REMEMBERING FRED HILL

● Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, I take this opportunity to honor the memory of a very special man, Frederick "Fred" Hill of Sonoma County, who died on February 9, 2011. He was 75 years old.

Fred Hill was a man of many talents and will be fondly remembered for his diverse work in the literary world. Born in Philadelphia, PA, Fred went on to attend Brown University. Following graduation, Fred served in the Army before getting a job as a travelling textbook salesman with Knopf. He later worked for Little, Brown as a Western States salesman and then as head of the company's international division. Throughout this transformative time of travel and networking, Fred realized his gift: he loved writers, he loved publishers, and he was uniquely gifted in his ability to interact with and explain one to the other.

Fred relocated to the San Francisco Bay area in the late 1970s. In 1979, after 5 years as general manager at Sierra Club Books, he rented an office on Union Street and opened his own agency, which is now run by his business partner, Bonnie Nadell. Fred remained on Union Street, in one office or another, until he decided to move his business to Glen Ellen, where he resided with his partner, Peter Gilliam.

The job of a literary agent is all encompassing, as their success depends on their client's success. Authors bestow a great deal of trust to their agents, and I know personally that Fred Hill was an outstanding agent. He was able to be encouraging and yet be critical where warranted.

Fred worked diligently to advance the products and interests of his clients, and could always be counted on to excite virtually anyone about a client's book. Fred's clients ranged from best-selling novelist Richard North Patterson to nonfiction writer Michael Murphy. He also worked with an extensive list of food writers, including Carol Field, Hubert Keller, David Lebovitz, and Gerald Hirigoyen.

Those who knew Fred Hill recognized him as a uniquely innovative and brilliant man. His work in the literary world will be remembered fondly by all those whose lives he touched. He will be deeply missed.

Fred is survived by his partner of 31 years, Peter Gilliam.●

TRIBUTE TO THE DOLAN-JUSTICE FAMILY

● Mr. JOHNSON of South Dakota. Mr. President, today I wish to pay tribute to the Dolan-Justice family on the 100th anniversary of owning the Grant County Review of Milbank, SD. This occasion highlights the Dolan-Justice family commitment to the newspaper industry and to the Grant County community.

On February 11, 1911, 24-year-old William S. Dolan acquired the Grant County Review. This started a 46-year adventure as editor of the small town weekly newspaper. In a time with virtually no access to television or radio, the local newspaper was the only source of news for small town South Dakota. With no experience in news media, William quickly learned the ropes. The Grant County Review became a family affair. William's wife, Christine Olson, was a trusted adviser to the paper, and his sister-in-law, Victoria Olson, even set the type on the linograph machine by hand. While other surrounding newspapers folded, William's accounting background and hard work enabled the Grant County Review to continue through the 20th century. A fierce rivalry began between the Grant County Review and the Herald Review, pitting each paper against each other for advertisers and breaking news stories. Often Dolan and the editor of the Herald Review would trade blows in the editorial section of their papers.

Sticking with the family tradition for journalism, William's daughter Phyllis pursued a journalism degree at South Dakota State University and the University of Minnesota. She then came back to write for the paper and help her father run the day-to-day activities. The family paper soon hired a printer, Clarence Justice. Clarence worked for many papers before coming to the Grant County Review, including the Miller Gazette, the Interlakes Daily, and the Miller Press. After William S. Dolan passed away, his family took over operation of the Grant County Review, with his wife Christine served as the new publisher, and his daughter Phyllis as the new editor.

William always fought for small business and rural farmers, and served as the president for the Board of Regents, overseeing South Dakota's public universities. In 1962, William S. Dolan was elected to the South Dakota Newspaper Hall of Fame. In 1982, Phyllis was elected as the first female president of the South Dakota Press Association, and in 1988 she joined her father in the South Dakota Newspaper Hall of Fame. Phyllis' boundary breaking honors serve as an inspiration to women in journalism. Clarence and Phyllis both received distinguished service awards for their work in journalism for the South Dakota Newspaper Association. In 1997, the Grant County Review received the distinguished Bishop Dudley award from the Diocese of Sioux Falls, for Clarence and Phyllis' dedication to integrity and religious values. The Grant County Review has the largest readership of any weekly newspaper in the State. This achievement highlights the incredible devotion this family and the paper's employees have to the responsibility of disseminating the news. I am proud to honor the Dolan-Justice family on reaching this hallmark, and on being reliable, responsible members of the journalism community.●
