Mr. MCCARTHY of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Taft Union High School in my district which celebrated its 100th anniversary yesterday on September 18, 2011.

A STATEMENT BY RABBI ISRAEL ZOBERMAN

HON. E. SCOTT RIGELL

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 19, 2011

Mr. RIGELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to enter a statement into the RECORD on behalf of my constituent, Dr. Israel Zoberman. Dr. Zoberman is the Founding Rabbi of Congregation Beth Chaverim in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He is also the president of the Hampton Roads Board of Rabbis and Cantors. Dr. Zoberman asked me to enter the following remarks into the RECORD regarding the 10th Anniversary of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Dr. Zoberman's statement follows:

We are duty-bound to respond to the significant and related dedications of the Martin Luther King Jr. Monument in The Mall of our nation's capital, Flight 93 National Memorial in Shanksville, Pennsylvania, honoring 40 lost souls, and the Stone Memorial and Garden of 184 benches for the perished at the Pentagon involving American Airlines Flight 77, and that of the Memorial and Museum on the hallowed grounds of the World Trade Center with its majority of victims, 2,753, upon the 10th anniversary of the horrific strikes of 9/11. Terrorism, whether from within or without, cannot be tolerated.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. representing the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960's will now be lastingly visible in stone along with some of his writings—teachings forever etched in the heart and mind of a repentant and grateful nation. We pledge to remember both the pain and promise of that trying and triumphant era in American History.

The impressive monument is a statement of faith in what the martyred Nobel Peace Laureate means to a shared fractured past and, perhaps even more importantly, to our shared future as well. Dr. King's sacrifice of his very life, which he had envisioned, and all, including American Jews, who heroically participated with him, contributed to the eventual success of the monumental struggle to liberate America from its shackles to a demeaning past of inhumane slavery and of its aftermath of brutal violence and disgraceful discrimination. Dr. King's prophetic spirit of justice—planted, nourished and sustained by Israel's Biblical prophets—is ours as we continue his and our timeless journey to make America faithful to its most noble promise and premise that God's divinity and human dignity go hand in hand.

The uncommon courage and ingenuity under harrowing circumstances of United Airlines Flight 93 passengers, bringing down their hijacked plane, are fittingly honored and memorialized in a lonely Pennsylvania field, turned symbol of American inner strength in face of adversity and a spirit that cannot be vanquished. Converting American Airlines Flight 77 into a weapon against the Pentagon, which is entrusted with our national defense, brought death of innocent civilians and committed professionals all valiant heroes of a grateful nation.

The erection of the uniquely inspiring Memorial and Museum at the 10th anniversary of the ghastly strikes and its haunting images of 9/11 by Islamist extremists committed to disrupting and destroying the pluralistic and embracing American way of life and civilization itself without moral restraints, is a somber occasion for sacred recollection, reflection and resolution. We prayerfully recall the victims who were caught by utter surprise and shock, becoming martyred heroes, their agonizing families whose lives have been cruelly interrupted, the fortunate survivors who escaped the inferno but not the nightmares, the first respondents and recovery workers, some of whom paid with their lives or got severely sick. Etched in my memory of 9/11/2001 will be arriving in my synagogue following an early morning Neptune Festival Interfaith Prayer Breakfast at the Founders Inn in Virginia Beach. A phone call awaited me from the local media concerning the first hit at the twin towers, as I was watching in disbelief the second hit. I knew then and there that our world will never be the same.

Let us resolve not to allow brazen terrorism using loaded civilian planes as missiles to plunge into the packed multi-national World Trade Center, to topple our faith in what America proudly and rightly stands for, making her the world's greatest democracy and indispensable light to humanity. Mindful of living in a challenging volatile global community, not without opportunity, we remain vigilant in protection of our constitutional rights even as we secure our shaken and wounded nation from potential harm, while overcoming crippling divisiveness from within.

Continuing to stand up to evil, there is no other choice, may we yet turn pain into promise, violence into vision, fear into faith, vulnerability into virtue and blemishes into blessings.

I wrote the following poem in the wake of 9/11.

Mangled iron mingled with human bits of crushed hopes wedded to once a teeming

empire's cathedral brought down
by God's creatures too,
welding a monument to doomsday's promise
of hate's power.
Once again ashes blowing
in the wind of dust
an inferno called infinity
with no answer to the mystery of faith persisting to ignite smoldering embers of life.

May the divine gifts of Shalom's healing,
hope and harmony be bestowed upon us.
