

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF BOY
SCOUT TROOP 21, ROCHESTER, MN

HON. TIMOTHY J. WALZ

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. WALZ of Minnesota. Mr. Speaker, I ask the House to join me today in honoring the 100th anniversary of Boy Scout Troop 21 in Rochester, Minnesota. Troop 21 is one of the oldest and hardest working Boy Scout troops in Minnesota.

Over the years, thousands of young men have passed through their program, learning valuable leadership and life skills while also enjoying outdoor activities and performing service projects. Over 160 of Troop 21's scouts have reached Eagle Scout—the highest achievement level possible in Boy Scouts.

The Boy Scouts of America reached its centennial in 1910 with a renewed call for greater community service. In 2010, Troop 21 answered this call and performed 494 hours of community service ranging from trash collection, food drives, and projects to improve local churches and parks.

With the people of Minnesota, I ask this Chamber to join in celebrating Boy Scout Troop 21's 100-year anniversary.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE YAR-
MOUTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

HON. WILLIAM R. KEATING

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. KEATING. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Yarmouth Chamber of Commerce upon its fiftieth anniversary. The Chamber of Commerce plays an essential role in the Yarmouth community, connecting local businesses and offering visitors an insider's perspective on much of what this beautiful coastal town has to offer.

Founded in 1962, the Chamber of Commerce has grown to be comprised of nearly 400 members. From museums and charities to banks, churches, and seaside restaurants, the Chamber represents a diverse array of the organizations that help to give Yarmouth its unique character. Every day, these businesses provide vital services to Yarmouth's year-round residents and to its countless visitors. The many years of hard work by the Yarmouth Chamber of Commerce have been essential in developing Yarmouth's vitality, a characteristic that draws so many to this beachside town every year.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in thanking the Yarmouth Chamber of Commerce, its leaders, and the hundreds of businesses and organizations for their years of service to the town of Yarmouth. I am certain that the Chamber's and its member organizations' futures will be bright.

HONORING THE FAYETTE SPIRITUAL AIRES

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a Gospel Singers' Group, The Fayette Spiritual Aires.

In 1975, God gave Jimmy Jackson a vision to organize a gospel quartet group, which he named "The Fayette Spiritual Aires". Throughout the years, this group has touched many lives and led many to Christ through its singing ministry.

The Fayette Spiritual Aires has been blessed to do three professional recordings: In 1986, 1992 and their latest album in 2009. Jimmy Jackson, the founder of this group, served as manager and lead singer until his sudden death in 2002.

The group is currently managed by James E. Oliver and the supporting members are: Erma Clark, Carlton Brown, Ellison Brown, Freddie Blanton, Adrick Hunter, Kendrick Hunter, Derrick Varnado, Dwayne Thompson and James Jones. Fred Hunter is a former member of this group and one of the first promoters of professional gospel quartet groups in Southwest Mississippi.

Other members of the group that have departed life and left us with their memories are: the late Rev. David White, Moses Turner and Roosevelt Buie who were all dedicated to the Fayette Spiritual Aires.

This group has been inspired by personal performances with other professional gospel groups and has traveled to many cities throughout the United States performing their ministry through gospel singing.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring The Fayette Spiritual Aires, a Mississippi Gospel Singing Group.

THE PASSING OF SENATOR ARLEN
SPECTER

HON. LAURA RICHARDSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Ms. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to commemorate the life and achievements of Senator Arlen Specter. On October 14, 2012, Senator Arlen Specter passed on due to complications of non-Hodgkins lymphoma; he was 82.

Mr. Speaker, Senator Arlen Specter was a dedicated public servant who served as a senator for the state of Pennsylvania. He made tremendous and long-lived contributions to Pennsylvania and to our nation.

Senator Arlen Specter was a leader on criminal justice issues and foreign affairs. He also worked on stem cell research legislation with Democrats as part of his fight to advance health care research.

Mr. Speaker, Senator Arlen Specter will be remembered for the important bipartisan role he played.

I urge my colleagues to join me in the mourning and remembering Senator Arlen Specter.

IN RECOGNITION OF THOMAS
TIGHE

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Thomas Tighe as he is recognized by the Kiddie Keep Well Camp on the occasion of their 10th Annual Fall Gala. Mr. Tighe is truly deserving of the Camp's 2012 Civic Leader of Distinction honor.

