

started her career as a teacher in the Inner London primary schools. In 1968, Ann immigrated to the United States. She taught first-grade students at Kalamazoo School in Lansing, Michigan and then moved to San Francisco to become the head teacher at Jack and Jill Nursery School.

After Ann had her first child, Frankie, she set up her own day care school in Berkeley. From there she moved across the Bay and became director of the Daly City Community of Children's Services. She established the first local state-funded childcare in the basement of a church in the Bayshore neighborhood in 1978—the birthplace of Bayshore Child Care Services. Never afraid to take on big projects, Ann moved into a dilapidated Navy school built in 1943 and started renovating the new home of her growing child care center. The renovations have been ongoing and even now, a community kitchen is being built in the Midway Center.

The Midway Center became the flagship of Bayshore Child Care Services and Ann won numerous contracts to expand her services to more families in San Mateo County to include the Parkview Center and the 87th Street Center. I had the pleasure to work with Ann when she partnered with the David and Lucile Packard Foundation to build the Mission Center, a custom-designed center that serves infants and toddlers.

Helping parents has always been the priority for Ann. She is a tireless and innovative advocate for families and has embraced father friendly programs, special needs programs, and coordinated services for families. She and the Peninsula community built another custom design, parent friendly preschool and resource center, the Price Street Center or Our Second Home.

Ann has turned a single classroom day care center into five centers serving over 250 children every day and employing 50 individuals, primarily teachers.

As Ann has reached her well-deserved retirement, Bayshore Child Care Services will join forces with Peninsula Family Services. The combined organization will continue the mission of supporting families on limited resources and providing their children with safe and nurturing environments in which to learn and explore.

Ann can now look forward to spending more time with her family including her husband of 29 years, Mike Sims, and their daughter, Frankie S. Crawford.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to rise with me to honor Ann Kathleen Sims, a dear friend, an outstanding teacher and a powerful family advocate. She has made San Mateo County a better place to live and work for all of us.

COMMEMORATING ORBIS INTERNATIONAL FOR ITS 30 YEARS OF SAVING SIGHT AND REBUILDING LIVES IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend ORBIS International, an organization that has been an outstanding member of the global community for 30 years. I am proud to recognize its invaluable service and contributions to some of the most vulnerable populations in the world.

ORBIS International is a U.S.-based global health organization dedicated to saving sight and eliminating avoidable blindness in developing countries. Created in 1982, ORBIS has conducted over 1,000 programs in 88 countries, trained over 288,000 healthcare professionals and touched the lives of 18 million children and adults. Today, we celebrate ORBIS International's 30 years of commitment to preserving and restoring sight by strengthening the capacity of local institutions in developing nations in their efforts to prevent and treat blindness.

The story of ORBIS International is a remarkable one. A grant from USAID and funds from private donors enabled ORBIS to begin its mission by successfully converting a plane into a fully functional teaching eye hospital, and in 1982 it flew to Panama on its first training mission. Today, the world's only Flying Eye Hospital visits 6–8 nations each year conducting programs, training medical personnel, and providing eye care services.

ORBIS is more than a Flying Eye Hospital with permanent programs and regional offices in the countries that have the highest prevalence of avoidable blindness. ORBIS has conducted more than 900 capacity building programs in its 30-year history. These capacity building programs were conducted through its six country and regional-based offices, the Flying Eye Hospital, and ORBIS' in-country, hospital-based training sessions.

In addition to treating a number of diseases of the eye that can cause blindness, ORBIS is also working in Africa to eliminate trachoma, one of the seven Neglected Tropical Diseases. Trachoma, an infectious disease found predominantly in developing countries, starts as an infection and progresses to corneal scarring. ORBIS International teaches surgical techniques and treatment for trachoma in Ethiopia and other developing countries.

Blindness has profound human and socioeconomic consequences. The costs of lost productivity and of rehabilitation and education of the blind constitute a significant economic burden for the individual, the family and society. Investments in avoidable blindness and visual impairment offer not only economic and social returns in global health, but they dramatically improve the quality of life of individuals and families. ORBIS International is a trusted partner in the global coalition of organizations fighting preventable blindness.

ORBIS programs and partnerships provide the skills, infrastructure and on-going support to build the capacity and skills necessary to sustain care at a local level. As a founding member of Vision 2020: The Right to Sight, a campaign led by the World Health Organization and other leading blindness prevention organizations to eliminate avoidable blindness by the year 2020, ORBIS is dedicated to working in partnership to create a world free of needless blindness.

