

Luna later served on the Washington State Minority and Justice Commission, an agency charged with determining if racial or ethnic bias exists in the courts of the State of Washington. He was a Eucharistic minister at Immaculate Conception Church and also was active with Saint Matthew's Church.

Throughout his life, Doug Luna was deeply involved in the Native American and Asian communities—in addition to his Tlingit heritage, Doug also shared Filipino heritage. He was a founding member of the Asian American Bar Association, and volunteered with the Seattle Indian Center, the Interlm Community Development Association, the International District Housing Alliance, and the Filipino American National Historical Society. Doug was the volunteer every organization dreams of: he was smart, dedicated, absolutely reliable, and a pleasure to be with.

Doug Luna championed the poor and the underrepresented throughout his life. His efforts to better his community were limitless, and he brought to his work a gentle spirit that touched hundreds of lives. Doug will be long remembered for his kindness, his generosity, and his unwavering integrity. He was a proud and loving father to his daughter, Mercedes, and I join her and so many others in mourning the loss of this extraordinary friend. It was a privilege to know Doug Luna.

TRIBUTE TO THE SUCCESS OF THE
RIALTO HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS
BASKETBALL TEAM

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Lady Knights, the Rialto High School girls basketball team, and congratulate them for winning the CIF—Southern Section Division 2AA title game.

The Lady Knights came back from behind in the final minutes of the championship game to beat Ventura Buena 55 to 53 at the buzzer, clinching the first section title in the school's history. After a season of hard work and determination, Rialto trailed by three points with just over two minutes to go in the game.

Point guard, Summer Webb, tied the game with a three-pointer. Following the play, Janae Sharpe stole the ball, passing to Webb for an assist that pushed the Lady Knights two points ahead. Ventura Buena answered with two free throws, tying the championship game. Sharpe converted another steal to a lay-up but Buena Ventura tied the game again with nineteen seconds remaining.

This game was the Lady Knights first section appearance in the history of the Rialto girls' basketball program and it came down to the last tenth of a second. With seventeen seconds remaining on the clock, Coach Michael Anderson designed a play to give Sharpe the final shot of the game. Hundreds of fans looked on from the stands of the Anaheim Convention Center. Sharpe received the inbounds pass.

Crossing half court with composure, she let nine seconds tick off the game clock. Sharpe paused again at the three-point line, only three seconds remained. She drove into the lane, released a jumper, and scored the game-winning shot as the buzzer sounded. The blue-clad Rialto fans celebrated in an uproar as the players on the floor rushed into a dog-pile. The Lady Knights secured the championship in their first section final appearance.

I would like to extend my heart-felt congratulations to Head Coach Michael Anderson and his coaching team, Bryant Young, Toneisha Knox, Erika Matkins and Juanita Perez. I would also like to acknowledge the families, fans, and teachers in the greater Rialto community for their support. Of course, I want to congratulate the girls on the Rialto High School basketball team: Janae Sharpe, Bianca Brown, Brittani Walker, Channe Armstrong, Summer Ramsey, Summer Webb, Cynthia Mora, Montoya Washington, Ma' Kaela Buhl, Danae "Mary" Williams, Jasmin Samano. I wish you all the best of luck in the Southern California Regional playoffs.

COMMEMORATING THE LIFE OF MR. ROBERT C. HOWELL

HON. DAVID SCOTT

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise today to commemorate the life and service of one of my constituents, Mr. Robert C. Howell. A native Georgian, Mr. Howell passed away at the age of 93 on Tuesday March 8th, 2011. He was an honorable man, devoted to his country and his community.

Mr. Howell served our nation in the United States Army during World War II as an infantryman and an engineer. One of his most dangerous duties was to remove undetonated land mines to protect his fellow soldiers. His dedication to service did not end with his retirement from the armed forces. He continued to support his fellow servicemen and veterans by actively participating in Veterans of Foreign Wars and his local American Legion post. Each time a veteran would pass in his community, Mr. Howell would attend their funerals to honor their service and express his gratitude. He himself was honored by the Douglas County Board of Commissioners with an engraved brick in the Pathway of Service Walkway at the Douglas County Courthouse.

Mr. Robert Howell was devoted to the Lord. During his lifetime he was a member of the New Georgia Baptist Church, the First Presbyterian Church and the Lithia Springs First Baptist Church. A member of the Baptist faith, he attended a Men's Bible Study, served at a deacon and taught Sunday School.

