HONORING ARKANSAS'S OUTSTANDING MATH AND SCIENCE TEACHERS

● Mrs. LINCOLN. Madam President, today I salute two Arkansas teachers who have been named as recipients of the prestigious Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching: Lorraine Darwin from Cabot, Math, and Karen Ladd of Jonesboro, Science. This award is given annually to the best pre-college-level science and mathematics teachers from across the country. The winners are selected by a panel of distinguished scientists, mathematicians, and educators.

Lorraine and Karen represent the best of Arkansas. Students and parents in Cabot and Jonesboro are fortunate to have them as educators and as leaders for the community. I commend their hard work and dedication to helping students learn and grow.

There is no issue more intricately connected to the future prosperity of our Nation than the quality of our educational system. A skilled and educated population is critical if we are to create new jobs in Arkansas and sustain economic growth over the long term.

Every student, regardless of background, deserves the chance to achieve his or her full potential, which can only happen with a quality education. That is why I will continue doing all I can to make high-quality education more accessible for Arkansas students and their families.

Again, congratulations to Lorraine and Karen for their dedication to education and for giving our youngest Arkansas citizens a solid foundation for future success.●

TRIBUTE TO MARK HAMILTON

● Ms. MURKOWSKI. Madam President, I wish to honor University of Alaska President Mark Hamilton on the occasion of his retirement.

A graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, Mark Hamilton served our Nation for 31 years of Active Duty as a member of the U.S. Army, retiring as major general. During his service, Hamilton helped to negotiate an end to the war in El Salvador, negotiated a period of calm with Somali warlords that allowed for the removal of the U.S. 10th Mountain Division, and advised on NATO planning related to the former Republic of Yugoslavia. In recognition of his distinguished service, Hamilton is the recipient of the Distinguished Service Medal and the Joint Distinguished Service Medal.

In 1998, shortly after retiring from the military, Mark Hamilton chose to return to his adopted State to serve as the 12th president of the University of Alaska. From the beginning, President Hamilton articulated a new vision for the university system a "can-do, grow your own" philosophy based on strict accountability for results. Understanding that effective leadership needs support from all stakeholders, Mark traveled the State to learn more about what Alaskans wanted from their university system and how the university could better meet the State's need for qualified graduates.

Turning vision into action, Mark led the University of Alaska to focus on being more responsive and relevant to Alaskans' needs. Throughout his tenure, President Hamilton has been guided by the following questions when making decisions for the University: Is it good for the students? Is it good for the State? Is it working? This brand of leadership has led to significantly increased support from donors, the business community, the legislature, and the public. As a result, the University of Alaska system has been able to expand degree options for students, make long-needed improvements to its facilities, increase enrollment and student retention, and increase the number of degree-seeking students who graduate.

Realizing that the success of University of Alaska graduates, and hence the future of our State, is inextricably linked to the preparation students receive in our K-12 schools, Mark next turned his attention to entering into collaborative partnerships for teacher recruitment, preparation, and mentoring programs to "grow our own" teachers. He initiated the UA Scholars Program—a full ride scholarship for the top graduates from every high school in the State. Mark also made it a priority to enthusiastically participate in statewide and legislative discussions concerning improving Alaska's K-12 schools and increasing our high school graduation rate.

I could go on and on describing the positive changes Mark Hamilton has spearheaded and supported during his 12 years as president of the University of Alaska. It is sufficient, I think, to say Mark Hamilton has been the crucial force needed to bring the University of Alaska into the 21st century and to set our public university system on a path to make a positive difference in the lives of individuals and the future of our State.

On behalf of the entire Senate, I thank University of Alaska President Mark Hamilton for his many years of service to our Nation and to my State of Alaska, and I wish him well as he is finally able to spend more time with his wife Patty, his four children—Daniel, Kathy, Clay and Doug—and his 10 grandchildren: Renee, Avery, Paige, Max, Archie, Henry, Aubrey, Luke, Lauryn, and Mark.●

TRIBUTE TO CHESTER CHARLES MOELLER, II

● Mr. SESSIONS. Madam President, I wish to tell you about a true leader in Alabama sports, Chet Moeller of Montgomery, AL, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on May 27, 2010.

