

Arms Export Control Act, and the handling of the Iran-Contra Affair and aftermath of the attacks on September 11, 2001. Personally, Mr. Grimmatt's vast knowledge of the War Powers Resolution has been of immeasurable value to me throughout my tenure in Congress.

IN MEMORY OF JOSEPH PAUL
BROWN

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2012

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in memory of my good friend, Joseph Paul Brown, who passed away earlier this year at 86 years young.

Joe Brown was a devoted family man, a realtor and business leader, an avid sportsman, a philanthropist, a mentor, and a role model. A native Southern Californian, Joe traced his roots on his mother's side to the first citizens of California, who arrived in 1775 by crossing the Sonoran Desert with Captain Juan Bautista De Anza.

At age 17, Joe joined the U.S. Coast Guard to serve his country during World War II. After his discharge, he attended Loyola University and graduated in 1950 with a degree in engineering. That same year he married his childhood sweetheart, Lydia T. Brucklemeir. They were married for 57 years until her death in 2004.

In the mid-1950s, Joe began his career as a developer and builder with the Janss Corporation. Through the years he served as president of the Janss Realty Co., which he later purchased, and as a vice president of the Janss Corporation. As such, he assisted in the development of more than 10,000 acres in the Conejo Valley area. One of his first projects was to join in the efforts to bring outside water to the valley, which enabled the area's growth.

As a leader in the Conejo Valley community, Joe helped bring numerous businesses to the area, including the development of the Oaks Mall Shopping Center and the sale of 2,000 acres from the Janss Family to MGM Studios, which had planned to move its operations to the area. While at Janss, he was intimately involved in the planning, development, and marketing of Sun Valley, Idaho, Snowmass-at-Aspen, and Northstar at Tahoe.

But Joe was most proud of his efforts to make the Conejo Valley a great place to live, work, and play. In addition to his successes in business, Joe, a devout Catholic, devoted himself to those in need. He founded the Men's Advisory Board to Mary Health of the Sick and helped form Many Mansions. He was a founding member of the board of Ventura County Community Foundation and volunteered on numerous advisory boards and committees for the City of Thousand Oaks and La Reina High School. He also was a member of the Board of Regents, California Lutheran University.

In recognition of his many successes, Joe was bestowed an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from California Lutheran University.

For his devotion and assistance to the Archdiocese, Joe was knighted into the Order of St. Gregory, the Order of Malta, and the Order of the Holy Sepulcher.

In 2005, Joseph found love for the second time with Dolly Principe. Dolly and Joe had known each other since the 1970s through their competing real estate firms, and over the years had remained friends. Fate brought them together again, and they fell in love and married later that year.

Joe is survived by Dolly; his three children, Joseph A. Brown, Madeleine P. Brown and Mark J. Brown; 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; and many loving friends.

Mr. Speaker, Joseph Paul Brown was a longtime special friend and a talented businessman who was equally successful as a family man and philanthropist. I know my colleagues join me in remembering his great contributions to his community, and in extending our condolences to his family and many friends.

Throughout her tenure with CSEA, Mrs. Denihan has been an invaluable resource to my office in assisting our efforts to fulfill the needs of the residents of my district. Her dedication and intellect will be missed throughout the entire community.

IN RECOGNITION OF DR. ROBERT
M. FRANKLIN

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2012

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Dr. Robert M. Franklin, the tenth president of Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, in honor of his retirement after 5 years as head of the school. He will be honored at a reception on Friday, November 9, 2012, in Atlanta.

A native of Chicago, Dr. Franklin is an alumnus of Morehouse College. He also received a Master of Divinity degree from Harvard Divinity School in 1978 and a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago Divinity School in 1985. In 1973, he received an English Speaking Union scholarship to attend the University of Durham in England. Dr. Franklin is also the recipient of honorary degrees from Bethune Cookman University, Bates College, and Swarthmore College.

Before he was the President of Morehouse College, Dr. Franklin served as the Presidential Distinguished Professor of Social Ethics at Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He was also President of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta. In addition, he served as a program officer in the Human Rights and Social Justice Program at the Ford Foundation in New York.

Dr. Franklin is the author of three books: Crisis in the Village: Restoring Hope in African American Communities (2007), Another Day's Journey: Black Churches Confronting the American Crisis (1997), and Liberating Visions: Human Fulfillment and Social Justice in African American Thought (1989).