Mr. Howell was preceded in death by his first wife, Henrietta Howell; his second wife, Martha McMichen Howell; stepdaughter, June Roland; stepson, Tony Pilgrim; and sister-in-law, Marie Howell. My deepest sympathies lie with the surviving members of this family: his sister and brother-in-law, Virgie and Ervin Chandler; his brother, Herman Howell; and his stepdaughters, sons-in-law, stepsons, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Mr. Speaker, my fellow colleagues, I hope you will join me in honoring Mr. Robert C. Howell for his life of service to Georgia and to this country.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. TOM MARINO

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. MARINO. Mr. Speaker, on March 9, I was unexpectedly detained and missed rollcall vote No. 166. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

MIKE COLLINS—AT BEST

HON. JOHN B. LARSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. LARSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, the following entry is a poem that was given at the Irish Embassy by the Democratic Caucus' Poet Laureate the Honorable BILL PASCRELL. As we approach the "Day", I think it only fitting to submit Mr. PASCRELL's work for the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—in which he honors Ambassador Michael Collins and the Nation of Ireland.

MIKE COLLINS—AT BEST

(By the Honorable Bill Pascrell, Jr.)

Raising glasses to a white sky,
Pausing . . . to look at twinkling eyes,
In blue skies hemorrhaging avocado dreams of a homeland of Irish monks who saved Ireland—

as Cahill wrote,
indeed,
saved the world . . .

Raising glasses many times, with many chimes and voices clear
And monks as advocates of avocados
And prose to beat for Gaelic friends good cheer

And
Have no fear . . .
Long live Ireland

HONORING THE LIFE OF CATO
WALKER III

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Memphian, saxophonist, manager and promoter Cato Walker III. Mr. Walker has been on the music scene in Memphis for many decades and was a huge proponent in the revitalization of Memphis's Beale Street. He also served as the longtime vice president of development at Performa Entertainment Real Estate.

Cato Walker III was a beloved member of the Memphis music community. Mr. Walker came from a very musically talented and well-known family, and he and his family have contributed so much to the musical community. His father, Cato Walker, Jr. was B.B. King's original road manager in the 1950s while his beloved mother, Polly Walker, confirmed all show bookings and travel arrangements. Cato Walker III, continuing his family's legacy with B.B. King, became the band leader and road manager during the late 1970s. He also later worked with Lou Rawls, The Barkays and J. Blackfoot.

Mr. Walker has influenced future musicians through his work by teaching recording at the Kansas Vocational Technical Center and as an adjunct professor at Memphis State University. Through running his own record label, Strick 9, he helped advance the musical careers of many contemporary Memphis musicians, including Academy Award winning group Three 6 Mafia.

Cato Walker has touched the lives of many and influenced a great variety of musicians from the 1970s to today. Mr. Walker will be remembered forever in the heart of not just his family and friends, but also Memphians and musicians everywhere. He is survived by his wife, VanEsta Walker, two sons, Tondtrict Dixon, and Dietrich Dixon, stepson, Ahmed Jenkins, stepdaughter, Angela Cunningham, and sisters, Lora Walker, Thelma Brim and Joanna Brown. His was a life well lived.

A TRIBUTE TO DAVID RONALD REED, SR.: AN AMERICAN ORIGINAL

HON. BOBBY L. RUSH

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 10, 2011

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart to acknowledge the loss of a gifted man who loved his country, his family, and his fellow man and who, throughout his life, moved seamlessly through diverse cultural and political communities all with a focus on making our country a better place to live. I'm speaking of my dear friend and former political colleague, David Ronald Reed, Sr., whose life on Earth ended on March 4, 2011. David's legacy, however, lives on through his dear wife, Judith Reed, and the family and friends he leaves behind throughout our nation. David spent the early part of his life in Chicago and the political footprint he left in our city and state still resonates in the lives of thousands of grateful Chicagoans and others, throughout our state, whose lives he touched during an important time in the rise of African-Americans and other progressive communities in the State of Illinois.

I first got to know David by observing his friendship with my brother, Fred. Aside from their friendship and their competitive spirits, I watched this brilliant man look at problems and see opportunities. David's quick mind and determination to succeed led him to step way beyond the cultural and political boundaries that, in the 1960s, so often defined the life experience of middle-class African-Americans.

David was born in Chicago, Illinois, on February 20, 1941. He was educated in the Chicago Public Schools where he attended Willard Elementary School and DuSable High School. While a student at DuSable, David honed his skills as an accomplished basketball player. Upon graduation from DuSable in 1959, his skills on the basketball court allowed him to gain a full basketball scholarship to Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. While at Drake, David became a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. He graduated from Drake University in 1964 with a Bachelors of Science degree in Political Science.

David returned to Chicago where all that he had learned—in the classroom and on the basketball courts—would serve him well in the rough and tumble world of Chicago politics. After graduating from college, David worked for People's Gas Light & Coke Company for almost two years until his entry into politics in 1966.

