

Mr. Speaker, as members and supporters of Friends of Light Rail and Transit gather to celebrate this milestone, and their many achievements over the last 25 years, I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting these fine individuals for their excellent work and commitment to our community.

A TRIBUTE TO HONOR THE LIFE OF ROBERT "BAT" BATINOVICH

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Robert "Bat" Batinovich, a special friend and extraordinary citizen who passed on September 11, 2012, on the Big Island of Hawaii surrounded by his loved ones. He is survived by his wife Garnet, son Andy (Debbie), daughter Angela, and grandchildren Kyle and Kelly Cotchett, Alexa Batinovich and Avery Bysouth, brother Ken (Annette), many wonderful cousins and scores of friends.

Robert Batinovich was born July 13, 1936, in Long Beach, California, to Matthew and Margaret Batinovich. He attended St. Anthony's High School and worked as a tuna fisherman in South America.

A resident of Hillsborough and a highly trusted and respected businessman, "Bat" was the founder of Glenborough Corporation based in San Mateo, California, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Glenborough Realty Trust Inc. a Real Estate Investment Trust through his retirement. He spent seven years as an executive with Norris Industries, after which most of his business life was devoted to entrepreneurial and venture capital activities primarily through the start-up or acquisition, operation, and ultimate sale, of a variety of businesses.

Between 1976–1980, "Bat" served on the California Public Utilities Commission, and for the last two years of his service, he was President. He served on the California State Board of Transportation in 1977, and the Health Facilities Authority in 1981. He also served on the Board of Farr Company and the Advisory Board of Greater Bay Bank Corp., Palo Alto, California. His love of charities led him to support Community Gatepath, Georgetown University, The Samaritan House and Catholic Charities. He loved people and lived a full life, contributing significantly as a public servant and a businessman. He always led by example and integrity. He was universally respected for his compassion, his caring, his drive, and his generosity, and it was a privilege to call him my friend.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in extending our deepest condolences to "Bat's" beloved wife, Garnet, and their entire family. "Bat" was a strong leader, businessman, philanthropist and public servant who brought much joy to the lives he touched, strengthened his community and bettered the Nation he loved so much. His life and his contributions are worthy of this tribute we pay to him today.

IN RECOGNITION OF DR. MARC
LEVENSON'S RETIREMENT

HON. FRANK C. GUINTA

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. GUINTA. Mr. Speaker, on September 30, 2012 Dr. Marc Levenson will retire from the VA Medical Center after 24 years of faithful service to our State's veterans. Dr. Levenson began his medical career practicing Internal Medicine at the University of North Carolina Medical Center in Chapel Hill and then went on to serve as Vice President and Senior Physician at Jackson River Internists in Virginia.

After his time in private practice, he joined the VA Health Care System in Pennsylvania before making a permanent place in the New England VA Health Care System. Dr. Levenson began his career in Manchester as the Chief of Staff and after 12 years in this position was promoted to Director of the Manchester VA Medical Center in 2000. Since that time he has led the VAMC with dedication and integrity, bringing the best care and services possible to our State's veterans.

He has helped to improve and initiate several clinics including Ophthalmology, Audiology, Dermatology and Podiatry Care. His efforts also focused on implementing Primary Care Mental Health Integration and expanding the Home Based Primary Care Program to the Community Based Outpatient Clinics throughout the State. He has also stepped in to help out at other Medical Centers in White River Junction, Vermont and Bedford, Massachusetts when these facilities were transitioning between directors.

Dr. Levenson has been a great leader for our veterans here in New Hampshire and provided all of our veterans with the services and care they need when transitioning back from active duty to civilian life, and into their later years. His work has been outstanding and is greatly appreciated. I congratulate Dr. Levenson on his well earned retirement and thank him for his outstanding support of our veterans in New Hampshire and New England.

RECOGNIZING TAIWAN'S 101ST
NATIONAL DAY

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge Taiwan's 101st National Day on October 10, 2012. This event marks the anniversary of the 1911 uprising that led to the establishment of the Republic of China.

