

"Mr. Housing" for his leadership of the House Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development. In this role, he authored landmark pieces of legislation in the Housing and Community Development Acts of 1974 and 1977.

"Americans sleep in better homes today because of Lud Ashley," Senator Ted Kennedy once said of Congressman Ashley.

As a legislator, Congressman Ashley continued the family legacy of fighting for equality. His great-grandfather, who represented Toledo in Congress during the Civil War era, co-authored the 13th amendment abolishing slavery. A century later, Lud Ashley worked tirelessly to secure the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

An Army veteran, who served in the Pacific during World War II, Lud Ashley returned home to pursue his education. He earned degrees from Yale University and the Ohio State University College of Law.

Hearing the call to public service, Lud Ashley ran and won the privilege of representing the 9th Congressional District of Ohio in 1954. His service was defined by a passionate but collegial devotion to liberal causes, one that earned him the respect and friendship of his peers on both sides of the aisle.

I hope that my colleagues will take a moment to honor the life and legacy of Congressman Lud Ashley a great Ohioan and a great American.

ELGIN, NORTH DAKOTA

• Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, today I recognize a community in North Dakota that will be celebrating its 100th anniversary. On July 17-20, the residents of Elgin will gather to celebrate their community's history and founding.

Elgin, a Northern Pacific Railroad town site, was first named Shanley, but became Elgin in 1910. The residents were having difficulty agreeing on a new name, and Isadore Gintzler is said to have looked at his pocket watch to check the time at a very late hour, and suggested its brand name, Elgin, as a compromise name for the town site. Elgin watches are made in Elgin, IL, which was named by founder James T. Gifford for Elgin, Scotland. The post office was established August 11, 1910. Elgin was incorporated as a village in 1911.

Some of the present day businesses and accommodations that continue to thrive within the city of Elgin include the Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center and Clinics, Dakota Hill Housing, a dentist, an eye clinic, a cafe and bowling alley, a grocery store, a hardware store, gas stations, a bank, accounting offices, a drug store, insurance agencies, a newspaper, the post office, a lumber yard, a motel, a new public library, and grain elevators.

Citizens of Elgin have organized numerous activities to celebrate their centennial. Some of the activities include an opening ceremony, historical power point presentation, historical bus tour, musical entertainment, an alumni football game, a magician show, and an antique parade.

I ask the U.S. Senate to join me in congratulating Elgin, ND, and its residents on the first 100 years and in wishing them well through the next century. By honoring Elgin and all the other historic small towns of North Dakota, we keep the great pioneering frontier spirit alive for future generations. It is places such as Elgin that have helped to shape this country into what it is today, which is why this fine community is deserving of our recognition.

Elgin has a proud past and a bright future.●

ARKANSAS'S FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

• Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. President, today I congratulate eight Arkansas college students who were recently selected as recipients of this year's Arkansas Farm Bureau Foundation Scholarship Program. The students will receive $1,000 per semester for their agriculture studies in the 2010-2011 school year.

These young Arkansans represent the best of our State, and I am pleased to see them receive this funding to advance their education and prepare them for their future agriculture careers. Agriculture is the backbone of Arkansas's economy, creating more than 270,000 jobs in the State and providing $9.1 billion in wages and salaries. In total, agriculture contributes roughly $15.9 billion to the Arkansas economy each year.

To be eligible for the Farm Bureau scholarship, students must be Arkansas residents, members of a Farm Bureau family, and enrolled as juniors or seniors in a State-accredited university. They must also maintain a 2.5 grade-point-average and pursue an agriculture-related degree. As a seventh generation Arkansan and farmer's daughter and as chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, I understand firsthand and appreciate the hard work and contributions of our farm families, and these students are quite deserving of this honor.

This year's scholarship recipients are:

Anna Elizabeth Buck, 21, of Delight, Pike County, daughter of Ricky and Rebecca Buck. She is an agricultural business major with a marketing minor at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia.

Laura Jones, 29, of Clinton, Washington County, daughter of Rosemary and Willie Jones. She is an animal science/pre-vet major at Arkansas State University in Jonesboro.

Mia Hand, 21, of Magnolia, Columbia County, daughter of Rosanne Hand. She is an agricultural education major at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia.

Jaimie McMeachan, 23, of Gamaliel, Baxter County, daughter of William and Shirley McMeachan. She is an agriculture education major at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia.

Jared McMillan, 20, of Pine Bluff, Jefferson County, son of Dale and Teresa McMillan. He is an animal science major at the University of Arkansas at Monticello.

Kevin Dale Morrison, 21, of Onyx, Yell County, son of Vernon and Elise Morrison. He is an agriculture business major with an emphasis in animal science at Arkansas Tech University in Russellville.

Daniel Wade Walters, 20, of Fayetteville, Washington County, son of Danny and Bonita Walters. He is an agriculture business major at Arkansas Tech University in Russellville.

Fines "Levi" Hudson, 22, of Mt. Judea, Newton County, son Richard and Anita Hudson. He is a food, human nutrition and hospitality major with a dietetics concentration at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.●

REMEMBERING REVEREND GERALD ARCHIE "G.A." MANGUN

• Mr. VITTER. Mr. President, today I wish to acknowledge Reverend Gerald Archie "G.A." Mangun of Alexandria, LA, and to honor his memory as an important spiritual leader to the citizens of central Louisiana. I would like to take some time to make a few remarks about his legacy.

Reverend Mangun passed away Thursday, June 17, 2010, at the age of 91. Reverend Mangun was born March 11, 1919, in LaPaz, IN. He was ordained a minister in 1942 and spent the years before coming to Alexandria preaching across the country. He then came to Alexandria and was elected pastor of the then-First United Pentecostal Church in 1950.

Reverend Mangun relentlessly dedicated himself to reaching out to his community through his church. His church began small, with only 35 members, but with his unyielding dedication and inspiration it continued to grow. Today, the Pentecostal Church of Alexandria has a congregation numbering more than 3,000. This growth in itself shows his spiritual leadership and positive influence in the State of Louisiana.

Through his leadership, the church grew to be an integral part of the city of Alexandria and the State of Louisiana. His leadership, however, reached far beyond his own State. For example, Reverend Mangun raised 1.13 million for mission work in 2009 alone. His impact in and outside of his own State and community have been remarkable.

Reverend Mangun suffered a stroke on May 28, 2010, and passed away on June 17, 2010. His passing is a great loss to the State of Louisiana. However, his legacy will continue through the hearts and minds of people he touched and influenced through his ministry. His impact continues to be felt today throughout the country and around the world through his ministry and mission work. Thus today, I am proud to honor Reverend Gerald Archie Mangun for his service and leadership in his community and in the State of Louisiana.●
