

law, Federal highway funds can be used for reconstruction and rehabilitation, but not for regular maintenance that would help extend the life of roadways and preserve taxpayers' investments. Consequently, maintenance of roads and bridges is deferred until they have deteriorated to the point where they qualify for major rehabilitation or reconstruction, at far greater expense. Visitors are put at risk when they try to drive around potholes that are too common on our park roads. My legislation would make regular maintenance of park roads eligible for federal highway funding.

As our national parks become increasingly crowded, alternative transportation systems are being relied upon to a much greater extent to help move visitors around. Unfortunately, that program is also severely underfunded. A third major focus of my bill would raise the annual funding level for the federal public lands transit program from the current $24 million to $100 million, with 60 percent of it being targeted for qualified projects in national parks.

Visitors from throughout our country and around the world are discovering the natural, cultural, and historic wonders that are embodied in our national parks. Their experience should not be diminished, and their safety certainly should not be placed at risk, while they visit our national parks. I urge you to join me in sponsoring this legislation to improve visitor safety and enjoyment of our parks through improved maintenance and management of its transportation systems.

HONORING MR. WILLIAM CORNELL

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. HIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of a faithful resident of Western New York, and a good friend, William F. "Bill" Cornell of Jamestown, who recently passed away at the age of 69.

Bill started his career as an instructor of English at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. In his later life, he worked as a data processing manager for Hopes Architectural Products, a position he held for twenty six years. He was also employed by the Carriage House in Fredonia.

Bill was an active member of the Chautauqua County Democratic Committee and was active in many civic and political causes in his hometown. A parishioner of Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church, Bill and his wife Peg were devoted parents to their children Chuck and Kathryn, and they were doting grandparents to 5 beautiful grandchildren.

I got to know Bill Cornell well during my initial campaign for Congress in 2004 and have come to know him well in the years that have passed since. A steadfast Democrat proud of his roots in Jamestown, Bill was the kind of fellow who would give you the shirt off of his back. While he will obviously be greatly missed by friends and family, as a rare breed of Jamestownian, he will be just as sorely missed by the community at large.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you to join with me and with our colleagues to honor the life of Bill Cornell and offer the sincerest condolences of the House to Peg, Chuck, Lori, Kathryn and Kurt, and to his entire family.

CELEBRATING 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE AU PAIR PROGRAM

HON. RUSS CARNAHAN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. CARNAHAN. Mr. Speaker, on June 9th, the Department of State will hold a reception celebrating the 25th anniversary of the au pair program. Host families, au pairs from Germany, Brazil, Thailand, South Africa, France, Sweden and Mexico, along with other countries, and federal officials from the Department of State, will participate in this event recognizing the strength and longevity of this cultural exchange program.

The first au pairs arrived in New York City in June of 1986. Since that time, the program has witnessed dramatic growth, thanks in part to the leadership and vision of one of the first authorized sponsors, Au Pair in America, a division of the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS), located in Stamford, Connecticut. AIFS helped establish a regulatory framework that has allowed more than 87,000 young people to live with and care for the children of American families during a mutually rewarding one- or two-year experience.

This exchange experience has profoundly changed the lives of au pairs, the young children they care for and their host families through their daily exchange of ideas and broadening their global understanding through a sharing of culture, language, and religion. Furthermore, au pairs have been active contributing members of their American community where they live through their engagement in community and religious activities, giving of their time and talents to charitable organizations and volunteering their time to teach young children in schools about their native country.

As a proud alumni of one of AIFS's study abroad programs, I can personally attest to the unique educational opportunity living outside your native country provides a young student. For me, it was a life changing experience, helping expand my horizons and alter my way of thinking.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to add my voice in commending all those who have worked to develop and expand the au pair program over the past 25 years.

HONORING CALL FOR HELP, INCORPORATED FOR 40 YEARS OF SERVICE TO PEOPLE IN NEED WITHIN THEIR COMMUNITY

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. COSTELLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Call for Help, Inc. an organization that is celebrating 40 years of changing lives.

Call for Help, Inc. provides the only 24-hour suicide hotline in the Metro-East area of Southwestern Illinois. Call for Help, Inc., was chartered in 1970 and began as a suicide and crisis hotline, operating out of a basement. While this critical service is still very much a part of Call for Help's program offerings, they have expanded to meet other critical needs through the years.

