

This vote is on the rule, which provides for an open, transparent process where the ideas and policies will rise and fall on the basis of their merit, not on their party affiliations. This is what the American people expect of their elected officials. It's an expectation that's being fulfilled by this rule, and I encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting its passage.

I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2012

THE SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. WEBSTER). Pursuant to House Resolution 320 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 2219.

□ 1028

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2219) making appropriations for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2012, and for other purposes, with Mr. BASS of New Hampshire (Acting Chair) in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The Acting CHAIR. When the Committee of the Whole rose on Thursday, July 7, 2011, the bill had been read through page 161, line 12.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. KUCINICH

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Chairman, I have an amendment at the desk.

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will report the amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

At the end of the bill (before the short title) insert the following new section:

"SEC. ____ None of the funds in this Act may be used for military operations in or against Libya except under a declaration of war against Libya pursuant to clause 11 in section 8 of article I of the Constitution."

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman from Ohio is recognized for 5 minutes.

□ 1030

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Chairman, members of the committee, before the House completes work on this important bill, I think that it is imperative that the House is provided with one more opportunity to clarify its position with respect to the Constitution and our power under article I, section 8, clause 11 of the Constitution, which reads as follows, that Congress has the power to declare war.

This amendment says none of the funds in this act may be used for military operations in or against Libya except under a declaration of war against Libya pursuant to clause 11 in section 8 of article I of the Constitution.

So what this amendment does is it recognizes Congress' power to appropriate and links it, in this case, to Congress' ability to declare war and enables this House to definitively—definitively—make a statement that it is our prerogative, our Constitutional right, to determine whether or not this Nation goes to war, and we are not going to see any war funded absent a declaration of war by this Congress.

It is imperative that we act, because by September, this administration will have spent $1 billion on the war without Congress having any say in that whatsoever. We will have gone to a war without any ability of Congress to have a voice.

Now, to its credit, this House has taken up numerous proposals relative to the war in Libya that have sought to limit the sphere of conduct of hostilities against Libya—no ground troops and no money to rebels. This amendment, however, gives the House one last opportunity within this bill to speak very clearly about article I, section 8, clause 11 and to do it in the context of an appropriations bill which says that we will not permit any funds to be spent unless this Congress moves forward with a declaration of war.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the Kucinich amendment.

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman from Washington is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DICKS. First of all, the President has made a very strong case for our military action in Libya. I think, as Commander in Chief, he has the authority. We had a U.N. resolution, the NATO allies were involved and so was the Arab League.

There is another option. The other option is the War Powers Act. And I hope at some point the President will ask for congressional support of his initiative in Libya.

The idea that we're going to pull out of this unilaterally and undermine the NATO alliance I think is a terrible mistake. Although I have the greatest respect for the gentleman from Ohio, I'm strongly opposed to his amendment.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

The Acting CHAIR. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I will first admit that this gentleman introducing this amendment, if nothing else, is certainly persistent. The only problem is, after 2 lengthy days, 10 and 11 hours each day, with amendment after amendment being presented, we have just been given this amendment in the last 5 minutes. We would have liked to have had a little more time to really analyze it. But a quick analysis of this amendment tells me that it is very similar to all of the other Libyan amendments that we have defeated in the last 2 days.

For example, I believe that this amendment would preclude any search-and-rescue mission on the part of Americans to save Americans. I'm satisfied it would prevent us from providing any intelligence surveillance, or reconnaissance. I'm satisfied that it would not permit us to do any aerial refueling of our coalition or NATO partners. I'm satisfied that the amendment would prohibit us from even being involved while operational plans are being developed that might have an effect on the support role that the United States plays.

So, here we go again. We've already defeated this issue close to a dozen times in the last 2 days. So I just suggest that we move on and defeat this amendment.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. KUCINICH).

The question was taken; and the Acting Chair announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio will be postponed.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, proceedings will now resume on those amendments printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on which further proceedings were postponed, in the following order:

The first amendment by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

The second amendment by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

The third amendment by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

Amendment No. 77 by Mr. HUELSKAMP of Kansas.

An amendment by Mr. POLIS of Colorado.

An amendment by Mr. KUCINICH of Ohio.

The Chair will reduce to 2 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first vote in this series.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. FLAKE

The Acting CHAIR. The unfinished business is the demand for a recorded vote on the first amendment offered by the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. FLAKE) on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the noes prevailed by voice vote.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

Stated for:

Mr. WHITFIELD. Mr. Chair, on rollcall No.

“aye.”

(By unanimous consent, Mr. HOYER was allowed to speak out of order.)

CONGRATULATING REPRESENTATIVE JOHN
DINGELL ON HIS 85TH BIRTHDAY

Mr. HOYER. Ladies and gentlemen, this is a wonderful day of celebration.
Today we celebrate the 85th birthday of an extraordinary American, an American who has served over five-eighths of his life in this House, an American whose father served before him, an American who has been sent to the Congress after Congress after Congress after Congress, a Member who has made an extraordinary contribution to the legislative history of this Congress and to the welfare of this country. JOHN DINGELL today is 85 years of age.

Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to now yield to somebody who has not served with him for 85 years, but has served with him for a very significant time on the extraordinarily important Energy and Commerce Committee, my friend from Texas (Mr. BARTON).

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Thank you,
Congressman HOYER.

It has been my pleasure to serve for 26 years on the Energy and Commerce Committee with the distinguished gentleman who is having his 85th birthday.

What some of our newer Members may not know is what a gentleman Chairman DINGELL is. And the uniqueness of his character is he will impart his wisdom to those of us in the opposition party and encourage us to then go out and use it against him, knowing that he is smart enough, tough enough, and effective enough to beat us at our own game. He is truly a paragon of this Congress, and will go down, in my estimation, in history as one of the top 10 Congressmen or -women of all time.

