community-based outpatient clinics, built 92 new vet centers. This bill will add 30 mobile vet centers to serve rural communities. It allowed the Veterans Health Administration to hire an additional 18,000 new doctors and nurses.

These resources mean that our veterans have better access to the health care they need and deserve, including improved access in rural areas, increased access for VA health care for low- and middle-income vets. Additionally, these resources ensure that our veterans receive, on a more timely basis, the services and benefits that they have earned.

We have also worked hard to make sure that our military knows that the Congress respects the sacrifices that they and their families have made each and every day to keep our great Nation safe. We have heard time and time again in testimony that the best support we can give our military when they are deployed is the knowledge that their families are cared for here at home.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION AND VETERANS AFFAIRS AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2011

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 5822.

We have listened and funded initiatives, such as:

$2.8 billion for new military hospitals so servicemen and -women know that their families will get the best possible health care in high quality facilities;

New child care centers to serve 20,000 military children;

Over $500 million in additional funding for barracks, because Congress needs to show our volunteer forces from day one that we respect and honor their decision to serve.

The Subcommittee for Military Construction and Veterans Affairs did not accomplish this alone. There are several key leaders that have worked tirelessly behind the scenes to support our efforts.

Speaker PELOSI promised our veterans that they would be a top priority for her, and the fact is she has more than honored that promise. Her fingerprints are on every bill that has provided for our military and veterans in the past 3½ years through our subcommittee, and I thank her for her leadership in these efforts.

Also, we would not have seen the historic funding increases that I have just highlighted were it not for the dedicated support of Chairman DAVE OBEY, who, in my book, is the unsung hero of America's veterans.

I must also salute, and want to salute, the VA Committee chairman, BOB FILNER, for his strong leadership every day on behalf of America's veterans. He has truly made a difference.

Lastly, but definitely not least, our ranking member, Mr. WAMP of Tennessee, has been a vital partner in putting together this bill, and last year's bill as well. Mr. WAMP has a genuine heart for America's servicemen and -women and our veterans, and he has championed their cause. It has been a privilege to work with him, and also with ANDER CRENSHAW, who has filled in when Mr. WAMP could not be with us in some of our deliberations this year. Mr. CRENSHAW has truly been a partner every step of the way in putting together this bipartisan bill, and I thank him for that.

I also thank Mr. FARR on the Democratic side, the vice chairman of our subcommittee, who has done an outstanding job for our veterans and our military.

Madam Chair, I would like to highlight several key initiatives in this bill.

First, this bill continues an initiative begun last year to provide advance appropriation for VA medical care. This will allow the VA to invest taxpayer dollars more effectively and efficiently, and it is a top priority of America's veterans' service organizations.

Second, we provide $190 million to new troop housing for Army trainees, over 60,000 of whom are presently living in barracks that don't even meet minimum DOD standards. Our 18- and 19-year-old military recruits don't have many lobbyists running around the halls of Capitol Hill, but they deserve our Nation's respect and support for their decision to serve in our military during a time of war.

Third, we provide $200 million for a Guard and Reserve construction initiative, recognizing the vital role these troops are playing in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Fourth, the bill provides $1.3 billion in emergency appropriations for military construction of facilities in support of our military operations in Afghanistan.

Fifth, recognizing the mental wounds of war can sometimes be more painful and long lasting than the physical wounds of combat, we provide $5.2 billion for the VA to continue its improvements in PTSD and mental health care for America's veterans.

Sixth, this bill includes funding for 4,048 new permanent VA claims processors in order to help veterans receive their earned benefits on a more timely basis.

The seventh initiative I would highlight, this bill also continues to open up VA medical care to more middle- and low-income veterans by 292,000, the number of veterans receiving health care since reopening enrollment in 2009.

Finally, we want to ensure that historic increases in funding for the VA are spent wisely. To increase oversight of the taxpayers' dollars, we provide an additional $6 million to VA's Office of Inspector General.

Madam Chair, I am going to skip over some of the numbers that we have in this bill, but I would be remiss if I did not thank the committee staff, very professional committee staff, a very dedicated committee staff, for their hard work and long hours during this process: the minority staff, led by Martin Delgado, Liz Dawson and Kelly Shea; and Erin Fogleman and Gilbert DMeza from Mr. WAMP's staff; and the majority staff led by Subcommittee Clerk Tim Peterson, Mary Arnold, Walter Hearne, Sue Quantius and Todd Friedman and Michelle Dominguez on my staff. They don't get public credit for the work, but the work of this bill would not have been done had it not been for their professionalism, and I thank each of them personally.

In conclusion, this bill keeps our promise to our veterans. That is what the Paralyzed Veterans of America, AMVETS, Disabled American Veterans, and Veterans of Foreign Wars have said. In fact, they state, "We offer our strong support for the FY 2011 Military Construction and Veterans Affairs appropriations bill and we hope that the House will quickly pass this critical legislation."

This bill sends a clear message to America's servicemen and -women, their families, and our veterans. We appreciate and respect their service and sacrifice.

Madam Chair, I reserve the balance of my time.

□ 1630

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

First let me just say that I rise in support of this appropriations bill. It's the first appropriations bill that we will bring to the floor today, and I think it's an excellent bill.

I would like to start by thanking Chairman EDWARDS, not only for his leadership, but for the example that he sets to make every member of the subcommittee feel like they are valued. He has treated everyone with a sense of fairness. It has been an open process, bipartisan process, and we appreciate that very much. I think because of that atmosphere that everything we do in this subcommittee is really geared to make sure that we put the best interests of the men and women in uniform first, and put their families first, the veterans, and those fallen heroes.

I want to say a word about Ranking Member ZACH WAMP. I am here in his stead. He is back home in Tennessee trying to represent the people of Tennessee in a different way, as the Governor of that State. But I can tell you that even though he is not here, as Mr. EDWARDS mentioned, he has been very much a part of this process. I think this bill is a reflection of his dedication, his commitment to the men and women in uniform. And I know that I've heard Mr. WAMP say on occasion that serving as the ranking member of this subcommittee has been the highest achievement of his career here in the House of Representatives, and so we wish him well as he leaves.

I want to also say a word about Mr. YOUNG. He's not here today, but he has been a long-time member of this subcommittee. I think Chairman EDWARDS agrees that he has been a great champion of the men and women in uniform. He and his wife, Beverly, are often visitors at our military hospitals to see the folks that have come back, the wounded warriors. If he were here, I'm sure he would stand up and say that he believes this is a very good bipartisan bill. He is recovering from some surgery himself, so I know we all wish him well in this committee.

Mr. EDWARDS has done a great job of talking about kind of an overview of what goes on here, and so I don't want to repeat that. I certainly want to echo his words of congratulations to the staff; we thank everyone for their hard work. But I want to mention a couple of items that were brought up that were concerns that, because of the open process, because of the bipartisan nature in our subcommittee markup, members had a chance to talk about some issues of concern.

One was, and Mr. EDWARDS mentioned that, we found that while we were adding dollars to most of the programs in the VA, the Inspector General was kind of held to last year's level. We all felt like—it was a bipartisan agreement—that the Inspector General has so much to offer in terms of oversight, in terms of accountability, by doing audits, that they ought to have additional resources, and so we added $6 million there.

Another concern that was raised at the subcommittee level was the VA had decided that they wanted to reduce the number of claims processors they had in the new GI bill as part of the veterans affairs. You all remember when we passed that updated version of the GI bill and added benefits that are so important to our veterans as they come back, and yet we found out that last year there had been quite a bit of problems just because of the increased demand on those claims processors. We thought it would be a bad idea to reduce the number of folks that were processing those claims when last year this chaos was created—and my office got calls, I know other Members got calls because the tuition payments weren't being made in a timely fashion, the claims weren't being processed; in fact, sometimes the checks were written by hand and delivered without much accountability.

And so while we applaud the VA for saying we want to try to do more with less, we thought right now that would be penny wise and pound foolish. And so we added back those claims processors. We want to make sure that we get everything done on time. Next year, they're actually estimating the increase will be 31 percent. There will be over 2.2 million claims made under those new GI benefits, and we want to make sure that they are paid on time. So we added back those individuals.

And, finally, there was a concern about Arlington National Cemetery. I think a lot of people read about some of the horror stories that went on there. We found out that the management was really a little bit behind in terms of modern day. So the Secretary of the Army, John McHugh, acted very quickly and very forcefully. He set up some guidelines to improve what's going on at Arlington National Cemetery. Mr. YOUNG offered some report language to make sure that the members of this subcommittee will have a chance to exercise appropriate oversight.

So those were areas of concern that I think were addressed because of this open process, and those amendments were adopted unanimously on a bipartisan basis.

I would say from the big-picture standpoint, as Mr. EDWARDS has talked about, I came to Congress primarily because I believed that the number one responsibility of the Federal Government is to protect American lives, and I still believe that today. But what I found when I was assigned to this subcommittee was that we also have a sacred responsibility to make sure that the men and women who wear the uniform are treated with respect, that they have adequate housing, and that they have the quality of life they so richly deserve.

This bill continues the commitment that we've made there. Sometimes when you think about military construction projects, you think about a new hangar or a new dock or a ship or a landing strip or a wharf; but as Mr. EDWARDS pointed out, housing is so very vital. We've done a great job, and we continue that commitment. Whether it's a barracks or whether it's married housing, we want to have the housing we would want our sons and daughters to live in, and we're making great progress in that area.

I think we all agree we've got the best trained and the most equipped military in the world, and we've worked hard to do that. But we are also beginning to make sure that when people come back that have been under some stress, under unique situations, that they have adequate counseling, that they have those kinds of programs that are so very important; and I think this bill continues that commitment.

And just finally I would say there are a couple of important projects that are funded this year as part of the administration's budget deal with my district in northeast Florida. There is a naval station, Mayport, that the Navy has decided to make that home port for a nuclear carrier; and so last year there was money to begin dredging, to begin wharf upgrades. This year, there is $2 million for planning and design to continue that process. I worked with the chief of naval operations—in fact, spoke with him just about a month ago—and the Navy is still very committed, because of national security, to make sure that we have the ability to disperse our assets, to make sure we have a backup nuclear maintenance facility, and I thank the subcommittee and the members for their support.

Also in northeast Florida, the Marines have a project called Blount Island, where a great deal of the materiel goes back and forth through that port to the Middle East. There is money to upgrade and make that more of a world-class facility.

So this is a great bill that I think we can all be proud of. And it really is the result of the leadership of Mr. EDWARDS and his hard work, the leadership of Mr. WAMP and his hard work and, actually, the hard work of every member of this subcommittee. And I think because of that, we have a bill that truly honors our American heroes. It speaks to the people that defend us today, it speaks to those who have returned as veterans, and also to those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice. And so for those reasons, Madam Chair, I urge everyone to support this bill.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, before introducing Chairman OBEY, I would like to join with my friend and colleague, Mr. CRENSHAW, in saluting Mr. YOUNG of Florida. While he is not here because of an illness today, he has spent a lifetime of service and commitment to our servicemen and women, our veterans and their families.

I also see Mr. LEWIS on the floor, the ranking member of the full committee, the former chairman of the full committee, the former chairman of the Defense Appropriations Committee. I thank Mr. LEWIS also for working on this bill and for his leadership throughout his long career here in Congress in support of our servicemen and -women.

Madam Chair, it is one of two honors of my lifetime to recognize and introduce Chairman DAVE OBEY. I must say that in the last 3½ years, this Congress has increased veterans funding by more than any 3½-year period in history. That would not have happened had it not been for the allocations and the personal leadership of Chairman DAVE OBEY. And while others of us at the subcommittee level or the VA authorizing subcommittee level have been the ones sometimes recognized by veterans groups for our work over these past 3½ years, it has been Chairman OBEY's leadership and partnership with Speaker PELOSI behind the scenes that have made all of these new programs, including the funding of the GI bill, that has helped over 500,000 servicemen and -women and veterans and their families.

It's been Mr. OBEY's leadership that has truly made a difference in this process. Of his many great legacies of his service to this country and Congress, I hope he will always be remembered as a true champion of America's veterans.

Madam Chair, I yield 5 minutes to Chairman OBEY.

□ 1640

Mr. OBEY. I thank the gentleman for the time. I thank him for his overblown words.

I do want to extend my best wishes to BILL YOUNG, who is one of the most loved Members of this House and one of the most respected.

I also want to congratulate the gentleman from Texas for the superb job he has done in putting this bill together. It is a well-balanced bill, and everyone understands the gentleman's convictions and his passionate desire to defend the interests of American veterans.