Two residential programs have been added, one to serve individuals who are homeless and suffer from chronic mental illness. Participants in this program receive medication monitoring, counseling, life skills training and other services. The other residential program provides assistance to homeless young women who are either pregnant or have small children. These women receive support and skill development so they can achieve long-term independence. Training includes life skills, parenting, workplace readiness, GED and other subjects.

Call for Help, Inc. also provides assistance to victims of sexual assault and sexual abuse. Twenty-four-hour response to victims includes arriving on-site at the hospital or police station and help navigating the medical and legal systems.

Last year, Call for Help, Inc., provided critical assistance to over 25,000 individuals and, through the years, they have recorded countless, remarkable stories of success.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Board of Directors, administration and staff of Call for Help, Inc., for their 40 years of changing lives and to wish them continued success in the future.

RECOGNIZING THE DEDICATED SERVICE OF MAJOR BRIAN J. THOMPSON, UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the retirement of Major Brian J. Thompson, United States Marine Corps, after 20 years of faithful service to his Nation.

Major Thompson graduated from Dowling College in Long Island, New York in 1991 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Aeronautics and Management. He earned his commission as a second lieutenant through the Marine Corps Platoon Leaders Course in June 1991. Following his graduation from the Basic School in 1992, he reported to Naval Flight Training in Pensacola, Florida, earning his wings in March of 1993.

Following UH-1N replacement pilot training, he reported to the "Gunrunners" of Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron 269 (HMLA-269) in New River, North Carolina. While assigned to HMLA-269 he deployed with Marine Heavy Helicopter Squadron 464 aboard the USS Wasp, during which he participated in Operation Strong Resolve as the H-1 Schedule Writer. Major Thompson then completed two deployments with Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron 162, cruising aboard the USS Guam and the USS Saipan. During these deployments, he participated in Operations Joint Endeavor, Assured Response, Quick Response, and Balkan Calm/Silver Knight, while serving in a variety of billets, including: Flight Line Officer, Squadron Weapons and Tactics Officer, Future Operations Officer, and Operations Officer.

In March 1999, Major Thompson reported to Naval Air Station Pensacola to serve as a flight instructor. This tour saw him serve as the Assistant Operations Officer and Operations Officer of Helicopter Training Squadron 18.

In October 2001, Major Thompson was accepted into the Strike Transition Program. He reported to Naval Air Station Meridian, Mississippi for jet training, then to Naval Air Station Oceana, Virginia for F-18 replacement pilot training. In March 2004, he joined the "Checkerboards" of Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 312 at Marine Corps Air Station Beaufort, South Carolina, where he served as the S-4 Officer, Director of Safety and Standardization, and Executive Officer. Following this tour he reported to Marine Aircraft Group 42 in Atlanta, Georgia in October 2006 to serve as the group's Operations Officer.

In June 2008, Major Thompson became the Air Operations Officer for the 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit in Okinawa, Japan. In this role, he directed all flight operations both ashore and aboard three air-capable ships for three squadrons. In July 2009, he reported to Training Wing Six in Pensacola, Florida to serve as the Standardization and Training Officer. He also served as the Integrated Project Team Lead for the Undergraduate Military Flight Officer Program.

Major Thompson accumulated more than 3,800 flight hours during his career. His personal decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, and the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal. He has been married for 17 years to Monica Miller Thompson, with whom he has a 5-year-old son, William Joseph Thompson.

As a skilled naval aviator and leader of Marines, Major Thompson embodies the American virtues of service and sacrifice.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress, I am honored to congratulate Major Thompson on his retirement. My wife Vicki and I wish him and his family all the best for continued success.

CONGRATULATING THE CECIL C.
HUMPHREYS MOCK TRIAL TEAM

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the mock trial team from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law at the University of Memphis for winning the Thurgood Marshall Mock Trial Competition that took place March 9th–13th, 2011 in Houston, Texas. The team consisted of LaChina Algers, Angela Harris, Chandra Madison, Joseph McKinney, and their coaches Melanie Stovall Murry and Bridgett Stigger.

The National Black Law Students Association founded this national competition in 2002 to encourage future lawyers to further develop their proficiency in the courtroom. Hundreds of competitors compete regionally each year in the hopes of earning national recognition for their trial advocacy skills.

