

Private Montoya worked on the front lines of battle, serving in the most dangerous areas of Afghanistan. He is remembered by those who knew him as a consummate professional with an unending commitment to the uniform. His family remembers Private Montoya's courage as a soldier, but also his warm heart and willingness to do anything to help those close to him.

Mark Twain once said, "The fear of death follows from the fear of life. A man who lives fully is prepared to die at any time." Private Montoya's service was in keeping with this sentiment—by selflessly putting country first, he lived life to the fullest. He lived with a sense of the highest honorable purpose.

At substantial personal risk, he braved the chaos of combat zones throughout Afghanistan. And though his fate on the battlefield was uncertain, he pushed forward, protecting America's citizens, her safety, and the freedoms we hold dear. For his service and the lives he touched, Private Montoya will forever be remembered as one of our country's bravest.

To his parents, his brothers and sisters, and his entire family, I cannot imagine the sorrow you must be feeling. I hope that, in time, the pain of your loss will be eased by your pride in Diego's service and by your knowledge that his country will never forget him. We are humbled by his service and his sacrifice.

STAFF SERGEANT MATTHEW J. WEST

Mr. President, it is with a heavy heart that I rise today to honor the life and heroic service of SSG Matthew J. West. Sergeant West, assigned to the 71st Ordnance Group, based in Fort Carson, CO, died on August 30, 2010, of injuries sustained when an improvised explosive device detonated near his military vehicle. Sergeant West was serving in support of Operation Enduring Freedom in the Arghandab River Valley, Afghanistan. He was 36 years old.

A native of Gaylord, MI, Sergeant West graduated from Northern Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in 1997. After returning home for several years, Sergeant West enlisted in the Army in 2004 and served three tours of duty: two in Afghanistan and one in Iraq, and all with decoration.

During his 6 years of service, Sergeant West distinguished himself through his courage, dedication to duty, and willingness to take on one of the most dangerous and skillful jobs in the Army—defusing bombs. Even as a student at Gaylord High School, Sergeant West exhibited this same extraordinary character by assuming any role needed of him on the football field. Although he was one of the team's smallest players, Sergeant Kessler never hesitated to punch above his weight, even when the coach put him on the offensive line.

Sergeant West worked on the front lines of battle, serving in the most dangerous areas of Iraq and Afghanistan.

He is remembered by those who knew him as a consummate professional with an unending commitment to excellence. His family remembers him as a dedicated son, husband, and as a loving father to his three children. They remember his warm nature and broad smile.

Mark Twain once said, "The fear of death follows from the fear of life. A man who lives fully is prepared to die at any time." Sergeant West's service was in keeping with this sentiment—by selflessly putting country first, he lived life to the fullest. He lived with a sense of the highest honorable purpose.

At substantial personal risk, he braved the chaos of combat zones throughout Iraq and Afghanistan. And though his fate on the battlefield was uncertain, he pushed forward, protecting America's citizens, her safety, and the freedoms we hold dear. For his service and the lives he touched, Sergeant West will forever be remembered as one of our country's bravest.

To John and Marcia, Sergeant West's parents, Carolyn, his wife, Tyler, Joseph, and Annalise, his children, and his entire family, I cannot imagine the sorrow you must be feeling. I hope that, in time, the pain of your loss will be eased by your pride in Matthew's service and by your knowledge that his country will never forget him. We are humbled by his service and his sacrifice.

THE COWBOY CANNONEERS

Mr. BARRASSO. Mr. President, I rise today to honor and recognize the Wyoming Army National Guard 300th Armored Field Artillery Battalion Cowboy Cannoneers.

On October 1, 2010, the 300th soldiers will gather for their final battalion reunion. This reunion marks the 60th anniversary of their Korean war mobilization.

On August 19, 1950, the citizen soldiers of 300th AFA answered the call, picked up their rifles and put on their uniforms to defend our great country. My wife Bobbi's father, Sergeant First Class Robert L. Brown was one of these brave men.

After 21 days at sea, the 300th finally landed at Pusan, Korea on February 15, 1951. In the Spring of 1951, the Chinese People's Volunteers launched a major offensive of human wave style attacks.

Master Sergeant Bill Daly described his first encounter with a communist human wave:

The morning of 16 May and all hell is breaking loose—Fire Mission! Fire Mission! The gun crews sprang into action, the 300th with its 12 105mm howitzers, fired mission after mission. We could see the Chinese coming across the rice paddies and down the road toward us from Chau-ni as our shells land among them . . . It's a human wave.

From the Battle of Soyang to the Battle for the Punchbowl, the Cowboy Cannoneers provided unrivaled fires support for the U.S. Army X Corps and 1st Marine Division. In 256 days of combat, the 300th fired 300,000 artillery rounds. No other battalion sent a battery farther north of the 38th parallel than the 300th. As a result, the 300th was awarded the Army Presidential Unit Citation and the Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation.

For over 59 years, recognition of the heroism of the 300th was incomplete. The Cowboy Cannoneers were not included in the 1st Marine Division Presidential Unit Citation. Yet history shows they delivered devastating artillery fire support that pounded enemy positions in support of the 1st Marine Division.

Jim Craig (MSgt USMC Ret.) of Sheridan, WY, asked me to help COL Tim Sheppard correct the Marine Corps history. They worked closely with Charles Ziegler of my staff to present evidence to the Secretary of the Navy, Ray Mabus, and Commandant of the Marine Corps, GEN James Conway. The overwhelming evidence supported including the 300th in the 1st Marine Division Presidential Unit Citation.

I am pleased to announce that General Conway recommended including the 300th as a reinforcing unit to the 1st Marine Division. Secretary Mabus has signed the order. The record is now correct for the 300th and its descendent unit the 2-300th Field Artillery Battalion.

I would like to thank MG Ed Wright, COL Tim Sheppard and COL Larry Barttelbort (Ret) for their resolve and commitment to uncover the facts about the historic service of the 300th. I would also like to thank Secretary Mabus, Secretary of the Army, John McHugh, General Conway and their teams.

We all know the Korean war is commonly referred to in the history books as "The Forgotten War." Not in Wyoming.

In Wyoming, we never forget the service of our brave men and women who wore the uniform of the United States. We realize that we live safe and free today because of the heroism exemplified by the 300th Cowboy Cannoneers.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD the names of Wyoming's citizen soldiers who served with the 300th at the time of the Korean war mobilization.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

REMEMBERING WILLIAM K. COBLENTZ

● Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, it is with deep sorrow that I join my colleagues today in honoring the memory of an incredible public servant and a dear friend of mine, William Coblentz. My heart goes out to his family, whom he loved so much: his wife Jean, sister Lolita, daughter Wendy, son Andy, son-in-law Jim, daughter-in-law Shari, and four grandchildren: Nikki, Ben, Jake, and Gena. A loving family man, gifted attorney, and astute political figure, Bill left an enduring impact on the city of San Francisco, the State of California, and our Nation. Bill passed
