

throughout the community. Delta Days at Gary City Hall is a program that was created in order for chapter members to voice their concerns about issues affecting the community to the mayor, city council, and other elected officials. Every year, the Gary Chapter gives out five $1,000 scholarships to girls that attend Northwest Indiana schools. The mentoring program has been implemented to help students learn the importance of staying in school, setting goals, and making positive decisions. The Gary Alumnae Chapter contributes to the Maama Project, which supports efforts to help with the healthy and safe delivery of babies of women in Africa. For several years, the chapter has hosted a free Thanksgiving dinner feeding hundreds of people. There is so much that the chapter has accomplished over the years, and Northwest Indiana is not only proud but inspired by the good works of this outstanding organization.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the members of the Gary, Indiana, Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority for the exceptional contributions they have made to the city of Gary, Northwest Indiana, and throughout the world. I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in congratulating the Gary, Indiana, Alumnae Chapter on the organization's 75th anniversary.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE
CHARLES J. HYNES

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to celebrate and pay tribute to Charles J. Hynes for his important and respected commitment to his community as the District Attorney of Kings County.

Charles began his career in public service in 1963 as an associate attorney for the Legal Aid Society. In 1969, he joined the Kings County District Attorney's Office as an Assistant District Attorney. In 1971, he was named Chief of the Rackets Bureau and in 1973, he was promoted to First Assistant District Attorney.

In 1999, Mr. Hynes created the ComALERT, (Community And Law Enforcement Resources Together), public safety program which supports individuals on probation or parole as they re-enter their Brooklyn communities. In 2005, Mayor Michael Bloomberg and Mr. Hynes started a United States Department of Justice funded Family Justice Center—a one stop shopping service for victims of domestic violence and their surviving children.

Since 2000, District Attorney Hynes has served as a member of the American Bar Association. In 2008, he received the American Bar Association Award, "Lawyer as Problem Solver," and the "Cyrus R. Vance Tribute" from The Fund for Modern Courts. In 2009, he was given the Diversity Championship Award by The New York City Bar Association. On November 3, 2009, Charles J. Hynes was re-elected to his sixth term as the District Attorney of Kings County (Brooklyn), New York.

Mr. Hynes continues to demonstrate his commitment to public service and education by serving as an Adjunct Professor of Trial Advocacy at three New York City Law Schools. He was appointed to both St. John's and Brooklyn Law School in 1984, and Fordham University Law School in 1992.

Mr. Hynes is now spearheading a groundbreaking alternative-to-prison program for mothers and their children through a not-for-profit foundation named in honor of his mother, Regina Drew. The Drew Foundation is planning to operate the first residence of its kind in the country in which women will be permitted to remain with all of their children in a secure, community-based setting while receiving intensive trauma-focused, rehabilitative services.

District Attorney Hynes is a proud and lifelong resident of Brooklyn, where he was born and raised in the Flatbush section. He met his wife, Patricia L. Pennisi, a registered nurse, while they were undergraduate students. He attended St. John's University while she was at Kings County Hospital.

Mr. Speaker, I call on my colleagues to join me in recognizing the contributions and accomplishments of Mr. Charles J. Hynes.

NORTH MIAMI MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART

HON. FREDERICA S. WILSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Ms. WILSON of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the North Miami Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) for receiving a 2012 National Medal for Museum and Library Service, our nation's highest honor conferred on museums and libraries for community service. MOCA's record truly embodies the essence of this award.

In addition to being a world-renowned art institution, MOCA houses various programs that support the South Florida community. MOCA has made a difference in thousands of lives through programs that help to curb drop-out rates, improve literacy, empower women and promote good behavior. For example, through "Women on the Rise," MOCA trains local women artists to go into detention centers to teach female detainees how to express themselves through art. Furthermore, MOCA regularly hosts classes, workshops and seminars to promote lifelong learning.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in commending the North Miami Museum of Contemporary Art for having received a 2012 National Medal for Museum and Library Service and Director Bonnie Clearwater and her staff for their outstanding work.

IN HONOR OF ANDREW MICHAEL FREEMAN

HON. MIKE PENCE

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise to mark the passing of Andrew Michael Freeman, a combat veteran from the Hoosier state who recently earned an honorable discharge from the United States Army. As our nation paused on Veteran's Day to honor those men and women in uniform who have served our country, the community of Anderson sadly mourns the loss of one of their own.