I am honored to join ORBIS International in celebrating its 30 year commitment toward achieving its goal of a world in which no one is needlessly blind, and where quality eye care is available to everyone. I want to thank ORBIS International for the lives it has touched and its leadership in providing valuable health and training services across the globe.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIP HOUSING

HON. JACKIE SPEIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Ms. SPEIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor an outstanding non-profit in San Mateo County, HIP Housing, on the occasion of its 40th Anniversary. This remarkable organization has assisted thousands of disadvantaged and disabled residents giving them shelter and the opportunity to turn their lives around.

Because of HIP Housing, over 1,000 individuals per year have a place to call home which makes for 1,000 stories of transformed lives. These are the stories of struggling mothers with high school educations going back to school, under the guidance of HIP Housing, to earn a degree.

HIP Housing's stories include those of families who, due to illness or a reduction in hours at work, injuries from an auto accident or dozens of other causes, cannot afford rent and are dangerously close to living on the street. HIP Housing offers a helping hand and a steady course to a secure future.

The Home Sharing Program is a creative and effective way to match a home provider with a home seeker who pays rent or provides services. It cuts housing costs, promotes independence, provides companionship and increases security. Many strong friendships have started through the Home Sharing Program, and these friendships have transformed the lives of all involved.

HIP Housing's Self-Sufficiency Program helps low-income families set clear goals to become financially self-reliant within one or two years while receiving housing assistance and support services. Attending a graduation ceremony of this program is certain to make one cry. A long line of graduates traipse up to the microphone and recount how they developed parenting skills, earned a degree and landed a job, or learned the skills to start a business. One woman this year reported that she had moved from being nearly homeless to getting her college degree, and onward to making over $80,000 per year in hospital administration, all with the help of HIP's counselors. The American Dream is alive at HIP Housing where housing is a right of everyone who wishes to work hard, and a need of all human beings who seek dignity.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to rise with me to honor the volunteers, staff, board members and foundations supporting HIP Housing. These are the quiet heroes who allow this organization to make San Mateo County a better place for all of us. HIP Housing is a shining example of what community service can be and can do to transform the world in which we live.

IN HONOR OF SOUTH JERSEY
OLYMPIANS

HON. ROBERT E. ANDREWS

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor our South Jersey Olympians: Tamika Catchings, basketball; Rachael Dawson, field hockey; Michelle Vittese, field hockey; Jordan Burroughs, wrestling; and Steve Kasprzyk, rowing. They have traveled to London to compete in the 2012 Summer Olympic Games.

These athletes represent the United States on the world stage, affording them the distinct honor of serving as role models for citizens across South Jersey area and the entire nation. Their success, derived through hard work and dedication, and exemplified through athletic competition, is something every American can aspire to as a shining example of the American dream. In the same way our national ethos rewards fortitude and persistence, these athletes earned the opportunity to compete on the Olympic stage through long hours of training and sacrifice.

Part of the Olympic Creed, originating from a speech by Ethelbert Talbot during the 1908 London Games, states: "The essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well." One hundred and four years later, as the Olympics return to London, the message rings as true as ever. Through fierce competition amongst the nations of the world, these athletes continually push the limits of human achievement. The resulting bonds of friendship, gained through equally world-class sportsmanship, enrich both these athletes and their nations.

Mr. Speaker, the dedication of these South Jersey Olympians and their teammates to athletics and sportsmanship should not go unrecognized. I join all of South Jersey in expressing our pride in their efforts.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE OFFICER
JEFFREY DICK

HON. JACKIE SPEIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Ms. SPEIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Police Officer Jeffrey Dick who is retiring after more than three decades of protecting citizens in the Bay Area.

Throughout his career Officer Dick has gone above and beyond the call of duty to support fellow officers and to serve our community. He began his law enforcement career in 1979 at the Alameda County Sheriff's Department and has been an officer at the San Mateo Police Department since 1984. He has been a law enforcement liaison and board member for the Northern California Chapter of the Concerns of Police Survivors, an organization that provides assistance to the families of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty and in that capacity he travels around the state to attend funerals of police officers and offer their families support. He makes sure they receive the benefits due to them from the state of California. As a member of the San Mateo Police Officers Association Board of Directors, Officer Dick held the position of president three times. For 16 years he served as team captain for the San Mateo Critical Incident Stress Management Team, a non-profit organization that offers counseling, mentoring and follow-up for emergency personnel after crises. In 2010 he assisted emergency personnel following the San Bruno fire in spite of his fear of fire.

In March 2003 he received the 2002 Peninsula Lions Club Heroism Award related to the pursuit and capture of two bank robbery suspects.

