ENSURING TRAVELING PUBLIC’S SAFETY

(Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas. Members fly a lot, Mr. Speaker, and so I am delighted to know that we have moved on saving and coming together around the FAA extension.

Just a few weeks ago, I gathered at the airport that I represent, Houston Intercontinental Airport, to listen to the workers and those who secure our Nation’s airports. From flight attendants to flight pilots or airline pilots, to machinists, to friends who were supporting them, the seafarers and communication workers, and an array of workers who work every day led by leadership from the AFL-CIO, those who work at the airport, city officials were all saying: I cannot believe that you would allow $90 million to go awry and construction on airports around America to be unutilized.

It is time that we move forward with the FAA authorization. It is also time to appreciate collective bargaining, which is an important element of this, and to recognize and respect the various needs of the FAA.

I still believe there should be mandatory two air traffic controllers at every airport and mandatory time of rest. We need to ensure the traveling public’s safety on the Nation’s airlines. It is about time, and I congratulate this House for moving forward on the FAA authorization.

CONGRATULATING KEYSTONE LITTLE LEAGUE

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, on August 14, Keystone Little League from Clinton County, Pennsylvania, won the Little League Mid-Atlantic Region title. This win secured them a place in the Little League World Series Tournament.

A special group of young men made up the Keystone team. It wasn't just a talented Pennsylvania team making it to the World Series, or the fact that they were the first Clinton County team to make the World Series since 1949, but that for weeks these boys were perhaps the biggest story in the world of sports.

While some exceptional teams often hitch their success to one or two early developing kids, it was Keystone's teamwork, sportsmanship, and character that served to rally the entire State around them, creating record-breaking crowds as we watched their historic run for the world championship.

This team, more than any other, held their own against national competition, winning three of five games during the tournament.

In the end, Keystone left this season with something more than a regional title; they left with a legacy that will be remembered generations from now. I want to congratulate the whole team, the coaches, and the dedicated parents who helped make this season one for the record books.

Congratulations, Keystone.

TOURNAMENT SUMMARY

GAME 1: LOSS

Loss: 1-0 loss to Kentucky's North Oldham Little League (Great Lakes Region Champions)

"Keystone Little League, the 2011 Mid-Atlantic Champion, drew an all-time record crowd at the Little League World Series. An estimated 41,000+ fans visited Howard J. Lamade Stadium Friday evening for the 8 p.m. game. The game was originally scheduled for Volunteer Stadium, but was moved in advance to Lamade Stadium based on attendance estimates."

GAME 2: WIN

Victory: 2-0 victory over Cumberland Little League, R.I. (Northeast Region Champions)

"That's a classy team. I really want them to win it."

GAME 3: WIN

10-0 victory over Lafayette All-Stars, La. (Southwest Region Champions)

"Pitchers Landon Breon and Brandon Miller teamed up to throw the first no-hitter of the 2011 Little League Baseball World Series Monday night, as the hometown favorites representing the Mid-Atlantic region mercy ruled a potent Southwest team, 10-0, in four innings to continue their run to a title.

GAME 4: WIN

7-5 victory over Warner Robbins, Ga. (Southeast Region Champions)

Tuesday night, after finding themselves in a precarious position, giving up three runs in the top of the first, the Mid-Atlantic regional champs rode a deafening crowd of more than 32,000 to a comeback win, plating six runs in the bottom half of the frame to procure a lead they would never relinquish en route to a 7-5 victory over Warner Robbins, Ga. . . .

Garbrick, on the other hand, felt that the boisterous crowd fueled his team's confidence—especially his de facto closer, Tyler McCloskey. With the Southeast Region champs trying to mount a late rally, he shut the door yet again, hurling only fastballs in 1.1 innings of one-hit ball. "I'm not nervous anymore," said the 5-foot-2, 92-pound McCloskey. "I've done this about a million times now."

Garbrick said his team is finally starting to realize what they've accomplished. On Thursday night, his fearless faction of hometown heroes will have a chance to take it one step further as they play in the United States Semifinal.

2-0 loss to Ocean View Little League from Huntington Beach, Calif. (West Region Champions)

It was a dream run from a dream team of locals with a lot of talent and even more heart, but it wasn't to be in 2011, as the Mid-Atlantic champs from nearby Keystone Little League raised their caps to a resounding cheer after falling to the West All-Stars, 2-0, in Thursday night's elimination contest at Howard J. Lamade Stadium.

SEX TRAFFICKING IN AMERICA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 5, 2011, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. POE) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, in the United States, throughout this entire land, there are 3,500 shelters—3,500 shelters—and these shelters are animal shelters. According to the Humane Society, there are at least 3,500 animal shelters in our Nation rescuing those animals, primarily dogs and cats, and making sure that they have some safety.

I have dalmatians. In fact, one of my dalmatians was from a shelter, Dalmatian Rescue in Dallas, Texas, is where I got it. Three thousand five hundred. Bear that number in mind, Mr. Speaker, because in the same United States of America there are five shelters—five—for minor sex trafficked victims in this country. Fifty beds in the whole Nation is what I understand that there are to take care of minors, primarily young girls who are trafficked throughout the United States for sexual pleasure.

Maybe we have gotten our priorities out of sync. You know, sex trafficking is nothing more than modern day slavery, and it is an epidemic in some parts of the world, and it even is coming to the United States. It's that crime to me that no one wants to talk about.

I spent a lot of time at the courthouse in Houston, Texas, as a prosecutor in felony court, as a criminal court judge for 22 years, and I heard a lot of cases. But this case of someone kidnapping a minor child and transporting them across the United States for sex slavery is one of those cases that is difficult to understand why it occurs in this Nation. And many people, many people in the academic areas and others don't want to admit that takes place in this Nation, but human trafficking does take place, whether it's with minors or whether it's with adults, and primarily, Mr. Speaker, it's with women.

I have traveled to the Eastern European nations as a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee and have discussed with people in the Ukraine, Romania, Bulgaria, the problem those nations have when their young women