Currently serving as President of the Central Labor Council of Middlesex and Somerset Counties, Mr. Tighe touts an impressive resume of experience with organized labor. Since his 5 year apprenticeship in the United Association of Plumbers and Pipefitters in 1971, Mr. Tighe has steadily become a vital leader of the labor organization, having served as President of Local 9 of Central New Jersey; an Executive Board Member and Trustee of the Pension, Welfare and Surety Fund; and head of the Mega Base Organizing Committee, among others. In addition to his roles within the union, Mr. Tighe is an active member in his community and throughout Middlesex County. He serves as a member of the Boy Scouts of America Executive Board of Central New Jersey Council; as Vice Chair of Middlesex County College Board of Trustees; and as a member of the Board of the Middlesex County Board of Social Services.

Additionally, Mr. Tighe has served as a Board Member of Kiddie Keep Well Camp for 13 years. Kiddie Keep Well Camp has served underprivileged children in Middlesex County for over 80 years. It is a place where children, who may not otherwise have been able to attend summer camp, can participate in activities and learn valuable life skills and lessons. Mr. Tighe's commitment to his community is evident in his service to the Kiddie Keep Well Camp.

Mr. Speaker, once again, please join me in congratulating Thomas Tighe on his 2012 Civic Leader of Distinction honor. Mr. Tighe's leadership roles and dedication to Middlesex County is truly deserving of this body's recognition.

HONORING THE KAISER SINGERS

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a remarkable group,

The Kaiser Singers. The Kaiser Singers have become a household name for many. Their music has stirred the spirits and hearts of music lovers both young and old.

The group was formed in 1968 by Mrs. Beatrice Kaiser and her daughters, Annie, Hattie and Estella. They had no idea that this would be the beginning of a lifelong inspiration. The group's early years of singing was done mostly in churches around their hometown of Yazoo City, Mississippi. During those years they sang a cappella, learning to make sweet harmony with their voices.

After their first year of singing, the group was joined by Mrs. Kaiser's sister, Francine, and then later by her youngest daughter, Linda. In the early 70's, Ms. Diane Jones and Ms. Christine Burns joined the Kaiser Singers for a short while and Ms. Jones became the group's first musician. Several years later Mrs. Kaiser's son, Mr. Walter Ross, and a friend, Mr. Jamel Barley, joined the group as their musicians for a few months.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the Kaiser Singers.

IN HONOR OF THE RETIREMENT OF LINDA SCHIMMEL

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Mr. Speaker, on the occasion of her retirement after nearly 36 years of federal service, I would like to recognize a member of the staff of the Congressional Budget Office: Linda Schimmel. Her last day with the agency will be this Friday, October 19. Linda Schimmel has spent almost all of her federal career as the Publications Coordinator at CBO, working for all eight of its directors as well as the several acting directors in between. In that role, she has provided exemplary and faithful service in distributing CBO analyses, making certain to get them into the hands of Members of Congress, Congressional and agency staff, and members of the public in a timely way. Her knowledge and hard work have meant that CBO's publications office has provided customer service to an extraordinary degree over the years, service that goes well beyond what is necessary and expected—to show real devotion to helping customers. For all that she has done, she has earned the admiration and affection of her colleagues at CBO and the gratitude of the U.S. Congress. I am wishing her well in her retirement.

THE DEATH OF MERVYN
DYMALLY

HON. LAURA RICHARDSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Ms. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, it is my regrettable duty to report the death of a personal hero and a great American, former Congressman Mervyn Dymally. Mr. Dymally died Sunday, October 7, 2012. He was 86. I was deeply saddened to learn about the passing of my dear friend Mervyn, known to his friends as Merv. I will remember him most for his tremendous work helping African Americans in California succeed in politics at all levels of government.

Merv served as a California assemblyman, state senator, and lieutenant governor and as a Member of Congress for over a decade. However, I will remember him for the role he played in providing leadership, political representation, and for his efforts to increase accessibility to health care in African American communities. He also was a champion for education, social justice, economic opportunity, and an enlightened U.S. policy toward Africa and the Caribbean. He was instrumental in establishing the nursing school at Charles Drew University, which is named after him.