Under President Ma Ying-jeou's leadership, Taiwan has made great strides in improving relations with mainland China, which has contributed to reduced tensions in the region overall. Furthermore, through the Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement, millions of citizens in both nations have benefited. China and Taiwan are continuing to pursue productive and peaceful negotiations to ensure a better future for their citizens, and cross-strait relations are better now than they have ever been.

The United States should support and assist Taiwan in building on its recent successes and playing a greater role in international organizations, such as the World Health Assembly. Taiwan is also on the road to gaining membership in the International Civil Aviation Organization. This important progress should be recognized and encouraged.

Mr. Speaker, Taiwan is an important ally to the United States, an outpost of democracy and freedom, and plays a critical economic role in the region. Millions of Americans buy Taiwanese products, and Taiwan is an export destination for a wide range of American products, from agriculture to raw materials to technology. The Taiwanese people are committed to hard work and democratic values, as well as productive and peaceful international relations. I offer my sincere congratulations on their 101st National Day, and look forward to celebrating Taiwan's future successes.

HONORING TEAM ACADEMY

HON. TIMOTHY J. WALZ

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. WALZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of TEAM Academy in Waseca, Minnesota.

On September 7th, TEAM Academy was named one of two schools from the First District of Minnesota to be designated as a 2012 National Blue Ribbon School.

This award recognizes exemplary schools like TEAM Academy where students have made significant progress. Schools that receive this award truly exemplify the belief that every child has promise and must receive a high quality education.

As a teacher on leave from Mankato West, I know that achieving success for all students takes a commitment from the entire school, from the principal to the counselors to the teachers. Their dedication every day toward success and achieving a higher goal motivates students to do their best.

This is exactly what TEAM Academy has done for its students. Under the leadership of Director Jill Ladwig, the school practices individualized learning in small groups, and focuses on reading, mathematics and exposure to art, Spanish, physical education and music. Every day, students walk into an environment where they are encouraged to reach their full potential, become a productive member of society, and understand the importance of post-secondary education.

This award recognizes what the Waseca community already knows—TEAM Academy is a place where every student, no matter their background or ability, can fulfill their potential.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring TEAM Academy for its dedication to the students of Waseca.

HONORING BETTE BOYD FOR HER
SERVICE TO HUMBOLDT COUNTY

HON. MIKE THOMPSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Bette Boyd. Mrs. Boyd has exercised the most important duty of citizenship, voting in every election since she registered to vote at the age of 21 in 1947. She has devoted her time and efforts to community endeavors and good citizenship since being first employed in war work in 1943.

When the demand for skilled workers was at a high in 1943, Mrs. Boyd went to work in the American Motors plant in Los Angeles. Shortly after, she was promoted to lead the work group of women engaged in essential war work. Bette embraced her responsibilities and welcomed the opportunity to contribute to the war effort.

Her first job after WWII exposed her to the need for a union voice and she began an organizing effort for the United Electrical Workers. She advocated for better wages and working conditions for men and women engaged in assembly line work. Bette took fellow workers out on strike and experienced for the first time the power of owners and management when the strike was broken. After the Vietnam War, Bette met refugees from southeast Asia who needed help adjusting to American life. She assisted refugees in securing employment and was responsible for integrating 1500 refugee families into American culture.

Through her work with Vietnamese refugees, Bette became aware of the onset of AIDS in Los Angeles and the Bay Area. She volunteered to work with AIDS patients at an early point in the epidemic that would become a global scourge. She met Mother Teresa and helped establish an AIDS clinic in India. Bette continues her work with AIDS patients today.

Bette became involved with the poor in India. She proposed to provide funds to improve educational opportunities in a rural South India village and insisted that girls be offered the same educational opportunities as boys. She contributed to the construction of a school that would touch hundreds of children. Today that school in Madahalli, Karnataka State enrolls 850 children.

Bette moved to Humboldt County in 1993 and has been involved in volunteer work ever since. Her work ranges from helping cancer patients get treatment to working with HIV patients, and helping the mentally ill. She is a stalwart at Democratic Headquarters and is regularly at booths and street fairs. She encourages all who are eligible to register and vote, thereby fulfilling the first duty of citizenship.

Mr. Speaker, it is appropriate at this time that we recognize Bette Boyd for her outstanding service to a global citizenry.