Madam Chair, there are more than 6 million veterans and their families who depend on the Department of Veterans Affairs for medical care, for disability payments, and education benefits, and this bill represents our obligation to them. It builds on our actions of the last 2 years, which have provided the most significant enlargement of education benefits for veterans since the passage of the original GI Bill of Rights.

One of the bill's highest priorities is to help cut through the bureaucracy that disabled veterans face over their claims. They shouldn't have to wait months and months for their paperwork to be processed before receiving the benefits owed to them. The bill provides for an additional 4,000 permanent claims processors—a 25 percent increase to work through more than 1 million disability claims.

These resources are especially needed now that the Vietnam veterans will be eligible to file claims for disabilities caused by Agent Orange. Veterans' medical care is the largest component of the bill. According to the VA, more than 6.1 million patients will be treated in 2011, including nearly 440,000 veterans of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Now, many people think of veterans' health care as being solely focused on physical injuries. We understand now, better than ever, how combat threatens soldiers' mental health as well. We owe it to every one of them to address not only their physical wounds but also the mental and emotional consequences of war. This bill includes added resources for services to veterans suffering from traumatic brain injury, post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, and other mental conditions. Full access to this care remains a problem for some veterans, for seeing the right specialist can mean expensive trips and hours and hours in the car.

In Northern Wisconsin, for instance, there are tens of thousands of veterans who cannot regularly see counselors because there aren't vet centers anywhere near their homes. This bill makes critical investments to meet our obligations to them.

This bill also addresses the high rate of veterans' homelessness. On any given night last year, 107,000 veterans were homeless. That is shameful. With the goal of ending veterans' homelessness in 5 years, this bill matches the budget request for VA homeless assistance grants and supportive services for veterans and their families who need them.

At the end of the day, it is important to remember that this bill is not just about dollars and programs. It is about our duty to American veterans—to respect their service and sacrifice, not only with flowery words on the Fourth of July, but also with actions like this, on days like this, that are less noticed but every bit as important.

I congratulate the subcommittee for the bill that they have produced.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield 2 minutes to the vice chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs, the gentleman from California (Mr. FARR), who has been a champion on this committee for veterans, our troops, their families, and for all of the many issues involved in this subcommittee's affairs.

Mr. FARR. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

To our current acting ranking member, Mr. CRENSHAW, thank you very much for giving me this moment to speak on this very important bill.

Madam Chair, yesterday, the House of Representatives had a very important vote, a very controversial vote here. The vote was on funding the war effort in Afghanistan. Those votes ought to be controversial—whether we go to war, where we go to war, and how long the mission is going to take. Those ought to be votes that you can cast for and against. Yet there is one bill you can't vote against, and that is the bill that supports the troops in their residence, in their training and back here at home—the quality of life that we provide defense personnel, military personnel.

This is the bill that funds the child care centers. This is the bill that creates the housing for men and women in uniform, who voluntarily join the service. This is the bill that creates the clinics and the hospitals, the support systems—any kind of community of support—and a special one for military personnel needs. So one can vote against the war, but one cannot vote against the support here at home.

This bill has bipartisan support because it is interested in improving the quality of life of military personnel, who voluntarily come into the military. Everybody who passes through the Department of Defense ends up becoming a veteran. You cannot be a veteran without having served in active duty.

This committee also supports the continuum of care. We ought not to have a silo of Defense Department quality of care and a separate silo for veterans. We are making it seamless. We are making it so that, when you enroll in the Department of Defense, you also automatically enroll in the Department of Veterans Affairs. The Department of Veterans Affairs takes care of you for the rest of your life. We owe it to any man or woman who has ever served in the military to provide them the promises that were made. These promises were made, but the quality of care until now has not been that great. It has changed.

Please support this appropriations bill as the real “support our troops” bill.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I continue to reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield 1½ minutes to a very important member of our Appropriations subcommittee, the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. SALAZAR), who has been a real champion for our vets and our troops.

Mr. SALAZAR. Madam Chair, I want to take a moment to recognize my colleagues.

Chairman EDWARDS has been a great champion of our veterans since his tenure here in Congress began. Also, I thank Ranking Member WAMP and Mr. CRENSHAW for their valiant efforts in putting this bill together.

I don't think that I have had a greater honor than to serve on a committee of this type where we all work together in a bipartisan manner. Chairman EDWARDS, Ranking Member WAMP, Mr.

CRENSHAW—all of us—have worked very hard for veterans and their families. All 17.5 million living veterans in the United States should applaud you for your diligent work as you fight for those who provide us freedom.

Madam Chair, as the chairman mentioned, it is important to recognize the bipartisanship and fiscal responsibility of this bill. In completing BRAC 2005, the subcommittee was able to reduce the overall spending of this bill by three-quarters of a billion dollars. The bill includes a total of $57 billion, which is an increase of nearly $4 billion for veterans' medical care, disability, and educational benefits. Veterans in Colorado are a major winner in this bill again. Thanks to the President and to the subcommittee for their continued support of a new VA medical center in Denver, Colorado.

I want to thank all of those Members who continue to fight the good fight for our veterans and military personnel.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I yield myself 1 minute.

I would ask Chairman EDWARDS if he would engage in a brief colloquy.

Mr. EDWARDS, it is my understanding that the committee authorized a study in March to review various portions of the Veterans Health Administration. As I understand it, the committee has just received the report. Once the report has been analyzed by the committee staff, I believe it would be important, as we move this veterans' appropriations bill forward, that we use the recommendations in the report, if feasible, to provide better oversight and better transparency to the health care spending at the VA.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield to the gentleman.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I want to thank the gentleman both for the points he is making now and also for his focus on oversight.

As we have provided these historic increases in veterans' funding over the last several years, and as we have been working together on a bipartisan basis, I think it is also very important that we see that those tax dollars are spent wisely, efficiently, and effectively.

I have been concerned for some time that the large increases we have provided the VA health care system have not always made their way down to the individual hospitals on a very rapid basis as quickly as we would like.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield myself 1 additional minute.

Mr. EDWARDS, please continue.

□ 1650

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Because of that and our work together, we asked the S&I staff to do this study to help us understand the process the Department's using in distributing money and to highlight areas where we can exert more oversight, if necessary, to ensure the efficient use of taxpayer dollars.

The report just completed is quite large, and in the coming weeks, staff on both sides of the aisle will be evaluating it to determine how its recommendations can be incorporated into our final bill and report. And I certainly look forward to working with the gentleman on examining that report and seeing how we can incorporate some of its ideas into the final conference report on this bill.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I continue to reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. DONNELLY) for the purpose of my entering into a colloquy with him.

Mr. DONNELLY of Indiana. Madam Chairman, I want to thank the chairman for his and his committee's work on this bill.

As we all know, there are veterans across the country, including thousands in my district, who are forced to drive long distances to receive the medical care they earned through their service to the Nation. But I understand that included in this bill is $15 million for the VA Health Care Center Advance Planning account, which would go toward new VA Health Care Centers, which could help these veterans.

I wonder if the chairman wouldn't mind going into some detail on this item.

I yield to the gentleman.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I want to thank the gentleman for his hard work on behalf of our veterans. He's been a leader on these issues. And thanks to you, Mr. DONNELLY, this bill directs $15 million that you referenced to planning the VA health care centers across the country. It's an innovative way to make more services available to veterans locally.

I understand that among the locations due to have a new VA health care center is South Bend, in the gentleman's district. And South Bend's demonstrated need for such an expansion of VA health care services was noted by the committee in its report language.

Furthermore, the committee expects that this account will be utilized by the VA as soon as possible.

Mr. DONNELLY of Indiana. Mr. Chairman, thank you so much for your leadership.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr. MURPHY), who has worked very hard on behalf of our veterans and troops.

Mr. MURPHY of Connecticut. Mr. Chairman, thank you and the committee for bringing this bill before us.

There's $13 billion in this legislation for construction. That's more in the last 4 years combined than any 4-year period since the 1940s. And though that will mean transformational things for our veterans, I want to just briefly highlight this afternoon what it will mean for the people that will do that work.

We've lost 2 million construction jobs in this recession and the Associated General Contractors of America estimate that almost 400,000 construction jobs could be created just by this bill alone. That's good news for jobs in this country. But we can have even better news if we make sure that the materials used to build those buildings are bought here in America as well.

Many of us have been working very hard on reinforcing our Buy America law. This construction funding presents us with a unique opportunity to not only serve our veterans, not only honor our commitment to them, but also grow the types of jobs in construction and construction materials that this economy badly needs.

I'm so thankful to the chairman for all of his work bringing this bill to the floor and what it will mean for veterans and for jobs.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I continue to reserve.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, there are several other speakers on our side of the aisle who said they would like to speak, but perhaps we have progressed more quickly than they thought.

I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. RODRIGUEZ), a member of the Appropriations Committee who has been vocal in his strong support of our veterans and troops.

Mr. RODRIGUEZ. Madam Chair, I just wanted to take this opportunity to come down to the House floor and congratulate our chairman, Congressman CHET EDWARDS, on his efforts in this area. I feel really elated in terms of the amount of resources that we have been able to put for our veterans.

Having been on the Veterans' Committee and on the appropriations side and the authorizing side, I had the opportunity to witness the situation that we suffered with when we had to do the copayments and require our veterans to come up and pay copayments. We cut Category 8 veterans from that. In addition, not only that, but we asked them to pay for additional fees for services.

And in the last 3 years, it's been a turnaround, and this bill provides resources there for the first time that allow an opportunity for us to be able to look at our infrastructure and improve on those areas that are out there.

We have a good number of hospitals out there that are lacking on infrastructure, and I'm hoping that in the future we continue to do this. This bill puts us on the right track to provide additional resources, and I want to thank him, personally, also.

I know that it also has been able to put additional resources and creating additional polytrauma centers. We have four in the Nation. Now we have a fifth in Texas, and so I want to thank him personally, there in San Antonio, for the polytrauma center that has had the resources to be able to begin to provide those needed items that our veterans need.

I also want to just thank him for putting the resources there and just advertise the fact that, just in the last year and a half, we have over 240,000 veterans that are now taking advantage of the GI Bill. And this is a tremendous bill. We expect to have over half a million veterans participating in the GI bill. And that, in the future, will show a tremendous amount of positiveness when those individuals get their bachelor's, their master's, and their doctorate degrees as they move forward. In addition to that bill, it also allows their kids and their spouses to take advantage.

So congratulations on the great work that you have been doing, Chairman.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. HALL), who is a leading voice of America's veterans on the Veterans' Affairs Authorizing Committee.

Mr. HALL of New York. Madam Chair, on behalf of the veterans of the Hudson Valley of New York and all those who have served our country in uniform, I'm strongly supportive of the bill which we're considering today. It's a solemn contract that we who do not serve in uniform—we have enjoyed the benefits of their sacrifice and their personal risk and their families doing without them—need to uphold our part of the bargain, which is to take care of them anytime after their return. And, therefore, I think it's really critical that we pass this bill to fund not just military construction but veterans facilities.

We don't know yet what the cost will be from the conflicts we're currently engaged in. Unfortunately, our country has a habit of deciding to go into a conflict without an educated, informed figure being given out, or a guess even that's very accurate as to what the lifetime costs may be for care of the veterans created by that conflict, but it's essential that we protect those veterans facilities that we have and improve them as needed, construct new ones as needed.

And I am concerned, first of all, with passing the underlying bill. But secondly, I'm also concerned with some amendments that have been offered to this bill, which I will speak to later when the amendments are being considered, which move money from what's considered to be, or what's called minor construction and, in particular, from an urgent care center and minor construction, and to other things which sound and are good in and of themselves.

□ 1700

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I continue to reserve my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Rhode Island (Mr. KENNEDY). And as he approaches the well, let me just thank him. This will be his last year to be in the House, a member of this committee. And he has been an inspiration to veterans throughout America and to every member of our subcommittee on both sides of the aisle in his championing the cause of mental health care services and other services for veterans, care for our homeless veterans. I thank the gentleman. It will be a legacy that will live on for many decades to come.

Mr. KENNEDY. I thank the chairman and my ranking member for all the work they did to make this a fine veterans appropriations bill.

Ladies and gentlemen, if our soldiers were caught behind enemy lines, we would think nothing of mounting the full might of military power to go in and retrieve those members of our military. In fact, every American would wrap yellow ribbons around their trees in solidarity in order that we may set those prisoners of war free, in order that we may bring back those hostages of the Taliban, or the terrorists, or whomever may have captured them.