Mr. Speaker, Dr. Franklin has revolutionized Morehouse College in many ways during his five-year tenure as President. His vision for Morehouse College is that the institution will shape its students into Renaissance men who are well-educated and ethical leaders with a social conscience and committed to championing the causes of equality, justice and peace. During Dr. Franklin's tenure as President, Morehouse has continued to develop future leaders who are disciplined, altruistic, and wise.

Under Dr. Franklin's administration, Morehouse College has been recognized as the Nation's best liberal arts college by Washington Monthly and has been a recipient of more than $60 million in federal grants as well as a number of gifts from prestigious organizations and donors. Dr. Franklin has been instrumental in the school's plan for the internationalization of its campus, with a special emphasis on curriculum and study abroad experiences. Moreover, significant updates and renovations have been made to Graves Hall, the oldest building on campus, as well as many other structures. In 2010, the Ray Charles Performing Arts Center was dedicated and this state of the art facility now serves as the practice and performance space for the College's world renowned Glee Club; the Morehouse Jazz Band; Morehouse College Jazz Ensemble; and "House of Funk" Marching Band.

One of the many things I admire most about Dr. Franklin is his unfailing dedication to Morehouse College. After graduating from the school in 1975, he came back years later to lead Morehouse in its mission to develop men with disciplined minds who will lead lives of leadership, service and self-realization. And he is still not gone for good! After a sabbatical as a Scholar in Residence at Stanford University's Martin Luther King, Jr. Institute, Dr. Franklin will return to Morehouse College as President Emeritus and Distinguished Professor, the college's highest honor.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Dr. Robert M. Franklin for his 5 outstanding years as President of Morehouse College, my beloved Alma Mater. He has transformed the lives of countless young men and inspired them to become our future leaders.

HONORING COUNCIL MEMBER
LARRY VAN NOSTRAN

HON. LINDA T. SÁNCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 13, 2012

Ms. LINDA T. SÁNCHEZ of California. Mr. Speaker, it is with great sorrow that I announce the passing of Larry Van Nostran, who served the city of Lakewood for 37 years.

Larry was first elected to the Lakewood City Council in 1975. He is the longest serving council member in the city's history, and was serving his tenth term as a council member when he passed away Friday, November 9. During his 37 years on the council, he served as the Mayor of the city nine times.

Among Larry's most notable achievements was the founding of the Lakewood Youth Sports Hall of Fame in 1981 and its continued success for the past 30 years. The Hall of Fame has honored thousands of Lakewood youth during that time, and has helped promote a vigorous sports and recreational culture in the city. This strong tradition was nationally recognized by Sports Illustrated magazine, who named Lakewood "Sportstown USA" in 2004.

Larry was instrumental in helping create a high quality of life in Lakewood's neighborhoods and finding solutions to keep Lakewood's crime rate low. Larry began his service in Lakewood city government as a member of the Traffic and Safety Commission, and was a longtime member of the Public Safety Committee as a member of the city council. He firmly believed that there's not a more important value than keeping a community safe. He was a strong supporter of the Lakewood Award of Valor event, where public safety personnel, volunteers and residents are honored annually for their dedication, hard work and courage.

Larry was prominent in the development and expansion of senior services, which were scant before he was elected to the city council. Larry saw the initiation of Lakewood's DASH senior transit system and exercise and fitness programs at the city's two senior centers. He was also a champion of growing Lakewood's business and commercial base, which included modernizing the second largest shopping center in Los Angeles County, Lakewood Center Mall.

Larry was born in Seville, Ohio in 1933 and moved to Lakewood in 1958, just four years after the city was incorporated. He was active in Lakewood civic life for over 40 years, including membership in the Elks Club, Jaycees, Kiwanis Club, Lakewood Pan American Association, and Masonic Lodge & Scottish Rite.

As you are aware Mr. Speaker, many of our colleagues in city government have a fundamental impact on the lives of our constituents and they rarely get the recognition that they deserve. The city of Lakewood will miss Larry, and I stand with many in our community in sending my thoughts and prayers to his family. Thank you Mr. Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence for Larry Van Nostran, a true public servant, and I yield back the balance of my time.