I want to extend him my warmest 85th birthday wishes and get him to guarantee that as long as he is able he will serve in this body, because he is truly a treasure for both sides of the aisle.

Mr. HOYER. Those of you who are new to this body, what Mr. BARTON has just said, if you want an example of a truly great legislator, a legislator who has year after year sat down with both sides of the aisle, with all the different interest groups that are represented in this Congress, and worked together to bring consensus to quality legislation, you could have no better example than JOHN DINGELL.

So I am pleased to rise, Mr. DINGELL, and express great admiration, respect, and deep affection for you, which I know is shared by all of your colleagues.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

This Act may be cited as the "Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2012".

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with sundry amendments, with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill, as amended, do pass.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. GINGREY of Georgia) having assumed the chair, Mr. BASS of New Hampshire, Acting Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2219) making appropriations for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2012, and for other purposes, reported the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted in the Committee of the Whole, with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill, as amended, do pass.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under House Resolution 320, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment reported from the Committee of the Whole? If not, the Chair will put them en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

□ 1130

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. BARROW. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. BARROW. In its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Barrow moves to recommit the bill H.R. 2219 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 7, line 2, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $20,000,000)".

Page 9, line 6, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $20,000,000)".

Page 12, line 17, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $160,000,000)".

Page 135, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $200,000,000)".

Mr. BARROW (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading of the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Georgia is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BARROW. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

We Americans owe no greater debt than we owe the men and women of our armed services who risk their lives to protect our freedoms. We currently have around 350,000 troops deployed overseas. About a third of that number come from our National Guard and Reserve.

While most Americans don't know it, many National Guard members don't get the same support we give career servicemembers. When many National Guardsmen and -women get on the plane to go overseas, their families don't even know about the services that are available to them, and when many of those troops get back home, they don't have the help they need to get back into their daily lives.

To address this disparity, in 2008, Congress established the yellow ribbon reintegration program to provide a support program tailored to meet the needs of National Guard and Reserve combat veterans and their families. The yellow ribbon program helps servicemembers and their families throughout deployment, with programs such as career counseling, suicide prevention, access to health care, veterans benefits, and education benefits. This final amendment would increase funding for that program by $200 million.

There is an excellent program in my district called the Augusta Wounded Warrior Project. They have several projects in Georgia to help wounded veterans. I've had the honor of working with them on some of these priorities and to meet with some of the returning veterans they have helped. What I hear over and over is that veterans can't take advantage of the many different support services available to them if they don't know about them or don't know how to navigate the bureaucracy that runs them. The yellow ribbon program helps our National Guard and Reserve combat veterans make that connection and get the services that they've earned.

According to the 2010 annual report to Congress, the yellow ribbon program held over 2,000 events and had over 300,000 contacts with individual servicemembers and their family members. That's a 50 percent increase in participation over 2009. And as the total number of returning National Guard and Reserve combat veterans goes up, the need goes up. This amendment will help make sure that the yellow ribbon program can help meet that need.

My amendment makes these funds available through a transfer from the account for the Afghanistan security forces fund. That account is funded in this bill at $12.8 billion. While I think those funds are an important part of our strategy for long-term success in Afghanistan, I think the highest and best use of a very small part of that money is to help our National Guard and Reserve combat veterans get back on their feet again.

My amendment would use about 1.5 percent of that money for this purpose, which I think is reasonable. In exchange for about 1.5 percent of what we're about to provide to help the Afghans take care of themselves, we can provide a 125 percent increase in support for those American soldiers and their families who make it all possible. I think that's a pretty good deal.

Finally, my amendment will not in any way delay final passage of this important legislation. If adopted, we move straight to a final vote on passage of this legislation.

I want to thank the chairman and the ranking member for their service and for their work on this bill. I think my amendment will have virtually no adverse impact on what we're trying to do for Afghanistan, but it will have a huge positive impact in meeting the needs of our combat veterans and their families. I hope that's something we can all support.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SCHOCK). The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, the motion to recommit, I think, is a strong statement that this is a pretty good Defense appropriations bill, because the minority, using the procedural vote that minorities most always use, does not do any real damage to the bill, but it doesn't really do anything that needs to be done, either, so it's a procedural vote, and I suggest we just vote against it and get on to the bill.

But about the yellow ribbon. The bill already contains $246.5 million for the yellow ribbon program, which we support. It's a good program, especially for reintegration for returning guardsmen and reservists and their families. In addition, we accepted an amendment by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. HOLT) to add $20 million for further suicide prevention for our returning combat veterans. This comes to a total of $266.5 million. That's not a bad number, when you consider that we had to reduce the President's budget by $9 billion.

So I think we did pretty good, and I think that this motion to recommit is a strong indication that there's nothing really wrong with this bill, we just ought to go ahead and defeat the motion to recommit and pass the bill.

I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. I appreciate my chairman yielding.

I must say that the gentleman from Georgia is making a point that we all understand. The Guard and Reserve are very important to our future, clearly, but even more important is for us to get this House back on a pathway to regular order, whereby we bring bills through the committees, bring them to the floor, open rules, have the opportunity to have these debates and the like.

I must say our chairman has done a fabulous job in moving in that direction, but I also would say that the ranking member of the subcommittee, who's also ranking member of the full committee, has been publicly committed to getting us back to regular order. Indeed, as a tribute to both of their work by way of strengthening the future of the House and our work this year, I would hope we not just defeat this motion to recommit but give an overwhelming vote in support of their fine work on final passage.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.