In 2006, I had the great honor of serving with Merv in the California State Assembly. He was a trailblazer who opened doors and mentored the next generation of political leaders, myself included. Merv had the foresight to see the possibility of increasing African American representation in elective offices all around the country. Merv legitimized our efforts and succeeded by establishing the largest Legislative Black Caucus in California history, coined the "Divine Nine."

Just five short months into my first term as a state assemblywoman, Merv was one of the mentors who encouraged me to run for the seat vacated by the untimely passing of the late Congresswoman Juanita Millender McDonald. Merv and I often shared many conversations about how to best serve the people of the 37th Congressional District.

Merv was by my side again this year, working to educate the community on the importance of voting and preserving African American representation. Merv has been a steady guide throughout my political career and for that I am blessed for having known him and learned from him.

Merv was a great leader, mentor and friend and he will be sorely missed. I extend my prayers to his family, offer my willingness to assist, and say thank you for sharing life's most precious treasures: time, life and love of a political father to us all.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of Mervyn Dymally.

HONORING MS. KAREN DAVIS

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a remarkable gospel singer, Karen Davis. M. Davis was raised in a musical home in Mound Bayou, Mississippi by her parents Ms. Betsy Jackson and the late Joseph Jackson. Her mother a pianist has a gospel group called the Jackson Starlets formerly known as the Jackson Starters. At the age of 3 years old, Ms. Davis began singing in Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church choir and also at rehearsals with her mother's group. Ms. Davis was active in music classes in junior high and high school where she played the piano and sang with the school choir.

After marrying Mr. Terry Davis and moving to Shelby, Mississippi, she expanded her gospel singing and piano expertise by becoming Choir Director at Mount Layton Missionary Baptist Church in Ruleville, Mississippi, and Mount Moriah Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Ms. Davis has been a pianist for various churches and receives many invitations to sing at numerous Christian and civic events.

Ms. Davis' family lineage includes renowned blues legend Nellie "Tiger" Travis. Her ten siblings, Jorgen, Clinton, Patricia, Audrey, Debra, Metra, Glynis, Almata, Sonya and Bethina all sing and play the piano.

Ms. Davis believes gospel music is a ministry because it ministers to the soul of people. She has received many accolades from congregations and people who are fortunate to hear her sing. Her daughters, Sharita, Sharlette and Simone have developed a love for gospel music. Sharita sings alongside her mother at events and sings as a soloist.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Ms. Karen Davis as an inspirational gospel singer.

CONGRATULATING VETERINARY SERVICE INC. (VSI)

HON. JEFF DENHAM

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Mr. DENHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Veterinary Service Inc., VSI, which will be inducted as a member of the Stanislaus County Ag Hall of Fame "Legends in Agriculture" during a ceremony in Modesto, California, on November 8, 2012.

VSI is a success story some fifty-two years in the making. Headquartered in Modesto, VSI provides a diverse supply of animal health products. The company was founded in the late 1950's when Frank Sweetman, a local sales representative for a chemical supply company, invited two veterinarians, Dr. Willis Woodward and Dr. Donald Rosenberg, to join him in establishing an animal health and nutrition distributorship. John Pugliese then teamed up with Sweetman to form the new company's sales team. These four leaders' decision to band together would forever change their lives.

Poultry was a major focus for the company during its first 20 years. Dr. Woodward became a renowned poultry pathologist, spending much of his time developing innovative products for the poultry industry. The company gradually expanded its offerings from poultry nutrition, to feed additives, to sanitation products and more. As the company continued to succeed, it explored ways to expand the business to meet the needs of more agricultural industries. In 1979, John Scheuber was hired to be the General Manager for the company—which by this point, included locations in Modesto, Fresno, Perris and Petaluma. Soon thereafter, VSI expanded to the retail feed store business.

In the 1990's, the company set out on an ambitious expansion plan that included establishing a distribution center in Oregon. In 1995, VSI ventured in to dairy sales in the southern San Joaquin Valley; and four years later, it purchased Merced Dairy Supply to improve sales to dairies throughout Central California. Over the years, the dairy market has provided the company with great growth and