But ladies and gentlemen, something is going on in this country, something very tragic. Our military, our Veterans Affairs, everybody talks a good game, talks a very good game of patriotism when it comes to saying we're going to stand by our guardians of freedom, while those very guardians of freedom aren't free themselves. They may have come home in body, but they have not come home, many of them, in mind.

They are suffering from the signature wound of this war. What is that? Traumatic brain injury. What is that? Post-traumatic stress disorder. My colleagues, these veterans in essence are being held hostage. They're being held hostage all over this great country. They are in essence prisoners of war. They are prisoners of this war, prisoners of traumatic brain injury and its symptoms, its many symptoms: loss of memory, loss of cognitive ability, and the symptoms that ensue.

Many of them self-medicate. Many of them isolate. Why? Because these injuries are invisible, invisible to the naked eye, but not invisible to anybody who loves them. These are real injuries. They are injuries that can turn their lives upside down. All of the commanders in DOD say they are doing something about it. I'm not seeing it. In fact, I was briefed a year ago on some neuroscience research of an off-label drug that's used to treat bleeding in the intestines, to reduce swelling. They thought it might help reduce swelling of a concussion and the onset of swelling in the brain. Guess what? It proved to be effective, initial findings showed.

If this were the battle of AIDS, that drug would have been in the field helping our soldiers. But no, we don't have the urgency we have with AIDS. Somehow we don't have the urgency when it comes to our veterans and the signature of this war wound, TBI and PTSD, that we bring when it comes to something like AIDS. We don't set aside parochial concerns. We don't set aside partisan. We don't set aside the value of someone's proprietary research concerns.

When are we going to make our special interest the veteran? There's nothing dirty about special interests so long as we make it the right one. When are we going to agree that there is one special interest in this town that there should be no disagreement about, and that's the veteran. When are we going to say with our actions, not just our words, that the veteran is the one who counts? When are we going to say we're going to release them from terror, the terror and tyranny of their bondage, of their disability because they served us?

Ladies and gentlemen, this study showed that if you reduce the swelling in the brain you can reduce the longer-term impact.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I yield the gentleman an additional 15 seconds.

Mr. KENNEDY. The blood-brain barrier reduces the ability for a bruise that is absorbed by the regular body to be absorbed by the brain. This drug helped reduce the swelling. The DOD has an obligation to implement it. They are not. They should. And they ought to.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Madam Chair, I think we have heard today what a well-balanced bill this is, as we said at the beginning. And I think it demonstrates—it's an example of what happens when people come together in an open process, in a fair process, in a bipartisan process. I think this bill demonstrates the work that we can do when we work together. So again, I am honored to be part of this process, to work with the chairman and the ranking member.

I urge everyone to support this bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I want to finish by thanking Mr. CRENSHAW for, again, his leadership on this and working together importantly on so many parts of this bill, and doing so in a bipartisan manner. We thanked a lot of people in this process. It's been a work of good faith on both sides of the aisle.

I always want to save the best for the last in thanking our veterans service organizations for their partnership in putting together this legislation.

I add two letters, one from the DAV, AMVETS, Paralyzed Veterans of America, and Veterans of Foreign Wars; another from the president of the National Guard Association of the United States, in support of this legislation.

THE INDEPENDENT BUDGET,
July 27, 2010.

Hon. CHET EDWARDS,
Chairman, Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs, House Committee on Appropriations, The Capitol, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: On behalf of the co-authors of the Independent Budget, we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your unwavering support for our nation's sick and disabled veterans, as well as all of the men and women who have so honorably served this country. We appreciate your efforts as Chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans' Affairs to achieve an excellent funding level for the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) once again this year. Through your leadership, the VA will receive another significant funding increase for FY 2011.

More importantly, the Military Construction and Veterans Affairs appropriations bill also includes approximately $50.6 billion in advance appropriations for the VA medical care accounts—Medical Services, Medical Support and Compliance, and Medical Facilities—for FY 2012. By providing the VA with an advance appropriation for FY 2012, the VA will once again be able to better plan for hiring critical new staff and addressing demand on the health care system. The additional planning time will also allow the VA to better work with Congress to ensure that its true resource needs are met well in advance of the start of the fiscal year.

These actions reflect the priority that you and the House leadership have placed on needs of the men and women who have so honorably served this country. We offer our strong support for the FY 2011 Military Construction and Veterans' Affairs appropriations bill and we hope that the House will quickly pass this critical legislation. Final passage of sufficient funding for the VA will allow the VA to better address the needs of the men and women returning from Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom as well as all veterans who have served in the past.

Sincerely,

RAYMOND C. KELLEY,
National Legislative
Director, AMVETS.

CARL BLAKE,
National Legislative
Director, Paralyzed
Veterans of America.

JOSEPH A. VIOLANTE,
National Legislative
Director, Disabled
American Veterans.

ERIC A. HILLEMAN,
Director, National Legislative Service,

NGAUS HAILS HOUSE EFFORTS TO MODERNIZE NATIONAL GUARD FACILITIES

WASHINGTON.—The association that represents the leadership of nearly 465,000 National Guard men and women today applauded efforts in the U.S. House of Representatives to modernize Guard facilities across the country.

This morning, the House appropriations subcommittee on military construction and veterans' affairs (VA), led by chairman Chet Edwards, D-Texas, and ranking member Zach Wamp, R-Tenn., approved $200 million above the president's budget request for Guard and Reserve military construction.

The move came as the House appropriations committee marks up the fiscal 2011 military construction/VA budget.

"Today, chairman Edwards and ranking member Wamp continued to lead the congressional effort to modernize our aging National Guard facilities," said retired Maj. Gen. Gus L. Hargett Jr., NGAUS president. "We are grateful for their leadership, and the actions of the subcommittee speak volumes about their support of citizen-soldiers and airmen."

Last year, the House appropriations subcommittee on military construction and veterans affairs, took the unique step of adding to its bill a block of funding to address critical unfunded military construction requirements in the National Guard and Reserve.

The extra $30 million each for the Army and Air Guard funded an additional eight projects, which otherwise may have been lost for years or even permanently.

NGAUS has been at the forefront of the push for additional funds for military construction. Hargett sent a letter in early March to House and Senate authorizers and appropriators requesting additional funds for Guard facilities.

According to the House appropriations committee press release, the markup provides "$200 million to continue the subcommittee's Guard and Reserve initiative begun last year. This money will go to the highest unfunded military construction priorities of the commanders of the reserve components of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force."

The appropriations mark mirrors the House-passed version of the fiscal 2011 National Defense Authorization Act, which authorizes an additional discretionary $60 million for the Army National Guard and $50 million for the Air Guard for military construction. The president's budget request for Army Guard military construction for fiscal 2011 was $873.6 million; the Air Guard request was $177 million.

NGAUS believes the Army Guard needs $1.5 billion annually just to begin reducing a nationwide backlog of more than $13 billion in Army Guard military construction projects. The average armory is 43 years old. Many can no longer accommodate modern units and equipment.

The Air Guard requires $300 million a year.

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Chair, I rise in support of the Military Construction Appropriations Act of 2011.

This measure provides $141.1 billion for military construction of all kinds from military family housing, to construction of operational facilities in the U.S. and abroad. This funding will be used to construct schools, hospitals and other facilities for veteran's healthcare.

The Veterans Health Administration has estimated that it will treat over 6.1 million patients next year. This number includes more than 439,000 veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan. This measure provides $48.8 billion for health programs within the Veterans Health Administration. Additionally, the bill provides $53 billion for service-connected compensation, pensions and benefits for the estimated 4 million veterans and their families.

This measure provides $2.4 billion to further implement base closures and realignments outlined in the 2005 BRAC, including support for the re-stationing of troops and their families from overseas to the United States. The bill provides $1.3 billion to support our troops in Afghanistan and $259 million for U.S. construction funding obligations as part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Security Investment Program in that country.

For military families living on base, the measure appropriates $1.8 billion for housing as well as for operation and maintenance costs. These funds are used for everything from repairs, to furnishings, management, utilities, and even for mortgage insurance. To address the growing housing backlog for unmarried troops and trainees, the bill provides $190 million for Army trainee housing facilities.

And finally, to ensure accountability, the measure provides funding to the Defense Department inspector general to audit these and other military construction projects.

I encourage my colleagues to join me in support of this bill.

Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas. Madam Chair, I rise in strong support of the rule for H.R. 5822, the Military Construction and Veterans Affairs and Related Agencies Appropriations Act of 2011. I would like to thank my colleague, Mr. EDWARDS, for introducing this important bill honoring our continued commitment to support the brave men and women who have been willing to sacrifice their very lives in the service of our nation and the freedom we so cherish. Our armed forces and their family members are among the most valued members of our society, custodians of our freedom and protectors of our democracy. We must continually re-commit ourselves to serving them with the same honor, dignity and respect with which they serve their country.

This bill generously provides substantial funding, over 77 billion dollars, in the service of our men and women in uniform, veterans, and their families for fiscal year 2011. It is a continuation of three and a half years of hard work and tireless efforts on behalf of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies. This bill is a testament to their commitment to our soldiers, veterans and their loved ones. Moreover, the bill contains specific guidelines and provisions to ensure that all funds are spent responsibly, accountably and in a way that serves our troops and American taxpayers.

Of the 77 billion dollars, 18.7 billion are for Military Construction. The funds will provide adequate housing for our young military trainees bravely serving their country; it will fund environmental cleanup of closed or moved bases as we strategically re-align resources; it will provide for a National Guard and Reserve initiative for the men and women serving their nation at home; and it grants funding for critical construction for overseas contingencies operations in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The bill also dedicates over 56 billion dollars to Veterans Affairs honoring those who, after serving their country overseas, returned home to re-integrate into the society they fought valiantly to protect. The majority of the funding, over 37 billion, will go to providing much needed and well deserved medical services for all veterans, including mental health services and assistance to homeless veterans. The remaining funding will be used for major and minor construction projects, medical and prosthetic research, and medical facilities in the service of our honored veterans.

Finally, in Related Agencies, the bill is providing for a number of other critical needs, such as the National Cemetery, funding for an Armed Forces Retirement Home, and the Monuments Commission which manages and cares for the monuments and cemeteries around the world that honor the service of our armed forces.

Additionally, in respect for the fact that the American public has rightly demanded greater efficiency in government and efforts to reduce our deficit spending, there are a number of important provisions to ensure that all funds are spent in the most effective, efficient and expedient way possible. The provisions include several controls for Veterans Affairs spending and contract oversight, as well as oversight provisions for all construction projects in Iraq and Afghanistan, among others.

Although I am disappointed that my amendment, establishing portability between states for individualized education, disability and therapeutic benefits of a dependent of a member of the armed forces upon transfer of the member, was not included in the final version, I still gladly and proudly support this bill.

However, I would like to reiterate that an important part of anyone's quality of life is their family and dependents. One of the ways in which we can serve the members of the armed forces who sacrifice so much for our safety and our liberty is to ensure that their families are taken care of, and eliminate the bureaucratic red tape involved in moving from one place to another. Members of the armed forces often find themselves moving, and uprooting their families and their lives. Hopefully such a provision, aimed at facilitating that process by making the educational, disability and therapeutic benefits of a child or dependent of a member of the armed forces transferable from one state to another, will be included in future legislation.

In closing, I reiterate my strong support for this bill, and express my most sincere and heartfelt appreciation to everyone fighting to defend our country for their service and sacrifice for the good of the nation.

Mr. DINGELL. Madam Chair, I rise in support of H.R. 5822, the Military Construction and Veterans Affairs (Mil Con-VA) and Related Agencies Appropriations Act for fiscal year 2011.

I commend my friend and colleague, Chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs, Congressman CHET EDWARDS (D-TX) for writing a bill that provides tremendous support to our veterans and families. One of the greatest accomplishments since the Democrats regained control of Congress has been providing our veterans with a budget worthy of their service and sacrifice. The Mil Con-VA Appropriations Act for FY 2011 is no exception.

Since the Democrats took back Congress in 2007, we have provided a 70 percent increase in funding for veterans health care and benefits. Some of the highlights of this increase include the addition to the VA of more than 10,000 claims processors to reduce claims backlogs, 3,389 doctors and 14,316 nurses, 145 community-based outpatient clinics, 92 new vet centers, and more than 47,000 additional Veterans Health Administration employees.

In addition, the FY 2011 Mil Con-VA Appropriations Act also fulfills a top priority of national veterans service organizations by continuing to provide advance appropriations of the VA. This way, the VA will be better able to plan for its future needs.