Andrew graduated from Anderson High School in 2004. In January 2009, Andrew enlisted in the United States Army and soon thereafter served in the 2nd Stryker Cavalry Regiment. While serving in Afghanistan, Andrew earned numerous distinctions, including several Army Achievement Medals and other awards for his dedication and hard work.

Andrew is survived by his father and step-mother, Stephen and Stephanie; his mother, Christina; his siblings, Amanda, Monica and Justin; as well as his grandparents, Morris and Maurita Freeman, Nancy Lantz, Harold and Gertrude Granger and Judy Waymire. Andrew also leaves behind many friends and fellow servicemembers and I wish to extend my deepest condolences to all of those who mourn his passing, especially his beloved girlfriend, Heather Majors.

We are told to mourn with those who mourn, and grieve with those who grieve. As we mourn the passing of Andrew Michael Freeman, our thoughts and prayers will continue to be with his family.

HONORING REVEREND CHARLES EMERY

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure and admiration that I stand before you today to congratulate Reverend Charles Emery on his 34th anniversary as Pastor of Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church in Gary, Indiana. For his many years of dedicated service to the church and the surrounding community, he was honored at a celebratory banquet on Monday, October 15, 2012 at the Genesis Convention Center in Gary, Indiana.

Reverend Charles Emery was born in Madison County, Tennessee to W.A. and Macie Emery. Pastor Emery attended religious services throughout his childhood and accepted Christ into his life at the very young age of nine. While attending college in Tennessee, Pastor Emery chose to enlist in the United States Air Force. Throughout his military service, Pastor Emery felt he was being called into the ministry. Reverend Emery decided to pursue religious studies and was the first of his family to graduate from college. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Education from Toledo Bible School in Ohio and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Trinity Theological Seminary in Newburg, Indiana. He has also taken specialized courses in church administration, youth evangelism, and personal counseling at Moody Bible College of Chicago, Illinois. In 1968, Pastor Emery married his adoring wife, Willie Ruth Bonds, and they have four beloved children: Mary, Bernard, Victoria, and Kim.

In 1978, Reverend Emery became Pastor of Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church. Throughout the years, Pastor Emery has worked diligently to serve the members of the congregation, the community of Gary, and all of Northwest Indiana. Reverend Emery has served as President of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Gary and Vicinity, Vice President-at-Large for the General Missionary Baptist Convention of Indiana, Incorporated, teacher of the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Youth Division, President of the Gary Police Chaplain Association, and Secretary of the Gary/Chicago Airport Board. Currently, Reverend Emery serves as President of the General Missionary Baptist Convention of Indiana, Incorporated. He continues to work hard for people most in need and does not hesitate to get involved in the tough struggles that face the surrounding community. For his constant and passionate devotion to public service, Reverend Emery is worthy of the highest praise.

Mr. Speaker, Reverend Charles Emery is a man of God and a man concerned with creating a just society for his congregation, his community, and our nation. He has selflessly devoted his life to the service of others and it is an honor to consider Pastor Emery a friend. For his uncompromising dedication over the past 34 years, Reverend Emery is truly an inspiration to us all, and it is right to honor him today.

TRIBUTE TO CINDI VAN PETTEN

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute and to honor Cindi Van Petten, a highly motivated educator at The Dr. Ronald E. McNair, Public School 5, under the leadership of Principal Lena S. Gates and Assistant Principal Kesha Townsel. Ms. Van Petten has more than ten years of accomplishments in education and is fiercely committed to her students who call her Ms. Van. Under her watch, students have participated in debates, Meet Our Community Leaders Workshops, and participated in the Adelaide Sanford Institute Oratory Contest and Public School 5's first annual National Urban Alliance Literacy Workshop for Children, just to name a few. She believes that with the right formula every child can be successful by using innovative ways to meet the needs of all students and their learning styles.

Ms. Van Petten's devotion to education extends beyond the classroom as a participant in the Principal Aspiring Leaders Program through the Grapevine Network, sponsored by Margarita Nells, the network leader. Ms. Van Petten is a member of Caring Educators In Action, Inc. and is a member of the National Science Teacher Association, NSTA, and The City College of New York tech program where she conducts workshops in teaching engineering in elementary schools in Pennsylvania, Washington DC, California, and Texas. Ms. Van trains new teachers and mentors up and coming teachers helping them to blossom into great educators. As a member of the Adelaide Sanford Institute, she conducts parent workshop on new and exciting educational trends, especially the new common core curriculum in literacy and math. She gives back to her community by teaching GED classes through the Brooklyn Adult Learning Center. She is a member of The Brown Memorial Baptist Church over which Pastor Clinton Miller presides. On top of all that she is the mother of two beautiful children, Calynn and Caleb, IV. Her dedication to her craft is second to none.