His interests include Harley Davidson motorcycles and photography. His community volunteerism is noteworthy. He volunteers for the American Heart Association, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, and other non-profit organizations as a photographer, and he has also volunteered at the Ronald McDonald House for more than 22 years.

In his retirement Officer Dick looks forward to spending more time with his wife, Linda Barstow-Dick. Officer Dick has two grown children, Erin Kristine Templin and Brian Joseph Dick. He also has a grandson, Devin James Templin.

Although Officer Dick is retiring from a long and meaningful career, he will continue to play a vital role in our community. Mr. Speaker, Officer Dick has dedicated his life to protecting residents of the Bay Area. I ask that the House of Representatives to join me in commending him for his extraordinary selflessness and service.

HONORING MARIAN CANNON
SCHLESINGER ON HER 100TH BIRTHDAY

HON. MICHAEL E. CAPUANO

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Mr. CAPUANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to my constituent, Marian Cannon Schlesinger who will celebrate her 100th birthday on September 13, 2012. I am proud to join her legions of friends and admirers, and her loving family, in honoring her.

She was born the fortunate daughter of Dr. Walter Bradford Cannon, an eminent Harvard physiologist, and Cornelia James Cannon, a noted feminist writer. An alumna of Cambridge High and Latin School and Radcliffe College, she is the mother of four children, Andrew, Christina, Stephen and Katharine. Her rich and balanced life has been full of family, politics, painting, writing, and tennis.

A strong Progressive voice and wise chronicler of her times, Marian Schlesinger has been for almost ten decades a force to be reckoned with in the feisty politics of her hometown, Cambridge, Massachusetts. She canvassed for local politicians as a teenager and later campaigned for Adlai Stevenson. With her husband, the historian Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., she was an active participant in President Kennedy's New Frontier. Still today, she follows political news avidly, committed to democratic principles and Democratic ideals.

Early in her life, she became a landscape and portrait painter of distinction, travelling extensively, painting people and places from China to Guatemala to Manchester, New Hampshire. She wrote and illustrated several children's books. In her 70's she began writing her memoirs, and she has published two spirited and insightful volumes chronicling a century of notable experiences in Cambridge, as well as her adventures around the world. She attributes her enduring vitality in part to her love of tennis which she played weekly, well into her mid-80s.

With all these achievements, she made no claim to being a "celebrity." She always was and she is today a good citizen. She made her mark with paints and with words, with hard work and political savvy. As Marian Cannon Schlesinger approaches her 100th birthday, she remains an inspiration to us all.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 95TH
BIRTHDAY OF MARTIN LITTON

HON. JACKIE SPEIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 31, 2012

Ms. SPEIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor a legendary environmental hero on his 95th birthday. Martin Litton is the quintessential take-no-prisoner environmental activist of his era. Thanks to his perseverance and passion, there is no dam in the Grand Canyon and there is no Disney resort next to Sequoia National Park.

Mr. Litton has been fighting for the environment for decades and still has plenty of fight left in him. He grew up in Gardena near Los Angeles and enjoyed hiking in the Southern Sierra as a child and teenager. When he was 18, he wrote a letter to the LA Times denouncing the diversion of water from Mono Lake to the growing population of Los Angeles. His wrote, "The people of the entire state should rise up against the destruction of Mono Lake. Mono Lake is a gem-among California's greatest scenic attractions." It has been with this sentiment and determination that he pursued all battles in life.

In the 1940s, Mr. Litton worked in the circulation department at the LA Times and started writing environmental freelance articles. He caught the attention of David Brower, executive director of the Sierra Club, who in 1952 hired Mr. Litton for a campaign against the construction of two dams in Dinosaur National Monument. Mr. Litton explored the Green and Yampa rivers in a wooden dory and the resulting publicity helped persuade the Congress to vote against the dams in 1956.

This was the first of many campaigns that stopped the building of dams. In 1964, Mr. Litton led a river trip through the Grand Canyon with David Brower, photographer Philip Hyde and writer Francois Leydet which led to the publication of the book Time and the River Flowing with photographs by Ansel Adams and Hyde. The Sierra Club then took out full page ads in the New York Times—Mr. Litton's idea—opposing the building of a dam in the Grand Canyon. Public opposition to the project was sealed.

Mr. Litton started his love affair with the Grand Canyon in 1955. He was only the 185th person to float the Colorado River first pioneered by John Wesley Powell. He continued to run the river for decades. In 1971 he founded Grand Canyon Dories and throughout the 1970s and 80s led commercial trips. Other river runners used rubber rafts, but Mr. Litton preferred the small wooden boats that were