Other important provisions in this legislation include $37.1 billion to improve access to medical services for all veterans; $5.2 billion for mental health services for our veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, and traumatic brain injury; and $4.2 billion to help our homeless veterans move from the streets to secure homes.

Madam Chair, as a veteran of World War II, I am proud to support this legislation which continues the Democratic Congress' strong commitment to our veterans and their families. I urge my colleagues to join me in voting for H.R. 5822.

Ms. BORDALLO. Madam Chair, I rise today to express my concern with the reduction in military construction funding to Guam for the realignment of U.S. Marines from Okinawa, Japan to Guam. I appreciate the Committee's recognition of the strategic importance of this realignment as well as their general support for these efforts. However, I remain concerned that these cuts send the wrong message at the wrong time. It is unfortunate that my counterparts in the Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs did not follow the funding levels for Guam military construction that were agreed to in H.R. 5136, the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2011. Given the recent reluctance by the Government of Japan to reaffirm the Guam International Agreement, I believe it is important to collectively move forward with a unified position.

However, these cuts do make one point clear to my constituents. Congress holds the power of the purse. There are concerns on Guam and with certain federal agencies that the pace of construction during the military build-up could place an undue burden on our civilian infrastructure. However, I have made it clear that if construction was outpacing the local community's ability to handle the additional people we could put our foot on the brakes. Given the concerns raised by our local government this reduction in funding highlights how Congress can ensure that we get this build-up done right.

Finally, I would like to rise in support of amendment #8 introduced by my colleague from Georgia, Congressman PHIL GINGREY. His amendment would restrict funds authorized by this bill to be used for the purposes of eminent domain without providing payment of just compensation. This amendment highlights our concern that eminent domain is not a preferred method through which the Federal Government should obtain private or other government lands. I support this amendment because there is concern that the Department of the Navy would use the powers of eminent domain to obtain private and Government of Guam land to build a new training range. This amendment would demonstrate that I am opposed to any such action on Guam in the future.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Madam Chair, I rise in support of H.R. 5822, the Fiscal Year 2011 Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act. It is with great pride that I serve on this subcommittee and I want to commend my colleague from Texas, Mr. EDWARDS, the Chairman of the Subcommittee, and our ranking member, my colleague from Tennessee, Mr. WAMP, for their work in putting together this legislation.

The men and women of our armed forces and our veterans deserve the very best support and care that we can offer them and this bill achieves that. This legislation fulfills our commitment to their future and to their well being.

We include in this appropriations bill $57.0 billion in funding for veterans programs, an increase of $3.9 billion over the level of funding we provided last year. These funds will address some of the major problems our Nation has in addressing the needs of our veterans, including those with mental illness, traumatic brain injuries, the homeless, and the disabled who are forced to wait countless months and even years to resolve their disability claims.

The largest portion of this funding, $48.8 billion, is for veterans medical care. It will enable the VA doctors and staff to treat an estimated 6.1 million patients, including thousands of Iraq and Afghanistan veterans. We also continue our emphasis on mental health and medical services for our returning heroes who are suffering from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Traumatic Brain Injuries.

We also increase by 20 percent to $4.2 billion our commitment to providing housing and medical services to our homeless veterans. We must do better in providing transitional housing and serves to these American heroes who now find themselves with nowhere to live and nowhere to work.

We also provide a 25 percent increase in funding, to $2.6 billion, to hire 4,000 additional claims processors to reduce the unacceptable backlog in claims for veterans benefits. With this increase in staffing levels, our Committee will have added more than 10,200 new claims processors over the past four years.

Our committee's support has also been vital to my efforts to continue to support the work of the medical professionals at the Bay Pines VA Healthcare System, which I have the privilege to represent.

We have opened at Bay Pines one of our Nation's most active VA Inspector General operations, to ferret out waste, fraud and abuse in veterans programs and to ensure that every dollar we appropriate to care for our veterans is spent as intended.

We have also been able to speed up work on the construction of a brand new facility to treat veterans with mental illness and Post Traumatic Syndrome Disorder. We also have broken ground this year on a new Ambulatory Surgery Center and Eye Treatment facility at Bay Pines, work is well underway on a new facility to provide radiation treatment for cancer patients, and we have opened two new VA medical clinics in northern and southern Pinellas County to better serve veterans and their medical needs closer to their homes.

Finally, Madam Chair, I want to thank the members of the subcommittee for accepting my amendment to this legislation to ensure that we fix the problems associated with the national embarrassment that we find at Arlington National Cemetery. The committee has included $150 million in the bill to address the many problems, those which we already know about and those which we have yet to find out about, at Arlington. My amendment would require that the Army develop a clear timetable and specify their plan to resolve all identified issues before they can spend these funds. We owe no less to our America's fallen heroes for whom Arlington is their final resting place and to their families who share our shock and outrage at the situation that we find at one of our Nation's most sacred places.

Madam Chair, this is a good bill, one that addresses the current and future needs of our Nation's veterans. It is also a bill that emphasizes what our committee and this House can do when we work together in a bipartisan way to solve our problems.

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Madam Chair, this bill contains many worthy items, including a substantial investment in our Veterans Affairs programs. A strong safety net for our veterans is more important than ever, particularly in Oregon, where returning Guard and Reserve members face high unemployment and a difficult transition back to civilian life.

I also want to highlight what my colleague Representative CHELLIE PINGREE of Maine stated earlier in this debate: the cleanup of closed military bases is critical to health and growth of our communities. Across America, these closed bases contain discarded munitions, toxins, and shell fragments leftover from years of military training. Funding the return of these properties to safe and productive use is vital. Funds go directly to the development of detection and removal technology, the creation of skilled technician jobs, and generate economic growth as cleaned lands become commercial, residential, or recreational spaces.

For the past decade I have worked with a bipartisan group of members to raise awareness of this issue. I am pleased that with the leadership of my friend Representative SAM FARR, the House has designated $100 million over the President's budget request for the legacy BRAC account. This $460 million is critically needed to address the large backlog of environmental hazards still present at bases closed during the earliest Base Realignment and Closure rounds. I hope in future years we can build on this commitment to our nation's safety and prosperity.

MR. EDWARDS of Texas. I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. All time for general debate has expired.

Pursuant to the rule, the bill shall be considered read for amendment under the 5-minute rule, and the bill shall be considered read through page 63, line 4.

The text of that portion of the bill is as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1 OFFERED BY MR. HOLT

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 1 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. HOLT. Madam Chair, I have amendment No. 1 at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 33, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $20,000,000) (increased by $20,000,000)".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. HOLT) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey.

Mr. HOLT. Madam Chair, I want to thank the Rules Committee for making this amendment in order and for the strong support and encouragement I have received in this effort from the chairman of the Military Construction and Veterans Affairs subcommittee. The gentleman from Texas' leadership of the subcommittee and his concern and compassion and advocacy for the needs of veterans is truly an inspiration.

Madam Chair, we have few responsibilities as solemn and as important as ensuring that our veterans receive the care that we have promised them as a Nation. To that end, my amendment directs the Department of Veterans Affairs to allocate $20 million for direct advertising, the use of online social media and other media for suicide prevention outreach. Let me take a moment to tell you why this issue means so much to me, and I would like to tell you about one very remarkable family from my central New Jersey congressional district.

A little over a week ago, on July 14, I had the privilege of introducing Mrs. Linda Bean of East Brunswick, New Jersey, to the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs. Linda was appearing before the Oversight and Investigations subcommittee to tell the story of how her son, Coleman, came to take his own life in September 2008. Linda made it clear why she had traveled to Washington to, I would say, courageously share her family's painful story: "I owe a duty to my son and our debt to the men with whom Coleman served."

You see, Coleman was a two-tour veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Like so many of our troops who have served in Iraq and Afghanistan, Coleman developed post-traumatic stress disorder. In between and after those tours, he sought treatment for his PTSD. Because Sergeant Bean was a member of the Individual Ready Reserve, the so-called IRR—a pool of reserve soldiers not assigned to any unit but available for mobilization if needed—he could not get treatment for his condition because the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs refused to take ownership of Sergeant Bean and the thousands like him. A few weeks after Coleman took his life, the VA called to confirm his next appointment.

As Linda closed her testimony before the House Veterans' Affairs Committee, she relayed how one VA official had told her, "If they won't walk through the door, we can't help them." Linda's response must be our response: "Of course we can help them. It is our duty to figure out how, not theirs."

Earlier this year, I secured the inclusion of a suicide prevention provision in the annual defense authorization bill that would require the Secretary of Defense to conduct periodic telephone or in-person outreach and counseling calls to reservists like Coleman. The idea is to check on the IRR member's mental, emotional and professional well-being and to identify and treat any IRR members who are deemed to be at risk of harming themselves.

Because the other body has thus far failed to act on the fiscal year 2011 authorization, I have sent a letter to Secretaries Gates and Shinseki asking that they take whatever administrative action is necessary to reach out and monitor this very large pool of at-risk reservists. I have also asked that they meet with Greg and Linda Bean and explain in detail what those departments intend to do to prevent other Iraq and Afghanistan war veterans from suffering Coleman's fate.

Our commitment to reducing suicides among our veterans must be comprehensive and unwavering. This amendment today is designed to give the VA the resources and the direction to get appropriate and broad-based outreach under way as soon as President Obama signs this bill. I hope this amendment will be supported on a bipartisan basis, because, as Linda Bean says, "It's not their job to figure out how, it's ours."

I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I just want to commend the gentleman for his leadership on this effort. It is a heart-breaking tragedy every time a veteran takes his or her life as a result of their service to our country. I look forward to working with the gentleman and with the gentleman from Florida (Mr. CRENSHAW) and the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. WAMP) as we go to conference committee to see that we do more than everything that is already being done to see that we prevent suicides from occurring.

If we save one life, then the gentleman's and our service here in Congress will have been time well served.

Mr. HOLT. I thank the gentleman.

In closing, I would say there are tens of thousands of people who will be helped.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I would like to claim the time in opposition, although I'm not necessarily opposed to the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the gentleman from Florida is recognized for 5 minutes.

There was no objection.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I just want to also commend the gentleman for offering this amendment. I think so often we have resources that are available like this that sometimes our veterans are not aware of. I think we've made great strides in dealing with this. We have a suicide prevention hotline we're working every day, but I think he makes an excellent point that so often people are not aware of the services they might avail themselves of.

I commend him for this. I would certainly favor this amendment so that we can get the word out to know that we're trying to help folks.

Mr. KENNEDY. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield to the gentleman from Rhode Island.

Mr. KENNEDY. I appreciate the gentleman's yielding.

I too want to join in paying tribute to the gentleman from New Jersey for this amendment and also to the chairman, Chairman EDWARDS, for his diligence to this mental health issue in the bill.

As I said earlier, these wounds may be invisible but they're not invisible to the members of our uniform who are suffering from them. I think it may not come as a surprise to most people that those servicemembers dying of suicide outnumber those who are killed in action. And that does not include our veterans. It wasn't until this defense bill that we just passed that we included a provision that the President of the United States would actually send a letter of condolence to the family of those who had taken their life in the field, and we all know what the pressures are on those individuals: more tours of duty, longer times away from their families, and more stress.

The fact of the matter is I think that this work that you're doing, RUSH, is to be commended. I think it is also important for everyone to note that this historic health bill that we just passed will encompass 72 percent of all veterans who will get their care thanks to this Congress' work to include mental health parity in the health care reform bill that was just passed. Seventy-two percent of all vets will never see the VA for their health care but, rather, through private health insurance. And this Congress passed legislation making it illegal for them to be discriminated against based upon health status, whether it be mental, physical, and we all know that mental now is a neurological disorder.

Thanks again for your good work. Again thank you to the chairman and ranking member for their good work on this.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. HOLT).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 OFFERED BY MR. BUYER

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 2 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. BUYER. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 34, line 7, before the period at the end insert the following: "Provided further, That of the funds made available under this heading, $10,000,000 shall be available to increase the number of Department of Veterans Affairs employees who administer benefits under chapter 31 of title 38, United States Code".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. BUYER. Madam Chair, I rise today in support of my amendment to H.R. 5822. This amendment would fence off $10 million in the VA's general operating expenses account.

The goal of the VA's vocational rehabilitation and employment program is to put disabled veterans back to work or, for the most severely disabled, to live as independently as possible.

VA's counselors currently have an average caseload of over 130 disabled veterans. Because of the heavy workload which includes a significant amount of case management and regular interaction with their clients, the time to actually enter vocational training is nearly six months. That is on top of the average of the 6 months it takes to receive a disability rating needed to even become eligible for this benefit.