While for the better part of his life David was a Democrat, he first came to prominence on the national stage as a young, 25-year-old Republican. Like many African-American youth in the 1960s, David and a talented group of his friends chafed at some of the old guard, "machine" politics of Illinois' Democratic Party. In response, David and some of his friends formed a political group, the "New Breed Committee," that represented forward thinking African-American youth. Only months after they were formed, their brilliance and boldness of spirit captured the hearts and minds of a whole new generation of young African-American political activists, including me.

In 1966, in what was then a stunning political move that inspired me and so many other young people who believed in America's political process, 25-year-old David Reed—who, as a community activist, was admired in Chicago's black community for his brilliance, his organizing skills, his articulate speech, and his comfort in speaking truth to power—responded to a call from, then, candidate for the U.S. Senate, Charles Percy, to switch from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party! It was a strategically inspired move aimed at defeating the intransigent political forces of the long-time incumbent Congressman William L. Dawson and other factions of the Democratic machine. Shortly after David filed as a "New Breed" Democratic challenger to Dawson, Percy's senate campaign reached out to David and his supporters. Illinois' statewide Republican Party recognized David's passion and the opportunity to help elevate a younger generation of African-Americans while also boosting Republican Party fortunes—in Illinois and across the nation. Percy and leaders of his political organization appealed to David and his forces and told him he'd have a better opportunity to unseat Dawson if he joined the Republican ticket. David and his supporters agreed and they folded the "New Breed Committee" into the Republican Party's political apparatus. And the result was electric!

While David's candidacy ultimately fell short, David was part of a broader trend among African-American voters, in 1966, that led to some of the largest gains by the national Republican Party among black voters in a generation. Not only did Percy win his first campaign for the U.S. Senate that year, but 1966 was the year the U.S. Senate gained its first African-American Senator in a generation. Edward Brooke, from Massachusetts, became the first African-American to be elected to the Senate since reconstruction. Although David lost his election contest, Percy and others in Illinois' Republican Party recognized his talent. Only weeks after the election, David became one of the first, top leadership appointments by the Republican President of the Cook County Board, Richard V. Ogilvie.

David's leadership exploits brought national pride and acclaim to millions of African-Americans and others of goodwill throughout our nation. His accomplishments were profiled in the December 22, 1966 edition of Jet magazine who described him this way, "David R. Reed, 25, the "New Breed" Republican who challenged Congressman William L. Dawson on Chicago's South Side was one of the first five people Richard V. Ogilvie, newly elected President of the Cook County Board, appointed to his administrative team. Reed, a native Chicagoan and former Drake University basketball star, was named an administrative assistant in the President's office. . . The members of the New Breed are mostly young, militant Negroes who are college graduates and many are Vietnam Veterans." From 1967 to 1971, David worked as a chief administrative aide to Ogilvie during his tenure as President of the Cook County Board and, later, during his statewide run for Illinois Governor.

In the 1970s, David returned to the Democratic Party and was active, for years, in progressive grassroots politics. David went on to play a leading role in helping to elect Chicago's first African-American Mayor, Harold Washington, in 1983. After the Mayor's death in 1987, David became chair of the Harold Washington Party where, for years, he worked tirelessly to help other African-American candidates reach their political dreams.

By the mid-1970s, David left government and launched a string of successful entrepreneurial pursuits—it was a level of work and success that would span four decades. Most of those businesses were based in Chicago and focused on various industries including a restaurant (Seafood Safari), a skating rink (Rolla World), a security agency (Best Security) and other business interests in real estate and construction. Over the years, David's consulting practice grew and he served several leading clients and companies throughout metro Atlanta, where he spent the latter part of his life.

With all that David meant to Chicago, the state of Illinois, our nation, and especially my wife, Carolyn, and I, he was so much more. He and his adoring wife, Judith, were life-long friends and adoring life partners. David and his wife, who was his high school sweetheart, led a life of passion, joy, service, and style that set an example for our nation. Over the years that I got to know him in Chicago, David remained a very dear friend. The two of us, and our wives, shared many joyous moments, and a few sorrows, along the path of life we walked together. I can truly say that the love and devotion David and Judy shared is a classic American love story that, in and of itself, is worthy of acclaim.

David was a tremendous inspiration to me, not only because of his brilliance and political skills but because of the way he carried himself. He was comfortable speaking truth to power but he did it with dignity, class, and in a way that made me, and generations of African-American men and women like me, so very, very proud.

In addition to his wife, Judy, David's legacy endures through their two children, Karren Grant who lives in Atlanta, Georgia, and David Reed, Jr., who currently resides in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of a grateful city, state and nation, it is my privilege to enter into our nation's permanent record the inspired life story of my friend, David Ronald Reed, Sr., a man whose contributions to our nation are worthy of recognition. May his soul rest in peace. And, as I close, I want Judy and his children to know that they will always have the love and support of Carolyn and me as well as a large and loving extended family in Chicago, and the State of Illinois, whose lives they so magnificently touched. May God bless all of you.
