

scored 32 points to keep the Griz in the game, although they ultimately lost 67-64. Griz fans still remember Hays' amazing performance 35 years later. Eric went on to coach basketball at Hellgate High School in Missoula where he won over 350 games.

I would like to commend Wayne Tinkle, the coach of the team, athletic director Jim O'Day, and University of Montana president George Dennison for their leadership and vision in making the Grizzly athletic programs successful and teaching many dedicated student athletes life lessons as well as those on the playing fields and courts. These student athletes deserve our recognition for all the hard work they put in throughout the year.

I know that the Griz will represent the state of Montana well in the NCAA tournament and give it their all. I along with many other Griz fans across the country will be watching and cheering a famous line from the school's fight song—"Up with Montana, boys, down with the foe!"

REMEMBERING ANTHONY BROWN

• Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, today I remember Anthony Brown, a Madison activist who served in many important roles, including as director of Madison's Equal Opportunities Commission. Sadly, Anthony passed away on March 13. His passing is a terrible loss for his family and friends, and for the community he loved. Anthony was so dedicated to making Madison a better place, and a more just community for everyone.

That showed through in everything he did, including his tenure at Madison's Equal Opportunities Commission and his work at the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority. Anthony's service to the community was legendary. He served on many boards, and made contributions in countless other ways. One of those contributions was his mentoring of young people, something he felt there needed to be much more of in the community. He also pushed for more opportunities for people of color in the news media in Madison, knowing what a valuable perspective they would bring to news coverage in the city.

Again and again, Anthony stood up for justice and equality. He enriched this community with his work, and I am very grateful for all he did over so many years.

Anthony had so many wonderful qualities; he was tireless, he was persistent, and above all he was an optimist. He was always positive, even in the face of very tough challenges, including the challenges he faced with his own health. That optimism is one of the many wonderful things I will remember him for.

Today my thoughts are with Anthony's family, and with everyone lucky enough to have known him. He will be deeply missed, but his work will continue to have a positive impact on

Madison and the State of Wisconsin for many years to come.●

TRIBUTE TO JIM DUPONT

• Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. President, today I commend postal service employee Jim DuPont of Springdale, AR, who risked his life to help those in need. Hailed as a "postal hero" by his colleagues, Jim was on his way home from work when he came upon an accident involving a head-on collision between a truck and a car. Jim rushed to the scene to provide help to the drivers and passengers trapped in their vehicles.

Jim first pulled the truck's driver and passenger out of the cab through the rear window. He then ran back to rescue the driver of the second vehicle. The victims of the accident suffered serious injuries, but thankfully are on their way to recovery. Jim also was hurt, suffering a dislocated shoulder, burns and smoke inhalation.

Mr. President, I salute Jim's bravery and courage. In the face of danger, he put himself in harm's way to save lives. We should all aspire to achieve this level of selflessness and compassion for others.●

RECOGNIZING THE CITIZENS OF DEWITT

• Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. President, today I recognize the spirit of hard work, volunteerism, and service that is on display each and every day in the city of DeWitt, in my home State of Arkansas. The DeWitt Chamber of Commerce recently honored six exemplary citizens who have contributed their time and expertise to help make their community a better place. They are: Ronda Bowen, Employee of the Year; Tommy Black of Tommy's Rexall, Employer of the Year; Sue Chapman, Civil Servant of the Year; Phyllis Fullerton, Educator of the Year; Bobby Hudspeth, Good Neighbor of the Year; and Gary Vansandt, Citizen of the Year.

I have felt a long kinship to DeWitt, one of our Delta communities not far from and very similar to my hometown of Helena. DeWitt always feels like home, and I am grateful for the friendships I have made there.

Mr. President, we should all embrace the spirit of service and volunteerism on display by these deserving individuals.●