The $10 million included in this amendment would fund one hundred additional professional level staff and will be a small step towards reducing the caseload to a more manageable average of 100 per counselor thereby shortening the time it takes to begin training. For many veterans and servicemembers VR&E training is the bridge to meaningful and productive employment.

I urge all members to vote in favor of my amendment to H.R. 5822.

□ 1720

I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I want to commend Mr. BUYER for offering this amendment.

Without this amendment, the VA would actually be reducing at the very worst time the number of vocational rehab employees. We ought to be increasing those numbers, and that's what we will be doing with this, particularly given a lot of our troops coming back from Iraq and Afghanistan are having difficult times finding jobs. They need this support.

The VA gets a lot of things right, but I don't think they got this part of their budget right. And I thank the gentleman for correcting it, and it's a privilege to support his amendment.

Mr. BUYER. I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 OFFERED BY MR. BUYER

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 3 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. BUYER. I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 38, line 18, before the period insert the following: "Provided further, That of the funds made available under this heading, $162,734,000 shall be for renewable energy projects at Department of Veterans Affairs medical facility campuses pursuant to section 8103 of title 38, United States Code".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. BUYER. I ask unanimous consent to modify my amendment.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will report the modification.

The Clerk read as follows:

Modification to Amendment No. 3 offered by Mr. BUYER:

The amendment as modified is as follows:

Page 54, after line 2, insert the following:

SEC. _____. Of the amounts made available for fiscal year 2011 for "Medical Facilities" in Public Law 111-117, $162,734,000 shall be available for renewable energy projects at the Department of Veterans Affairs medical facility campuses subject to section 8103 of title 38, United States Code.

The CHAIR. Is there objection to the modification?

Without objection, the amendment is modified.

There was no objection.

The CHAIR. The gentleman from Indiana is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BUYER. I will proceed on the modified amendment.

After discussion with Chairman EDWARDS and with the ranking member, Mr. CRENSHAW, we've all agreed to a better way forward on the amendment. So I appreciate your efforts on the modification.

Accordingly, what we're seeking to do here is overcome some challenges that we have with regard to the advance appropriation and how dollars can be dedicated to particular uses. So the Appropriations Committee has worked with me, and for that I am deeply appreciative.

I want to express my thanks to Chairman EDWARDS and to Mr. CRENSHAW. Both of you have been very good friends. I respect your leadership, and I appreciate your good faith in working with myself and my staff.

Over the years, the 18 years I've been here, the years I've been privileged to work in leadership as chairman and as ranking member, I have respected the interoperability and cooperation between the Appropriations staff and the authorizers. It has worked really, really well. At times they can disagree, but they can professionally work it out. I've been impressed by that, and it has continued.

So I want to thank you for that. And this is a prime example. This is one of them whereby I look back to 2008 when we wanted to do these renewable energy projects, and you were challenged at the time because the Speaker didn't want renewable projects in the bill, but you agreed that this was something that we needed to do and tried to figure out how we're going to do it.

So I recognize it couldn't be done at the time, but it was something that you also embraced and supported. And I went on down the street like I said I was going to do, and we did 16 of these renewable energy projects. Then we come back in 2009, you and I do a colloquy, and we're $147 million already down the road. That's how far we're into this now, Chairman EDWARDS and Mr. CRENSHAW, and this is a good thing.

The VA, such a very large enterprise, large consumer of energy and being the second largest department here of government, what you're doing here in this green management and renewable energy, geothermal, wind, solar, this is smart. It really is. It's smart what you're doing. So I really want to thank you for doing this.

We've got more projects identified. They're around 60. These moneys will allow the VA to stay on track on their timelines, and I really appreciate your working with me to do this.

I yield to the gentleman from Texas. Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I just want to commend Mr. BUYER for his leadership. This is not the first time he has come to the floor fighting for renewable energy projects and conservation projects for the VA. And as he leaves Congress at the end of this Congress, I want to thank him for this effort. Every dollar we save by conservation investments and renewable energy investments is a dollar that's either back into the taxpayers' pocket or a dollar that goes to actually provide better health care for America's veterans. So that's why I'm enthusiastic in my support of this amendment, and I commend the gentleman for his authorship of it.

Mr. BUYER. Reclaiming my time, I also want to extend my appreciation to Secretary Shinseki for his work and the previous Secretary.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment, as modified, offered by the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER).

The amendment, as modified, was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 OFFERED BY MR. BUYER

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 4 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. BUYER. I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 34, line 7, before the period at the end insert the following: "Provided further, That of the funds made available under this heading, $8,000,000 shall be available to fund the adaptive sports grant program under section 521A of title 38, United States Code, and $2,000,000 shall be available to carry out section 322 of title 38, United States Code".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. BUYER. Madam Chair, I rise today in support of my amendment to H.R. 5822, as reported.

This amendment would provide $10 million in VA general operating expense funding for the VA-US Paralympic Adaptive Sports Grant Program.

Madam Chairwoman, several years ago I had the opportunity to visit the U.S. Olympic Training Center in San Diego. From that moment we then set the course to restructure the United States Olympic Committee. Once we did that, by the relationships that developed, by the reorganization of the Olympic Committee, we then became a Nation at war. I then sought to leverage these relationships with the VA and their sports programs.

I looked at this and how we can use sports as a platform for healing, and you know, when I looked back on this, yes, you know, we moved out and we embraced it. I started at the top and probably should have started at the bottom. I started where I started and it was with the Olympics, the Olympic Committee. Not everyone is an Olympian. That's the reality of this. Not everyone was blessed with an Olympic body or the mind or the will. But it's how do we, as a Nation, use sports as a platform for healing? And most of our warriors are athletes. And so when they get injured, how do we inspire them?

Now, when we brought the Olympic Committee and the sports programs from the VA together, we were able to leverage that whereby our military athletes then could actually have an avenue to be part of the Olympic team. And that has, in fact, happened and has been done.

Last year—and I want to thank Chairman EDWARDS—he supported the $10 million that went into this adaptive sports program.

□ 1730

The Olympic committee helps with this grant program now to take the same ideal, the Olympic ideal, and move it out to all the communities across the country. And so an individual who may not be an Olympian can be an Olympian of their own community, can actually compete. It is that competition—it's not the winning. It's have you improved yourself, have you bettered your time, and making someone feel good about that, this Adaptive Sports program, whereby it's done at the local level and then builds up is really good, and this is a very good program. We're in our infancy, and I want to thank the chairman and for supporting this last time.

So the concept I think is pretty simple. I do have some pictures here I'd like to share with everyone. This is a picture of disabled veterans and servicemembers running the 100 meter dash at the Warrior Games in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and this was in May of this year. And when you see this running the 100 meter dash, you know we've got a mixture here. This gentleman lost—this is a below the ankle, here is a below the knee amputation, and this is a double amputation, and they're sprinting the 100 meter dash. Think about the inspiration that they have. I mean, these warrior athletes are truly remarkable.

I want to show you another photo of a double amputee. This Olympian right here during the winter games, this is Heath Calhoun, a Paralympian, and this was in Vancouver in March of this year. Mr. Calhoun is an Army Ranger. He was wounded when a rocket-propelled grenade hit his Humvee while he was serving in Iraq. He lost both legs as a result of that attack. His grandfather served in World War II, his father served in Vietnam, and he then sought to serve his country and lost both legs. He dedicated himself then to overcome this challenge and made the United States Olympic team and competed in Vancouver.

So these Olympians also then mentor and aspire others into the Adaptive Sports Grant Program. So this is remarkable. This is building off the Olympic ideal to really help our warriors, and we're achieving the goal, and that is to use sports as a platform for healing.

So $10 million can be a lot of money, but talking about what we get out of this, the intangibles that we can get out of this, when these men and women that go through this feel so good about themselves and take their bodies to new levels, guess what? They feel good about their families, they feel good about their jobs, and our goal here is to make sure that they can live as full a life as they possibly can.

That's what we want to do.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I claim the time in opposition, although I'm not necessarily opposing this amendment.

The CHAIR. Without objection, the gentleman from Florida is recognized for 5 minutes.

There was no objection.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I just wanted to say that I think this is a wonderful program. I'm a little bit aware of that because in my home district in Jacksonville, Florida, there's an organization called the Wounded Warriors, and they work in conjunction with this program, and I've had the chance to visit that program to see and meet some of these Wounded Warriors.

The thing that I hear over and over again is they say this is something that gives us our spirit back. We can compete. We can enjoy life. We can be with our families, and I think it is something that is very, very worthwhile and commend the gentleman for bringing it up.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I just want to commend him and commend Mr. BUYER for this effort. These photographs are an inspiration to all of us, to our veterans, to our Wounded Warriors, but to every American. This program is an inspiration to our Wounded Warriors, our veterans, and all Americans who hear about it. I am in full support of this amendment. I also want to thank again Mr. BUYER, along with Mr. PERLMUTTER and Mr. LANGEVIN, who over the last several years have been real champions, along with Mr. BUYER, of this program, and again, I'm honored to support the amendment.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BUYER).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 5 OFFERED BY MR. CUELLAR

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 5 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. CUELLAR. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

At the end of the bill (before the short title), add the following new section:

SEC. 5. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act may be used by an agency of the executive branch to pay for first-class travel by an employee of the agency in contravention of sections 301-10.122 through 301-10.124 of title 41, Code of Federal Regulations.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. CUELLAR) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. CUELLAR. Madam Chair, my amendment is a commonsense amendment that ensures no taxpayers dollars will be used to purchase first-class tickets for employees of agencies funded by this bill except in special circumstances as allowed under law.

This is, again, important because it does prohibit unapproved first-class travel and offers a direct method of guidance by referencing the Code of Federal Regulations to prohibit this type of premium travel for Federal employees.

I think the chairman is in agreement with me that this is a way to save taxpayer dollars, and he's in agreement with this amendment.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CUELLAR. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I am glad to support this amendment.

Mr. CUELLAR. I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. CUELLAR).

The amendment was agreed to.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. FLAKE) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Arizona.

Mr. FLAKE. Madam Chair, this amendment is straightforward.

It would simply prevent the funding of all Member-requested earmarks in the bill. It would return the funds to the original accounts. I'm not here to dispute the merits of these projects. I have no doubt that some of those projects are worthwhile and would improve the quality of life for our military servicemembers and their families, but that's not what is at issue here.

At issue, again, as I pointed out before, is the spoils system that this process of earmarking represents. This year's Military Construction-VA appropriations bill shows that the spoils system is alive and well. It's happened in previous years, and it's no different this year. The only difference here is we have basically just one party engaging in it, and so the spoils are even more concentrated in fewer Members.

Let me just put this chart up here. These are the FY 2011 earmark dollars associated with powerful Members of Congress. By powerful Members I mean those who are on the Appropriations Committee, those who are in leadership, or those who are chairmen of committees. And if you look at the appropriations bills that have gone through either the subcommittee or full committee on appropriations, you see this appropriations spoils system in action here.

This looks like a Pacman chart here with a hungry Pacman here. The red represents the percentage taken by powerful members. In the Homeland Security bill, 52 percent of the earmark dollars go to powerful Members. Fifty-two percent go to just 13 percent of this body; CJS bill, 57 percent; Agriculture, 76 percent; THUD, 42 percent; and MILCON VA, what we're doing now, 51 percent.

More than half of the earmark dollars in this legislation are going to just 13 percent of the Members in this body. Madam Chair, that is simply not right. We shouldn't be doing this. Yet year after year we do it. No matter what kind of reforms we enact, we still have the spoils system alive and well.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I claim time in opposition.

The CHAIR. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

□ 1740

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I respect the gentleman. He takes a principled position on congressionally sponsored projects, but I strongly oppose this amendment.

The Flake amendment, regardless of its intentions, would cut $163 million out of important military construction projects for the National Guard and Reserves, which are playing a key role in our war in Iraq and Afghanistan.

This amendment would cut $57 million out of force protection, safety and security forces facilities, including more secure entrance gates at our military installations, fire stations to protect our troops and their families on posts.

The Flake amendment would cut $30 million from quality of life facilities—much needed by our troops and earned by our troops, deserved by our troops—barracks, youth and community centers, roads. It cuts 44 projects that are in the Department of Defense's Future Years Defense Program.

One of the programs this would cut is $1 million I put in this bill as an earmark to provide for a new Soldier Readiness Processing Center at Fort Hood so those soldiers, over 40,000 serving there, will not have to go through a processing center which was the site of the murder of 12 of their Army comrades and one civilian just months ago.

