

defense budget, rather "Congress must reconsider the military's mission and what activities it should undertake." In this assessment by Mr. Factor, and supported by myself, there is no indication that American military power be restricted in missions concerning American security. Rather, that auxiliary duties performed by the military (e.g., humanitarian missions, peacekeeping, nation building and disaster relief) ought to be separated from the core mission of the military; to provide for the common defense of our great Nation.

Further, by separating and focusing these mission directives, we will produce a Department of Defense budget that clearly defines where our money is being spent. This will allow for a thorough and honest review of the allocation of such dollars and produce the foundation upon which a responsible debate can be held in this chamber on an issue of our generation, spending and debt.

Therefore all options must be on the table as we, the 112th Congress, have committed ourselves to deficit reduction. For our future, and for the future of our children and grandchildren, it is imperative that we undertake this difficult task in the short term to ensure our Nation's viability for the long term.

IN HONOR OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE SLOVENIAN WORKMEN'S HOME

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of the Slovenian Workmen's Home, an establishment that has been very dear to the Cleveland community for well over 85 years.

The idea of this home first came about on November 10, 1916. The original purpose of the home was to accommodate the various fraternal, cultural, social, and civic activities in which more than a dozen Slovenian groups participated. The building was finally completed in 1926 and consisted of an auditorium, recreation hall, library, business offices, and meeting rooms. As the years passed, the establishment began to expand to include a school in 1931, a gymnastic group in 1932 and a junior chorus in 1934; A year after that a bar was added and by 1939 the building had eight bowling alleys.

When the 1940s arrived, the use of the 'Home' changed due to World War II. It opened its doors to the Red Cross, war bond drives and any other program that assisted America's war effort. By the time 1945 came around, 'Home' changed its charter from a corporation to a non-profit organization.

The Slovenian Workman's Home has always been a welcoming location for workers' unions, at one point providing roof and shelter to any of the 23 unions that met on the premises.

As the years passed, the Slovenian Workmen's Home began to be bought out and other establishments began to move in. However, by the 1990s, efforts were underway to recover and restore the remaining area of the original home.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please join in recognition of this phenomenal establishment. It has been a consistent part of the fabric of the Cleveland community for many years, and many years to come.

INTRODUCING THE POST 9/11 GI
BILL PAYMENT RESTORATION ACT

HON. SUSAN A. DAVIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mrs. DAVIS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Post 9/11 GI Bill Payment Restoration Act.

At the end of the 111th Congress, the Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Improvements Act of 2010 (P.L. 111-377) made changes to the Post 9/11 GI Bill program.

Most of these changes were positive; however, provisions were included to eliminate certain living stipend "interval payments" for veterans using their education benefits.

These interval payments cover periods between academic terms, such as the winter holiday break, that do not exceed eight weeks. They also cover periods when a student transfers between educational institutions if the period between the consecutive terms does not exceed 30 days.

Interval payments also apply if the school is temporarily closed under an established policy based on an Executive Order of the President or due to an emergency situation.

Stopping the payments will put strain on veterans trying to obtain an education.

The Post 9/11 GI Bill Payment Restoration Act would reinstate these interval payments before the benefit cut becomes effective on August 1, 2011 and help veterans and service members in school.

This preemptive action would help veterans continue to receive the living stipends they need while attending school.

We must strongly support those who have served as they attend college. Our service members earned and deserve their educational benefits. We have a responsibility to keep these benefits worthy of their dedication and sacrifices to the nation.

I urge passage of the Post 9/11 GI Bill Payment Restoration Act.

IN HONOR OF 1ST LIEUTENANT
ROYAL A. STRATTON

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of World War II rescue pilot, 1st Lieutenant Royal A. Stratton, who died on May 29, 1945, after being mortally wounded while saving 9 crewmembers from a downed B-29. Royal hailed from Ellwood City, Pennsylvania. His love of flying led to his enlistment in the Army Air Corps where he excelled to become one of only a few pilots to wear both Army and Navy wings.

Royal joined the 4th Emergency Rescue Squadron and with his crew of six, would fly off of Iwo Jima and police flight paths searching for B-29 bombers in jeopardy. On the 29th of May, 1945, Royal spotted the crew from a downed B-29 from the 444th Bomb Group, 676th Squadron stationed at Tinian. After landing and taking on the survivors, tragedy struck during take off when a swell broke over Royal's PBV Catalina and tore one propeller off, killing him. The entire contingent of servicemen on Royal's plane that day survived the incident and were picked up by the Lifeguard Submarine, USS Tigrone. On May 30, 1945, Royal A. Stratton was commissioned to the sea. By the end of the war, the 4th Emergency Rescue Squadron had amassed over 650 rescues and Royal Stratton was posthumously awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honoring Royal A. Stratton for his selflessness and valor, for putting others before himself in his service of saving the lives of his fellow servicemen.

HONORING MS. EUBIE ENRIGHT

HON. FREDERICA S. WILSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Ms. WILSON of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Ms. Eubie Enright, a beloved matriarch of the 17th Congressional District, who is celebrating 104 years of life.

Ms. Enright was born to sharecroppers in Metter, Georgia. It was here that she experienced back-breaking work as she planted and raised many crops under the Georgia sun. A young Ms. Enright exuded a tenacity that would later serve her well.

South Florida became home to Ms. Enright more than 50 years ago, when she migrated to Miami with her family. Living and thriving during the civil rights movement, she held several jobs, including housekeeping and cooking in private homes. She said, "I don't care what you have to do, you have to work". Frankly, Ms. Enright understands the investment that must be made for your family and for your community.