This year, through their hard work and commitment to their professional development, the team from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law took home the national title, defeating delegations from Harvard, DePaul, St. Mary's and Texas Wesleyan along the way. Their victory is a testament to the outstanding students that graduate each year from the University of Memphis to become successful professionals in cities all over the nation and the world.

Since it was founded in 1962, the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law has graduated over 4,500 students. Just this year, law graduates from the University of Memphis posted a 100 percent first-time passage rate on the Tennessee Bar Exam. As an alumnus of the School of Law at Memphis, I could not be prouder of the entire student body for their achievements and of the exceptional faculty dedicated to their success.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Thurgood Marshall Mock Trial National Champions from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law. I commend these students for dedicating many hours of study towards this competition. Their time spent in preparation in addition to their already rigorous professional law program is evident and represents the city of Memphis and the University of Memphis well.

A TRIBUTE TO MARVIN J. WALTER

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and memory of Marvin J. Walter of Ames, Iowa who passed away this past Wednesday after an eight year struggle with multiple myeloma.

Marvin was born on August 22, 1940 and raised on a farm near Watkins, Iowa. After his high school graduation Marvin went on to receive two degrees in Animal Science from Iowa State University. Shortly after receiving his second degree from ISU, Marv married his wife Janice in September of 1964. Since his days as a commodity broker on the floor of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Marv maintained both a state and national profile by involving himself in several organizations that are related to the livestock and meat industry.

At the local level, Marv served his community as Chairman of the Board of Ames National Corporation as well as serving on the First National Bank and Mary Greeley Medical Center boards for many years. Marv was also a proud Rotary member and president. In college, Marv was a proud member of Alpha Gamma Rho and the identity and friendships he established in his fraternity would last a lifetime. He would go on to be inducted to the National Alpha Gamma Rho Hall of Fame.

While his contributions to his city and state have resulted in awards for his distinguished service, Marv would be the first to tell you that his family is what he is proud of most. Marv is survived by two daughters, three grandsons, two step-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Speaker, Marvin Walter lived his life like a true Iowan by placing service and family above all else. It was truly an honor to count him as my friend and the friendship and counsel he has provided me over the years will be deeply missed. I offer his family my sincerest sympathies and best wishes in this difficult time. Thank you.

HONORING THE LIFE OF WILLIAM
J. GIANNONE OF MOUNTAINSIDE,
NEW JERSEY

HON. LEONARD LANCE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. LANCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart to announce the passing of William J. "B.J." Giannone III of Mountainside, New Jersey. B.J. was only 18 when he died suddenly following an athletic competition.

B.J. should be remembered for his outstanding academic achievements at Saint Peter's Preparatory High School in Jersey City. He was a commentator for the school football games, a co-founder of the Society of Comedic Appreciation and a member of the baseball and swimming teams. He was also active in Campus Ministry, the Yearbook Committee and Marauder's Nation.

With a love for community service, B.J. volunteered his time through his involvement with the Boy Scouts of America and Our Lady of Lourdes Church Youth Organization. And he left behind a strong and growing talent for songwriting.

A cherished son of Maureen and William Giannone and a beloved friend to many, B.J. Giannone will be missed.

I extend to the Giannone family my deepest sympathies and condolences.

HONORING THE STOWE CENTER OF HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT ON THE OCCASION OF THE 200TH
BIRTHDAY OF AUTHOR AND ABO-
LITIONIST HARRIET BEECHER
STOWE

HON. JOHN B. LARSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, June 3, 2011

Mr. LARSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, June 14th of the year two-thousand and eleven will mark the two-hundredth birthday of author and impassioned abolitionist Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Stowe, a teacher hailing from Litchfield, Connecticut, became a central figure during the fight to end slavery in America after writing her seminal work, Uncle Tom's Cabin, which was completed in 1852.

The book's heart wrenching depiction of life for African-Americans held in bondage captivated a nation and inspired the public will to end the reprehensible institution of slavery. This treasure of American literature based on factual events helped change the course of our Nation's history by exposing the horror of slavery to the larger population and became a corner-stone of the abolitionist movement and a "clarion call" for freedom.

Today, the legacy of Harriet Beecher Stowe is carried on by the Harriet Beecher Stowe Center in Hartford, Connecticut. There, the Stowe Center carries on her passion and uses her story to inspire future generations to pick up the torch of social justice and carry forth the movement towards equal opportunity and justice for all.

I want to acknowledge and congratulate the wonderful staff from the Harriet Beecher