HONORING THE SERVICE OF SUSAN B. ANDERSON

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and thank the Honorable Susan B. Anderson for her service, as she prepares to retire from the Fresno County Board of Supervisors. She was elected to the Board of Supervisors in 2000 and has been a reliable champion for the people of Fresno County for over a decade. During her tenure on the Board of Supervisors, Susan has served as a collaborative, creative, and innovative leader. Her participation on the Board will be sorely missed.

Born in Kansas, Susan and her family moved to California's agriculturally rich San Joaquin Valley when Susan was three years old. By 1970, Susan and her family settled in Fresno, California. In 1987, Susan earned her law degree from San Joaquin College of Law, where she also served as president of the Student Association, and eventually the Alumni Association.

A long-time public servant, Susan began her career working as marketing director for the downtown Fresno YMCA for over ten years. With her leadership, the YMCA experienced an expansion in membership and community support—clearly exhibiting her role as an effective ambassador for the people of the San Joaquin Valley.

Susan has been an unwavering advocate for Central California's children during her entire career. Shortly after graduating from law school, Susan worked as a deputy district attorney in the Fresno County Juvenile Courts. She took it upon herself to ensure that abused, abandoned, and neglected children were represented fairly and passionately. Additionally, Susan has served on a number of Boards, including the Boy Scouts, Big Brothers & Big Sisters, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), and the YMCA. She also was at the forefront of the effort to create Focus Forward, a non-profit organization aimed at providing educational and enrichment services to the County's children. Susan's dedication to helping some of our most vulnerable citizens serves as a testament to her superior moral character and compassionate heart.

When Susan was elected to be County Clerk in 1990, she made history by being the first woman elected to a county-wide post. Her time as County Clerk was ample with accomplishments. During her service, she increased the efficiency of her department, ensuring timely responses and successful service.

As a County Supervisor, Susan has often shown thoughtful leadership, effective policy development, and keen fiscal and administrative oversight. Her work has touched the lives of thousands of Valley residents, and will ensure that her legacy lives on for years to come.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing one of California's most principled leaders. Her loyalty to her constituents paired with her unmatched work ethic truly makes her a source of pride for our entire nation.

COMMEMORATING TAIWAN'S
NATIONAL DAY OF CELEBRATION

HON. DAVID RIVERA

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. RIVERA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Republic of China (Taiwan) for more than a century of tremendous success as we approach their National Day of Celebration, October 10, 2012. This day marks 101 years since the founding of the country, and most importantly marks more than a century of progress towards democracy, freedom, and economic success for the people of Taiwan. I would like to commend the country for its continued commitment to a brighter future, despite numerous struggles over the years. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Taiwan for its many years of friendship to the United States. It has been an ally in the region for decades, and this invaluable friendship deserves recognition.

I congratulate Ambassador Jason Yuan, Representative of Taiwan to the United States, on his new post as Secretary-General of the National Security Council of Taiwan. I cherish the friendship with Ambassador Yuan and wish the Ambassador and Madame Yuan the very best of luck in the future.

TRIBUTE TO THE MATILDA JOSLYN GAGE FOUNDATION

HON. ANN MARIE BUERKLE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. BUERKLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation of Fayetteville, New York, upon the occasion of receiving federal funding through the Department of State's Museums Connect Program—a highly selective program that aims to strengthen cultural understanding through collaborative and innovative projects facilitated by museums.

The Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation dedicates its efforts to educating individuals about the life and work of Matilda Joslyn Gage and her significant contributions to the women's suffrage movement of the 19th century.

With respect to her commitment and dedication to women's rights and human liberation, the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation commits itself to celebrating her life and promoting the continuing significance of the works of Matilda Joslyn Gage for current and future generations.

Consistent with her values, the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation works to preserve the home of this great American figure, as well as preserve her writings, provide educational programs devoted to the abolitionist and suffrage movements, and promote the history of Central New York as a beacon during our nation's great civil rights movements.

It is with honor that I pause in my legislative deliberations to acknowledge the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation for its dedication to strengthening and developing cultural and historical understanding throughout Central New York and the United States.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my colleagues join me in congratulating The Matilda