A "yes" vote on this amendment will cut these kinds of worthy projects.

Now, Mr. FLAKE will claim and has claimed that DOD will still have the money to spend, but that's not correct because this amendment is flawed in the way it's drafted because—well, first of all, let me say that let's at least get rid of the pretence that cutting earmarks would save taxpayer dollars if he says, well, this money could still be spent by DOD.

But the reality is, because of the flawed nature of the way this amendment was put together, it would be the best—the worst, actually, of both worlds. One, it wouldn't save taxpayers' dollars because the appropriations would go to the Department of Defense; but because it would be in an account for programs not authorized, that money could not be spent for all of the worthwhile kinds of projects that I have just mentioned.

Let me put in perspective what we are talking about here. This is a $140 billion bill. Less than three-tenths of 1 percent of this bill was designated by Members of Congress working with community leaders, military leaders, military base leaders.

If I can ask my staff for a chart, I would just like to show, in perspective, what a small part of this total bill actually goes to congressionally sponsored projects.

Now, Mr. FLAKE apparently has more trust in the Obama administration than I did. I don't think bureaucrats in Washington are right 100 percent of the time, and it's not wrong—in fact, it's right—to say that Members of Congress, working with military leaders and community leaders, ought to have some voice in where their taxpayers' dollars go.

Madam Chair, I want to point out this is a chart. This graph shows how much is spent in this bill. The part of the bill that Mr. FLAKE is objecting to is this red part right here. Probably from that side of the aisle it would be very, very hard to see it.

But I just want people to understand that the administration gets a voice on this amount of money in the bill. Members of Congress working with military leaders get a voice on this amount. This is what we are talking about.

But I want to talk and say this amount is significant because, if this amendment were to pass, and I hope it will not and I do not believe it will, it would harm important quality of life and protection projects for our service men and women. It would kill a major initiative in this bill to increase funding for the National Guard and Reserves who are playing a vitally important role in Iraq and Afghanistan.

May I inquire how much time I have remaining?

The CHAIR. The gentleman has 1 minute remaining.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I would yield that time to my colleague Mr. ORTIZ.

Mr. ORTIZ. I rise in opposition to the Flake amendment. This amendment would seek to strike certain modifications to the Military Construction appropriations bill.

I believe that it is essential that this body work with the administration and determine a budget that is best for the Nation. I believe that the process that my subcommittee and Chairman EDWARDS' subcommittee has put in place accomplishes this goal.

For example, the projects that this amendment would seek to strike have been individually reviewed by the administration for cost and the way it's going to be executed. The projects are carefully compared against a very long list of requirements that the Department of Defense has generated. These projects have been included in the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2011 that this body has recently passed.

Finally, all of these military construction projects that are included at the end of this process, including all of the projects that this amendment seeks to strike, will be competitively awarded.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

The gentleman from Arizona has 3 minutes remaining.

Mr. FLAKE. Madam Chair, I yield the gentleman another 30 seconds if he wants to finish.

Mr. ORTIZ. We cannot forget the fact that we are involved in two wars. We have soldiers stationed in 120 countries. Whatever we do today, let's do it for our servicepeople. They are my sons and your daughters and family here who are serving our country.

Mr. FLAKE. Madam Chair, I plan to withdraw this amendment. I had planned to from the beginning. What I wanted to do was come down here and explain the spoils system that this kind of earmarking represents.

The problem, the gentleman mentioned that this amendment is crafted in a way that it would prohibit the spending of money on these projects. It would. The problem is there is no way to craft an amendment that wouldn't do that.

What we have here is a situation where we simply can't go in and say this is a good earmark and this is not, not through this process. That's part of the whole flawed aspect of what we are doing here and why we need to change this.

But the gentleman is correct, we shouldn't give the administration a free ride to say this is where things ought to be spent. We have the power of the purse. This is article I stuff, and we ought to exercise it.

The problem I have is we basically exercise authority over that much of it and leave the administration with this, instead of saying, through the process of authorization, appropriation, and oversight, we have more control of what the administration is doing.

Instead, we say we don't like the way you are spending this money—we say that to the executive branch—so we are going to run a little parallel track in the Congress where we determine where this much goes. Then when we determine where this much goes, 51 percent of it goes to just 13 percent of this body.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FLAKE. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I appreciate that, and I do respect his principled position on this, not with just this bill but with other bills.

I just want to point out the reason we don't spread out earmarks evenly among 435 Members is military bases in the United States are not spread out evenly among 435 congressional districts. So it is logical and it makes sense and it's good policy that Members that represent military bases get more earmarks than Members that don't represent military bases.

Mr. FLAKE. I think that is a valid point; although, I would argue that Members with military bases don't necessarily align with the 13 percent represented in this chart.

But I would again, before asking unanimous consent to withdraw this amendment, make the case, we will be dealing with another appropriation bill tomorrow that is cleaner than this one in terms of being able to target earmarks and prohibit funding for them and actually save money. The way this bill is structured makes it difficult to do that, but I recognize it.

I just wanted to make the point and to drive it home again, through the process of authorization, appropriation, and oversight, we can do a far better job.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. FLAKE. Madam Chair, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the amendment.

The CHAIR. Without objection, the amendment is withdrawn.

There was no objection.

AMENDMENT NO. 7 OFFERED BY MR. HILL

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 7 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. HILL. I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 33, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $100,000) (increased by $100,000)".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. HILL) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. HILL. I want to thank Chairman EDWARDS for crafting this critically important bill for our Nation's veterans.

My amendment simply removes funding from the VA General Operating Expense Account and replaces it back in the very same account. My intent in doing this is to highlight an issue for my colleagues and for the VA.

I believe that the VA needs to examine its practice in how it accounts for returned post-9/11 GI benefit payments and that the VA should submit a report to Congress no later than January 1 of 2011 on changes they intend to make to ensure accurate, timely, and efficient accounting of any returned post-9/11 GI benefit payments.

□ 1750

I, along with many of my colleagues, enthusiastically supported the Post-9/11 Veterans Education Assistance Act of 2008. This law provides qualified veterans with a full 4-year college scholarship, restoring a commitment our country made to our World War II-era veterans.

I believe that the Post-9/11 GI bill can spark another period of economic growth and prosperity for the current generation of veterans, much like the Montgomery GI bill did for the previous generation of veterans. That is why I believe it is so critical that this bill be implemented accurately.

I understand that the VA legitimately requires some payments to veterans and universities to be returned. There can be instances of a student taking fewer classes than what was originally thought, accidentally duplicating payments. This is reasonable to an extent. I believe that these funds need to be accounted for accurately; however, this is a two-way street. It has come to my attention that there has been some difficulty with the VA to properly and accurately account for returned payments from universities and veterans alike. In some instances, this has resulted in the VA withholding further Post-9/11 educational benefit payments to the student in question as they are credited with an outstanding debt despite having already paid back the necessary accounts. This is even after the returned checks have been cashed by the VA. This issue needs to be addressed in a timely manner.

I do not believe that the VA is acting with any malice in this measure, far from it. I applaud the work that the VA is doing to improve the lives of veterans. They deserve this benefit, but they deserve for it to work for them.

Madam Chair, I yield to the chairman, Mr. EDWARDS, for the purpose of a colloquy.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I thank the gentleman. I support this amendment.

Through no one's malicious intentions, students—our veteran servicemen and -women or their children using the new 21st Century GI Bill—are being punished for mistakes that they did not make, perhaps paperwork mistakes by a school administration or by the VA. The result can be that sometimes students can have halted their additional GI benefits in order to continue college. So this is really an important issue. I salute the gentleman. We are going to see that this issue is solved with his leadership, and I look forward to working with him.

Mr. HILL. I thank the chairman for his support.

This issue was brought to my attention by Indiana University, which is a university that I represent back home in Indiana. I have also been working with a community college, Ivy Tech in Indiana, with the same problem.

I thank the chairman for his support for this amendment, and I encourage my colleagues to support it as well.

Madam Chair, I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. HILL).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 8 OFFERED BY MR. GINGREY OF GEORGIA

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 8 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chairman, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

At the end of the bill (before the short title), add the following new section:

SEC. 5 _____. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act may be used by an agency of the executive branch to exercise the power of eminent domain (to take private property for public use) without the payment of just compensation.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GINGREY) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chairman, my amendment would prohibit funds in the bill from being used to exercise eminent domain without just compensation to the individuals involved. This is necessary because the Kelo v. City of New London Supreme Court decision expanded the so-called "public use" provision of the takings clause of the Fifth Amendment. This decision allows State and local governments to practice eminent domain for the benefit of one private party over another.

In this specific case, Madam Chairman, the City of New London, Connecticut, used its eminent domain authority to actually seize private property to sell to private developers in order to aid a struggling economy in the name of economic development, but not specifically in the traditional interpretation of "public use."

Justice John Paul Stevens' majority opinion states that the Fifth Amendment does not require a literal "public use." However, the Fifth Amendment of the document this Nation holds sacred—and I have it right here with me all the time, Madam Chairman—the Fifth Amendment of this document clearly reads: "Nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation."

This decision represents the disparity between constitutional interpretation and, yes, judicial activism. Governments should solely be allowed to compel an individual to forfeit their property for the public's use, but not for the benefit of another private person.

I agree with the dissenting views in the case which point out that the decision is an intrusion into private citizens' lives, and it picks winners and losers in the private market at the cost of an individual losing their personal property.

Madam Chairman, according to the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution, all levels of government have a responsibility and a moral obligation to defend the property rights of individuals and only exercise eminent domain when it's necessary for public use—the literal interpretation of public use—and then just compensation is paid to those affected individuals. Any execution of eminent domain by State and local governments that does not specifically adhere to these requirements constitutes an abuse of government power and a usurpation of the individual property rights as indeed defined in the Fifth Amendment.

My amendment would take one step toward ensuring that property rights of citizens are protected and they are justly compensated when they are taken for public use.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I want to thank the gentleman. I will support his amendment.

I want to make it clear there is nothing, to my knowledge, in this bill intended to allow the exercise of eminent domain without payment of just compensation, but I believe in the principle of just compensation, and I would be glad to support the gentleman's amendment.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chairman, reclaiming my time, I thank Mr. EDWARDS for that commitment. I certainly appreciate his comments.

Again, I would urge all of my colleagues to support the amendment. Let's end this abuse of eminent domain. Eminent domain is necessary, but it is being abused; this definition of which, with the help of very liberal interpretations by the Supreme Court in some cases, has been blurred to seemingly allow one private entity to benefit over another. That, as the gentleman from Texas indicated, is the intent of the amendment, and I am very grateful for his support.

Madam Chair, I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GINGREY).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 9 OFFERED BY MR. GINGREY OF GEORGIA

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 9 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chairman, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

At the end of the bill (before the short title) insert the following:

SEC. _____. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the Department of Defense in this Act may be used to renovate or construct any facility in the continental United States for the purpose of housing any individual who has been detained, at any time after September 11, 2001, at United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GINGREY) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chairman, I rise today to offer an amendment to ensure that no funds in this bill are used to construct or to renovate any facility in the United States to house Gitmo detainees.

Now, I realize that the majority will likely support my amendment given that the bill contains no funds for this purpose; but today, Madam Chairman, I want to challenge the Democratic majority to commit to adhering to an underlying principle, that being that it is wholly unnecessary to transfer the detainees and to close Guantanamo Bay, or Gitmo. No matter what appropriations bills we are considering—today, MILCON/VA, when we come back, DOD, Homeland Security, CJS—this fact still holds true.

□ 1800

We have spent hundreds of millions of dollars on the facilities at Gitmo, and the only reason we continue to debate its status is, quite honestly, Madam Chair, for public relations reasons.

As I witnessed most recently in April during my third site visit, the Gitmo detainees are treated with dignity and with respect. They are allowed access to their attorneys. They are allowed access to the International Committee of the Red Cross. They are provided with excellent medical care. As I am a physician Member, I know of what I speak. They are even allowed to live in a communal setting. If they were to consume everything provided to them on a daily basis, they would take in 5,500 calories per day. Indeed, most of them have gained anywhere from 15 to 25 pounds since they were originally detained. Their religious customs in all areas of their lives are respected, and they are provided with everything necessary to observe those customs.

If the world knew how we were actually treating these detainees, we would not be facing the prospect of spending hundreds of millions of dollars more—money that we don't have unless China will continue to lend it to us—to duplicate what we are already doing at Guantanamo Bay.

