OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker,

Whereas, Leon and Joyce Henry are celebrating fifty (50) years in marriage today in DeKalb County, Georgia; and

Whereas, on June 18, 1962, because of their union then, our community today has been blessed with a family that has enhanced our district, they both are instruments in our community that uplift the spiritual, physical, economic, and mental welfare of our citizens; and

Whereas, this remarkable and tenacious man of God and this phenomenal and virtuous Proverbs 31 woman have been blessed with a wonderful family: Leon, Jr., Jasmine, Jaden, Shelia, Jaxson, Cheryl, Anthony, Kingston, Brooklyn, Monique, Ebony, Elijah, Amy, TJ, Dion, Nahtiah, and "baby Ava"; and

Whereas, Leon and Joyce Henry are distinguished citizens of our district, they are spiritual warriors, persons of compassion, fearless leaders and servants to all, but most of all visionaries who have shared not only with their family, but with our District their passion to improve the lives of others; and

Whereas, the U.S. Representative of the Fourth District of Georgia has set aside this day to honor and recognize Leon and Joyce Henry as they celebrate their 50th Anniversary, fifty (50) years in marital bliss;

Now therefore, I, HENRY C. "HANK" JOHNSON, Jr., do hereby proclaim June 18th as Leon and Joyce Henry Day in the 4th Congressional District of Georgia.

"WASHINGTON'S MOST WANTED" 300TH FUGITIVE

HON. DAVID G. REICHERT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. REICHERT. Mr. Speaker, today I congratulate Q-13 Fox, the Fox network's affiliate in Seattle, and its program "Washington's Most Wanted" for playing an integral role in the capture of 300 fugitives in Washington State and Oregon.

"Washington's Most Wanted" partners with Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound to produce local television alerting viewers to fugitives from justice in their communities, Mr. Speaker, and those communities have responded in a big way: since the show began in November of 2008, viewer tips and the hard work of the law enforcement community has led to 300 criminals—murderers, rapists, unregistered sex offenders, thieves, and burglars—getting off the streets and out of communities.

Mr. Speaker, dynamic and productive partnerships exist between law enforcement, communications professionals, and concerned citizens all over the United States. I'm proud that such a partnership exists in the Northwest, Mr. Speaker, and I applaud Q-13, Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound, the alert and thoughtful citizens of the Northwest, and our brave and dedicated law enforcement officers for staying vigilant in the fight against dangerous fugitives and crime.

I've been fortunate enough to help in this effort to get fugitives out of our communities and the amount of success this effort has had since 2008 is no surprise—hard work and dedication pay off.

Mr. QUAYLE. Mr. Speaker, today, I would like to honor Stephen Arthur Dymarcik, Sr., who honorably served our country in the Army from 1966–1967 in Vietnam. The son of Polish immigrants, his family remembers him as a deeply patriotic and proud American who taught them to be proud of their Polish heritage, while being grateful for the opportunity to live in America. He told his son, "America is the greatest country in the world. We aren't perfect . . . but we are pretty close." IN RECOGNITION OF THE JAIN CENTER OF NEW JERSEY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Jain Center of New Jersey as its constituents gather to celebrate their newly constructed temple in Franklin Township, New Jersey. Their dedication to further enhance the environment for members of the Jain community is worthy of this body's recognition.

The Jain Center of New Jersey, JCNJ, was founded in 1981 and remains one of the oldest Jain organizations in North America. For thousands of years, Jains have believed in meditation, vegetarianism, environmentalism, equal rights for women, respect for other cultures and forgiveness. The Jain community in New Jersey has continued to grow exponentially and has further developed the need to construct the first all-marble temple in North America. The new temple, constructed with architectural designs from famous temples throughout India, continues to promote the positive themes of truth, non-violence, love, peace and proper conduct. The new worship site will also continue to provide opportunities for members of the community to faithfully commit to the Jain lifestyle that encourages happiness, challenge, discovery and spiritual growth. The construction of the new temple will provide culturally enriching experiences for the community and further disseminate the message of peaceful cooperation amongst others.

Mr. Speaker, once again, please join me in recognizing the Jain Center of New Jersey and congratulating its members on the inauguration of their new temple.

10TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING ACCREDITATION BOARD

HON. JACK KINGSTON

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Federal Law Enforcement Training Accreditation (FLETA) Board as they celebrate their 10th anniversary on June 5, 2012. The FLETA Board of Directors is comprised of 21 senior officials from federal law enforcement agencies, academia, and professional organizations. Since the FLETA Board's inception, fifteen federal law enforcement academies and over 60 individual law enforcement training programs have voluntarily presented themselves to be assessed through the FLETA process and receive accreditation.

The FLETA Office of Accreditation is one of the smallest entities in the Federal Government with only seven government employees, yet the impact on federal training and operations is extensive. FLETA assists law enforcement agencies in virtually every department of the Federal Government to improve operations through more effective and efficient training. The mission of FLETA is more important now than ever before. This agency's efforts are demonstrative of good government in action, accountability through self-regulation, and exhibit the transparency that Americans expect of their government.

I would like to congratulate FLETA on their 10th anniversary and wish them much success in the future as they continue to assist federal law enforcement operations through training.

UNITED WAY

HON. RUBÉN HINOJOSA

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the world's largest privately supported not-for-profit organization, which now serves 1,800 communities in 41 countries and territories. The United Way is an organization created by a diverse group of leaders in 1887 in Denver, CO, with a goal of creating opportunities for a better life in their communities. Today, the United Way raises nearly $5 billion dollars annually with a mission to "improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good." In 2008, the United Way set in motion three specific goals of improving education, promoting healthy lives, and helping people achieve financial stability.

Crisis response after the tsunami struck South Asia in 2004 and a youth-led program to rebuild the Gulf Coast after the hurricanes in 2006 are just a few examples of how the organization has been committed to people in need both in the United States and internationally.

Within the fifteenth district of Texas, the United Way has served more than 200,000 people and funded more than 100 programs in two counties. These programs vary from women's programs to Boy Scouts, and include community projects such as the purchase of school supplies to low income children. I hope that you will take a moment with me today, on the official United Way founder's day, to recognize and remember the great contribution the United Way has made to our community in the last 125 years.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF ANDY GRIFFITH

HON. LAURA RICHARDSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Ms. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor the memory of one of the most beloved television personalities of all time, Andy Griffith. For over five decades he entertained us with the wholesome and charismatic energy he was known for. Mr. Griffith's career is the very definition of legendary, and he will be sorely missed.

Mr. Griffith came from humble beginnings. Born in Mount Airy, North Carolina, in 1926, he started out his entertainment career in minor comedic roles and obtained notoriety with his hit monologue "What it Was, Was Football". He went on to star in his first dramatic role in the movie "A Face in the Crowd". The character he played was a country boy who manipulated his way to political power. The movie taught all of us the lesson that power corrupts, and corrupts absolutely.

Although this was his only real big screen success, Mr. Griffith's television roles are what we will remember him for. "The Andy Griffith Show" was an instant success. Mr. Griffith starred as the lovable Sheriff Andy Taylor, and while he never received a writing credit, he was also involved in the development of every script. Overlooked year after year for an Emmy Award, Mr. Griffith congratulated his