Eubie Enright has been a servant of the Lord all of her life. From the time she arrived in Miami she was a Baptist member of a church in Overtown, where she loyally served as an usher for 20 years. In 1960, Ms. Enright became a member of New Providence Missionary Baptist Church, where she joined the choir. She was a choir member for many decades.

We honor Eubie Enright for a legacy of service and inspiration. She credits her Lord and Savior for keeping her well during these last 104 years. Her life is a testimony to each of us. I joyfully celebrate with Ms. Eubie Enright as she continues a purposeful life of love.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND FURTHER ADDITIONAL CON-TINUING APPROPRIATIONS ACT,
2011

SPEECH OF

HON. CLIFF STEARNS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 7, 2011

Mr. STEARNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 1363 because it provides funding for the Department of Defense for the remainder of the current fiscal year and cuts an additional $12 billion in discretionary spending. This bill is just one step in significantly reducing spending and reining in our historic deficits. Unfortunately, President Obama and Senator REID have not made a similar commitment to get our fiscal house in order.

We must remember that the reason we are in this situation in the first place is that the previous Democrat majority never got around to passing a budget for fiscal year 2011. Let's remember that Democrats controlled the House, the Senate and the White House, yet they shirked their duty by not even presenting a budget plan, leaving mountains of debt for others to deal with.

I urge my colleagues to support this important troop funding legislation, and let's continue down the road of fiscal responsibility.

HONORING SAWYER A. HANWAY

yer has contributed to his community through his Eagle Scout project.

RECOGNIZING THE WORK OF MS.
SHARI B. KAPLAN FOR HER EX-TRAORDINARY EFFORTS IN ABUSE TREATMENT FOR CHIL-DREN AND ADULTS

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Ms. Shari B. Kaplan for her extraordinary efforts in abuse treatment for children and adults. She has worked tirelessly through her "Can't Tell Foundation" to give hope to victims of domestic and sexual abuse and children who are plagued by bullying. Her foundation has been a pioneer in treatment for victims and relies on several methods to allow victims to cope. Such practices include self-defense, music and movement, Qi Gong and yoga, nutrition, mentoring, improvisational work, meditation, individual therapy, family therapy, group therapy and support.

Ms. Kaplan herself was a victim of bullying and has experienced the personal pain of abuse with her closest family. She was in a horrific bike crash when she was young that left her with physical injuries that ultimately lead to bullying when she was in school. Additionally, her children were victims of abuse at the hands of her nanny's 13-year-old son. Using the wisdom she gained from her own pain and experience in helping her children cope, she went on to help others deal with their pain and create prevention policies against abuse in all its forms. Her more recent goal is to raise 6.5 million dollars to help build a treatment facility in Boca Raton, Florida.

Abuse and bullying has become an epidemic in this country. Suicide is the second major cause of death in teens and young adults ages 13–24. In addition, government statistics show that 32 percent of 12- to 18-year-olds say they have been bullied.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to recognize and stand with a woman who has decided to stand up against abuse and bullying. Ms. Shari B. Kaplan has truly dedicated herself to this important cause and I wish to give her my full support.

HONORING JAMES AND JEAN CANTRELL

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor James and Jean Cantrell, a couple who have dedicated themselves to their community and each other. The Cantrells were married in Lagrange, Georgia on April 8, 1951, and on Friday, April 8th, 2011 they will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Cantrell is the son of the late Elonzo and Bessie Cantrell. Mrs. Cantrell is the daughter of the late Douglas and Jewel Wright. They have four children, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. What a wonderful example of family values they represent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantrell have proven themselves to be dedicated community servants. Both have been deeply involved in positive civic and social activities over the years. Mr. Cantrell served his country faithfully in the United States Army. Mrs. Cantrell started a movement in the 1960's that was called Housewives for Fair Prices. This movement boycotted stores across Georgia that charged exorbitant prices for milk, resulting in lower costs for families.

The Cantrell's have been active in Georgia politics for almost half a century. Mr. Cantrell served as Third Congressional District Chairman for the Democratic Party of Georgia while Jimmy Carter was President. Mrs. Cantrell served as the chairman of the Muscogee County Democratic Committee and the first woman to run for Mayor of Columbus, Georgia.

However, their pursuits of public service and causes have been not just for themselves, but notably for others. When the Governor of Georgia decided to close the Warm Springs Hospital which was the Georgia rehabilitation site and home for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, both Cantrells led a petition drive to stop this action. As a result, the Governor changed his mind and the hospital remained open. They started the first St. Jude Children's radiothon in Columbus, Georgia and for 25 years it has been a stellar event, helping to raise millions of dollars for children with cancer.

Moreover, through all of their family and community involvement, they have managed to build and grow a successful business called Action Buildings and Truck Styles. For over 32 years it has been one of the largest outdoor building manufacturing companies in Georgia and Alabama, with a manufacturing plant and 10 retail store locations. This is truly a family business and over the last few years, their four sons and other family have been involved in this enterprise.

Throughout their lives, James and Jean Cantrell have been devoted Christians, attending Temple Baptist Church for many years. Their kindness and generosity exemplify their faith and their lives are truly God's love in action.

Mr. Speaker, I cannot think of another couple who have given so much of themselves to so many than James and Jean Cantrell. I cherish their friendship and support, without which, my own career in public service may never have begun nor survived. Therefore, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, I am proud to salute them for their dedication to each other, their family, their church, and their community. We are all blessed that they have touched and enriched us all so fully. May God continue to bless them, as they have blessed us, in the weeks, months and years to come.