Madam Chair, transferring the detainees to the United States could eventually lead to their release on American soil, which would put our own citizens at risk. It could create significant immigration issues as aliens could become eligible for asylum or other forms of immigration-related relief from removal. It most certainly would make any facility where they are held a terrorist target.

Not surprisingly, Madam Chair, the American people are overwhelmingly opposed to closing Gitmo. In a March 2010 CNN/Opinion Research Corporation poll, 60 percent of Americans expressed that the United States should continue to operate the detention center at Guantanamo Bay. They understand that the battlefield is not limited to our military operations in Afghanistan and Iraq. They have recently witnessed two attempted attacks on our homeland in the skies over Detroit and, indeed, on the streets of New York City.

The American people know that the detainees located at Gitmo are not minor offenders by any means. These detainees include terrorist trainers, terrorist financiers, bomb makers, Osama bin Laden's bodyguards, terrorist recruiters, and would-be suicide bombers. Indeed, one of three adolescents originally detained is currently being tried by a military tribunal. Another, who was released after extensive efforts at rehabilitation, was subsequently killed on the battlefield after returning to the fight in Afghanistan.

Madam Chair, simply put, the American people believe that bringing Guantanamo Bay detainees to American soil for any purpose puts Americans at risk and is a national security threat. It is time this Congress listens to the collective voice of the American people and stops perpetrating the "Washington knows best" mindset.

I urge my colleagues to support my amendment on this bill—and on all other appropriations bills—to prevent the wholly unnecessary transfer of Gitmo detainees to American soil.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I claim time in opposition to the amendment, though I am not opposed to the amendment.

The CHAIR. Without objection, the gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

There was no objection.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I will support this amendment, Madam Chair.

I do want to clarify that there is no funding in this bill of any type to fund any kind of facility to house detainees from Guantanamo. Having said that, I would be glad to support the gentleman's amendment.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. I want to thank my friend from Texas. In knowing him and his heart, I am not surprised that he would support this amendment, but I want to ask the gentleman a question.

Mr. EDWARDS, can I count on you to commit to supporting this amendment in future appropriations bills so that we can end the debate as to whether Guantanamo Bay should be closed once and for all?

I hope the gentleman will answer the question.

The CHAIR. The time of the gentleman has expired.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GINGREY).

The question was taken; and the Chair announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Chair, I demand a recorded vote.

The CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Georgia will be postponed.

AMENDMENT NO. 10 OFFERED BY MRS. HALVORSON

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 10 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mrs. HALVORSON. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 33, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $10,000,000)".

Page 36, line 11, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $10,000,000)".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentlewoman from Illinois (Mrs. HALVORSON) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Illinois.

Mrs. HALVORSON. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Chair, I would first like to take a moment and praise Chairman OBEY and Chairman EDWARDS for their continued commitment to caring for American veterans. Three-and-a-half years ago, their committee made a commitment and renewed the promise to care for those who have served in our armed services. They have kept that promise and have dramatically increased funding for our veterans by 70 percent since 2007.

As the only Member of Congress from Illinois who sits on the Veterans' Affairs Committee, I really can speak to the critical need that these funds have addressed for Illinois veterans.

Madam Chair, my amendment is simple. It adds $10 million to the VA Major Construction Project and subtracts $10 million from the general operating expenses. Much of the VA medical infrastructure is aging, outdated and, in many cases, obsolete.

According to the 2011 Independent Budget, which is written by some of the largest Veteran Service Organizations, a great number of current medical facilities were built after World War II and were constructed with structurally obsolete designs which "typically do not meet the needs of modern health care delivery." The result of these outdated buildings has left the VA with a long list of major construction projects, which are just sitting there, waiting for congressional funding.

Right now, there are over 60 medical construction projects in the backlog. That means that there are over 60 locations that are in need of major construction, renovation, or modification. It means that there are 60 locations where our veterans are not receiving optimal care in modern facilities. Unfortunately, this bill was only able to address a total of five of these projects, and only two of them are new medical facilities.

With more women and men service-members transitioning from active duty to VA care and with multiple illnesses, such as PTSD and TBI, we will require even more new and modified medical facilities. Though $10 million is far less than what is needed to address these aging medical facilities' infrastructures and construction needs, the amendment will still play a role in ensuring that more veterans are receiving the care they deserve in a modern and quality health care facility. This amendment is also supported by the American Legion.

I urge my colleagues to stand up and to support modern medical facilities for our veterans and to vote "yes" on this amendment.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Chair, I claim time in opposition, though I am not opposed to the gentlewoman's amendment.

The CHAIR. Without objection, the gentleman from Florida is recognized for 5 minutes.

There was no objection.

Mr. CRENSHAW. I have a couple of questions.

We have a process for building outpatient clinics. I just wondered: Does this amendment, in any way, try to circumvent the process? Does it direct where the money would be spent in any way?

I yield to the gentlewoman.

Mrs. HALVORSON. Absolutely not.

You have the amendment, as do I, and it just takes $10 million out of the general operating to put it into major construction.

You know, there are needs everywhere. I wish it were in some way to help my district. We have needs, but it does not help my district. This major construction is $28 million less than it was last year. So I would like to see that we gradually get it back up to the $28 million at least that it was last year.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Reclaiming my time, the amendment allows the VA to use this funding at any location that it seeks?

Mrs. HALVORSON. At any location anywhere. I wish I could say that it were for someplace special, but it is not.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Reclaiming my time, I would just point out to the gentlewoman that there is $1.166 billion for construction. That is $15 million above the request.

I can appreciate that the gentlewoman would like to spend even more and that she, apparently, is not trying to circumvent the process, because a lot of people would like to have clinics in their districts, and a lot of people have been waiting in line and have been watching this process work, but if it doesn't seek to spend it at any one location, then that is helpful to me.

I yield back the balance of my time.

□ 1810

Mrs. HALVORSON. Madam Chairman, our veterans deserve the best care in the world and at the best and most modern medical facilities, and that's why we're working to accomplish this here. And in this body we need to keep those promises. This is something that is very important, I think, to all of us here in Congress.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from Illinois (Mrs. HALVORSON). The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 11 OFFERED BY MR. BILIRAKIS

The CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 11 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 38, line 18, before the period insert the following: "Provided further, That of the funds made available under this heading, $9,500,000 shall be for the acquisition, construction, and alteration of up to four post-acute long-term care residential brain injury medical facilities pursuant to section 8103 of title 38, United States Code".

The CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. BILIRAKIS) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Chair, my amendment would provide $9.5 million to acquire and construct up to four long-term care residential brain injury medical facilities.

The primary danger faced by our troops in Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom comes in the form of improvised explosive devices. When an IED explodes, the blast wave can result in our servicemembers incurring catastrophic injuries including amputations, spinal cord injuries, visual and auditory impairments, traumatic brain injury, and posttraumatic stress.

Wounded warriors with these complex injuries require a high level of health care coordination with an interdisciplinary clinical support team and a wide range of specialized services. Since 2003, almost 2,000 severely injured servicemembers have received state-of-the-art care at one of the Department of Veterans Affairs four Polytrauma Rehabilitation Centers.

But what happens to these heroes when they are discharged? Some of them require intensive medical care for the rest of their lives. My amendment addresses the problem of how to provide ongoing recovery for these wounded warriors.

These heroes honorably served their country. Now we have to step up to meet our obligation to them. They need a place to go that will provide for post-acute long-term care, subacute residential rehabilitation, and outpatient day rehabilitation with the dignity, respect, and honor they have earned.

Their families, who are enduring the extreme stress of having one of their own come home with catastrophic injuries, also need this long-term care facility for their loved ones.

My amendment will enable the VA to construct facilities that are specifically designed to provide ongoing recovery for wounded warriors. Such facilities will enable families to visit in an atmosphere that is conducive to the rehabilitation and the reintegration.

These facilities will be paid for with existing funds within the VA's budget and will allow the VA to select locations that are close enough to existing VA medical facilities to ensure that intensive, ongoing medical and specialist care is easily provided. At the same time, the facility can be in a location that would be natural and, importantly, family friendly.

By supporting my amendment, you will be requiring funds already available to the VA to be directed toward relieving the obvious need for long-term, ongoing recovery for our veterans suffering from TBI and other polytrauma injuries.

A properly selected and designed facility is so important, Madam Chair. My amendment will enable medical specialists from the VA to develop a special plan to allow our veterans to heal. That is so important. It should be our top priority. A doctor would be able to look in the eyes of a wounded warrior and tell him or her, This is your home, and we are going to help you participate in society and visit with your family.

The facilities my amendment would promote, Madam Chairman, would enable our young wounded warriors to focus on hope and to focus on honor and have hope for a future. We owe them that, Madam Chair. Let's give them that.

I ask my colleagues to recognize the extreme difficulty faced by our catastrophically wounded warriors. Show them your support and vote "yes" on the Bilirakis amendment.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I rise to claim time in opposition to the amendment.

The Acting CHAIR (Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas). The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I want to salute the gentleman's focus, his genuine commitment on the important need of providing long-term care for our veterans and wounded warriors with traumatic brain injury.

I care deeply about this. We all care deeply about it. In fact, several years ago I personally put the money in our VA appropriations bill to build a new polytrauma center where there was not one in the entire southwestern part of the United States.

I wish the gentleman could agree to work with the majority and the minority, the conference committee, to try to find a way to also work with the VA to find a way to address the very important needs that he is wanting to address.

If he's not willing to pull this amendment down, I must reluctantly rise in opposition to it for several reasons:

First, the VA is studying this issue right now, and we ought to sit down with them and find out what they have learned and what they think are the best ways to use taxpayers' dollars to address these needs.

Secondly, I don't know if we need four of these long-term centers or six or eight or 10. Rather than spending money on four centers, perhaps it would be better to do smaller renovations on 10 to 20 centers where our traumatically injured veterans could receive care closer to the homes of their loved ones.

Third, I don't know what the full cost of this is going to be. The $9.5 million doesn't, I don't think, even come close to providing for the full cost of the construction of these four projects. Perhaps the gentleman could help illuminate for all of us both the cost of the construction plus the cost of the operations of those centers. And there are a lot of unanswered questions, important questions, such as: Where would the staff come from to man these centers? Would they come from existing VA facilities? I don't know. Perhaps there are good answers to those questions. I just don't think the committee has them at this point.

Finally, there are pay-fors on this. The consequences of how this gentleman would pay for these would be that we would have a domiciliary extended-stay unit would not be replaced in Butler, Pennsylvania; a kidney dialysis unit expansion would not occur in Richmond, Virginia; an ambulatory surgery center would not be completed in Albuquerque, New Mexico; an urgent care center will not be renovated at Castle Point, New York; and a psychiatric residential rehab facility will not be replaced in Perry Point, Maryland.

It was not the intention of the gentleman to try to prevent these five important projects from being completed, but it is the consequence of his amendment as written.

I yield to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. SCOTT).

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Madam Chair, I rise in opposition to the amendment by the gentleman from Florida (Mr. BILIRAKIS). I support the underlying goal of the gentleman's amendment to acquire and construct long-term residential medical facilities for veterans suffering from traumatic brain injury; however, this designation will jeopardize other important construction projects because it is offset by a decrease in what is called the minor projects construction account.

This would jeopardize an important project in my district at the Hunter Holmes McGuire Veterans Hospital. And if this amendment is adopted, it would hinder the expansion of McGuire's dialysis unit. This is an important project and will improve services that many veterans in the Richmond area need very desperately.

So I appreciate the gentleman's intent; however, I believe that circumventing the Veterans Affairs Department's construction priorities is an inappropriate way to achieve that goal. The Nation has promised our veterans access to quality health care services, and we owe them to ensure that those services are there.

So, Madam Chairman, I would urge the rejection of this amendment so that the underlying projects can go forward.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I would be glad to yield.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Mr. EDWARDS, I appreciate the concerns that have been raised here, and I think, as you point out, this is a very important subject, very worthwhile. And to the question of where the money comes from, those minor construction projects, I think everyone has a concern about that.

□ 1820

But I think if Mr. BILIRAKIS is willing to work, there is probably a way to find an offset that doesn't impact the minor construction. There are some funds, as you know, that might be available. And I would encourage Mr. BILIRAKIS, with your commitment, to say let's try to figure out a way to do this, find a way to pay for it, find out what the real costs are. And it says up to four. Maybe there is a way just to begin that process, because we know, based on what Mr. KENNEDY had said earlier, it's a very, very important issue.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Reclaiming my time, if Mr. BILIRAKIS would be willing to ask unanimous consent to bring down his amendment, I will make my genuine commitment to work with him, because I salute him for pointing out the important need that needs to be addressed here.