Cindi Van Petten's philosophy about work can be found in a quote by John Ruskin: "Education . . . is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done in kindness, by watching, by warning . . . by praise, but above all, by example."

Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize Cindi Van Petten for her tremendous contributions to the community.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Cindi Van Petten.

IN RECOGNITION OF MR. JOHN CUBBA'S 25 YEARS OF SERVICE TO OUR COMMUNITY AS A LEADER IN MUNICIPAL FINANCE

HON. DAVID ALAN CURSON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. CURSON of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mr. John Cubba, Finance Director for the Charter Township of Redford, on his retirement. As a Member of Congress, it is both my privilege and honor to recognize Mr. Cubba for his many years of service and his contributions which have enriched and strengthened our community.

Mr. Cubba brings a lifetime of experience to his current position with the Charter Township of Redford, a career which began nearly 34 years ago on the finance staff in the city of Detroit. In November of 1987, Mr. Cubba was hired as the Finance Director for the Charter Township of Redford, and served with distinction in that position for the last 25 years. During a tenure which has seen many economic changes in the region, Mr. Cubba maintained a reputation of providing sound financial guidance which has promoted stability and progress in Redford Township.

Mr. Cubba believes in his community and has shown a commitment which has exceeded the years of his tenure as Finance Director. Mr. Cubba has been a long-time member of the Redford Rotary, and is a past President. He has volunteered his time in a broad array of capacities in community organizations including The Goodfellow's Paper Drive, St. Valentine's Parish, Catholic Central, the Michigan Municipal Risk Management Authority, the Government Finance Officers Association, the Michigan Townships Association, Boy Scouts, March of Dimes, and the Clean-up Redford Township Committee, among others. In addition to his service to the community, Mr. Cubba is the proud husband to his wife Candy, father to four sons and a daughter, and proud grandfather to nine grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today to honor Mr. John Cubba for his dedicated public service. I wish him many more years of health, happiness, and productive service to our community.

TRIBUTE TO CARMEN WARSCHAW

HON. HENRY A. WAXMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I join my colleague HOWARD BERMAN in paying tribute to our lifelong and dear friend, Carmen Warschaw. Carmen passed away on Election Day, November 6, a fitting day for an activist who viewed politics as a participatory sport, in which she was a master player as well as a passionate fan.

Carmen loved political gossip and good jokes. Her home was a veritable salon, where elected officials, old and new friends, and family members gathered for very good food and even better conversation and camaraderie.

She was literally woven into the tapestry of Democratic politics and the California State Party. Always a leader, Carmen attained recognition on the national stage but played a large role in shaping party politics on the state level.

Carmen and her college sweetheart and husband, Louis, who passed away in 2000, were truly a team to be reckoned with. They were actively involved in politics from their youth when the State of California was growing in Democratic representation. As leader of the state Democratic Party, Carmen played a central role as California's governor and legislature worked to create a model public education system with world famous universities, and highways and waterways that fed the thriving economy of the Golden State. She was a mentor, supporter, and strategy expert to a whole generation of politicians and public servants. She never shied away from taking sides and plunged wholeheartedly into the fray when she felt that those she had helped were not living up to her expectations.

Carmen's reach went much further than politics. She leaves a remarkable legacy of interest in and generosity to the Jewish community. She was an indispensable leader in the Jewish Federation, the Los Angeles Music Center and the Otis Art Institute.

Carmen and Lou also established the Carmen H. and Louis Warschaw Chair in Practical Politics at the University of Southern California, their alma mater. She established the Louis Warschaw Prostate Cancer Center at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center and they both also helped to establish the USC Casden Institute for the Study of the Jewish Role in American Life.

Carmen is survived by a large and loving family, her daughter Hope and son-in-law, John Law, her daughter Susan and son-in-law, Carl Robertson, and grandchildren Jack Law-Warschaw, Cara Robertson and Chip Robertson and great-grandchildren Louis Harvey Robertson and Rose Frances Harvey Robertson.

We ask our colleagues to join us as we celebrate and remember the legendary life of Carmen Warschaw.

CELEBRATING THE 36TH ANNUAL GALA OF THE ASIAN AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with sincere admiration that I recognize the Asian American Medical Association, which hosted its 36th Annual Gala on Saturday, November 3, 2012, at the Avalon Manor in Merrillville, Indiana. Each year, the Asian American Medical