Mr. Moeller first gained national recognition for his gridiron accomplishments at the Naval Academy in 1975, where he was elected unanimously as the First Team All-America Eastern College Athletic Conference All-Conference Player of the Year. He continued on to become a two-time ECAC selection and a Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword recipient. In 3 seasons with the Midshipmen, Mr. Moeller averaged 92 tackles per season. He also served as cocaptain of the 1975 team, which won more games than any Midshipmen squad since the 1963 team that played for the national championship. He proved to be a leader in the classroom as well as he was a Second Team Academic All-American.

Mr. Moeller's induction is no small feat. He was selected by more than 12,000 National Football Foundation members and current members of the College Football Hall of Fame. The votes were submitted to the National Football Federation's Honors Court, which deliberated and selected a class from among the 4.72 million Americans who have played college football. To date, only 866 players have earned this prestigious honor.

The discipline and dedication Mr. Moeller developed on the field were applied as he faithfully served his country as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps. He has also served his community as a board member for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and as a deacon in his church. He is currently serving as a church elder. He and his wife Jenny have resided in Montgomery, AL, for over 30 years. They have two children: Trey, who played football for the University of Virginia, and Rachael, who attended Auburn University.

I commend Mr. Moeller for all of his accomplishments and successes. I share with this body today my pleasure in congratulating Mr. Moeller for this prestigious honor, as he is certainly a worthy recipient.●

REMEMBERING WORLD WAR II HEROES

● Mr. INHOFE. Madam President, I wish today to honor and remember all of those magnificent heroes, and their families, who fought and died on D-day during World War II. I ask that this poem penned by Albert Caswell, of the guide service, be printed in the RECORD in remembrance of their selfless sacrifice and service to our Nation, on the upcoming 66th anniversary of D-day on June 6, 1944.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ON THESE BEACHES

On These Beaches. . . .
Goodness! Evil! Darkness! Light!
Those Brave Hearts. . . .
Who, evil must fight!
Who, bring the light!
On These Beaches!
Which, now so beseech us. . . .
All at the very height. . . .
Of what a heart can reach this!
"D" Day!
As a time as when, all those hearts so prayed. . . .
Heading, into those shores. . . .
As sure death, so lie before. . . .
All On Those Beaches!
While, against all odds. . . .
All in their fine cause. . . .
All in their most selfless sacrifice, these most brilliant of all lights!
That which now, so teach us!
Of what happened, All On These Beaches. . . .
"D" Day, as a time as when. . . .
Mere men, became like Gods. . . . so then!
All in their actions!
Dropping from the air, heroes everywhere. . . .
All in their deeds, all for freedom's seeds. . . .
As into, those bloody shores they waded. . . .
As but, all of their fine lives., they so gave it!
As the ocean turned red. . . .

As they so died, and bled. . . .
All in what. . . .
Their most magnificent of all hearts, so said!
Chapter and verse. . . .
So many acts of valor and courage, against the worst. . . .
All about a human being's, True Worth!
Of what, out to all of our souls so teaches!
"D" Day. . . .
All On These Beaches. . . .
Their Most Heroic Bodies,
strewn into pieces. . . .
As everywhere the dark stench of death be-seeches!
So greets us!
As lies beneath us, Upon These Beaches. . . .
War is Hell, and Hell is War. . . .
Is that not what Heaven is for?
On These Beaches. . . .
Sights and sounds, men dare not repeat!
This!
So, buried now. . . . all in their hearts and souls of honor, so carried deep! This!
As awoken in cold sweats, from their most restless sleeps! This!
As for them, we now so weep! This!
As forever, in your hearts. . . . we pray you keep. . . . This!
Of what, all of these magnificent men so did
for us. . . .
To Save The World!
All On These Beaches!
As on this day. . . .
I bid you, I but ask you to kneel and pray. . . .
And never forget, what happened on that day!
On These Beaches!●