I'll work with Mr. CRENSHAW, the acting ranking member, Mr. WAMP, the ranking member of the subcommittee, and we will get together with the VA and try to find a pay-for that doesn't take away from awfully important projects such as Mr. SCOTT's in Virginia and others.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. If you would agree to work with me on this particular amendment—this is a very important project, as you know. We do have our polytrauma centers, but we need the long-term care for our heroes. And this is a top priority of mine. If you would agree to work with me on this, then I will withdraw.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. If the gentleman will yield, I appreciate that. I will work in good faith. And let's see if by working with the VA, the majority and minority, see if we can find a way to most efficiently and effectively take care of these great Americans that have suffered such a sacrifice on behalf of our country, and do so without impacting these other important projects throughout the country.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. I yield to the gentleman from Virginia.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. I would join in support of this. Traumatic brain injuries is a very important problem that we need to deal with. I would join in support of that and work with you as long as you do not affect the other projects.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Reclaiming my time, I have studied this issue, and it's a top priority of mine. We need to get this done. So thank you for your willingness to work with me.

With that, I appreciate the gentleman's willingness, as I said, to work with me. I look forward to doing so.

Madam Chair, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my amendment.

The Acting CHAIR. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

AMENDMENT NO. 12 OFFERED BY MR. PETERS

The Acting CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 12 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. PETERS. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 33, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert the following: "(reduced by $50,000) (increased by $50,000)".

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. PETERS) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. PETERS. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Chair, in the interests of common sense, I rise today to offer an amendment that will save taxpayer dollars by reducing waste in prescription medications at the VA. Currently, whenever patients leave a VA hospital, leftover medications like eye drops and inhalers are just thrown away. Often, veterans would have to go right to the pharmacy to refill what was discarded.

My amendment simply directs the VA to implement a program that would re-label prescription drugs used in VA hospitals to be sent home with discharged patients for outpatient use. My amendment offers a simple, commonsense change that will save taxpayers an estimated $14 million over 10 years, while saving patients both time and effort.

I am proud that this amendment has the support of the American Legion and the Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America, and urge its passage here today.

I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I just want to commend the gentleman. This is such a good amendment. Sometimes common sense can prevail, because it certainly makes no sense to take drugs that a veteran is using, prescription drugs used in a VA hospital, and then have a half a bottle or three-quarters of a bottle of those pills left, have to throw them away, and then go directly to the pharmacy at the VA hospital to get those exact same prescription drugs to take for use at home.

So this is going to save taxpayers money. And every dollar that's saved can be put back into much-needed medical care for our veterans. So I am thrilled to support the gentleman's amendment and salute him for working on this.

Mr. PETERS. Madam Chair, my amendment is a commonsense change and saves taxpayers money, saves time and effort for veterans. I urge passage.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. PETERS).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 13 OFFERED BY MR. PETERS

The Acting CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 13 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. PETERS. I have an amendment at the desk.

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 33, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $150,000) (increased by $150,000)".

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. PETERS) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. PETERS. Madam Chair, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Chair, while I applaud the progress this Congress has made in ensuring that our Nation's veterans receive the care they deserve, and the efforts of Secretary Shinseki in making the VA a more proactive institution, we must continue to work to improve the responsiveness of the VA both in terms of treatment our veterans receive and the care with which the VA or any agency handles taxpayer money.

It is in this spirit that I am offering my amendment to the MILCON-VA Appropriations Act. My amendment works to both increase the efficiency in which the VA obligates funds, and the speed at which necessary contracts for supplies and services are fulfilled.

The VA Office of Inspector General audited a sample of over 18,000 VA contracts which identified some areas of concern regarding contracts that remain unfulfilled. With little or no oversight for months of these contracts, the OIG projected that $55 million a year, and $261 million over 5 years, could be put to better use.

By conducting a simple review after a period of 90 days in which the contract is inactive in fulfilling the contract, millions of dollars can be de-obligated from contracts that no longer need to be fulfilled or can be fulfilled in a more productive manner.

The American Legion agrees with my amendment as a commonsense change and step in the right direction, and I urge its passage here today.

I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I once again on this amendment want to thank the gentleman for bringing this before the House. This could save up to $55 million in taxpayer funding according to the Inspector General. It's a good amendment, and I am glad to support it.

Mr. PETERS. My amendment is a commonsense change that frees taxpayer dollars for better use to care for our veterans, and I urge its passage here today.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. PETERS).

The amendment was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 14 OFFERED BY MR. GARRETT OF NEW JERSEY

The Acting CHAIR. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 14 printed in House Report 111-570.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 38, line 7, after the dollar amount, insert the following: "(decreased by $7,000,000)".

Page 39, line 8, after the dollar amount, insert the following: "(increased by $7,000,000)".

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to House Resolution 1559, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. GARRETT) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. I thank the Chair.

This amendment would increase the amount of funding for grants for construction of States veterans cemeteries by $7 million while reducing funding for grants for construction of minor projects by an equal amount.

The VA provides funding for State veterans cemeteries through the grants for construction of State veterans cemeteries program. All pending projects are evaluated by the VA and ranked in order of priority. This is not an earmark program. It is a competitive ranking process.

The current priority list shows that there are $121 million worth of projects where the State matching funds are already in place. More than half of these projects—totaling $70 million—are still awaiting Federal matching grants. Yet the appropriations bill we are considering today provides only $46 million for grants for construction of State veterans cemeteries.

The first priority for the State cemetery program is to provide funding for the expansion of existing cemeteries. The second priority is for the construction of new cemeteries according to geographical need. The third is for improvements to existing cemeteries. So what this means is that existing cemeteries which require improvements do not receive the necessary funding.

For example, my State of New Jersey is home to the BGWC Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery. This cemetery is the busiest State veterans cemetery in the Nation. On average, it has seven burials per day. For the past 2 years, the cemetery has had two important improvement projects with State grants in place, but there hasn't been sufficient funding for matching Federal grants.

The following States also have a State matching grant but have at least one unfunded project: Tennessee, Minnesota, Kentucky, Alabama, California, Idaho, South Dakota, Hawaii, Maryland, Montana, Virginia, Nevada and Maine.

To make matters worse, the State veterans cemetery grant program has been underfunded over the past several years, even though the number of World War II veterans that are needing interments is rapidly increasing. VA and VFW officials at both the State and national level agree that there is a need for an overall increase to the annual budget of the grants to State cemeteries program. In fact, it is one of their top priorities.

This bipartisan amendment would increase the amount for this program by $7 million. This amendment would simultaneously decrease by $7 million the amount for the minor projects. However, the construction of minor project account is already fully funded at a level that is $40 million above both the VA and the President's budget requests.

Last year, during consideration of the FY10 MILCON-VA appropriations bill, I introduced an almost identical amendment. The only difference was that the amount of increase/decrease was $4 million rather than $7 million. That amendment passed this House by voice vote.

With that, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I rise to claim time in opposition to the amendment.

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, I will salute the gentleman from New Jersey for focusing on the need to fund our State veterans cemeteries. I believe in those cemeteries. I think they're an important partnership between the Federal Government and our State governments. So I have absolutely no objection to his wanting to try to find additional funding for State cemeteries.

However, I will object and ask my colleagues to vote "no" on this amendment because of the way in which he pays for it. While not intended in any way, it just turns out the money that he would be taking out of the VA minor construction project would come out of these specific projects:

A domiciliary extended stay unit will not be replaced in Butler, Pennsylvania; a kidney dialysis unit expansion will not occur in Richmond, Virginia; an ambulatory surgery center will not be completed in Albuquerque, New Mexico; and an urgent care center will not be renovated at Castle Point, New York.

So you have an amendment that won't even guarantee that even one dime of this amendment's funding will go to State veterans cemeteries in New Jersey. In fact, the last list I saw the VA has put out officially has the New Jersey project significantly down the list. But regardless of that, I think it's just not right to take funding out of these much-needed health care construction projects.

I would like to yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. ALTMIRE) for any time he would care to consume.

Mr. ALTMIRE. I thank the chairman.

Madam Chair, I rise in opposition to the Garrett amendment to the Military Construction and Veterans Affairs appropriations bill which would transfer $7 million in funding for the grants for construction, minor projects account into another unrelated account. This amendment would adversely affect veterans in my district by shifting funding away from priority construction projects, such as the domiciliary extended stay unit in Butler, Pennsylvania. That facility is a vital source of shelter and rehabilitation for homeless veterans in western Pennsylvania, and I will not allow its upkeep and improvement to be compromised by this type of unwise amendment.

Last-minute shifts in funding for parochial concerns take away from priority projects and plans that the VA has determined to be necessary for veterans' health and safety nationwide. I ask my colleagues to join me in strongly opposing the Garrett amendment to prevent harmful construction project cuts for the VA.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I would like to now yield time to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. SCOTT).

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Madam Chair, I too rise in opposition to the amendment.

As it has been said before, this would jeopardize the dialysis unit in the McGuire Hospital in Richmond. Although I appreciate the gentleman from New Jersey's intent, I do not believe that shortchanging important projects at the VA to improve and expand quality health care for our veterans is the appropriate way to achieve that goal. We have promised our veterans health care and decreases in what is called the minor projects account will actually jeopardize important projects all over the country, including one in Richmond, Virginia.

I urge my colleagues to reject the amendment. Hopefully we can work out some other pay-for. But we do not want it taken out of the projects in Richmond, Virginia; Pennsylvania; and other projects around the country.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. I now yield to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. HALL of New York. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I rise in opposition to the amendment, although I do support the underlying intent; but not, however, the pay-for.

One project that would be affected by this cutback is the renovation of the urgent care center at Castle Point, New York, a VA hospital that was built in 1926. It's the oldest VA hospital in the country and has never undergone a major renovation. The project would dramatically increase urgent care capacity at Castle Point and make the facility more accommodating for female veterans who are increasingly a large part of our force.

I ask that before you vote on this measure, please take a moment to consider the unintended consequences and the negative consequences, not just in the Hudson Valley but across the country.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Madam Chair, do I have any time remaining?

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman has 30 seconds remaining.

Mr. EDWARDS of Texas. Let me just conclude by saying no one objects to the gentleman's goal. We would be glad to try to work in good faith to see if we can find another pay-for to improve funding for our veterans cemeteries. But I will strongly object and ask my colleagues to vote "no" on this amendment because of the damage done to veterans at these facilities that need the care that they would otherwise not get if this amendment is passed into law.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Chair, I would just remind the gentleman that the money you appropriated is already $40 million over what the President asked for and also what the VA asked for.

I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. LANCE).

Mr. LANCE. Madam Chair, I rise in support of Congressman GARRETT's amendment also sponsored in a bipartisan capacity by Congressman ADLER on the other side of the aisle and by me. This is bipartisan in nature, and, of course, we believe that across the country, veterans and their families are dealing with the hardships of overcrowded and unkempt State cemeteries.

For example, in New Jersey there is only one State veterans cemetery that is currently available for new burials—the Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Wrightstown, in southern New Jersey, not in my district and not in Congressman GARRETT's district, but this is bipartisan in nature on our side of the aisle; and certainly we think that this amendment will help fund these projects and reduce existing backlogs in the State veterans cemetery grant program.

I certainly concur with Congressman GARRETT's point of view that the funding is already over what has been requested by the administration and we believe strongly that this is in the best interest of the United States.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. May I inquire of the time remaining.

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman from New Jersey has 1 minute remaining.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. In conclusion, I will end where I started, and that is to say, there is a need for the cemeteries not just in the state of New Jersey but across the country as well. In a bipartisan manner we passed this bill with the support presumably from the chairman last year in a similar manner as we are doing this year. As was stated already, the amount of money that is already appropriated is $40 million more than not only what the White House wants but also what the VA wants.

I do find it curious that the chairman is able to come to the floor and cite specifically what programs would be cut when our staff tried diligently through the committee to ask them to identify exactly which ones would be cut and we could never get an answer from them as to what would be cut whatsoever with regard to priorities. Now the chair comes and says, well, this program, this program, and this program will be cut.

□ 1840

How can anybody say it's being cut when we're already spending $40 million more than what the VA and the administration is asking for?

This is a duty that we owe to our veterans, and we should do it in a proper manner, and we should do it now. We should not be pointing fingers saying that we want a cut from this or a cut from that. We have set out the program this year as we have done in the past. And we should meet that moral obligation.

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. GARRETT).

The question was taken; and the Acting Chair announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Chair, I demand a recorded vote.

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New Jersey will be postponed.
